HENRY by the Grace of God King of England and France, and Lord of Ireland, the Sixth after the Conqueſt, at his Parliament holden at Weſtminſter the Ninth Day of July, the Three and thirtieth Year of his Reign, by the Advice and Aſſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons of his Realm of England, being in the ſame Parliament, and by Authority of the ſame Parliament, made and ordained certain Ordinances and Statutes, for the common Wealth of the ſame Realm, in the Form following.

CAP. I.

A Remedy for Executors againſt Servants that imbezzle their Maſters Goods after his Death.

IN primis prefatus Dominus Rex conſiderans qualiter jampridem diverſi ſervientes familiares tam dominorum quam aliarum perſonarum boni gradus cito poſt mortem dictorum dominorum & magiſtorum ſuorum bona que fuerunt ipſorum dominorum & magiſtrorum tempore mortis eorundem violenter & riotoſe ceperunt diſpoliaverunt & ea inter ſe diſtribuerunt in executionis voluntatis dictorum dominorum & magiſtrorum ſuorum impedimentum ac gravem Dei diſplicentiam nec non contra fidem & veritatem quas ipſi penes dominos & magiſtros ſuos habere debuiſſent exemplumque impoſterum valde periculoſum niſi debitum in ea parte provideatur remedium. Quamobrem idem dominus Rex de aviſamento aſſenſu & auctoritate predictis ordinavit & ſtabilivit quod poſt plenam informationem Cancellario Anglie pro tempore exiſtenti per executores aliquorum hujuſmodi dominorum ſive perſone aut duos eorundem executorum factam de aliqua hujuſmodi riota captura & diſpoliatione factis aut impoſterum faciendis per familiares ſervientes dicti teſtatoris ſui poſt mortem ſuam idem

FIRST, Our foreſaid Lord the King, conſidering, how that of late Time divers Houſhold-Servants, as well of Lords, as of other Perſons of good Degree, ſhortly after the Death of their ſaid Lords and Maſters, violently and riotouſly have taken and ſpoiled the Goods which were of their ſaid Lords and Maſters at the Time of their Death, and the ſame diſtributed amongſt them, to the Impediment of the Execution of the Will of their ſaid Lords and Maſters, and to the great Diſpleaſure of God, and alſo contrary to the Duty and Truth which they ought to have had towards their ſaid Lords and Maſters, and to a perilous Example in Time to come, unleſs due Remedy in this Behalf be provided. (2) Wherefore the ſame Lord the King, by the Advice, Aſſent, and Authority aforeſaid, hath ordained and eſtabliſhed, That after full Information made to the Chancellor of England for the time being, by the Executors of any ſuch Lord or Perſon, or two of the ſaid Executors, of ſuch Riot, Taking, and Spoil made, or hereafter to be made, by the Houſhold-Servants of their or his ſaid Teſtator after after his Death, the ſame Chancellor, by the Advice of the Chief Juſtices of the King's Bench, and of the Common Bench, and Chief Baron of the Exchequer for the time being, or two of them, ſhall have Power to make ſo many, and ſuch Writs, to be directed to ſuch Sheriffs by their Diſcretion, as to them in this Behalf ſhall ſeem neceſſary, to make open Proclamation in ſuch Cities, Boroughs, Towns, or Places, two Market-Days within Twelve Days next after the Delivery of the ſame Writs, as to the ſame Chancellor, by the Advice aforeſaid, ſhall ſeem reaſonable, That the ſaid Offenders ſhall appear before the ſame our Lord the King, or his Heirs, in his Bench, at ſuch a Day as by the ſaid Writ ſhall be limited, ſo that the ſaid laſt Proclamation be made by Fifteen Days before the ſame Day of Appearance; (3) and if any ſuch Writ be returned at the Day contained in the ſaid Writ, and the Writ be executed, that Proclamation is thereupon had and made according to the ſaid Ordinance, and then if the ſaid Perſon or Perſons, which ſhould appear by reaſon of the ſaid Proclamation, make Default at the Day ſpecified in the ſaid Writ, and do not appear, then he or they ſo making Default ſhall be attainted of Felony.

II. And if any ſuch Perſons or Perſon do appear at the ſame Day, then the Juſtices of the ſaid King's Bench ſhall have Power, by the ſaid Ordinance, to commit ſuch Perſon or Perſons, ſo appearing, to Priſon, there to remain according to the ſaid Juſtices Diſcretion, until the ſaid Offenders in the ſaid Bench do anſwer to the ſaid Executors in ſuch Actions, which the ſaid Executors will declare againſt them, or any of them, by Bill or by Writ, for the Riot, taking, and ſpoiling aforeſaid, and that the ſame Actions be determined; (2) ſo that the ſame Actions be purſued with Effect, and not ſlackly, to the Intent to keep the ſame Perſon or Perſons in Priſon.

A Goaler's Forfeiture for letting at Liberty a Priſoner committed to his Cuſtody by Force of this Statute.

III. And if ſuch Perſons or Perſon be ſet at Liberty out of Priſon by the ſaid Juſtices, that then the ſame Perſons or Perſon ſhall find ſufficient Perſons to be bounden with them to the ſaid Executors, by way of Recogniſance in the ſaid Bench, by Diſcretion of the Juſtices, to keep ſuch Days as he or they ſhall have by the ſame Court; (2) and if the Keepers of the Priſon, whereunto the ſaid Perſon or Perſons be committed, do let them go at large out of the Priſon of his own Authority, without the Conſideration and Order of the ſaid Juſtices, then the ſaid Keeper ſhall forfeit and loſe Forty [four hundred] Pounds to the ſaid Executors; (3) and that no Protection be allowed in any Action to be taken upon the ſaid Ordinance.

CAP. I.

The Length and Breadth of Cloths made to be ſold. No Cloths wrought beyond Sea ſhall be brought into England.

The Inconveniencies which have enſued to this Realm by the deceitful making of Cloth.

FIRST, Whereas many Years paſt, and now at this Day, the Workmanſhip of Cloths, and Things requiſite to the ſame, is and hath been of ſuch Fraud, Deceit, and Falſity, that the ſaid Cloths in other Lands and Countries be had in ſmall Reputation, to the great Shame of this Land; (2) and by Reaſon thereof a great Quantity of Cloths of other ſtrange Lands be brought into this Realm, and here ſold at an high and exceſſive Price, evidently ſhewing the Offence, Default, and Falſhood of the making of Woollen Cloths of this Land; (3) our ſaid Lord the King, for the Remedy of the Premiſſes, and to the Preferment of ſuch Labours and Occupations which have been uſed by the making of the ſaid Cloths, by the Advice, Aſſent, and Requeſt, and Authority aforeſaid, hath ordained and eſtabliſhed certain Statutes and Ordinances in Manner and Form enſuing. (4) Firſt, That every whole Woollen Cloth, called Broad Cloth, which ſhall be made and ſet to Sale after the Feaſt called Saint Peter ad Vincula, which ſhall be in the Year of our Lord M.CCCC.LXV. after the full watering and racking, ſtraining, or tenturing of the ſame ready to Sale, ſhall hold and contain in Length xxiv. Yards, and to every Yard an Inch, containing the Breadth of a Man's Thumb, to be meaſured by the Creſt of the ſame Cloth; and in Breadth ii. Yards, or vii. Quarters at the leaſt within the Liſts. (5) And if the ſaid Cloth be longer in Meaſure than the ſaid xxiv. Yards and the Inches, then the Buyer thereof ſhall pay to the Seller for as much as doth exceed ſuch Meaſure of xxiv. Yards, according to the Rate of the Meaſure above ordained.

The Length and Breadth of Broad Cloths. Rep. 5 & 6 Ed. 6. c. 6.

The Length and Breadth of Streits.

II. And it is enacted and eſtabliſhed by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Manner of Cloths called Streits, to be made and put to Sale after the ſame Feaſt, after the full watering and racking, ſtraining or tenturing thereof, ready to Sale, ſhall hold and contain in Length xii. Yards and the Inches, according to the Meaſure aforeſaid, and in Breadth one Yard within the Liſts.

The Length and Breadth of Kerſeys.

III. Alſo it is ordained and eſtabliſhed by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Cloth called Kerſey, to be made and put to Sale after the ſaid Feaſt, after the full watering, racking, ſtraining, or tenturing of the ſame ready to Sale, ſhall hold and contain in Length xviii. Yards and the Inches, as is afore ſaid, and in Breadth one Yard and a Nail, or at the leaſt One Yard, within the Liſts.

IV. Alſo it is ordained and eſtabliſhed by the Authority aforeſaid, That every half Cloth of every of the ſaid whole Cloths, Streits, and Kerſeys, ſhall keep his Meaſure in Length and Breadth according to the Rate, Form, and Nature of his whole Cloth aforeſaid. (2) And that no Perſon which ſhall make, or cauſe to be made, any Woollen Cloth to ſell after the ſaid Feaſts, ſhall mingle, or put in or upon the ſame Cloth, nor the Wooll whereof the ſaid Cloth ſhall be made, any Lambs Wooll, Flocks, or Cork, in any Manner, upon Pain to forfeit XXS. for every Cloth or half Cloth, wherein or whereupon any ſuch Lambs Wooll, Flocks, or Cork, ſhall be put or mingled; (3) the one Half thereof to be to the King, and the other half to him that will ſeiſe the ſame Cloth, and duly prove the ſame to be made contrary to this Ordinance: (4) But it ſhall be lawful for him to make Cloth of Lambs Wooll by itſelf, without mingling with any other Wooll; (5) except alſo that Cork may be uſed in dying upon woaded Wooll, and alſo in dying of all ſuch Cloth that is only made of woaded Wooll, ſo that the ſame Wooll and Cloth be perfectly boiled and madered; except alſo, that Cork may be put upon Cloth which is perfectly boiled and madered.

Half Cloths.

Lambs Wooll, Flocks, or Cork, ſhall not be put into Cloth but for certain Cauſes. By 7 Ed. 4. c. 2. Flocks may be put into Cloth in the Hundreds of Lifton, Taviſtock, and Rocksburgh in Devon.

V. And it is ordained and enacted, That every of the ſaid Cloths and half Cloths ſhall perfectly and rightly purſue and follow one Order of Workmanſhip from one End to the other, without Difference in the weaving, fulling, knotting, or burling; (2) and in caſe any ſuch Difference, or Raw or Skaw Coket or Fagge happen to be in any Part of the ſaid Cloths, Streits, or Kerſeys, that then a Seal of Lead thereſore ordained, and by the Treaſurer of England for the time being provided, ſhall be ſet and hanged in the loweſt Part of the Edge of the ſame Cloth, Streit, or Kerſey, for perfect Knowledge to be had to the Buyer thereof. (3) And that every of the ſaid Cloths, Streit, and Kerſey of the Length and Breadth aforeſaid, and alſo of the ſaid Perfection, ſhall be from the Feaſt of Saint Peter ad Vincula ſealed at the End of the ſame with a double Print in Lead, deviſed and ordained by the ſaid Treaſurer, in Teſtimony and Witneſs of the foreſaid true Length, Breadth, and Making. (4) And if any of the foreſaid Cloths, Streits, or Kerſeys, do not contain the foreſaid Length and Breadth, or be not of the perfect Workmanſhip aforeſaid, and the two Parts of the ſame Cloths, Streits, or Kerſeys, be of the true and perfect Workmanſhip aforeſaid, keeping their ſaid Length and Breadth, that then every ſuch Cloth, Streit, and Kerſey ſhall be ſealed with the ſaid Seals in the Form aforeſaid. (5) And that every half Cloth containing greater Length than the half Cloth, and leſs Length than the whole Cloth, of the Sorts of the Cloths aforeſaid, being of the ſame perfect Workmanſhip and Breadth, ſhall be ſealed with a Seal printed in Lead, having a Mark differing from both the Seals aforeſaid, in Teſtimony and Witneſs of the true Length, Breadth, and making of the half Cloth. (6) And if any Woollen Cloth of any Sorts of the Cloths before recited, perfectly made, and having Breadth after the Sort before limited, containing Three Yards and an Half, or more or leſs than the half Cloth, be put to Sale after the ſaid Feaſt; the ſame Cloth ſhall be ſealed with a Seal printed in Lead, having a Mark differing from any of the ſaid Seals, for a Knowledge to be had of the Default of the half Cloth; (7) the ſaid Seals to be deviſed Cloths ſhall perfectly purſue one Order of Workmanſhip.

A Seal of Lead ſhall be ſet upon faulty Cloth. Altered by 5 & 6 Ed. 6. c. 6.

Cloth lawfully made ſhall be ſealed with a double Print in Lead. Altered by 17 Ed. 4. c. 5.

Sealing of Cloth which is leſs than a whole Cloth, and longer than a half Cloth.

and ordained by the said Treasurer, and to be put at the End of every of the half Cloths, and Cloths less than half Cloths. (8) Also by the Advice, Assent, and Authority aforesaid, it is ordained and established, That the Treasurer of England for the time being, shall have Power and Authority to make such and as many Keepers of the said Seals, as he shall think necessary, so that no Stranger born be made any of the said Keepers. (9) And that every of the said Keepers so to be made, shall accompt yearly of the Revenues of their said Offices in the said Exchequer before the Treasurer of England, and the Barons there for the time being, duly shewing in the same Accompts the Number of the Cloths, Half Cloths, Streits, and Kerseys sealed by them, with the Names of the Owners of the same; (10) every of the same Keepers to be rewarded yearly at his said Accompt for his Labour and Diligence had in this Behalf at the Receipt of the said Exchequer, by the Discretion of the said Treasurer and Barons, without Payment of any Thing in the said Exchequer in or for the making of his said Accompt. (11) And in case any of the said Keepers do seal any of the aforesaid Cloths with any other Seal, or any of the same Cloths otherwise made than according to the Manner and Ordinance above specified, and that by sufficient Proof and Examination shewed and approved before the said Treasurer and Barons by the said Deposition, Testimony, and Witness of such sufficient Persons of good and due Reputation, which have had prompt Experience in weaving, fulling, and making of Cloths; or if the same Keeper do refuse to seal any of these Cloths, made according to the said Manner and Ordinance; or if any such Keeper or Aulneger do take after the said Feast, for the King, of any Person, for the sealing or measuring of any Sorts of Cloth, any other Sum of Money than is contained in the Statutes and Ordinances made before this Time, and not repealed; or if any such Keeper or Aulneger, after the said Feast, do refuse to shew his Commission of his Office to any Person desiring the same upon the sealing or measuring of any such Cloths before rehearsed; and that examined and duly proved, that then he, as often as he shall offend in any of the Premisses, shall forfeit the Sum of xx s. the one Half thereof to the King, and the other Half to the Party proving the said Offences therein by Suit to be made before the said Treasurer and Barons, by Bill of Debt in the said Exchequer, in which Bill like Judgement and Execution shall be had, as is accustomably had and used against other Accomptants in the same Exchequer. (12) And that these Statutes and Ordinances, and other Statutes and Ordinances made before this Time, and not repealed, concerning any of the Premisses, shall be contained and specified in every Commission to be made to every such Keeper or Aulneger after the said Feast. (13) Also whereas before this Time in the Occupations of Cloth-making, the Labourers thereof have been driven to take a great Part of their Wages in Pins, Girdles, and other unprofitable Wares, under such Price that it did not extend to, and also have delivered to them Woolls to be wrought by very excessive Weight, whereby both Men and Women have been discouraged of such Labour; (14) therefore it is ordained and established by the Authority aforesaid, That every Man and Woman being Cloth-makers, from the said Feast of St. Peter, shall pay to the Carders, Spinsters, and

The Ld. Treasurer shall make as many Keepers of the Cloth Seal as he will.

The Accompt of the Keepers of the Seal, and their Reward.

The Penalty of the Keeper of the Seal for omitting his Duty.

A Clothier shall pay to his Work-folks ready Money, and shall deliver them Wooll according to the Weight.

CAP. I.

For making of Worſteds.

Ex Rot. in Turr. Lond.

The Election, Oath, Authority, Searching and Sealing of the Wardens of Worſted-Weavers in Norwich and Norfolk.

FIRST, For that there be as well within the City of Norwich, as elſewhere within the County of Norfolk, divers Perſons which do make untrue Wares of all Manner of Worſteds, not being of the Aſſiſe in Length nor in Breadth, nor of good Stuff and right making as they ought to be, and of old time were accuſtomed, and the Sleyes and Yarn pertaining to the ſame not well made and wrought, in great Deceit as well of Denizens as of Strangers inhabiting or repairing to this Realm, which have uſed and do uſe to buy ſuch Merchandiſes, truſting that they were within as they ſeemed without, where indeed it is contrary: (2) And for that the Worſteds in Times paſt were lawfully wrought, and Merchandiſe well liked, and greatly deſired and eſteemed in the Parts beyond the Sea; now becauſe they be of no right making, nor good Stuff, they be reported and eſteemed deceitful and unlawful Merchandiſe, and of little Regard, to the great Damage of our Lord the King, and great Prejudice of his loyal Subjects. (3) Our ſaid Lord the King, by the Aſſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and at the Requeſt of his Commons being in the ſaid Parliament, and by the Authority of the ſaid Parliament, for the Wealth of his People, and the perpetual Amendment of the ſaid Worſteds, and eſchewing and avoiding all Manner of Deceits to be done and wrought in Worſteds by them that work the ſame, and are the Means thereof, hath ordained and eſtabliſhed,

Four Wardens of Worſted Weavers in Norwich, and other four in Norfolk. Altered by 13 & 14 Car. 2. c. 5. ſ. 2.

The Length and Breadth of Pieces of Worſted.

Wardens may ſeiſe defective Stuff.

III. And that the ſaid Mayor and Steward, and every of them, by Twelve of the diſcreet Artificers of the ſaid City and County, ſhall have Power at all Times to inquire, hear, and determine of all ſuch as do againſt the ſaid Ordinances within the ſaid City or County. (2) And moreover, in eſchewing all ſuch Deceits and Falſhoods which might happen to be wrought and done in the ſaid Craft by the Eight Wardens aforeſaid, or betwirt themſelves only, or in concealing of the falſe Workmanſhip of other of the ſaid Artificers in the ſaid City and County, that the Mayor of the ſaid City for the time being, and the ſaid Steward, or one of them, at ſuch Time as he ſhall think convenient, ſhall call before him the ſaid Twelve Artificers, or the greateſt Part of them, and charge them to be ſworn to make rightful Search, as well in the Stuff, as in all the working of the Worſted by the ſaid Eight Wardens hereafter to be wrought and made.

The Mayor, Steward, &c. may enquire of, hear, and determine Offences.

Twelve Artificers ſhall inquire of the eight Wardens.

IV. And that the ſaid Wardens ſo found defective either in Execution of their Office in Search of all other of the ſame Artificers within the ſaid City and County, or elſe in their own Stuff, or Workmanſhip, ſhall be corrected by the ſaid Mayor or Steward, in ſuch Form as other Offenders of the ſame Craft ought of right to be corrected. (2) And that the ſaid Wardens, and every of them, in every Part of the ſaid City of Norwich, and elſewhere in the Counties of Norfolk, Suffolk, and Cambridge, at all Times convenient, ſhall have Power to ſearch all Manner of Worſteds, and the Stuff of them, as well within the Looms, as out of the Looms, wrought within the ſaid City of Norwich, or County of Norfolk.

Every Man ſhall ſet his proper Mark upon his Worſted.

VI. Moreover, for the full Reformation of the Deceits and Falſhoods above rehearſed, by Authority aforeſaid it is ordained and enacted, That the ſaid Eight Wardens, the ſaid Monday next after Corpus Chriſti, yearly, incontinently after their Charge above recited before the ſaid Mayor and Steward, or one of them, ſhall aſſign incontinently a certain Place, or two, within the ſaid City, and certain Days by the Week, and another certain Place, or two, or more, if they think it neceſſary, in the ſaid County of Norfolk, and certain Days by the Week for the Year then next following, to the Intent that every Piece of Worſted, which in the ſame Year ſhall be ſet to Sale, ſhall be brought before the Wardens of the ſaid Craft for the time being, to one of the ſaid Places ſo by them aſſigned, to the Intent, that as well the Artificers of Worſteds, and the ſaid Wardens, may certainly know the Place where the ſaid Worſteds may duly and rightfully be ſearched. (2) And if the ſaid Wardens find the ſaid Worſteds by their Search well and lawfully made, that then ſuch a Mark or Token ſhall be ſet by the ſaid Wardens, or by one of them, without Fine or Fee, upon the ſame, ſo that all Buyers may well know which Piece is ſufficiently and rightfully ſearched and wrought; and that the ſaid Search ſhall as well extend to the Stuff of the ſame, as to the ſufficient making: (3) And ſuch as they ſhall find defective, that the Mayor of the ſaid City, and Steward of the ſaid Dutchy, or one of them for the time being, by the Aſſent of the ſaid Wardens and Twelve Artificers, ſhall have Power by this Act to ſet therein ſuch Correction as to them ſhall ſeem reaſonable; and for every Piece of Worſted ſold, not marked after the Form aforeſaid, That the firſt Seller thereof ſhall forfeit the Price of the Piece ſo by him ſold, to our Lord the King; (4) and that all Ordinances, Acts and Grants made or to be made in Prejudice, or contrary to the Premiſſes concerning Worſteds, be void, and of none Effect.

Places of Search ſhall be appointed and alſo Days.

Wardens ſhall ſet their Mark.

All Officers ſhall be attendant upon the Searchers.

CAP. I.

For Returns of Sheriffs.

FIRST, Whereas by a Statute made at Weſtminſter, in the Twenty third Year of the Reign of King HENRY, late in Deed, and not of Right, King of England, called King HENRY the Sixth, it was ordained, That no Sheriff ſhould occupy his Office of Sheriff above a Year, upon Pain of Two hundred Pounds; (2) except certain Perſons in the ſaid Statute excepted, as in the ſame is more plainly ſpecified: (3) Divers and many of the King's liege People have been grievouſly indamaged, and greatly delayed of their Suits and Proceſſes every Year, in the Term called Michaelmas Term, as for their Actions, Writs, and Precepts to be returned within the ſame Term, after the Sixth Day of the Month of November, becauſe that the King's Letters Patents whereby any Sheriff is made, do moſt commonly bear Date the Sixth Day of November, (4) and though it ſo be, that the new Sheriffs be yearly choſen the Morrow after the Feaſt-day of All-ſouls, of which new Sheriffs, ſo choſen and appointed, divers of them have refuſed, and divers of them have not had their Patents, nor taken their Oath, until long Time after the End of the ſaid Michaelmas Term, by Reaſon whereof divers of the King's liege People and Subjects be greatly indamaged and delayed of their Suits, Proceſſes, and Precepts, which ſhould be returnable in the King's Courts at the Days of the Return within the ſame Term, after the Sixth Day of November, that is to ſay, at the Days of Return called Craſtino Martini, Octabis Martini, and Quindena Martini, becauſe that the old Sheriffs durſt not, nor would not take upon them to return any Writ or Precept after the Year that his Patent did bear Date, for Fear of the Penalty contained in the aforeſaid Statute, to the great Loſs, as well to the King of that which ſhould grow to him by Reaſon of the ſaid Proceſs, as to his liege People, by Delays which they thereby ſuſtain. (5) It is ordained by Authority of the foreſaid Parliament, That if any Sheriff of any County do execute or return any Writ, Precept, or Warrant in any of the ſaid Courts of the King, within the ſaid Term called Michaelmas Term, after the Sixth Day of November, and before any Writ of Diſcharge delivered to him of his occupying of Sheriffwick, he ſhall not be damnified by Force of the ſaid Statute, nor charged of the Penalty aforeſaid, although that he hath occupied the Office of Sheriff after any of the ſaid Days of Return called Craſtino Martini, Octabis Martini, or Quindena Martini.

PRimerement, pur ceo qe per eſtatuit fait a Weſtm' en lan du reigne du Roy HENRY jadys en fait & nient de droit Roy Dengleterre, appellez le Roy HENRY le vj^e. puis le conqueſt xxiij. eſtoit ordeigne, qe null viſcount occupieroit ſon office de viſcount ouſtier un an, ſur payne ne CC. li. except certeins perſons en meſme leſtatuit exceptz, come en ycelle eſt pluis pleynement eſpecifiez; diverſez & pluſours dez liegez du Roy ount eſtez grevouſment endamages & graundement delaiez de lour ſuitez & proceſſez cheſcune an en le terme appellez Michel terme, come pur lour actions briefs & preceptz deſtre retournez deinz meſme le terme apres le vj^e. jour du mois de Novembr', pur ceo qe lez lettres patentz du Roy, per les quels aſcune tiel viſcount eſt fait, portent date pluis communement le vj^e. jour de Novembre; & communement qil ſoit, qe novels viſcountz ſoient annuelment eſlieux en lendemayn dez toutz almez, de les quelx novelx viſcountz iſſint eſlieux & appointez diverſez de eux ount refuſez, & diverſez de ceux nount mye ewez lour patentz, ne preignez lour ſerement, jeſques long temps apres le fine del dit Michell terme: pur quoy pluſours liegez & ſubgietz du Roy ſount graundement endamages & delaiez de lour proceſſez & preceptz, qe ſerrount retournablez en lez Courtz du Roy as les jours del retourne deinz meſme le terme apres le vj^e. jour de Novembr', ſcilicet as les jours del retourne appellez Craſtino Martini, Octabis Martini, & Quindena Martini, pur cauſe qe les veelez viſcountz noſent ne voillent prendre ſur eux de retourner aſcune briefe ou precept apres lan qe ſon patent port date, pur paour del peyne en le avauntdit eſtatuit conteignuz, a graund perde, ſibien a Roy de ceo qe luy accreſceroit per reaſon de lez ditz proceſſez, come a ſon liege poeple per delaiez qils ount per ycell: ſy eſt il ordeignez per lauctorite du dit parlement, qe ſi aſcune viſcount daſcun countee execute ou retourne aſcune briefe precept ou warant en aſcuns des Courtz du Roy deinz le dit terme appellez Michell terme, apres le vj^e. jour de Novembr' & devaunt aſcune briefe de diſcharge deliverer a luy de ſa occupation de viſcount, ne ſoit endamage per force du dit eſtatuit, ne del peyne avauntdit ſoit charge; tout ſoit il, qe celluy ad occupie loffice de viſcount per lan, quaunt pur aſcuns de les ditz jours de retourne appellez Craſtino Martini, Octabis Martini, ou Quindena Martini.

A Sheriff being not diſcharged, may occupy his Office during Michaelmas Term, notwithſtanding the Statute of 23 H. 6. c. 8. Dyer, f. 355. 17 Ed. 4. c. 6.

An Act for Wears and Fiſhgarthes.

The Penalty of them that do not perform the Award and Order of Commiſſioners authorized to pull down Wears.

ITEM, Whereas by the laudable Statute of Magna Charta, amongſt other Things it is contained, That all Kedels by Thamiſe and Medway, and throughout the Realm of England, ſhould be taking away, ſaving by the Sea-banks, (2) which Statute was made for the great Wealth of all this Land, in avoiding the Straitneſs of all Rivers, ſo that Ships and Boats might have in them their large and free Paſſage, and alſo in Safeguard of all the Fry of Fiſh ſpawned within the ſame; (3) upon which Magna Charta, the great Sentence and apoſtolick Curſe, by a great Number of Biſhops was pronounced againſt the Breakers of the ſame, and the ſame Sentence is Four Times in the Year openly declared, according to the Law of the holy Church; (4) and in Affirmance of the ſaid Statute of the Great Charter, divers Statutes have been after made and ordained, amongſt which, in a Parliament holden in the Firſt Year of the uſurped Reign of King HENRY the Fourth, it was recited, That in the Twenty fifth Year of King EDWARD the Third, Progenitor of our Lord the King that now is, becauſe that the common Paſſages of Ships and Boats in the great Rivers of England were oftentimes diſturbed by levying of Wears, Mills, Millſtanks, Stakes, and Kedels, to the great Damage of the People, (5) it was ordained and eſtabliſhed, That all ſuch Wears, Mills, Millſtanks, Stakes, and Kedels, which were levied and ſet up in the Time of King EDWARD, Son of King HENRY, and after, in ſuch Rivers (whereby the Ships and Boats were diſturbed that they could not paſs as they were wont) ſhould be taken away, and broken down, never to be ſet up again; (6) and that Writs ſhould be thereupon ſent to the Sheriff of ſuch Places where Need ſhould be, to ſurvey and inquire, and the ſame to execute; (7) and that Juſtices ſhould be thereto aſſigned at all Times when Need requireth. (8) And after grievous Complaint, both of great Men, and of the Commons thereupon made in the Parliament of the ſaid King EDWARD the Third,

ITEM come per le laudable eſtatuit de Magna Carta entre autres choſes eſt ordeigne, qe toutz Kidelx per Thameſe & Medewey & per tout le Roialme Dengleterre ſerroient ouſtiez, ſinoun per les cooſtez del mear. Quele eſtatuit fuiſt fait pur graund bien de tout ceſt terre, en ouſtant lez ſtreitures dez toutz rivers, enſi qe lez niefs & bateulx avraient en yceux lour fraunk & large paſſage, & auxi en ſalvation de tout frye de peſſon procreez en lez meſmes. Sur quele Magna Carta graund ſentence & Apoſtolike dexcommengement per graund noumbre dez Eveſquez encountre lez fractours dicelle eſtoit pronuncie, & meſme la ſentence quatre foitz en lan appertement eſt declarez, a la ley ſeinte eſgliſe accordaunt. Et en affirmance du dit eſtatuit de Magna Carta diverſez eſtatuitz depuis ount eſte faitz & ordeignez, entre queux en un parlement tenuz lan primer del uſurpe Reigne du Roy HENRY le iiij^te. eſtoit recite, qe en lan xxv^e. du Roy EDWARD le tierce, progenitour noſtre dit Seignur le Roy qoreſt, pur ceo qe lez C[illegible]munes paſſagez dez niefs & bateux en lez graundes rivers Dengleterre furent ſi ſovent foitz diſtourbez, par lever dez gorcez molyns, eſtankes, eſtakes & kideux, en graunde damage du people; accordes fuit & eſtablies, qe toutz tielx gorces, molyns, eſtankes, eſtakes, et kideux, queux furent levez & miſez en temps le Roy E. Fitz le Roy HENRY, & depuis, en tielx rivers, per queux lez niefs & bateux furent diſtourbez, qils ne puiſſent paſſer come ils ſoloient, ſerroient ouſtez & nettement abatuz ſaunz eſtre relevez; & qe briefs ſerroient ſur ceo maundez as viſcountz dez lieux, ou meſtier ſerroit, de ſurveier & enquerer, & de faire ent execution: Et auxi qe Juſtices ſerroient ſur ceo aſſignez, as toutz les foitz qil buſoigneroit: Et apres ceo ſur grevous compleint dez graundez & dez Communes fait en le parlement du dit Roy E. le tierce, lan de ſon reigne xlv^e.

xlv^e^. compleignauntz per lour petition, qe le dit eſtatuit neſtoit pas duement executez, ne gardes, ſolonqe leffect dicelle, accordez fuiſt & eſtabliez, qe le dit eſtatuit en cell point ſerroit tenuz & gardez, ſolonqe leffect dicelle; ajouſtant a ycelle, qe ſi aſcun tiel anuſaunce fuiſſet fait, ſerroit abatuz per due proceſſe conteignuz en le dit eſtatuit; & celluy qe ferroit relever le dit anuſaunce, & de ceo ſoit duement atteint, encourgeroit la peyne de C. marcs, devers noſtre Seignur le Roy, a levers per les eſtreites del Eſchequer; et que meſme la ley ſerroit tenuz danuſaunce fait per le enhauncer de lez ditz gorces, molyns, eſtankes, eſtakez, & kideux, come per novel lever; come en lez ditz eſtatuitz pluis pleinement appiert. Et lors a la requeſte des ditz Communes, monſtrantz per lour petition, qe les communes paſſages dez niefs & bateux en les graundez rivers Dengleterre, et auxint prees & paſtures & terres ſemez adjoignauntz as ditz rivers, furent graundement diſtourbez, ſurroundez, gaſtez, & deſtruitz, per les outrageous enhaunſer & eſtraiture dez gorcez, molyns, eſtankes, eſtakez, & kideux, auncienement faitz & levez devaunt le temps du dit Roy E. fitz au Roy HENRY, dount graundes damages & perdez ſovent foitz euſſent aveignuz au poeple du Roialme, et aviendrent de jour en autre, ſi remedie ne feuſſet ent miſe.

Accordez eſt & eſtablie, del aſſent du dit parlement tenuz lan primer du dit pretenſe Roy HENRY iiij^te^. qe lez ditz eſtatuitz ſoient en toutz lour articlez tenuz & fermement gardez, & duement executz; adjouſtant a ycelle, qe commiſſions ſoient faitz en due fourme as ſufficeantz perſonez, deſtre Juſticez en cheſcune countee Dengleterre ou buſoigne ſerra, de ſurveier & garder lez eawez & graundez Ryvers illeoſquez, & lez defautez corriger & amender, & ent due execution faire, per les ditz eſtatuitz ſolonqe leffect dicelles; ſibien per lour ſurveu, advys, & diſcretion, come per les enqueſtez ent apprendrez, deins fraunchiſe & dehors, cy & quaunt buſoigne ſerra, & doier & terminer les choſes ſuiſditz; et ouſtre ceo, de ſurveier les gorces, molyns, eſtankes, eſtakez, & kideux, auncienment faitz & levez devaunt le dit temps du Roy E. fitz au Roy HENRY, & ceux qils trovent trop enhauncez, ou eſtraitez, de les corriger, abater, & amender, en les maner & fourme deſuiſditz.

Sauvant toutz foitz reſonable ſubſtaunce de les gortz, molyns, eſtankez, eſtakez, & kideux ſuiſditz, iſſint auncienment faitz & levez; & ſi aſcune tiel anuſaunce des gortz, molyns, eſtankez, eſtakez, & kideux, en deſtourbaunce de les paſſagez, & eſtraiturez auncienment faitz & levez, ſoient ajuggez ou conſiderez per les ditz Juſtices deſtre abatuz ou amendez, ceſtuy qi ad frank tenement dicelles ferra ent execution de ſes coſtagez deins un demy an apres notification a luy ent affaire, ſur peyne de forfaiture de C. marcs, a paiers a noſtre Seignur le Roy per eſtretes en leſchequer: & celluy qi les face relever, enhauncer, ou eſtreiter, encountre le dit jugement, & de ceo duement convicte, encourge la peyne de C. marcs a paiers a noſtre Seignur le Roy per eſtretes en leſchequer ſuiſdit; come en meſmes les eſtatuitz pluis pleynement appiert: Encountre quele Magna Carta & toutz les eſtatuitz avauntditz, en diverſez partiez de ceſt Roialme Dengleterre, en deſtruction de peſſon come avauntdit, & en deſtourbaunce de les paſſages de les niefs, bargez, bateux, & autres veſſeaulx diverſez & pluſours gortz, fiſhgarthez, molyns, milledammes, eſtankes de molyns, lokkes, hebbyngweres, eſtakes, kideux, hekkes, flodegatez, & diverſez autres diſtourbauncez, de jour en autre ſount faitz, levez, enhauncez, & enlargez, a graund damage noſtre in the Five and fortieth Year of his Reign, ſhewing by their Petition, that the ſaid Statute was not duly executed nor obſerved according to the Form and Effect thereof; it was accorded and eſtabliſhed, That the ſame Statute in that Point ſhould be holden and kept according to the Tenor of the ſame; (9) adjoined thereto, that if any ſuch Annoyance be done, that the ſame be broken down by due Proceſs contained in the ſaid Statute, (10) and that he which again doth levy ſuch Annoyances, and be thereof duly attainted, ſhall run in the Pain of an C. Marks to our Lord the King, to be levied by the Eſtreats of the Exchequer: (11) The ſame Law ſhall be holden of Annoyance made by the enhanſing of the ſaid Wears, Mills, Millſtanks, Stakes, and Kedels, as by new levying, as in the ſaid Statutes more plainly appeareth. (12) And then at the Requeſt of the ſaid Commons, ſhewing by their Petition, that the common Paſſages of Ships and Boats in the great Rivers of England, and alſo Meadows and Paſtures, and arable Lands adjoining to the ſaid Rivers, were greatly diſturbed, drowned, waſted, and deſtroyed by the outragious enhanſing and ſtraiting of Wears, Mills, Millſtanks, Stakes, and Kedels, made in old Time, and levied before the Time of the ſaid King EDWARD, Son to the ſaid King HENRY, whereby great Loſs and Damage often enſued to the People of the Realm, and daily would enſue, if Remedy were not provided.

II. Wherefore it was ordained and enacted by the Aſſent of the ſaid Parliament, holden the Firſt Year of the ſaid pretenſed King HENRY the Fourth, That the ſaid Statutes in all their Articles ſhould be obſerved, firmly kept, and duly executed; (2) adjoining thereto, that Commiſſions ſhould be made in due Form to ſufficient Perſons to be Juſtices in every County of England, where Need ſhould be, to ſurvey and keep the Waters and great Rivers there, and to correct and amend the Faults, and to make due Execution by the ſaid Statutes, according to the Effect of the ſame, (3) as well by their Survey, Advice, and Diſcretion, as by Inqueſts to be taken thereof within Franchiſe and without when Need ſhall be, and to hear and determine all thoſe Things aforeſaid; (4) and moreover to ſurvey the Wears, Mills, Millſtanks, Stakes, and Kedels made in old Time, and levied before the ſaid Time of King EDWARD, Son to King HENRY; and ſuch as they find too much enhanſed or ſtraited, to correct, break down, and amend in the Manner and Form aforeſaid.

III. Saving always a reaſonable Subſtance of the ſame Wears, Mills, Millſtanks, Stakes, Kedels, ſo made in old Time and levied. (2) And if any ſuch Annoyances of Wears, Mills, Millſtanks, Stakes, and Kedels, in letting of the Paſſages and ſtraiting, made in old Time and levied, be judged or conſidered by the ſaid Juſtices to be broken down or amended, he that hath the Freehold of the ſame ſhall do Execution thereof at his own Coſts, within half a Year after Knowledge given to him, upon Pain of Forfeiture of an hundred Marks, to be paid to our Lord the King by Eſtreats in the Exchequer; (3) and he that doth levy them again, enhanſe, or ſtrait them contrary to the ſaid Judgement, and thereof be duly convict, ſhall run in pain of an hundred Marks, to be paid to our Lord the King by Eſtreats in the Exchequer aforeſaid, as in the ſame Statutes more fully appeareth. (4) Contrary to which Great Charter, and all the Statutes aforeſaid, in divers Parts of this Realm of England, both in the deſtroying of the Fiſh, as afore is ſaid, and in Diſturbance of the Paſſages of Ships, Barges, Boats, and other Veſſels, by divers and many People divers Fiſhgarths, Mills, Milldams, Millſtanks, Locks, ebbing Wears, Stakes, Kedels, Hecks, or Floodgates, and divers other Diſturbances, be daily enhanſed, levied, and enlarged, to the great Damage of our Lord the King, and of his faithful Lieges: (5) Our ſaid Lord the King graciouſly conſidering the Premiſſes, by the Advice and Aſſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and at the Requeſt of the ſaid Commons, in this Parliament aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, hath ordained and eſtabliſhed, That the ſaid Statute of the Great Charter, and all other Statutes concerning the Premiſſes, ſhall be duly obſerved and kept; (6) adjoined thereto, That if after the Feaſt of St. Michael, which ſhall be in the Year of our Lord God 1475, by Award, Rule, or Judgement of any of the ſaid Commiſſioners aſſigned, according to the ſaid Statute made in the ſaid Firſt Year of King HENRY the Fourth, it be found that any ſuch Wears, Fiſhgarths, Mills, Milldams, Millſtanks, Locks, ebbing Wears, Stakes, Kedels, Hecks, or Floodgates, be made, levied, enhanſed, ſtraited, or enlarged, againſt the ſame Statute, the Offenders in this Behalf contrary to the foreſaid Award, Rule, and Judgement, being duly warned by the Sheriff or Sheriffs, by Scire facias directed to the Sheriff or Sheriffs of ſuch County or Counties where ſuch Wears, Fiſhgarths, Mills, Milldams, Millſtanks, and other Noyances, Diſturbances, or Impediments be, and within Three Months next after the ſaid Garniſhment made, they do not duly and wholly amend, break down, and avoid the ſaid making, levying, enhanſing, ſtraiting, or enlarging, being defective, as afore is ſaid in the ſaid Statute made in the ſaid Firſt Year, that then he or they, being defective in this Behalf, ſhall forfeit to our Lord the King an hundred Marks, to be paid by Eſtreats in the Exchequer in Manner and Form as in the ſame Statute more fully is contained.

A Confirmation of all Statutes made for the pulling down of Wears. 10 Co. 138.

The Penalty of an Offender that doth not perform the Award of Commiſſioners authorized by the Statute of 1 H. 4. c. 12.

The Penalty of him which doth continue in his Offence, or doth delay to reform it.

IV. Moreover, if the ſaid Offender, or his Heir or Heirs, Aſſignee or Aſſignees, or any of them, do defer or continue the ſame Default, contrary to the Award, Rule, or Judgement of the Commiſſioners aforeſaid, that he or they ſo doing, deferring, or continuing the ſaid Default, ſhall forfeit for every Month after the ſaid Three Months ended, that the ſame Default ſhall remain, and be not corrected, amended, nor reformed, an C Marks, (2) the one Half thereof to our Lord the King, and the other Half to any of his liege People which in this Behalf will ſue for the ſame, (3) by Action of Debt to be conceived by original Writ, without Fine to be made or taken for the ſame in the Chancery.

V. In which Action, like Proceſs, Rule, Judgement, and Execution ſhall be allowed, had, and made, as is uſed in other Actions of Debt purſued at the common Law by Writ; (2) and that the Defendant in any ſuch Action be not admitted to do or wage his Law, (3) nor that any Protection, or Eſſoin of the King's Service be allowed for the Defendant in the ſame Writ.

The Penalty of the Heir or Aſſignee of the Offender that continueth the ſame Offence.

ITEM, Whereas in divers Parts of this Realm great Damage hath been, and daily is, and by likelihood in time to come will much increaſe, for default of true, ſeaſonable, and ſufficient making, whiting, and anealing of Tile, called Plain Tile, otherwiſe called Thak-tile, Roof-tile, or Creſ-tile, Corner-tile, and Gutter-tile, made and to be made within this Realm: (2) Our Lord the King (the Premiſſes conſidered) for the general Profit of this Realm, by the Advice of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and at the Requeſt of the Commons, in the ſaid Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, hath ordained and eſtabliſhed, That all and every Perſon or Perſons, which hereafter ſhall uſe the Occupation of making of any ſuch Tile as before is ſaid, ſhall make it good, ſeaſonable, able, and ſufficient, and well whited and anealed. (3) And that the Earth whereof any ſuch Tile ſhall be made, ſhall be digged and caſt up before the Firſt Day of November next before that they ſhall be made, and that the ſame Earth be ſtirred and turned before the Firſt Day of February then next following the ſame digging and caſting up, and not wrought before the Firſt Day of March next following; and that the ſame Earth before it be put to making of Tile, be truly wrought and tried from Stones; (4) and alſo that the Veins called Malm or Marle, and Chalk, lying commonly in the Ground near to the Land convenient to make Tile, after the digging of the ſaid Earth whereof any ſuch Tile ſhall be made, ſhall be well lawfully and truly ſevered and caſt from the Earth whereof any ſuch Tile ſhall be made. (5) And that every ſuch plain Tile ſo to be made, ſhall contain in Length Ten Inches and half, and in Breadth Six Inches and a Quarter of an Inch, and in Thickneſs half an Inch and half a Quarter at the leaſt. (6) And that every ſuch Roof-tile or Creſ-tile ſo to be made, ſhall contain in Length Thirteen Inches, and the Thickneſs of half an Inch and half a Quarter at the leaſt, with convenient Deepneſs according. (7) And that every Gutter-tile and Cover-tile to be made, ſhall contain in Length Ten Inches and an half, with convenient Thickneſs, Breadth, and Deepneſs according. (8) And if any Perſon or Perſons ſet to Sale to any Perſon or Perſons any ſuch Tile above ſpecified, made or to be made contrary to the ſaid Ordinance, then the Seller thereof ſhall forfeit to the Buyer of the ſame the double Value of the ſame Tile, and beſides that, ſhall make Fine and Ranſom to the King at his Will. (9) And that every Perſon that feeleth himſelf grieved, and will ſue in this Behalf, ſhall have an Action of Debt againſt the Offenders, wherein ſhall be made and had like Proceſs, Recovery, and Execution, as is or may be at this Day in any other Actions of Debt purſued at the Common Law. (10) And that the Plaintiff in every ſuch Action (if it be found with him) may recover againſt the Defendant in the ſame Action his reaſonable Coſts and Expences of his Suit. (11) And that any Defendant in any ſuch Action ſhall not be admitted to wage his Law, (12) or to have any Eſſoin or Protection allowed, nor any Advantage by fourching of Eſſoin or Diſtreſs. (13) And alſo that the Juſtices of Peace for the timebeing, within any County of this Realm, and every of them, ſhall have Power to

Anno

Anno primo RICHARDI III.

Statutes made at Weſtminſter in the Firſt Year of the Reign of King RICHARD III. and in the Year of our Lord 1483.

RICHARD by the Grace of GOD King of England, and of France, and Lord of Ireland, the Third after the Conqueſt; to the Honour of GOD, and of holy Church, and for the common Wealth of his Realm of England, at his Firſt Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the Three and twentieth Day of January, in the Firſt Year of his Reign, by the Advice and Aſſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and at the Requeſt of the Commons of the ſaid Realm of England, ſummoned to the ſaid Parliament, by the Authority of the ſame Parliament, hath ordained and eſtabliſhed, for the Quietneſs of his People, certain Statutes and Ordinances in Manner following.

CAP. I.

Obſ. ſince the Stat. 27 Hen. 8. c. 10. All Acts made by or againſt Ceſtuy que uſe ſhall be good againſt him, his Heirs, and Feoffees in Truſt. The ſeveral Inconveniencies of ſecret Feoffments. The Eſtate of Tenant in Tail ſaved.

CAP. II.

The Subjects of this Realm ſhall not be charged by any Benevolence, &c.

12 Co. 119. THE King remembering how the Commons of this his Realm, by new and unlawful Inventions, and inordinate Covetiſe, againſt the Law of this Realm, have been put to great Thraldom and importable Charges and Exactions, and in eſpecial by a new Impoſition called a Benevolence, whereby divers Years the Subjects and Commons of this Land, againſt their Wills and Freedoms, have paid great Sums of Money to their almoſt utter Deſtruction: (2) For divers and many worſhipful Men of this Realm, by Occaſion thereof, were compelled by Neceſſity to break up their Houſholds, and to live in great Penury and Wretchedneſs, their Debts unpaid, and their Children unpreferred, and ſuch Memorials as they had ordained to be done for the Wealth of their Souls were anentized and annulled, to the great Diſpleaſure of GOD, and the Deſtruction of this Realm: (3) Therefore the King will it be ordained, by the Advice and Aſſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, of this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That his Subjects, and the Commonalty of this his Realm, from henceforth in no wiſe be charged by none ſuch Charge, Exaction, or Impoſition, called a Benevolence, nor by ſuch like Charge; (4) and that ſuch Exactions, called Benevolences, before this Time taken, be taken for no Example to make ſuch or any like Charge of any of his ſaid Subjects of this Realm hereafter, but it ſhall be damned and annulled for ever.

CAP. III.

Every Juſtice of Peace may let a Priſoner to Mainpriſe. No Officer ſhall ſeiſe the Goods of a Priſoner until he be attainted.

Every Juſtice of Peace may admit a Priſoner to Bail. Rep. 3 H. 7. c. 3. 1 & 2. Ph. & M. c. 13.

FOR aſmuch as divers Perſons have been daily arreſted and impriſoned for Suſpection of Felony, ſometime of Malice, and ſometime of a light Suſpection, and ſo kept in Priſon without Bail or Mainpriſe, to their great Vexation and Trouble: (2) Be it ordained and eſtabliſhed by Authority of this preſent Parliament, That every Juſtice of Peace in every Shire, City, or Town, ſhall have Authority and Power, by his or their Diſcretion, to let ſuch Priſoners and Perſons ſo arreſted, to Bail or Mainpriſe, in like Form as though the ſame Priſoners or Perſons were indicted thereof of Record before the ſame Juſtices in their Seſſions; (3) and that Juſtices of Peace have Authority to inquire in their Seſſions of all Manner Eſcapes of every Perſon arreſted and impriſoned for Felony. (4) And that no Sheriff, Under-Sheriff, nor Eſcheator, Bailiff of Franchiſe, nor any other Perſon, take or ſeiſe the Goods of any Perſon arreſted or impriſoned for Suſpicion of Felony, before that the ſame Perſon, ſo arreſted and impriſoned, be convicted or attainted of ſuch Felony according to the Law, or elſe the ſame Goods otherwiſe lawfully forfeited; (5) upon Pain to forfeit the double Value of the Goods ſo taken, to him that is ſo hurt in that Behalf, by Action of Debt to be purſued by like Proceſs, Judgement, and Execution, as is commonly uſed in other Actions of Debt ſued at the Common Law; (6) and that no Eſſoin or Protection be allowed in any ſuch Action; nor that the Defendant in any ſuch Action be admitted to wage or do his Law.

Eſcape of Felons inquirable by Juſtices of Peace. 1 Lutw. 132. Cro. El. 749. 43 Ed. 3. f. 24. No Officer ſhall ſeiſe the Goods of a Priſoner until he be attainted, or the Goods forfeited.

CAP. IV.

Of what Credit and Eſtate thoſe Jurors muſt be which ſhall be impanelled in the Sheriff's Turn.

11 H. 7. c. 26. FOR aſmuch as divers great Inconveniencies and Perjuries do daily happen in divers Shires of England by untrue Verdicts given in Inquiſitions and Inquiries before Sheriffs in their Turns, by Perſons of no Subſtance nor Behaviour, nor dreading God nor the World's Shame, by reaſon whereof divers and many of the King's Lieges of divers Parts of England, by exciting and procuring of their evil Willers, be wrongfully indicted, and other that ought of right to be indicted by ſuch excitation and procuring, oftentimes be ſpared, contrary to common Right and to good Conſcience. (2) In eſchewing whereof, be it ordained by the King our Sovereign Lord, by the Advice of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, That no Bailiff nor other Officer from henceforth return or impanel any ſuch Perſon in any Shire of England, to be taken or put in or upon any ſuch Inquiry in any of the ſaid Turns, but ſuch as be of good Name and Fame, and having Lands and Tenements of Freehold within the ſame Shires to the yearly Value of xx s. at the leaſt, or elſe Lands and Tenements holden by Cuſtom of Manor, commonly called Copyhold, within the ſaid Shires, to the yearly Value of xxvi. s. viii. d. over all Charges at the leaſt: (3) And if any Bailiff or other Officer within the ſaid Counties hereafter return or impanel any Perſon contrary hereunto, he to loſe for every Perſon that he ſo impanelleth and returneth, not being of the Sufficiency as is afore ſaid, as often as he ſo offendeth, xl. s.

II. And the ſaid Sheriff other xl. s. the one Half thereof to the King our Sovereign Lord, and the other Half thereof to ſuch as will ſue in that Behalf: (2) And that every Man that will ſue for the ſame to have their ſeveral Actions of Debt therefore at the Common Law, as well againſt the Sheriff as the ſaid Bailiff; and that ſuch and like Proceſs be had and uſed in every of the ſame Action or Actions, as be had and uſed in other Actions of Debt at the Common Law, (3) and that no Protection nor Eſſoin be allowed in the ſame; (4) and that every ſuch Indictment before any Sheriff in his Turn otherwiſe taken, be void and of none Effect. This Act to take Effect from the Firſt Day of this preſent Parliament, and not before. The Indictment taken by other Perſons ſhall be void.

CAP. VI.

The Statute of 17 EDWARD 4. cap. 2. rehearſed and made perpetual, viz. That in every Court of Pipowders the Plaintiff or his Attorney ſhall be ſworn, &c.

PRayen the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, That where in a Statute made in the Seventeenth Year of the Reign of King EDWARD the Fourth, it was ordained among other, That where divers Fairs have been holden and kept in divers Places within this Realm, ſome by Preſcription allowed afore Juſtices in Eyre, and ſome by the Grant of your noble Progenitors and Predeceſſors, and to every of the ſame Fairs is of Right pertaining a Court of Pipowders, to miniſter therein due Juſtice in that Party; (2) in which Court it hath ever been accuſtomed, That every Perſon coming to ſuch Fairs, ſhould have lawful Remedy of all Manner Contracts, Treſpaſſes, Covenants, Debts, and other Deeds made or done within any of the ſaid Fairs during the Time of the ſaid Fairs, within the Juriſdiction of the ſame, and to be tried by Merchants being at the ſame Fairs; (3) which Courts in theſe Days have been miſuſed by Stewards, Bailiffs, Commiſſaries, and other Miniſters, holding and ruling the ſaid Courts of the ſaid Fairs for their ſingular Profit, holding Plea by Plaints, as well Contracts, Debts, Treſpaſſes, and other Deeds done and made out of the Time of the ſaid Fairs or Fair, and Juriſdiction of the ſame, whereof in troth they have no Juriſdiction, ſurmiſing the Contracts, Debts, Treſpaſſes, Covenants, or other Deeds to be done within the Time of the Fairs, and within the Juriſdiction of the ſame Fairs, where in Troth they were not ſo. (4) And ſometime upon fained Plaints, by Imagination by evil diſpoſed People, to trouble them to whom they owe evil Will, ſome to the Intent to make them to loſe their Fair, and ſome to the Intent that they ſhould have, for Lucre, favourable Inqueſts of Comers to the ſame Fairs where they take their Actions, (5) whereby much People coming to the ſaid Fairs be grievouſly vexed and troubled by feigned Actions, and alſo by Actions of Debts, Treſpaſſes, Deeds, and Contracts made and done out of the Time of the ſaid Fairs, or Juriſdiction of the ſame, contrary to Equity, and good Conſcience, whereby the Lords of the ſaid Fairs loſe great Profits by the not coming of divers Merchants to their Fairs, which for that Caſe abſtain them, and alſo the Commons for that Caſe be worſe ſerved of ſuch Stuff and Merchandiſes as elſe ſhould come to the ſaid Fairs; (6) pleaſe it therefore your Highneſs, the Premiſſes conſidered, by the Advice and Aſſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in this your preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, to ordain, and to eſtabliſh, That from the Firſt Day of May next coming, no Steward, Under-Steward, Bailiff, Commiſſary, nor other Miniſter of ſuch Courts of Pipowders, hold Plea upon any Action at the Suit of any Perſon or Perſons, without the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, or his or their Attornies, in Preſence of the Defendant or Defendants (if he or they, or his or their Attornies deſire it) make Oath upon the holy Evangeliſts, upon the Declaration, that the Contract, Treſpaſs, or other Deed compriſed in the ſame Declaration, were made or done within the Fair-time of the ſaid Fair, where he taketh his Action, and within the Bounds and Juriſdiction of the ſame Fair. (7) And although the ſaid Plaintiff or Plaintiffs by their Oath affirm the ſame, That the ſaid Defendant or Defendants be not concluded thereby, but that they may anſwer and plead to the Action, or in Abatement of the Plaints, and to tender an Iſſue, that the ſame Contract, Treſpaſs, or other Deed compriſed in ſuch Declaration, whereupon the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs do declare, was not done nor made within the Fair-time and Juriſdiction of the ſaid Fair, but out of the Time of the Fair, or at other Places out of the Juriſdiction of the ſame Fair, after the Troth in that Party. 17 Ed. 4. c. 2.

II. And if it be ſo tried, or that the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, or their Attornies, refuſe to be ſworn in the Form aforeſaid, that then the Defendant or Defendants be quite diſmiſſed and diſcharged in that Behalf out of that Court; the Party Plaintiff to take his Advantage at the Common Law, or other Place convenient, as him ſeemeth good, this Ordinance notwithſtanding.

III. And that every Steward, Under-Steward, Baillif, Commiſſary, or other Miniſter, holding and ruling any of the ſaid Courts, that doth the contrary to this Ordinance, ſhall for every Default in that Behalf forfeit C. s. the one Half thereof to your Highneſs, and the other Half thereof to him that in that Party will ſue his Action upon this Ordinance, by Action of Debt in his own Name; (2) and that Writs of Proclamation in all goodly haſte be directed to every Sheriff of every Shire of England, to make this Ordinance to be proclaimed in every Part within his Shire, as well within Franchiſe as without.

IV. And that the Ordinance touching Fairs, as is afore ſaid, ſhould endure to the next Parliament, which Ordinance is now expired: (2) And for certain the ſaid Ordinance is full neceſſary and requiſite to endure for ever, and full profitable to all the Commons of this Realm: (3) Be it therefore ordained and eſtabliſhed by the Authority of this preſent Parliament, That the aforeſaid Ordinance be and ſtand in Virtue and Strength, and alway to be executory from the Feaſt of the Annunciation of our Lady next coming perpetually after to endure.

CAP. VII.

Who ſhall be bound by a Fine levied before the Juſtices of the Common Pleas: And Proclamations made thereof.

* Not on the Roll. Anno 18 Ed. 1. ſtat. 4. Modus levandi Fines.

ITEM, Whereas it is ordained, * eſtabliſhed, and enacted in a Parliament holden in the Time of the Reign of King EDWARD the Firſt, by the Statute De Finibus, that Notes, and Fines levied in the King's Court before his Juſtices, ſhould be openly and ſolemnly read, and that the Pleas in the mean Time ſhould ceaſe, and this to be done Two Days in the Week after the Diſcretion of the Juſtices, as in the ſame Statute more plainly appeareth: (2) Our ſaid Sovereign Lord the King conſidering that Fines ought to be of the greateſt Strength to avoid Strifes and Debates, and be a final End and Concluſion, that it be willed and ordained, by the Advice and Aſſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, That after the ingroſſing of every Fine, to be levied after the Feaſt of Eaſter next coming in the King's Court before the Juſtices of the Common Place, of any Lands, Tenements, or other Hereditaments, the ſame Fine ſhall be openly and ſolemnly read and proclaimed in the ſame Court the ſame Term, and in Three Terms of the Year next following the ſame ingroſſing in the ſame Court, at Four ſeveral Days in every Term, (3) and in the ſame Time that it is ſo read and proclaimed, all Pleas ſhall ceaſe, (4) and moreover a Tranſcript of the ſame Fine ſhall be ſent by the ſaid Juſtices of the Common Place to the Juſtices of Aſſiſes of the County where the ſaid Lands and Tenements be; they to cauſe the ſaid Fine to be read and proclaimed openly and ſolemnly in every their Seſſions of Aſſiſes, to be holden the ſame Year, if Aſſiſes do then hold, and all the Pleas in the mean Time to ceaſe.

How often Fines ſhall be proclaimed. Altered by 31 El. c. 2.

A Tranſcript of the Fine ſhall be ſent to the Juſtices of Aſſiſe of the County where the Land lieth, to be proclaimed there.

A Tranſcript ſent to the Juſtices of Peace.

II. Alſo it is ordained and eſtabliſhed by the ſaid Authority of Parliament, That a like Tranſcript of the ſame Fine ſhall be ſent to the Juſtices of Peace of the County where the ſaid Lands and Tenements be, they to cauſe open and ſolemn Proclamation of the ſaid Fine to be made at Four General Seſſions of the Peace to be holden in the ſame Year.

Who ſhall be concluded by a Fine, who not.

III. The ſaid Juſtices of Aſſiſes, and alſo Juſtices of Peace, to certify the ſame Proclamation to the King's Juſtices of the Common Place, at the Second Day of Return of the Term then next following, (2) after which Proclamation done and certified, the ſaid Fine to be a final End, and to conclude, as well Privies as Strangers to the ſame, except Women covert, other than be Parties to the ſaid Fine, and every Perſon or Perſons then being within Age, in Priſon, or out of this Realm of England, or not of whole Memory at the Time of ſuch Fine levied.

The immediate Rights of Strangers ſaved, if purſued in Time.

IV. And ſaving to every Perſon or Perſons ſuch Right, Title, Claim, and Intereſt, which they have to or in the ſaid Lands, Tenements, and other Hereditaments, at the Time of ſuch Fine ingroſſed, ſo that they do purſue their ſaid Right, Title, Claim, or Intereſt, by Way of Action, or lawful Entry, within Five Years next after the ſaid Proclamation made, had, or certified.

The Right of Strangers in Reverſion ſaved.

V. And alſo ſaving to all other Perſons ſuch Action, Right, Title, Claim, and Intereſt, in and to all the ſaid Lands, Tenements, and other Hereditaments, which ſhall grow, remain, deſcend, or come to them after the ſaid Fine ingroſſed, by Force of any Gift in Tail, or by any other Cauſe or Matter had or made before the ſaid Fine levied, ſo that thoſe Perſons take their ſaid Actions, or purſue their ſaid Right and Title according to the Law, within Five Years next after ſuch Actions, Right, Title, Claim, or Intereſt, grown, deſcended, remained, or come to them; (2) and alſo that the ſaid Perſons, and their Heirs, may have their ſaid Action againſt the Taker of the Profits of the ſaid Lands, Tenements, and other Hereditaments at the Time of ſuch Action to be taken.

Actions maintainable againſt the Perſon of the Profits.

The Right of Infants, Women covert, Perſons impriſoned, out of this Land, or not of whole Memory ſaved.

VI. And if the ſame Perſons at the Time of ſuch Action, Right, and Title, grown, deſcended, remained, or come to them, be Covert Baron, or within Age, or in Priſon, or out of this Land, or not of whole Memory; it is ordained, eſtabliſhed, and enacted by Authority aforeſaid, That their Actions, Right, and Title ſhall be reſerved, and ſaved to them and their Heirs till the Time they come and be at their full Age, out of Priſon, within this Land, unmarried, and of whole Memory, ſo that they or their Heirs take their ſaid Actions, or lawful Entry, according to their Right and Title, within Five Years next after they come and be at their full Age, out of Priſon, within this Land, unmarried, and of whole Memory, and purſue the ſame Actions, or take their lawful Entry with Effect, according to the Law of England.

An Entry muſt be made, or an Action taken, within 5 Years after the Defects removed.

VII. Alſo by Authority of the ſaid Parliament it is ordained, eſtabliſhed, and enacted, That all ſuch Perſons which be Covert, not Parties to the Fine, and every Perſon being within Age, in Priſon, or out of this Realm, or not of whole Memory, at the Time of the ſaid Fines levied and ingroſſed, by this Act of Parliament before excepted, having any Right or Title, or Cauſe of Action to any of the ſaid Lands, Tenements, and other Hereditaments, that they or their Heirs take their ſaid Actions, or lawful Entry, according to their Right and Title, within Five Years next after that the ſaid Perſons come to be of full Age, out of Priſon, unmarried, within this Land, and alſo become of whole Memory; (2) and alſo ſue the ſame Actions, and take their lawful Entry, and ſo purſue with Effect, according to the Law of the Realm of England. (3) And moreover, if they do not take their ſaid Actions, and alſo their ſaid lawful Entry in the Manner as is aforeſaid, that then they ſhall be concluded by the ſaid Fines for ever, in like Form as they that be Parties and Privies to the ſaid Fines levied and ingroſſed.

Fines at the Common Law be of the ſame Force they were before. Any Perſon may levy a Fine according to this Statute or the Common Law. H. 7. c. 24.

VIII. Alſo by the ſaid Authority it is ordained and eſtabliſhed, That every Fine which ſhall be from henceforth levied in any of the King's Courts, of any Manors, Lands, Tenements, or other Poſſeſſions, after the Manner, Uſage, and Form that Fines have been levied before the making of this Act before rehearſed, ſhall be of like Strength, Effect, and Authority, as Fines ſo levied be or were before the making of this Act, this Act, or any other Act, in this Parliament made, or to be made, notwithſtanding. (2) And that every Perſon ſhall be at his Liberty to levy any Fine hereafter, as he will himſelf at his Pleaſure, after the Manner contained and ordained in and by this Act, or after the Manner and Form before uſed.

The Length and Breadth of Cloths, and the Order of dying them and Woolls. The Ability of the Aulneger, and what Cloths he may ſeal.

TO the King our Sovereign Lord, praieth unto your Highneſs your true Subjects and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, That where in Time paſſed this your Realm of England hath greatly been encreaſed and riched by the Mean of true making and draping, and alſo of true dying of Woollen Cloth, whereby a great Subſtance of the People of your ſaid Realm have been ſet on Work, and not fallen to Idleneſſe, as dailly nowe they doo, but thereby truly have gotten ther Levyng; it is ſo now, moſt Gracious Sovereign Lord, That the Woollen Clothes which in late Daies have been made, and yet dailly ben made within this your Realm, ben unperfect and deceyvably made and wrought, kepyng nother reſonable Length nor Brede, and the ſame Clothes ſo as it is aforſeid unperfitly made, and decyvably wrought, afterward ben put to be ſhorne, and afore be not fully wette; and many of the ſeid Clothes, after they ben fully wette and ſhorne, ben ſet upon Tentours, and drawen out in Leyngh and Brede, that is to ſay, ſome of the ſame Clothes being but of the Lenght of xxiiii. Yardys, ben drawen out into Lenght of xxx Yerdis, and in Brede from vii. Quarters unto the Brede of ii. Yerdys; the which Clothes ſo ſhorn er they be wette, or Ells drawen in Leyngh or in Brede, as it is aforeſeid, after that they receyve any wette they moſt of werry neceſſite ſhrynk; and alſo the Clothmakers, and other of your ſeid Realm, oftyn Times when they make any courſe Clothes, and alſo the Sellers of ſuch courſe Clothes, being bare of Threde, uſen for to powder and caſt Flokkys of fynner Cloth upon the ſame courſe Clothes, to the Intent to make the ſame Cloth to appere fyne and good; and alſo the ſeid Clothmakers and other put and caſt Chalke upon white Clothes, to the Intent to make the ſame Clothes to appere better then they ben: And moreover great quantitie of Wolls ben had out of this your ſeid Roialme by Straungiers, and other, in Caraks, Gallies, and Shippies, which ben ſorted the better from the worſe, barbed and clakked, and thereof is made moche Lokkys and Refuſe, of the which the Refuſe in Subſtaunce is left within this your ſaid Roialme, and therof moche courſe Cloth is made within the ſame Realme, and ſo the fine Wolls ben hadd out of this your ſaid Realme by the ſeid Strayngiers, and the courſe Wolls and Refuſe here left, by Reaſon whereof there canne be no Subſtance of fine Drapery made within this your ſeid Royalme to the great Loſs of your ſaid Highneſs in your Cuſtume, in paying leſs Cuſtume for the Lokkys then for the hole wollyn Fleſe, and alſo to the greate Hurt and Decay of all your ſeid Realm, in enpayryng of the ſeid Drapery. Alſo, moſt gracious Sovereign Lord, Dyers within mony Cities, Burghes, and Townes of this your ſeid Realm of England, uſen to dye great quantity, as well of fyne Clothes, as of courſe Clothes, with Orchell and Corke brought from beyond the Sea, called Jarecork, the Colours made with the which Orchell and Cork ben ſo diſeyvable, that the ſame Colours may in no wiſe abide, but faden away to the great Hurt of all them that were or occupy any ſuch Cloth ſo deceyvably dyed. Alſo the ſeid Dyers uſen to dye many Clothes of divers Colours, and upon the Liſts of the ſame Clothes feſten and ſowe greate Riſſhes, called Bullriſſhes, to th'entent to make the ſame Clothes to appere of on Colowre, and the Liſtes of another Coloure wher thrugh the Byers of the ſeid Clothes can ne may unneth underſtand but that the ſame Clothes ben died out of Wolle, to the great Hurt of you, moſt dred Sovereign Lord, and of all your true Subgietts which ſhall were or occupy the ſame Clothes, and by Occaſion of the which imperfite and untrewe making, dying, and deceyvable Delyng, Merchauntes of ſtrange Contrez, which hath uſed to bye Clothes made and died in this your ſeid Realm, unneth derr bye eny of the ſeid Clothes, to the greate Rebuke and Diſhonour of the ſame Realm, and Hurte of your Highneſs, and of all your ſeid Realm, whereupon, but if the rather a Remedy be provided by your moſt noble Grace, of werry likelyhode conſequently ſhall enſue the Deſtruction of Drapery of all this your ſeid Realm, which God defend. For the avoiding whereof our ſaid Sovereign Lord the King, by the Advice and Aſſent of the ſaid Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and at the Requeſt of the Commons in the ſaid Parliament aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, hath ordained, eſtabliſhed, and enacted, That no Perſon whatſoever he be, Cloth-maker or other, ſhall ſell, nor put to Sale, after the Feaſt of S. Michael the Archangel next enſuing, any Manner Woollen Cloths, called Broad Cloths, unleſs the ſame Cloth be before fully watered.

Cloth shall not be drawn nor tentored after watering.

VII. And that no Person whatsoever he be, after the said Feast, shall set nor draw, nor cause to be set nor drawn in Length nor Breadth, within this Realm of England, any Manner of Woollen Cloth, after that it be fully watered, by tentoring or otherwise, upon Pain to forfeit the same Cloth.

No deceitful Thing shall be cast upon Cloth.

VIII. Also that no Man, of what Condition soever he be within the Realm, after the said Feast, shall set, cast, or put upon any Manner of Cloth any Flocks, or any other like deceitful Thing, upon Pain of Forty Shillings for every Cloth whereupon any such Person shall cast any Flocks or such other Thing.

No Chalk shall be cast upon white Cloth.

IX. Also that no Cloth-maker, nor other Person whatsoever he be, within the said Realm, after the said Feast, shall set or cast upon any white Cloth or Kersey any Chalk, upon like Pain.

No Shearing of Cloth not fully watered;

X. And that no Shearman nor other Person, after the said Feast, shall shear nor cancel any Cloths within this Realm, except such Cloth be before fully watered, upon Pain to forfeit xl. s. for every Cloth, as often as he shall so do.

nor exporting it beyond Sea.

XI. And that no Person, Stranger nor other, shall send or convey any Woollen Cloth over the Sea, after the said Feast, unless the same Cloth be before fully watered; and after that the same Cloth be so fully watered, that then it shall in no wise be set nor drawn in Length nor Breadth, (2) upon Pain of Forty Shillings for every Cloth conveyed or sent over the Sea contrary to this Act.

None to retail Cloth not fully watered, nor to stretch it in the Length or Breadth.

XII. Also that no Manner of Person within this Realm, after the said Feast, retail any Woollen Cloth or Cloths, Lining, nor other, except it be fully watered before; and after that it be fully watered, it shall in no wise be set or drawn in Length or Breadth,, upon Pain to forfeit the same Cloth, or the Value thereof: The same Pain to run upon the Seller of all such Cloths.

None shall keep a Tentor in his House.

XIII. Also our said Sovereign Lord the King, in eschewing of great Falsity and Deceit, which hath grown, and daily doth grow by Mean of Tentors, by the Assent and Authority aforesaid hath ordained and enacted, That no Person, whatsoever he be, shall keep, have, or occupy any Tentor, or any other Thing, in his own House or Place of his inhabiting, whereby Woollen Cloths may be in any wise drawn out in Length or Breadth, upon Pain to forfeit Twenty Pounds as often as he shall do contrary to this Act; (2) but that all Tentors hereafter shall be used or occupied for due stretching of Cloth only, after that it cometh from the Mill, and before it be rowen, and for none other Cause, as well within the City of London, as other Cities, Boroughs, and Towns of this Realm, shall be set in open Places; (3) and that every Mayor of London for the time being, and all other Mayors, and Bailiffs, and other Governors of Cities, Boroughs, Towns, and Villages of this said Realm, shall diligently survey and oversee that all Cloths, which shall be put upon Tentors, shall not be drawn out in Length and Breadth otherwise than is before rehearsed.

Tentors shall be set in open Places.

What Sort of Wooll Strangers may buy.

XIV. Also that after the said Feast, no Stranger shall buy any Wooll which shall be sent, or shall pass through the Streits of Marrok by Gallies, Carracks, or Ships, or other Vessels sorted, clacked, or barked, nor no Wooll whereof any Locks or Refuse shall be made; but that the same Wooll be as it is clipped, and purely wound without Deceit, and merchandisable, after the Growing of the Country, without any sorting, bearding, clacking of Locks, or Refuse thereof to be made, as afore is said, upon Pain to forfeit the same Wooll, and the double Value thereof.

No Cloth shall be dyed with Cork.

XV. Moreover, Our said Sovereign Lord the King hath ordained and enacted by Authority aforesaid, That no Dyer, nor any other Person, shall dye, or cause to be dyed within this Realm, after the said Feast, any Woollen Cloth with Dyehel, or Cork called Jarecork, upon Pain to forfeit and lose Forty Shillings for every Cloth that he, or any other for him, or to his Use, shall dye, or cause to be dyed. (2) Nor that any Person after the said Feast shall sell, or put to Sale, within this said Realm, any such Cloth, which after the said Feast shall be dyed with Dyehel, or Cork called Jarecork, upon Pain of Forfeiture of such Cloth so dyed or put to Sale contrary to this Act; (3) this Pain and Loss always to run upon the Seller, (4) except that Cork made within this Realm of England may be used in dying upon Wooll woded, and also in dying all such Cloth which is made only of Wooll, so that the same Wooll woded and Cloth be perfectly boiled and maddered.

The Cloth and the List shall be dyed with one Colour.

XVI. Also that Cork made in this Realm may be put upon Cloth that is perfectly boiled and maddered; (2) also that no Dyer shall dye any Cloth within this said Realm, after the said Feast, except the same Dyer do dye the said Cloth, and the List of the same, with one Colour, wthou t tacking or sowing of any Bulrushes, or such like Thing, upon the Lists of the same, upon Pain to forfeit xl. s. for every such Cloth that he shall so dye contrary to this Act; (3) and that no Person, whatsoever he be, shall put to Sale within this said Realm, after the said Feast, any Manner of Cloth, which after the same Feast shall be deceitfully dyed, upon Pain to forfeit the same Cloth, or the Value thereof; (4) the same Forfeitures and Pains always to run upon the Seller.

Faulty Cloth shall be brought to the chief Officer.

XVII. Also if any of the King's Subjects, or any other hereafter, happen to seise any Woollen Cloth otherwise made or dyed than afore is said, then the same Subject or other shall bring all the same Cloth or Cloths so by him seised, before the Mayor, Bailiff, or other Governor of the Cities, Boroughs, Towns, or Villages where any such seising shall happen to be made of the same Cloth or Cloths, there to judge by the Discretion of the said Mayor, Bailiffs, or other Governor, calling to him or them such Persons as by his or their Discretions shall be thought convenient, whether the same Cloth be otherwise made, wrought, or dyed, than is according with the Acts before recited; (2) and if it be judged by the said Mayor, Bailiff, or other Governor, or other Persons called to them or any of them, as afore is said, that the same Cloth is made or dyed, and put to Sale contrary to the aforesaid Acts, then the same Cloths so seised, and by them judged as is aforesaid, shall be equally cut in Three Pieces in the Presence of the said Mayor, Bailiff, or other Governor; (3) the one Part thereof to be delivered in the Exchequer by him or them that so shall seise the same Cloth or Cloths to the King's Use, and the second Part thereof to be delivered to the Seisor of the same Cloth or Cloths, and the third Part thereof to be delivered to the said Mayor, Bailiff, or Governor, to the Use of the Comminalty where they or any of them be Mayor, Bailiff, or Governor; (4) the one half of all the other Fines, Forfeitures, and Penalties aforesaid, and of every of them, to be to our Sovereign Lord the King, and the other Half to him or them of the King's Subjects that shall seise the same, or sue for the same by Action of Debt, by Writ at the Common Law, or by Bill or Plaint after the Custom of the City, Town, or Port where such Fines, Forfeitures, and Penalties shall happen to fall or be; (5) and that the Defendant in any such Action be not admitted to wage or do his Law; (6) nor that any Protection or Essoin of the King's Service be allowed for any such Defendant.

The Offenders Penalties, and who shall have them. 12 H. 7. c. 4.

Cloths whereunto this Statute extendeth not.

XVIII. Provided always, That this Act, or any thing therein contained, extend not, or be prejudicial of or to the making of any Woollen Cloth called Ray, (2) nor of or to any Cloth made in Winchester, or Salisbury, used to be set and joined with Ray. (3) A Cloth thereof commonly used to be sold at Forty Shillings, or within, (4) nor of or to the making of any Cloth called Vervise, otherwise called Plonkets, Turkins, or Celestrines, with broad Lists; (5) nor to any Cloths called Packing Whites, (6) nor to the making of any Cloths called Vesses, Cogware, or Worsteds, (7) nor of or to the making of any Cloths called Florences, with Cremil Lists, nor of or to the making of any Woollen Cloth called Sailling Ware with Cremil Lists, broad Lists, or small Lists, (8) nor of or to the making of any Woollen Cloths called Bastards, (9) nor of any Cloths called Kendals, nor of any Cloth called Frise Ware, nor to any of them, nor to the Maker or Utterer of any of them.

12 H. 7. c. 4. 1 H. 8. c. 2. 3 H. 8. c. 6.

XIX. So that the same Cloths, and every of them, for the King's Honour, and Profit of this Realm, be truly, duly, and perfectly made, according to the Nature and Making of every of the said Cloths.

CAP. IX.

In what Sort Italian Merchants may sell Merchandises. Several Restraints of Aliens.

The Grievances done by Merchants Strangers to the King and his Realm.

ITEM, Because our said Sovereign Lord the King, upon Petition made to him in his said Parliament by the Commons of England, hath conceived and understood, That whereas Merchants Strangers of the Nation of Italy, as Venetians, Genoese, Florentines, Apulians, Cicilians, Lucaners, Cateloins, and other of the same Nation, in great Number do inhabit and keep Houses, as well in the City of London, as in other Cities and Boroughs within this his Realm, and take Warehouses and Cellars, and therein put their Wares and Merchandises which they bring into this said Realm, (3) and them in the said Cellars and Warehouses deceitfully do pack, mingle, and keep the same, till such Time the Prices thereof be greatly enhanced, for their great Lucre, and the same Merchandises and Wares they then sell to all Manner People, as well within the Ports where they bring the said Wares and Merchandises, as to other divers and many Places within this Realm, as well by Retail as otherwise; (4) and also do buy in the said Ports and other Places, at their own Liberty, the Commodities of this Realm, and sell the same again at their Pleasure within the same, as commonly and freely as any of the King's liege People doth, (5) and do not employ a great Part of the Money coming thereof upon the Commodities of this Realm, but make it over the Sea by Exchange to divers other Countries, to the King's great Damage in Loss of his Customs, and to the great impoverishing of his said Subjects, of whom they should buy the Commodities of this Realm:

II. And the same Merchants of Italy, and other Merchants Strangers, be Hosts, and take unto them People of other Nations, and to sojourn with them daily, do buy, sell, and make privy and secret Contracts and Bargains with the same People, to their great Increase and Profit, and to the importune Damage of the King's said Subjects, and contrary to divers Statutes in this Case provided and ordained:

III. Also the said Merchants of Italy do buy in divers Places within this Realm a great Quantity of Wooll and Woollen Cloth, and other Merchandises, of the King's Subjects, and Part thereof they sell again to the same Subjects and other within this Realm, to their most Advantage, and much of the said Woolls they do deliver to Clothmakers, thereof to make Cloth at their Pleasuee.

IV. Moreover, a great Number of Artificers and other Strangers, not born under the King's Obeysance, do daily resort and repair to the City of London, and to other Cities, Boroughs, and Towns of the said Realm, and much more than they were wont to do in Times past, (2) and inhabit by themselves in the said Realm with their Wives, Children, and Household, and will not take upon them any laborious Occupation, as going to Plough and Cart, and other like Business, but use the making of Cloth, and other Handicrafts and easy Occupations, (3) and bring and convey, from the Parts beyond the Sea, great Substance of Wares and Merchandises to Fairs and Markets, and all other Places of this Realm at their Pleasure, and there sell the same, as well by Retail as otherwise, as freely as any of the King's Subjects use to do, to the great Damage and and Impoveriſhment of the King's ſaid Subjects, (4) and will in no wiſe ſuffer nor take any of the King's ſaid Subjects to work with them, but they take only into their Service People born in their own Countries, whereby the King's ſaid Subjects, for lack of Occupation, fall into Idleneſs, and be Thieves, Beggars, Vagabonds, and People of vicious Living, to the great Perturbance both of the King and of all his Realm; (5) and when the Merchants, Artificers, and Strangers before rehearſed, have gained within this Realm, by buying and ſelling, or by ſuch eaſy Occupations and Handicrafts, great Subſtance of Goods, with the ſame Subſtance they go out of this ſaid Realm to ſuch Parts beyond the Sea as them liketh beſt, and there ſpend the ſame Goods oftentimes among the King's Adverſaries and Enemies, to the great Damage of our Sovereign Lord the King and his Subjects, and Impoveriſhment of this Realm, and the Commons of the ſame; and ſo by Occaſion of the Premiſſes, the Subſtance of the Inhabitants in the ſaid Cities, Boroughs, and Towns, now late hath fallen, and daily doth fall, into great Poverty and Decay, to their great Undoing, unleſs the King's gracious Aid be to them in this Behalf ſhewed.

Italian Merchants ſhall ſell their Merchandiſes in Groſs, and imploy their Money in the Commodities of this Realm.

V. Our ſaid Sovereign Lord the King, of his abundant Grace, willing againſt the Premiſſes to provide Remedy in this Behalf, by the Advice and Aſſent of his Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and at the Prayer of the Commons, in the ſaid Parliament aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, hath ordained, eſtabliſhed, and enacted, That all Merchants of the Nation of Italy, before recited, not made Denizens, which have now within this Realm Wares and Merchandiſes brought from beyond the Sea, and before the Feaſt of Eaſter next coming ſhall have, ſhall cauſe the ſame to be ſold or bartered in Groſs, and not by Retail, to the King's Subjects, before the Firſt Day of May, which ſhall be in the Year of our Lord God One thouſand four hundred fourſcore and five, (2) and ſhall imploy the Money coming of that Sale before the Firſt Day of May within the ſame Port or Ports, where they do arrive, upon the Commodities and Merchandiſes of this Realm, (their reaſonable Coſts and Expences always except and deducted) upon Pain of Forfeiture of the Value as well of all the ſaid Wares and Merchandiſes kept and not ſold before the ſaid Firſt Day of May, or otherwiſe ſold than is above rehearſed, as of as much Money as ſhall be made over by Exchange contrary to this Act. (3) And alſo that all the ſaid Merchants of Italy, which after the Feaſt of Eaſter next coming ſhall bring any Merchandiſes or Wares into this Realm, to be ſold, ſhall ſell or barter the ſaid Wares and Merchandiſes in Groſs, and not by Retail, to the King's Subjects, upon Pain of Forfeiture of the Value of the ſame Wares and Merchandiſes, which they (as afore is ſaid) ſhall bring after the ſaid Feaſt of Eaſter. (4) And the ſaid Merchants which ſhall bring in ſuch Wares and Merchandiſes after the ſaid Feaſt of Eaſter to ſell or barter, ſhall ſell or elſe barter the ſame within Eight Months next after their firſt Arrival in this Realm, in the Form aforeſaid, and ſhall imploy the Money coming of or by the ſaid Sale or Bartering, and every of them, and with the ſame buy the Commodities or Merchandiſes of this Realm, within the ſaid Eight Months, in the ſaid Port or Ports where they do firſt arrive (the reaſonable Coſts and Expences always excepted and deducted) and in no wiſe to make over ſuch Money by Exchange.

Strangers ſhall ſell their Wares within Eight Months after their Arrival, and imploy their Money, &c.

Strangers may carry away ſo much as they cannot ſell within Eight Months.

VI. And that the ſaid Merchants do in no wiſe ſell nor barter within the ſaid Realm their ſaid Wares and Merchandiſes, which remain unſold after the End of the ſaid Eight Months, but carry and convey the ſame out of this Realm within Two Months next enſuing after the ſaid Eight Months, if Wind and Weather will ſuffer it, or otherwiſe as ſoon as Wind and Weather will ſerve them after the ſaid Two Months, upon Pain of Forfeiture as well of as much Money as ſhall be made over by Exchange, as of the ſaid Wares and Merchandiſes ſo ſold or bartered after the End of the ſaid Eight Months, not to be carried nor conveyed out of this ſaid Realm in the Form aforeſaid, or the Value thereof. (2) The Penalties, Forfeitures, and Loſſes of all the Premiſſes always to run and be upon the ſaid Merchants of the Nation of Italy doing contrary to this Act.

Strangers may remove their Goods from one Port to another.

VII. Provided always that it be lawful to the ſaid Merchants of the Nation of Italy, all ſuch Wares and Merchandiſes, and every Parcel thereof, which after the Feaſt of Eaſter next coming ſhall be brought to any other Port or Ports of this Realm of England to be ſold, to convey the ſame Wares and Merchandiſes at their Liberties to any other Port or Ports, or other Place within this Realm, and there to ſell the ſame, as afore is ſaid, ſo that they ſell or barter the ſame Merchandiſes and Wares in the Realm within Eight Months next after their firſt Arrival in any of the ſaid Ports of this Realm; (2) and alſo that no Merchant Stranger, of what Country ſoever he be, ſhall be Hoſt, or take to ſojourn with him in the ſaid Realm any Merchant or Stranger, not being of his Nation or Country, upon Pain of Forty Pounds.

A Stranger ſhall not be Hoſt to a Stranger, unleſs he be of his own Country.

Aliens ſhall not buy and ſell Wooll or Woollen Cloth within this Realm; nor make Woollen Cloth, nor deliver Wooll to that end.

VIII. Alſo that none of the ſaid Merchants of Italy, not made Denizens, ſhall ſell or barter any Woollen Cloths, Woolls, or other Merchandiſes in this ſaid Realm, which the ſame Merchants of Italy ſhall buy within this ſaid Realm; (2) nor that the ſame Merchants, nor any other for them, ſhall deliver any Wooll to any Perſon, thereof to make Cloth in this Realm, but ſhall have and convey the ſame Woollen Cloth, Woolls, and other Merchandiſes, over the Sea by the Streights of Marrock, upon Pain to forfeit the Value of all the Woollen Cloths, Woolls, and other Merchandiſes which by them ſhall be ſo ſold or delivered, in whoſe Hands they ſhall be found; (3) the Forfeiture of the ſame to run and be upon the Merchant Stranger.

An Alien ſhall not be an Handicraftſman. 3 Mod. 94.

IX. Moreover, that no Perſon not born under the King's Obeyſance, as before is ſaid, ſhall exerciſe or occupy any Handicraft, or the Occupation of any Handicraftſman in this Realm of England, (2) but that all ſuch Perſons, which after the ſaid Feaſt of Eaſter ſhall come into this Realm, and every of them, ſhall depart into their own Country again, or elſe be Servants to ſuch of the King's Subjects only as be expert and cunning in ſuch Feats, Arts, and Crafts, which the ſaid Strangers can occupy, (3) upon Pain of Forfeiture of all their Goods which ſhall come and dwell in this Realm contrary to this Act, in whoſe Hands ſoever they ſhall be found.

Aliens ſhall make no Cloth within this Realm.

X. Alſo that no Perſon not born under the King's Obeyſance, nor made Denizens, being Artificer or Handicraftſman, after the ſaid Feaſt of Eaſter, nor yet any other for him, or to his Uſe, drape or make any Cloth, or put any Wooll to work to make Cloth of within the ſaid Realm of England, upon Pain to forfeit the ſame Cloth draped or made contrary to this Act.

XI. Alſo

XI. Alſo that all Perſons not born under the King's Obeyſance, being Artificers, or Handicraftſmen at the Day of the making of this Act, dwelling in this ſaid Realm, nor none other ſuch Artificers or Handicraftſmen, which hereafter ſhall inhabit and dwell in the ſame, which after the Feaſt of the Annunciation of our Lady next coming ſhall uſe, exerciſe, or occupy the Feat of Merchandiſe of any Manner of Wares within this Realm, ſhall ſell or barter the ſame Wares or Merchandiſes in Groſs, and not by Retail, in the Port, Town, or Place where the ſame Artificers be, or ſhall be dwelling, and in none other Place, upon Pain of Forfeiture of the Value of all the Wares and Merchandiſes ſold contrary to this Act. (2) Alſo that no Perſon not born under the King's Obeyſance, inhabiting, dwelling, or holding any great Houſe or Chamber in this Realm, and occupying any Handicraft, or being Artificer, or Handicraftſman, after the ſaid Feaſt of the Annunciation of our Lady next coming, ſhall take any Apprentice, Servant, or any other Perſon to work with him, or to his Uſe, unleſs it be his Son, or his Daughter, other than at the ſaid Feaſt ſhall be Apprentices or Servants with him, except that the ſame Apprentices or Servants ſo to be taken be the King's Subjects born, upon Pain to forfeit and to loſe for every Apprentice or Servant taken to the contrary xx. l. (3) the one Half of all the ſaid Fines, Forfeitures, and Penalties, and of every of them, to be to the King, and the other Half to be to him or them that will ſeiſe the ſame, or purſue for the ſame by Action of Debt, by Writ at the Common Law, by Bill or Plaint, after the Cuſtom of the City or Town where ſuch Fines, Forfeitures, or Penalties hereafter ſhall fall and be; (4) and that the Defendant in any ſuch Action ſhall not be admitted to wage or do his Law, (5) nor no Protection, nor Eſſoin of the King's Service ſhall be allowed ſuch Defendant in the ſame.

Alien ſhall ſell their Wares in groſs, and not by retail.

Aliens ſhall take no Servant but the King's Subject. 5 El. c. 4.

Revocation of the Penalties of King RICHARD's Act againſt Italians.

ITEM, The King our ſaid Sovereign Lord, underſtanding by a Supplication put unto his Highneſs in this his ſaid Parliament by the Merchants of Italy, reſident in this his ſaid Realm of England, that where by an Act of Parliament, made in the Parliament of RICHARD late pretending him to be King of England the Third, holden at Weſtminſter the Firſt Year of his Reign, it was ordained and provided, That all Merchants of the Nation of Italy afore rehearſed, not made Denizens, which then ſhould have within this Realm Wares and Merchandiſes brought from beyond the Sea before the Feaſt of Eaſter then next enſuing, ſhould do, ſell, or barter them in Groſs, and not by Retail, to the King's Subjects afore the Firſt Day of May, that then ſhould be in the Year of our Lord God M.CCCC.LXXXV. And the Money coming of the Sale, before the ſaid Firſt Day, within the ſame Port or Ports where they arrived, employ upon the Commodities and Merchandiſes of this Realm, their reaſonable Coſts and Expences alway except and deducted, upon Pain of Forfeiture of the Value, as well of all the ſaid Wares and Merchandiſes kept and not ſold afore the ſaid Firſt Day, or otherwiſe ſold then as aboveſaid, and of ſo much Money as ſhould be made over by Exchange contrary to the ſaid Act. And that all the ſaid Merchants of Italy, the which after the ſaid Feaſt of Eaſter brought any Merchandiſe or Wares into this Realm to be ſold, ſhould ſell or barter the ſame Wares and Merchandiſes in Groſs, and not by Retail, unto the King's Subjects, upon Pain of Forfeiture of the Value of the ſame Wares and Merchandiſes otherwiſe ſold. And that the ſaid Merchants, their ſaid Wares and Merchandiſes, which they ſhould bring after the ſaid Feaſt of Eaſter, ſhould do, barter, or ſell the ſame within Eight Months next after their firſt Arrival into this Realm in Form aforeſaid: And the Money coming of or by the ſaid Sale or Barterings of them, and every of them, employ and therewith buy the Commodities or Merchandiſes of this Realm of England within the ſaid Eight Months, in the ſame Port or Ports where they ſhould firſt arrive, their reaſonable Coſts and Expences alway except and deducted; and that they ſhould in no wiſe make any ſuch Money over by Exchange. And the ſaid Merchants, their ſaid Wares and Merchandiſes remaining unſold, after the End of the ſaid Eight Months, in no wiſe ſhould ſell, nor barter within the ſaid Realm, but that they ſhould carry and convey them out of the ſaid Realm, within Two Months then next following after the ſaid Eight Months, if Wind and Weather will ſerve it, and elſe as ſoon as the Wind and Weather will ſerve them, after the ſaid Two Months, upon Pain of Forfeiture as well of as much Money as ſhould be made out of the ſaid Realm by Exchange, as of the ſaid Wares and Merchandiſes ſo ſold or bartered after the End of the ſaid Eight Months, not carried nor conveyed out of this ſaid Realm, in Form aforeſaid, or the Value thereof: The Forfeitures, Penalty, and Loſs of all the Premiſſes, to run and be upon the ſaid Merchants of Italy, doing contrary to this Act. And alſo that no Stranger, of what Country ſoever he were, ſhould hoſt, or take to ſojourn with him within this Realm of England, any Merchant Stranger, not being of the ſame Nation that he ſhould be of, upon Pain to forfeit and loſe at every Time that he ſo doth xl. li. And that no Merchant Stranger be at hoſt nor ſojourn with any other Merchant Stranger, not being of his Nation or Country, within the ſaid Realm, upon Pain of xl. li. And that no Stranger ſhall buy any Wooll, the which ſhall be ſent or paſs through the Streights of Marrock, by Gallies, Carracks, or Ships, or other Veſſels, ſorted, clacked, or barbed, nor any Wooll, whereof Locks or Refuſe ſhould be made, but that the ſame Wooll ſhould be as it were ſhorn, and clean wound, without any ſorting, barking, or clacking, or Locks or Refuſe thereof to be made, as it is aforeſaid, upon Pain of Forfeiture of the ſame Wooll, and the double Value thereof, as by the ſame Act more plainly may appear. Alſo that the ſaid Merchants of Italy ſhould have and convey their Wooll, Woollen Cloth, and all their other Merchandiſes, over the Streights of Marrock, upon Pain of Forfeiture of the ſame, as by the ſame Act plainly appeareth. The King our ſaid Sovereign Lord, by the Advice of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, hath ordained, eſtabliſhed, and do to be enacted, That the aboveſaid Forfeitures, Penalties, Seizure, and Actions, compriſed in the ſaid Acts, and every of them, be revoked, void, annulled, and of no Strength, againſt all Manner of Perſons, except and reſerved only to the King, to be at Liberty, to have and enjoy all Manner Seizures, Forfeits, and Penalties in the ſaid Acts ſpecified: And that it be lawful to the King, to grant to his Beſeechers his Letters of ſafe Conduct, and Letters Patents, ſurely to be enjoyed, according to the Tenors thereof, the aboveſaid Act and Acts notwithſtanding, in as ample wiſe as though they had never been had nor made.

The Cauſes why Murders be committed.

(6) Item, The King remembering how Murders and ſlaying of his Subjects daily do increaſe in this Land, the Occaſions whereof be divers; one, That Men in Towns where ſuch Murders hap to fall and be done, will not attach the Murderer, where the Law of the Land is, That if any Man be ſlain in the Day, and the Felon not taken, the Townſhip where the Death or Murder is done, ſhall be amerced; (7) and if any Man be wounded in Peril of Death, the Party that ſo wounded ſhould be arreſted, and put in Surety, till perfect Knowledge be had, whether he ſo hurt ſhould live or die: (8) And the Coroner upon the View of the Body dead, ſhould inquire of him or them that had done that Death or Murder, of their Abettors and Conſenters, and who were preſent when the Death or Murder was done, whether Man or Woman, (9) and the Names of them that were preſent, and ſo found, to inrol and certify; (10) which Law by Negligence is diſuſed, and thereby great Boldneſs is given to Slayers and Murderers; (11) and over this it is uſed, that within the Year and a Day after any Death or Murder had or done, the Felony ſhould not be determined at the King's Suit, for ſaving of the Party's Suit, wherein the Party is oftentimes ſlow, and alſo agreed with, and by the End of the Year all is forgotten, which is another Occaſion of Murder. (12) And alſo he that will ſue any Appeal, muſt ſue in proper Perſon, which Suit is long and coſtly, that it maketh the Party Appellant weary to ſue. (13) For Reformation of the Premiſſes, the King our Sovereign Lord, by the Aſſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in the ſaid Parliament aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, will that every Coroner exerciſe and do his Office according to the Law, as is afore rehearſed; (14) and that if any Man be ſlain or murdered, and thereof the Slayers, Murderers, Abetters, Maintainers, and Comforters of the ſame, be indicted, that the ſame Slayers and Murderers, and all other Acceſſaries of the ſame, be arraigned and determined of the ſame Felony and Murder, at any Time, at the King's Suit, within the Year after the ſame Felony and Murder done, and not tarry the Year and Day for any Appeal to be taken for the ſame Felony or Murder; (15) and if it happen any Perſon named as Principal or Acceſſary, to be acquitted of any ſuch Murder at the King's Suit, within the Year and Day, that then the ſame Juſtices afore whom he is acquitted, ſhall not ſuffer him to go at large, but either to remit him again to the Priſon, or elſe to let him to Bail, after their Diſcretion, till that Year and Day be paſſed; (16) and if it fortune the ſame Felons or Murderers, and Acceſſaries ſo arraigned, or any of them, to be acquit, or the Principal of the ſaid Felony, or any of them, to be attainted, the Wife, or nert Heir to him ſo ſlain, as ſhall require, may take and have their Appeal of the ſame Death and Murder within the Year and Day after the ſame Felony and Murder done, againſt the ſaid Perſons ſo arraigned and acquit, and all other their Acceſſaries, or againſt the Acceſſaries of the ſaid Principal, or any of them ſo attainted, or againſt the ſaid Principals ſo attainted, if they be on live, and the Benefit of his Clergy thereof before not had: (17) And that the Appellant have ſuch and like Advantage, as if the ſaid Acquital or Attainder had not been, the ſaid Acquital or Attainder notwithſtanding; (18) and over that the Wife, or Heir of the ſaid Perſon ſo ſlain or murdered, as the Caſe ſhall require, may commence their Appeal in proper Perſon, at any Time within the Year after the ſaid Felony done, before the Sheriff and Coroners of the County where the ſaid Felony or Murder was done, or before the King in his Bench, or Juſtices of Gaol-delivery; (19) and the Appellant in any Appeals of Murder or Death of Man, where Battail by the Courſe of the Common Law lieth not, may make their Attornies, and appear by the ſame, in the ſaid Appeals after they be commenced, to the End of the Suit, and Execution of the ſame. (20) And if any Perſon be ſlain or murdered in the Day, and the Murderer ſcape untaken, that the Townſhip where the ſaid Deed is ſo done, be amerced for the ſaid Eſcape, and that the Coroner have Authority to inquire thereof upon the View of the Body dead; (21) and alſo Juſtices of Peace have Power to inquire of ſuch Eſcapes, and that to certify afore the King in his Bench; (22) and that after the Felony found, the Coroners deliver their Inquiſitions afore the Juſtices of the nert Gaol-delivery, in the Shire where the Inquiſition is taken, the ſame Juſtices to proceed againſt ſuch Murderers, if they be in the Gaol, or elſe the ſame Juſtices to put the ſame Inquiſitions afore the King in his Bench. (23) And foraſmuch as Coroners had not nor ought to have any thing by the Law for their Office doing, which oft-time hath been the Occaſion that Coroners have been remiſs in doing their Office; (24) it is ordained, That a Coroner have for his Fee, upon every Inquiſition taken upon the View of the Body ſlain xiii. s. iv. d. of the Goods and

CAP. IX.

Freemen of London may carry their Wares to any Fairs or Markets.

HUmbly ſhewen and prayen unto your Highneſs, your true and faithful Commons of this your Realm of England, That where the Citizens and Freemen of the City of London have uſed out of Time of Mind to go, carry, and lede their Merchandiſe and Ware unto all Fairs and Markets at their Liberty out of the ſaid City; now of late Time the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City of London, have made and enacted an Ordinance within the ſame City, upon a great Pain, that no Man that is a Freeman or Citizen of the ſaid City, ſhall go or come to any Fair or Market, out of the ſame City of London, with any Manner of Ware or Merchandiſe to ſell or to barter, to this Intent, that all Buyers and Merchants ſhould reſort to the ſaid City to buy their Ware and Merchandiſes of the ſaid Citizens and Freemen of London aforeſaid, becauſe of their ſingular Lucre and Avail; which Ordinance, if it ſhould hold as is before expreſſed, ſhall be to the utter Deſtruction of all other Fairs and Markets within this your Realm, which God defend, for ther be many Fairs for the common Weal of your ſaid liege People, as at Saliſbury, Briſtol, Oxenforth, Cambrigge, Notyngham, Ely, Coventre, and at many other Places where Lords Spiritual and Temporal, Abbotts, Priors, Knights, Eſquires, Gentlemen, and your ſaid Commons of every Country hath their common Reſort, to buy and purvey many Things that be good and profitable, as Ornaments of holy Church, Chalice, Books, Veſtments, and other Ornaments of holy Church aforeſaid, and alſo for Houſehold, as Victual for the Time of Lent, and other Stuff, as Linnen Cloth, Woollen Cloth, Braſs, Pewter, Bedding, Oſmonde, Iron, Flax, and Wax, and many other neceſſary Things, the which might not be forborn among your ſaid liege People; but, by the ſaid Ordinance, every Man willing to buy any of the Premiſſes, ſhall be courted to come to the ſaid City of London, to their importable Coſts and Charges, which, if the ſaid Act ſhould endure, ſhall grow great Hurt and Prejudyce to the common Weal of this your Realm, and ſhall cauſe

cauſe many pernicious Strifes and Debates between you ſaid liege People, and the ſaid Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens in Time to come, by the making of the ſaid Ordinance, the which is thought may not continue and ſtand with good Charity, the Premiſſes conſidered; Wherefore it may pleaſe your ſaid Highneſs moſt noble and abundant Grace, in Conſideration of the Hurt likely to grow of and by the Premiſſes, that it may be enacted: (2) The King our Sovereign Lord, in Conſideration of the Hurt likely to grow of and by the Premiſſes, hath by the Advice and Aſſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in the ſaid Parliament aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, ordained, ſtabliſhed, and enacted, That every Freeman and Citizen of the ſaid City of London, that now is, or hereafter ſhall be, may lead, carry, and go with his or their Victual, Ware, or Merchandiſe, whatſoever it be, at his or their Liberty, to any Fair or Market that ſhall pleaſe him or them, within this Realm of England, any Statute, Act, or Ordinance, made or to be made within the ſaid City of London to the contrary of the Premiſſes notwithſtanding; (3) and the ſaid Ordinance and Act made in the ſaid City ſhall be void and of none Effect; (4) and that no Perſon of the ſaid City be hurt or prejudiced in loſing of his Liberty and Franchiſe within the ſaid City, or otherwiſe, by Reaſon or Occaſion of adnulling and avoiding of the ſaid Ordinance and Act, or for not obeying to the Effect of the ſame. (5) And if any Perſon be prejudiced in any wiſe by Occaſion of the ſame, he that putteth or cauſeth any Perſon to ſuch Prejudice, ſhall loſe and forfeit unto the King x. l. as often as he ſo doth; (6) and he that will ſue for ſuch Forfeiture, ſhall have therefore an Action of Debt againſt ſuch Offender, the King to have Execution of the one Half, and he that ſueth the other Half; (7) and in ſuch Action the Defendant be not admitted to wage his Law.

CAP. X.

Coſts, &c. awarded to the Plaintiff, where the Defendant ſueth a Writ of Error.

ITEM, That where oftentimes Plaintiff or Demandant, Plaintiffs or Demandants, that have Judgement to recover, be delayed of Execution, for that the Defendant or Tenant, Defendants or Tenants, againſt whom Judgement is given, or other that been bound by the ſaid Judgement, ſueth a Writ or Writs of Error to adnul and reverſe the ſaid Judgement, to the Intent only to delay Execution of the ſaid Judgement: (2) It is enacted, ordained, and eſtabliſhed, by the Advice of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and at the Prayer of the Commons, in the ſaid Parliament aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, That if any ſuch Defendant or Tenant, Defendants or Tenants, or if any other that ſhall be bound by the ſaid Judgement, ſue, afore Execution had, any Writ of Error to reverſe any ſuch Judgement, in delaying of Execution, (3) that then if the ſame Judgement be affirmed good in the ſaid Writ of Error, and not erroneous, or that the ſaid Writ of Error be diſcontinued in the Default of the Party, or that any Perſon or Perſons that ſueth Writ or Writs of Error, be non-ſued in the ſame, that then the ſaid Perſon or Perſons, againſt whom the ſaid Writ of Error is ſued, ſhall recover his Coſts and Damage for his Delay and wrongful Vexation in the ſame, by Diſcretion of the Juſtice afore whom the ſaid Writ of Error is ſued.

CAP. XIV.

Conſpiring to deſtroy the King, or any Lord Counſellor, or great Officer, ſhall be Felony.

ITEM, Foraſmuch as by Quarrels made to ſuch as have been in great Authority, Office, and of Council with Kings of this Realm, hath enſued the Deſtruction of the Kings, and the undoing of this Realm; (2) ſo as it hath appeared evidently, when compaſſing of the Death of ſuch as were of the King's true Subjects was had, the Deſtruction of the Prince was imagined thereby, and for the moſt Part it hath grown and been occaſioned by Envy and Malice of the King's own Houſhold Servants, as now of late ſuch a Thing was likely to have enſued; (3) and forſomuch as by the Law of this Land, if actual Deeds be not had, there is no Remedy for ſuch falſe Compaſſings, Imaginations, and Confederacies had againſt any Lord, or any of the King's Council, or any of the King's great Officers in his Houſhold, as Steward, Treaſurer, and Comptroller, and ſo great Inconveniencies might enſue if ſuch ungodly Demeaning ſhould not be ſtraitly puniſhed before that actual Deed were done: (4) Therefore it is ordained by the King, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, of the ſaid Parliament aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, That from henceforward the Steward, Treaſurer, and Comptroller of the King's Houſe for the time being, or One of them, have full Authority and Power to enquire by Twelve ſad and diſcreet Perſons, of the Cheque-Roll of the King's honourable Houſhold, if any Servant admitted to be his Servant in his Houſe ſworn, and his Name put into the Cheque-Roll of his Houſhold, whatſoever he be, ſerving in any Manner, Office, or Room, reputed, had, and taken under the State of a Lord, make any Confederacies, Compaſſings, Conſpiracies, or Imaginations, with any Perſon or Perſons, to deſtroy or murder the King, or any Lord of this Realm, or any other Perſon ſworn to the King's Council, or Steward, Treaſurer, or Comptroller of the King's Houſe, (5) that if it be found afore the ſaid Steward for the time being, by the ſaid Twelve ſad Men, that any ſuch of the King's Servants as is aboveſaid, hath confedered, compaſſed, conſpired, or imagined, as is aboveſaid, that he ſo found by that Inquiry, be put thereupon to anſwer; (6) and the Steward, Treaſurer, and Comptroller, or Two of them, have Power to determine the ſame Matter, according to the Law: (7) And if he put him in Trial, that then it be tried by other Twelve ſad Men of the ſame Houſhold, and that ſuch Miſ-doers have no Challenge but for Malice; (8) and if ſuch Miſ-doers be found guilty by Confeſſion or otherwiſe, that the ſaid Offence be judged Felony; and they to have Judgement and Execution as Felons attainted ought for to have by the Common Law.

CAP. I.

Commiſſions of Sewers ſhall be made into all the Parts of this Realm, and to the Marches of Calice, Guynes, and Hammes, during Twenty five Years.

CAP. II.

Allaying of Gold and Silver, melting, ſelling, and marking the ſame.

ITEM, Whereas it was of old Time uſed, and continued till now of late Years, that there was for the Weal of the King and the Realm, Finers and Parters of Gold and Silver by Fire and Water, under a Rule and Order belonging unto the Mints of London, Calais, Canterbury, York, and Durham, and in other Places where Mints been holden, and at the Goldſmiths Hall in London, to fine and part all Gold and Silver belonging and needful for the ſaid Mints and Fellowſhip of Goldſmiths, for the Amendment of Money and Plate of the Realm, that every Thing might be reformed to the right Standard, as well in Money as Plate, to the leaſt Coſt, for the Weal of the King's Noblemen of the Land, and common People: (2) But ſo it is now, that ſuch Finers and Parters of Gold and Silver by Fire and Water, dwelling Abroad in every Place of this Realm out of the Rules aforeſaid, and buy gilt Silver from the Mints, Changes, and Goldſmiths, and part and fine it as is afore ſaid, and for the moſt Part of the Silver ſo fined, they do allay it in divers Manners, and ſell it at their Pleaſures to every Man of what Eſtate or Degree ſoever he be, that will buy of them, to make ſuch Works as pleaſeth the Buyers; (3) therefore Men can get no fine Silver when they need it for their Money, for the Amendment of Money and Plate, as hath been in Times paſt; wherefore it cauſeth Money and Plate in divers Places of the Realm to be made worſe in Fineneſs than it ſhould be, as it appeareth evidently in divers Places, to the great Hurt of the King's Noblemen of the Land, and common People: (4) Wherefore the King our Sovereign Lord, by the Aſſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and of the Commons, in the ſaid Parliament aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, hath ordained, enacted, and eſtabliſhed, That no Finer of Gold and Silver, nor Parter of the ſame by Fire or Water, from henceforth allay any fine Silver or Gold, ne none ſell in any other wiſe, ne to any Perſon or Perſons, but only to the Officers of Mints, Changes, and Goldſmiths within this Realm, for Augmentation and amending of Coin and Plate,

Allaying of Gold and Silver, and ſelling of the ſame.

Plate, as is aforeſaid; (5) and that the Maſters of Mints, Changes, and Goldſmiths, for all ſuch fine Gold or Silver coming to them, to anſwer the Value as it is worth, according as it is now and hath been in ancient Time accuſtomed after the Rate of Fineneſs: (6) Ne that no Finer nor Finers, Parter nor Parters, ſell to no Perſon, neither to one nor to other, any Manner of Silver into Maſs molten and allayed, upon Pain of Forfeiture of the ſame, the King thereof to have one Half, and the Finder that can prove, and will ſue for it in the King's Exchequer, the other Half. (7) And if any Finer or Finers, Parter or Parters of Gold and Silver, either by Fire or Water, allay or ſell any Manner fine Gold or Silver, otherwiſe than it is ordained in this Act, he or they to loſe the Value of the ſame Gold or Silver ſo allayed or ſold; the King to have the one Half, and the Finder that can prove it, and will ſue for it in the King's Exchequer, the other Half. (8) Alſo all ſuch fine Silver as ſhall be parted and fined as is afore ſaid, that it be made ſo fine, that it may bear Twelve Penny Weight of Allay in a Pound Weight, and yet it be as good as Sterling, and rather better than worſe; (9) and that every Finer put his ſeveral Mark upon ſuch fine Silver, to bear witneſs of the ſame to be true, as is afore ſaid, upon the Pain of the Value found contrary to be forfeit; the King thereof to have the one Half, and the Finder that can prove it, and will ſue for it in the Exchequer, the other Half. (10) And that no Goldſmith nor Goldſmiths within this Realm melt or allay any fine Silver, to be for any Works or other Intent, but only for making of Amels, for divers Works of Goldſmithry, and for amending of Plate to make it as good as Sterling, or better, for the common Weal of this Realm.

Of what Fineneſs Silver ought to be.

A Finer of Gold and Silver muſt put his Mark upon it.

37 Ed. 3. c. 7. 18 El. c. 15.

For what Purpoſes Silver may be melted.

II. Nor that they ſell no fine Silver, nor other Silver allayed, molten into Maſs, to any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever they be, nor one Goldſmith to another. (2) This Ordinance to be kept by the Goldſmiths in every Point, upon Pain of Forfeiture of the ſame Silver, or the Value thereof; the King thereof to have the one Half, and the Finder that can prove it, and will ſue for it in the King's Exchequer, the other Half.

Silver molten into Maſs ſhall not be ſold.

III. Alſo it is ordained by the ſame Authority, That all Letters Patents and Grants of Offices belonging or pertaining to the Mint of our Sovereign Lord the King, or exerciſed in the ſame, with Fees and Wages thereto belonging, be from henceforth void and of none Effect.

A Repeal of Patents of Offices belonging to the Mint.

CAP. III.

Butchers ſhall kill no Beaſts within any walled Town, or Cambridge.

ITEM it was ſhewed by a Petition put to the King our ſaid Sovereign Lord, in the ſaid Parliament, by his Subjects and Pariſhioners of the Pariſh of St. Faiths', and St. Gregory's in London, near adjoining unto the Cathedral Church of St. Paul's, That whereas great Concourſe of People, as well of his Royal Perſon, as of other great Lords and States, with other his true Subjects, oftentimes was had unto the ſaid Cathedral Church of St. Paul's, and that for the moſt Part throughout the Pariſhes aforeſaid, the which oftentimes been greatly annoyed and diſtempered by corrupt Airs engendered in the ſaid Pariſhes, by Occaſion of Blood, and other fouler Things, by Reaſon of the Slaughter of Beaſts, and Scalding of Swine, had and done in the Butchery of St. Nicholas's Fleſh-Shambles, whoſe Corruption and foul Ordure, by Violence of unclean, corrupt, and putrified Waters, is borne down through the ſaid Pariſhes, and compaſſeth Two Parts of the Palace, where the King's moſt Royal Perſon is wont to abide when he cometh to the Cathedral Church for any Act there to be done, to the jeopardous abiding of his moſt noble Perſon, and to over-great Annoyance of the Pariſhioners there, and of other the King's Subjects and Strangers that paſs by the ſame; (2) Complaint whereof, at many and divers Seaſons, alſo by the Space of Sixteen Years continually, as well by the Canons and petty Canons of the ſaid Cathedral Church, Landlords there, as alſo by many other of the King's Subjects of right honeſt Behaviour, hath been made unto divers Mayors and Aldermen of the City of London, and no Remedy had ne found; (3) that it may pleaſe our ſaid Sovereign Lord, of his abundant Grace, to provide for the Conſervation as well of his moſt Royal Perſon, as to ſuccour his poor Subjects and Suppliants in this Behalf, conſidering that in few noble Cities and Towns, or none within Chriſtendom, whereas travelling Men have laboured, the common Slaughter-houſe of Beaſts ſhould be kept in any ſpecial Part within the Walls of the ſame, leſt it might ingender Sickneſs, unto the Deſtruction of the People: (4) The King our Sovereign Lord, in Conſideration of the Premiſſes, hath, by the Advice and Aſſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, of the ſaid Parliament aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, ordained and enacted, That no Butcher, nor his Servant, ſlay no Manner Beaſt within the ſaid Houſe called the Scalding-houſe, or within the Walls of London, upon Pain to forfeit for every Ox Twelve Pence, and every Cow, and every other Beaſt Eight Pence; (5) the one Half thereof to the King our Sovereign Lord, and the other Half to every of the King's Lieges that will ſue for the ſame by Action of Debt, and no Protection or Eſſoin be allowed to any of the Defendants againſt whom any ſuch Action ſhall be conceived; and that in the ſame Action of Debt ſuch Proceſs be made, as in other Actions of Debt ſued at the Common Law. (6) And over this it is ordained and enacted by the ſaid Authority, That the ſaid Ordinance, Act, and Law, extend, and be obſerved and kept in every City, Borough, and Town, walled within his Realm of England, and in the Town of Cambridge (the Towns of Berwick and Carliſle, except and foreprized.) CAP. XII.

All Juſtices of Peace ſhall execute their Commiſſion, redreſs Injuries, and maintain the Laws.

4 Inſt. 170.

ITEM the King our Sovereign Lord conſidereth, That by the Negligence, Miſdemeaning, Favour, and other inordinate Cauſes of Juſtices of Peace in every Shire of this his Realm, the Laws and Ordinances made for the politique Weal, Peace, and good Rule of the ſame, and for the perfect Surety, and reſtful Living of his Subjects of the ſame, be not duly executed according to the Tenour and Effect that they were made and ordained for; (2) wherefore his Subjects been grievouſly hurt, and out of Surety of their Bodies and Goods, to his great Diſpleaſure; for to him is nothing more joyous than to know his Subjects to live peaceably under his Laws, and to increaſe in Wealth and Proſperity, (3) and to avoid ſuch Enormities and Injuries, ſo that his ſaid Subjects may live reſtfully under his Peace and Laws, to their Increaſe: (4) He will that it be ordained and enacted by Authority of this ſaid Parliament, That every Juſtice of Peace within every Shire of this Realm, within the Shire where he is Juſtice of Peace, do cauſe openly and ſolemnly to be proclaimed yearly Four Times a Year, in Four principal Seſſions, the Tenor of this Proclamation to this Bill annexed; (5) and that every Juſtice of Peace being preſent at any of the ſaid Seſſions, if they cauſe not the ſaid Proclamation for to be made in Form aboveſaid, ſhall forfeit unto our Sovereign Lord at every Time xx s.

Every Juſtice of Peace ſhall cauſe this Proclamation to be made four times in the Year.

II. HENRICUS Dei Gratia, &c. The King our Sovereign Lord conſidereth, how daily within this Realm his Coin is traiterouſly counterfeited, Murders, Robberies, Felonies, been grievouſly committed and done, and alſo unlawful Reteinors, Idleneſs, unlawful Plays, Extorſions, Misdemeanings of Sheriffs, Eſcheators, and many other Enormities and unlawful Demeanings daily grown more and more within this Realm, to the great Diſpleaſure of God, Hurt and Impoveriſhing of his Subjects, and to the Subverſion of the Policy and good Governance of this his Realm; for by theſe ſaid Enormities and Miſchiefs his Peace is broken, his Subjects troubled, inquieted, and impoveriſhed, the Husbandry of this Land decayed, whereby the Church of England is upholden, the Service of God continued, every Man thereby hath his Suſtenance, every Inheritor his Rent for his Land: (2) For repreſſing and avoiding of the ſaid Miſchief, ſufficient Laws and Ordinances have been made by Authority of many and divers Parliaments holden within this Realm, to the great Coſt of the King, his Lords, and Commons of the ſame, and lacketh nothing, but that the ſaid Laws be be not put in due Execution, which Laws ought to be put in due Execution by the Juſtices of Peace of every Shire of this Realm, to whom his Grace hath put and given full Authority ſo to do ſith the Beginning of his Reign. (3) And now it is come to his Knowledge, that his Subjects be little eaſed of the ſaid Miſchiefs by the ſaid Juſtices, but by many of them rather hurt than helped; and if his Subjects complain to theſe Juſtices of Peace, of any Wrongs done to them, they have thereby no Remedy, and the ſaid Miſchiefs do increaſe, and be not ſubdued. (4) And his Grace conſidereth, That a great Part of the Wealth and Proſperity of this Land ſtandeth in that, that his Subjects may live in Surety under his Peace in their Bodies and Goods, and that the Husbandry of this Land may increaſe and be upholden, which muſt be had by due Execution of the ſaid Laws and Ordinances, chargeth and commandeth all the Juſtices of the Peace of this his Shire, to endeavour them to do and execute the Tenor of their Commiſſion, and the ſaid Laws and Ordinances ordained for the ſubduing of the Premiſſes, as they will ſtand in the Love and Favour of his Grace, and in avoiding of the Pains that be ordained if they do the contrary. (5) And moreover he chargeth and commandeth, That every Man, what Degree or Condition that he be of, that let them in Word or Deed to execute their ſaid Authority in any Manner Form abovеſaid, that they ſhew it to his Grace; and if they do not, and it come to his Knowledge by other than by them, they ſhall not be in his Favour, but taken as Men out of Credence, and be put out of Commiſſion for ever. (6) And over this he chargeth and commandeth all Manner of Men, as well the Poor as the Rich (which be to him all one in due Miniſtration of Juſtice) that is hurt or grieved in any thing that the ſaid Juſtice of Peace may hear, determine, or execute in any wiſe, that he ſo grieved make his Complaint to the Juſtice of Peace that next dwelleth unto him, or to any of his Fellows, and deſire a Remedy; (7) and if then he hath no Remedy, if it be nigh ſuch Time as his Juſtices of Aſſiſes come into that Shire, that then he ſo grieved ſhew his Complaint to the ſame Juſtices; (8) and if then he have no Remedy, or if the Complaint be made long afore the coming of the Juſtices of Aſſiſe, then he ſo grieved come to the King's Highneſs, or to his Chancellor for the time being, and ſhew his Grief; (9) and his ſaid Highneſs then ſhall ſend for the ſaid Juſtices, to know the Cauſe why his ſaid Subjects be not eaſed, and his Laws executed; whereupon if he find any of them in Default of executing of his Laws in the Premiſſes, according to his high Commandment, he ſhall do him ſo offending to be put out of the Commiſſion, and further to be puniſhed according to his Demerits. (10) And over that, his ſaid Highneſs ſhall not let for any Favour, Affection, Coſt, Charge, nor other Cauſe, but that he ſhall ſee his Laws to have plain and true Execution, and his Subjects to live in Surety of their Lands, Bodies, and Goods, according to his ſaid Laws, and the ſaid Miſchiefs to be avoided, that his Subjects may encreaſe in Wealth and Proſperity, to the Pleaſure of God.

The Slackneſs of Juſtices of Peace in the due Execution of the Laws.

Juſtices neglecting to execute their Commiſſions, or any one obſtructing them, liable to Pains and the King's Diſpleaſure.

Perſons grieved may complain to the Juſtices of Peace; and, if they have no Remedy, to the Juſtices of Aſſiſe, and then to the King or his Chancellor.

The Puniſhment of the Juſtice found guilty of omitting his Duty.

CAP. XIII.

Clergy ſhall be allowed but once. A convict Perſon ſhall be marked with the Letters M or T. A Proviſion for them which be within Orders.

ITEM, Whereas upon Truſt of the Privilege of the Church, divers Perſons lettered have been the more bold to commit Murder, Rape, Robbery, Theft, and all other miſchievous Deeds, becauſe they have been continually admitted to the Benefit of the Clergy as oft as they did offend in any of the Premiſſes; (2) in avoiding ſuch preſumptuous Boldneſs, It is enacted, ordained, and ſtabliſhed by the Authority of this preſent Parliament, That every Perſon, not being within Orders, which once hath been admitted to the Benefit of his Clergy, eſtſoons arraigned of any ſuch Offence, be not admitted to have the Benefit or Priviledge of his Clergy: (3) And that every Perſon ſo convicted for Murder, to be marked with an M upon the Brawn of the Left Thumb; and if he be for any other Felony, the ſame Perſon to be marked with a T in the ſame Place of the Thumb, and thoſe Marks to be made by the Gaoler openly in the Court before the Judge, before that ſuch Perſon be delivered to the Ordinary. (4) Provided alway, if any Perſon at the ſecond Time of asking his Clergy, becauſe he is within Orders, hath not then and there ready his Letters of his Orders, or a Certificate of his Ordinary witneſſing the ſame, that then the Juſtices, afore whom he is ſo arraigned, ſhall give him a Day by their Diſcretion to bring in his ſaid Letters or Certificate; (5) and if he fail, and bring not in at ſuch a Day his ſaid Letters, nor Certificate, then the ſame Perſon to loſe the Benefit of his Clergy, as he ſhall do that is without Orders.

Clergy ſhall be allowed but once. Hob. 288, 294.

Actions popular, prosecuted by Collusion, shall be no Bar to those which be pursued with good Faith.

ITEM, That where Actions popular in divers Cases have been ordained by many good Acts and Statutes afore this Time made, for the Reformation of Extortions, Maintenances, Oppressions, Injuries, Exactions, and Wrongs used and committed within this Realm, (2) which Actions been very penal to all Misdoers and Offenders in such Actions condemned, and much profitable as well to the King, as to every of his Subjects that them will sue and maintain, if the same Actions so sued and commenced might be truly pursued without Covin or Collusion. (3) But now it is so commonly used within this Realm, that if any such Offenders offending in Cases where any of the said Actions lie, then the said Misdoers or Offenders, in eschewing to leese the said Penalties, will cause an Action popular to be commenced against them by Covin of the Plaintiff, upon that Case wherein they have so offended; (4) or else if any such Action popular be commenced against any such said Offender by good Faith, then the same Offender will delay the said Action, either by Non-appearance or by Traverse, and, hanging the same Action, the same Offender will cause like Action popular to be brought against him by Covin, for the same Cause and Offence that the first Action was sued, and then by Covin of the Plaintiff in that second Action he will be condemned, either by Confession, feigned Trial, or Release; (5) which Condemnation or Release, so had by Collusion and Covin pleaded by the said Offender, shall bar the Plaintiff in the Action sued in good Faith; (6) and by these subtil Means of Collusion and Covin the said good Acts and Statutes seldom been executed against such Offenders which causeth them to be bolder to offend the King, as well in breaking of the said Statutes, Laws, and Peace, as in robbing, murdering, Exactions taking, Quarrels maintaining, and the King's poor Subjects by Extortion and many other unlawful Means oppressing: (7) Therefore the King our Sovereign Lord, in reforming of the Premisses, by the Advice and Assent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and at the Request of the said Commons, in this said present Parliament assembled, and by Authority of the same, hath ordained, established, and enacted, That if any Person or Persons hereafter sue with good Faith any Action popular, and the Defendant or Defendants in the same Action plead any Manner of Recovery of Action popular in Bar of the said Action, or else that the same Defendant or Defendants plead, that he or they before that Time barred any such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs in any such Action popular, that then the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs in the Action taken with good Faith may aver, that the said Recovery in the said Action popular was had by Covin, or else to aver that the said Plaintiff or

CAP. I.

The Penalty of a Captain or Soldier retained to ſerve the King in his intended Wars, not doing their Duties.

3 Inſt. 86. 6 Co. 27. 3 Mod. 124.

FOR as much as it is notoriouſly known, that the King, to his great Coſts and Charges, hath ſent his Ambaſſadors to CHARLES his Adverſary of France, to have had a convenient Peace with him, and to have his Right without Effuſion of Chriſtian Blood, which was refuſed; (2) wherefore the King, by the Grace of God, in whoſe Hands and Diſpoſition reſteth all Victory, hath determined himſelf to paſs over the Sea into his Realm of France, and to reduce Poſſeſſion thereof by the ſaid Grace to him, and to his Heirs, Kings of England, according to his rightful Title, whereby he truſteth not only to bring this his Realm to the ancient Fame and Honour, but alſo to inrich, and ſet in perfect Peace and Tranquillity his Subjects of the ſame, truſting that thereby the more Part of all Chriſtian Realms ſhall be in more perfect Peace and Tranquillity, and the better diſpoſed to ſerve God; which cannot be done by all Likelihood without Battle, as well on the Sea, as in other Places beyond the Sea, wherein Almighty God muſt be Judge, in whoſe Defence, Mercy, and Goodneſs, the King putteth his full Truſt above all other Things; (3) howbeit, many Times, by the inordinate Covetiſe of Captains retained with Princes afore this Time, great Part of the Number of Soldiers, for whom ſuch Captains have endented with Princes, at Time of Need have lacked of their Number of Soldiers, whereby great Jeopardies have enſued, and irrecuperable Damages thereby may enſue, if Remedy be not therefore foreſeen and had: (4) Be it therefore ordained by the Authority of this preſent Parliament, That if any Captain be retained, or hereafter ſhall be, to ſerve the King on the Sea, or beyond the Sea in Feat of War, which hath not his or their whole and perfect Number of Men and Soldiers, according as he ſhall be retained with the King, or give not them their full Wages without ſhorting as he ſhall receive of the King for them, except for Jackets for them that receive Land-wages, that is to ſay, vi. s. viii. d. for a Yeoman, and xiii. s. iv. d. for a Gentleman, for a whole Year, he ſhall for ſuch Default forfeit to the King all his Goods and Chattles, and their Bodies to Priſon.

The Penalty of a Captain which ſhall not have the whole Number of his Soldiers, or not pay them their Wages. 3 H. 8. c. 5.

II. And that every Captain, petty Captain, and all other having under them Retinue of any Soldier or Soldiers at the King's Wages, ſhall, upon the Pain aforeſaid, pay to their Retinue of Soldier or Soldiers, and every of the ſame, the Wages rateably as is allowed unto them by the King our Sovereign Lord, or the Treaſurer of his Wars, without leſſening or withdrawing any Part thereof; (2) and for as long Time as they ſhall receive Wages for them, this Payment unto the ſaid Retinues, and every Soldier of the ſame, of their Captains and petty Captains, always ſhall be within Six Days next and immediately after that the ſaid Captain, petty Captain, or other ſhall have received their Wages of the King, or of the Treaſurer of his Wars, or their Lords or Maſters. (3) And if any Soldier, being no Captain, immediately retained with the King, which hereafter ſhall be in Wages and retained, or take any Preſt, to ſerve the King upon the Sea, or upon the Land beyond the Sea, depart out of the King's Service without Licence of his Captain, that ſuch departing be taken, deemed, and adjudged Felony, and that he ſo offending ſuffer for the ſaid Offence Puniſhment and Execution of Felony. (4) And foraſmuch as his Offence ſtretcheth to the Hurt and Jeopardy of the King our Sovereign Lord, the Nobles of the Realm, and of all the Common Weal thereof, that therefore he or they ſo offending enjoy not the Benefit of his Clergy. (5) And that it be ordained by the ſaid Authority, That all the Juſtices of the Peace in every Shire of England, whereas any ſuch Offenders be taken, have Power to inquire of the ſaid Offences, and the ſame to hear and determine, as they do and may do of Felonies, Treſpaſſes, and of other Offences expreſſed in the King's Commiſſion to them made, as though the ſaid Offences were done in the ſame Shire. (6) And alſo that the ſaid Departing of ſuch Soldiers, and alſo their Retainers, if it be traverſed, be tried in the ſame Shire where they be for ſuch Cauſe arreſted and arraigned. (7) Provided alway, That no Captain be charged by this Act for lack of his Number retained, as is aboveſaid, whoſe Soldiers ſhall hap to die, or otherwiſe depart, not in the Default of the Captain; ſo that the ſaid Captain, if he be at Land-wages, ſhew the departing or lacking of his Soldier, within Ten Days after the lacking of Statutes made at Weſtminſter, Anno 11 HEN. VII. and Anno Dom. 1494.

THE King our Sovereign Lord HENRY the Seventh after the Conqueſt, by the Grace of God King of England, and of France, and Lord of Ireland, at his Parliament holden at Weſtminſter the Fourteenth Day of October, in the Eleventh Year of his Reign, to the Honour of God and holy Church, and for the common Profit of the Realm, by the Aſſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in the ſaid Parliament aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſaid Parliament, hath done to be made certain Statutes and Ordinances, in Manner and Form following.

CAP. I.

None that ſhall attend upon the King and do him true Service ſhall be attainted, or forfeit any Thing.

THE King our Sovereign Lord, calling to his Remembrance the Duty of Allegiance of his Subjects of this his Realm, and that they by reaſon of the ſame are bound to ſerve their Prince and Sovereign Lord for the time being, in his Wars, for the Defence of him, and the Land, againſt every Rebellion, Power, and Might reared againſt him, and with him to enter and abide in Service in Battle, if caſe ſo require; (2) and that for the ſame Service what Fortune ever fall by Chance in the ſame Battle againſt the Mind and Will of the Prince (as in this Land ſome Time paſſed hath been ſeen) that it is not reaſonable, but againſt all Laws, Reaſon, and good Conſcience, that the ſaid Subjects going with their Sovereign Lord in Wars, attending upon him in his Perſon, or being in other Places by his Commandment, within this Land, or without, any Thing ſhould loſe or forfeit for doing their true Duty and Service of Allegiance: (3) It be therefore ordained, enacted, and eſtabliſhed by the King our Sovereign Lord, by the Advice and Aſſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, That from henceforth no Manner of Perſon or Perſons, whatſoever he or they be, that attend upon the King and Sovereign Lord of this Land for the time being, in his Perſon, and do him true and faithful Service of Allegiance in the ſame, or be in other Places by his Commandment in his Wars, within this Land or without, 3 Inſt. 71 without, that for the ſaid Deed and true Duty of Allegiance he or they be in no wiſe convict or attaint of high Treaſon, ne of other Offences for that Cauſe, by Act of Parliament, or otherwiſe by any Proceſs of Law, whereby he or any of them ſhall loſe or forfeit Life, Lands, Tenements, Rents, Poſſeſſions, Hereditaments, Goods, Chattles, or any other Things; but to be for that Deed and Service utterly diſcharged of any Vexation, Trouble, or Loſs. (4) And if any Act or Acts, or other Proceſs of the Law hereafter thereupon for the ſame happen to be made, contrary to this Ordinance, that then that Act or Acts, or other Proceſſes of the Law, whatſoever they ſhall be, ſtand, and be utterly void. (5) Provided alway, That no Perſon or Perſons ſhall take any Benefit or Advantage by this Act, which ſhall hereafter decline from his or their ſaid Allegiance.

The Forfeiture for taking of Feſants or Partridges, or the Eggs of Hawks or Swans.

ITEM, Foraſmuch as divers Perſons, having little Subſtance to live upon, uſe many Times as well by Nets, Snares, or other Engines, to take and deſtroy Feſants and Partridges upon the Lordſhips, Manors, Lands, and Tenements of divers Owners or Poſſeſſioners of the ſame, without Licence, Conſent, or Agreement of the ſame Owners or Poſſeſſioners, by the which the ſame Owners and Poſſeſſioners leeſe not only their Pleaſure and Diſport that they, their Friends and Servants ſhould have about Hawking, Hunting, and taking of the ſame, but alſo they leeſe the Profit and Avail that by that Occaſion ſhould grow to their Houſhold, to the great Hurt of all Lords and Gentlemen, and other, having any great Livelihood within this Realm: (2) Wherefore it is ordained and enacted by the Authority of this preſent Parliament, That it ſhall not be lawful to any Perſon, of what Condition he be, to take, or cauſe to be taken, any Feſants or Partridges by Net, Snares, or other Engines, out of his own Warren, upon the Freehold of any other Perſon, without the Aſſent, Agreement, and ſpecial Licence of the Owner or Poſſeſſioner of the ſame, upon Pain of Forfeiture of x. li. the one Half thereof to the Party that will ſue for the ſame by Action of Debt, or by Bill, or otherwiſe, and the other Half thereof to the Owner or Poſſeſſioner of the ſaid Ground, upon the which the ſaid Feſants and Partridges be ſo taken: (4) Alſo it is ordained by the ſaid Authority, That no Manner of Perſon, of what Condition or Degree he be, take or cauſe to be taken, be it upon his own Ground, or any other Man's, the Eggs of any Falcon, Goſhawks, Laners, or Swans, out of the Neſt, upon Pain of Impriſonment of a Year and a Day, and Fine at the King's Will, the one Half thereof to the King, and the other Half to the Owner of the Ground where the Eggs were ſo taken, and that the Juſtices of Peace have Authority, by this preſent Act, to hear and determine ſuch Matter, as well by Inquiſition as Information and Proofs. (5) Alſo it is ordained by the ſaid Authority, That no Man from the Feaſt of Paſche next coming, bear any Hawk of the Breed of England, called a Nyeſſe, Goſhawk, Taſſel, Laner, Laneret, or Faulcon, upon Pain of Forfeiture of his Hawk to the King, and the ſaid Hawk to be at the King's Pleaſure: (6) And that all ſuch Perſons as bring any Nyeſſe Hawk or Hawks, from any the Parties beyond the Sea, bring a Certificate under the Cuſtomers Seal of the Port where he firſt landed with the ſaid Hawk or Hawks: (7) Or if he come out of Scotland, then under the Seal of the Warden, or his Lieutenant of that March that he cometh through, teſtifying, that the ſame Hawk or Hawks be of the Parties beyond the Sea, or of Scotland, upon the ſame Pain; (8) and that the Perſon that bringeth any ſuch Hawk or Hawks to the King, ſhall have a reaſonable Reward of the King, or elſe the ſame Hawk or Hawks for his Labour. (9) Alſo it is ordained by the ſame Authority, That no Man take any Ayrer Faulcon, Goſhawk, Taſſel, or Laner, or Lanerets, in their Warren or Woods, or in other Place, nor purpoſely drive them out of their Coverts accuſtomed to breed in, to cauſe them to go to other Coverts to breed, nor ſlay them for any Hurt by them done, but ſuffer them to paſs at their Liberties, (10) upon Pain of Ten Pounds, the one Half thereof to the Party that will ſue for the ſame by Action of Debt, by Examination before the Juſtices of the Peace, Information, or otherwiſe, and the other Half to the King. (11) Provided alway, That the Moiety of the Forfeiture aboveſaid, given to the Owner of the Ground for taking of Swans Eggs, be unto the Owner of the ſaid Swans, and not to the Owner of the Ground.

CAP. XVIII.

The Forfeiture of him which goeth not in Perſon with the King in his Wars, when he is in Perſon.

WHereas every Subject, by the Duty of his Allegiance, is bounden to ſerve and aſſiſt his Prince and Sovereign Lord at all Seaſons when Need ſhall require, and moſt ſpecially ſuch Perſons as have by him Promotion or Advancement, as Grants and Gifts of Offices, Fees, and Annuities, which owe and verily be bound of Reaſon to give their Attendance upon his Royal Perſon, to defend the ſame, when he ſhall fortune to go in his Perſon in Wars for Defence of the Realm, or againſt his Rebels and Enemies, for the ſubduing and repreſſing of them and their malicious Purpoſe: (2) Wherefore be it enacted and eſtabliſhed by the King our Sovereign Lord, by the Advice of his Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, That if any Perſon or Perſons, being within this Realm of England or Wales, having ſuch Offices, Fees, or Annuities, by any of his rehearſed Gifts and Grants, do not give their Attendance upon him, when he ſhall fortune to go in Wars in his Perſon, in their ſaid Perſons, as their Duty bindeth them; that then they, and every of them making thereof Default (the King's ſpecial Licence not had, or elſe he have ſuch unfeigned Sickneſs, Letting, or Diſeaſe, that he may not in his Perſon come to do his perſonal Attendance and Service after the Form aforeſaid, and that duly proved) that then every ſuch Perſon or Perſons forfeit and loſe their ſaid Offices, Fees, and Annuities, and to ſtand void at the King's Pleaſure, any Act, Ordinance, or Statute to the contrary afore this Time had or made in any wiſe notwithſtanding. (3) Provided, That this Act extend not to any Spiritual Perſon, Maſter of the Rolls, ne to any other Officer and Clerks of the Chancery, Juſtices of either Bench, Barons of the King's Exchequer, and other Officers and Clerks of the ſaid Places, the King's Attornies and Solicitor, and the Serjeants at Law. (4) Provided alway, That this Act ſhall not extend to any Perſon having any ſuch Offices of the King's Highneſs, and being in his Service within his Towns and Fortilities of Berwick and Carlyle, ne to the Clerk of the King's Council for the time being.

He that will not go in Perſon with the King in his Wars, where he is in Perſon, ſhall loſe his Offices, &c. granted by the King.

Certain Perſons whereunto this Statute doth not extend. Dyer, 211.

CAP. XIX.

What Stuff Upholſters ſhall put in Bolſters, Feather-beds, and Pillows.

TO the Right Worſhipful Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, ſheweth unto your diſcreet Wiſdoms, the Wardens of the Fellowſhip of the Craft of Upholſters within the City of London, (2) That whereas divers Perſons within the Realm of England, out of the ſaid City, make and do to be made unlawful and falſe Wares and Merchandiſes, to the great Rebuke and Slander of the ſaid Craft, and alſo great Jeopardy, Loſs, and Deceit to the King's Subjects, wherefore there is no ſufficient Remedy purveyed, for ſo much as the ſame Wardens have no Power nor Authority to make due Search of ſuch falſe deceivable Wares and Merchandiſes put to Sale out of the ſaid City, as they have Power and Authority within the ſame City, as in Feather-beds, Bolſters, and Pillows, made of Two Manner of corrupt Stuffs, that is to ſay, of ſcalded Feathers, and dry pulled Feathers together, and of Flocks and Feathers together, which is contagious for Man's Body to lie on, and alſo in Quilts, Mattreſſes, and Cuſhions, ſtuffed with Horſe-hair, Fenn-down, Neats-hair, Deers-hair, and Goats-hair, which is wrought in Lime-fats, and by the Heat of Man's Body the Savour and Taſte is ſo abominable and contagious, that many of the King's Subjects thereby been deſtroyed; (3) which deceitful making of the foreſaid corrupt and unlawful Stuff is to the great Loſs and impoveriſhing of the King's liege People, and alſo to the great Rebuke and Slander to the ſaid Craft of Upholſters: (4) Therefore may it pleaſe the King's Highneſs, by the Advice of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and his Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, to eſtabliſh, ordain, and enact, That from henceforth no Perſon ne Perſons ſhall make, utter, ne put to Sale in Fairs, ne in Markets within this his ſaid Realm, any Feather-beds, Bolſters, or Pillows, except they be ſtuffed with one Manner of Stuff, that is to ſay, with dry pulled Feathers, or elſe with clean Down alone, and with no ſcalded Feathers, nor Fen-down, nor none other unlawful and corrupt Stuffs, as is afore rehearſed, but utterly to be damned for ever: (5) Except if any Perſon or Perſons, for their own proper Uſe in their Houſes, make or do to be made any of the foreſaid corrupt and unlawful Stuff and Wares, ſo they be not offered to be ſold in Fairs and Markets, upon Pain of Forfeiture. (6) And alſo in like wiſe, Quilts, Mattreſſes, and Cuſhions, be ſtuffed with one Manner of Stuff, that is to ſay, with clean Wooll, or clean Flocks alone, and with no ſuch unlawful Stuff afore rehearſed, upon Pain of Loſs and Forfeiture of all ſuch unlawful Wares and Merchandiſes.

(4) Provided alway, That the ſaid Women, after the Deceaſe of their ſaid Husbands, may re-enter into the ſame Manors, Lands, and Tenements, and them to enjoy according to their firſt Eſtate in the ſame. (5) And over this be it ordained and enacted by the ſaid Authority, That if the ſaid Woman, at the Time of ſuch Diſcontinuance, Alienations, Recoveries, Warranties, after the ſaid Firſt Day of December, in Form aforeſaid, to be had and made of any of the Premiſſes, be ſole, that then ſhe ſhall be barred and excluded of her Title and Intereſt in the ſame from thenceforth; (6) and that the Perſon and Perſons to whom the Title, Intereſt, and Poſſeſſion of the ſame ſhould belong after the Deceaſe of the ſaid Woman, ſhall immediately after the ſaid Diſcontinuances, Alienations, Warranties, and Recoveries, enter into the ſame Manors, Lands, Tenements, and other Hereditaments, and them to poſſeſs and enjoy according to his or their Title in the ſame. (7) Provided alſo, That this Act extend not to avoid any Recovery, Diſcontinuance, or Warranty after the Form aforeſaid, afore this Time had, made, and ſuffered, but only where the ſaid Husband and Woman, or either of them now being alive, or any other to their Uſe, now have Entries and Title to the ſaid Manors, Lands, Tenements, or other Hereditaments, alienated, diſcontinued, or ſuffered to be recovered after the Form aforeſaid, and thereof now taking the Iſſues and Profits, or any other Perſon or Perſons to their Uſe. (8) Provided alſo, That this Act extend not to any ſuch Recovery or Diſcontinuance to be had where the Heirs nert inheritable to the ſaid Woman, (9) or he or they that next after the Death of the ſame Woman ſhould have Eſtate of Inheritance in the ſame Manors, Lands, or Tenements, be aſſenting or agreeable to the ſaid Recoveries, where the ſame Aſſent and Agreement is of Record, or inrolled. (10) Provided alſo, That it ſhall be lawful to every ſuch Woman being ſole, or married after the Death of her firſt Husband, to give, ſell, or make Diſcontinuance of any ſuch Lands for Term of her Life only, after the Courſe and Uſe of the Common Law before the making of this preſent Act.

fault of Jurors, by Challenge or otherwise, that upon every Tales granted, the said Mayor and Aldermen shall impanel the said Persons which were certified by the said Aldermen or their Deputies, and omitted out of the said Panel, or put therein other Person or Persons, being Citizens of the said City, of the Substance of C. li. or more. (13) And also, That all the Plea or Pleas to be alledged and pleaded by or for the Tenant or Defendant, Tenants or Defendants, or by any of the Jurors of the Pety Jury in the same Attaint, and triable by any Jury or Inquest, shall be tried within the same City, and by the Inquests of the same, and in none other Place ne County. (14) And that none of the said Pety Jury, ne other Parties named in any such Bill of Attaint, shall or may have any Challenge to the Array, or to any Person or Poll therein being impanelled, for lack of sufficiency of Goods or of Lands. (15) Over that it be provided and enacted, That the Judgement in any such Attaint shall not extend to any Lands or Tenements, ne to other Punishment of the Pety Jury, ne other Process to be in the same Attaint, than is limited and appointed in this present Act. (16) And if the xxiv. Persons of the said xlviij. Persons sworn in the same Attaint find that the Jurors named in the Pety Jury have made and given an untrue Verdict, that then the Judgement shall be against the Party Defendant in the same Attaint, as is used in Attaint sued by Writ at Common Law: (17) And furthermore, the Judgement in the same Attaint shall be against the Pety Jury, that every of the Jurors of the same Pety Jury shall forfeit and lose xx. li. or more, by the Discretion of the Mayor and Aldermen of the said City, keeping the same Hustings, or any other Hustings of Common Pleas, to such Use and Behoof as other Issues and Penalties been forfeited and lost in any Action or Plaint commenced before the Mayor and Aldermen of the same City, and his Body to be imprisoned, there to remain without Bail or Mainprise Six Months, or less, by the Discretion of the Mayor and Aldermen of the same City for the time being, and to be disabled for ever to be sworn in any Jury before any Temporal Judge. (18) And over that, be it enacted by the same Authority, That if it be found by the Grand Jury in the same Attaint, that the Pety Jury have given a true Verdict, that then the Grand Jury shall have Authority and Power to inquire if any of the Pety Jury took or perceived any Sum of Money or other Reward, or Promise of Money or other Reward, of them named Defendants or Tenants in the same Attaint, or if any other Person or Persons, by the Commandment, Covin, or Assent of any of them, to or for the Intent of their Verdict given, whereupon the same Attaint is grounded; (19) and after any such Corruption by the said Grand Jury is founden, that then the Juror or Jurors of the said Pety Jury, that is found so defective in taking and perceiving any Sums of Money, or other Reward, or Promise of Reward, shall lose, forfeit, and pay to the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs named in the same Attaint, Ten times the Value of that Sum or other Reward so taken, perceived, or promised in Form aforesaid, and shall suffer Imprisonment without Bail or Mainprise Six Months, or less, by the Discretion of the said Mayor and Aldermen, and shall be disabled for ever to be sworn in any Jury before any Temporal Judge. (20) And over that be it enacted, That such Defendant or Tenant, Defendants or Tenants in the same Attaint, shall lose, forfeit, and pay to such Use and Behoof, as other Penalties been forfeited within the same City, Ten times the Value of that Sum of Money, or other Reward by him or them so given to any of the said Pety Jury; and the same Defendant or Tenant, Defendants or Tenants, shall be imprisoned, there to remain without Bail or Mainprise during Six Months, or less, by the Discretion of the said Mayor and Aldermen. (21) And if any Debts, Damages, or Costs be recovered in any Action whereupon such Attaint is grounded, and by the same Attaint it be found, that the Pety Jury have given a false Serement, that then for the Recovery and Restitution of the same Debt, Damages, and Costs, the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs in every Attaint shall and may have and sue an Action of Debt against the same Defendant or Tenant, by Writ, Bill, or Plaint in every of the King's Courts, wherein the same Defendant or Tenant, and every of them, shall not be received to do his Law. (22) And over that be it enacted, That if any Plaintiff or Plaintiffs in any such Attaint commenced before the said Mayor and Aldermen upon any Record remaining within the same City, therein be nonsuit, or if the first Serement therein be affirmed, that then he or they shall have Imprisonment, and make Fine by the Discretion of the Mayor and Aldermen of the said City for the time being, and that Fine to be and go to the Mayor and Commonalty of the said City. (23) And if there be Two or more Plaintiffs in any such Attaint ordained by this Statute, and if any of them die or be nonsuit, the other by this Act shall be enabled to sue for the Proceeding in the same Attaint; and notwithstanding the Death of the Defendant or Tenant, Defendants or Tenants, or any of the Pety Jury named in the same Attaint, so that there be Two of the same Pety Jury on live, the same Attaint shall not abate. (24) And also be it ordained by the same Authority, That if any of the Jurors of the said Grand Jury, impanelled and summoned in Form aforesaid, at the Summons make Default, so that the Attaint remaineth to be taken for Default of Jurors, that then every of the said Jurors so making Default, lose and forfeit for the first Default xl. s. and at the second Default v. li. and at every Default after that x. li. CAP. XXVII.

A Remedy to avoid deceitful Sleights uſed upon Fuſtians.

PRayen the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, That whereas Fuſtians brought from the Parts beyond the Sea unſhorn into this Realm, have been and ſhould be the moſt profitable Cloth for Doublets and for other wearing Clothes, greatly uſed among the common People of this Realm, and longeſt have endured of any Thing that have come into the ſame Realm from the ſaid Parts to that Intent, for that the Cauſe hath been that ſuch Fuſtians afore this Time have been truly wrought and ſhorn with the broad Shear, and with no other Inſtruments or other deceitful mean occupied upon the ſame; (2) now ſo it is, that divers Perſons by ſubtil and undue Sleights and Means, have deceivably imagined and contrived Inſtruments of Iron, with the which Irons, in the moſt higheſt and ſecret Places of their Houſes, they ſtrike and draw the ſaid Irons over the ſaid Fuſtians unſhorn; by Means whereof they pluck off both the Nap and Cotton of the ſame Fuſtians, and break commonly both the Ground and Threads in ſunder, and after by crafty ſleeking they make the ſame Fuſtians to appear to the common People fine, whole, and ſound; and alſo they raiſe up the Cotton of ſuch Fuſtians, and then take a light Candle and ſet it in the Fuſtian burning, which findgeth and burneth away the Cotton of the ſame Fuſtian from the one End to the other, down to the hard Threads, inſtead of ſhearing, and after that put them in Colour, and ſo ſubtilly dreſs them, that their falſe Work cannot be eſpied, without it be by Workmen Shearers of ſuch Fuſtians, or by the Wearers of the ſame; (3) and ſo by ſuch Subtilties, whereas Fuſtians made in Doublets, or put to any other Uſe, were wont and might endure the Space of Two Years and more, will not endure now whole by the Space of Four Months ſcarcely, to the great Hurt of the poor Commons and Servingmen of this Realm, to the great Damage, Loſs, and Deceit of the King's true Subjects, Buyers, and Wearers of ſuch Fuſtian: (4) For Remedy whereof, be it enacted, ordained, and eſtabliſhed by the King our Sovereign Lord, and the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, That no ſuch Iron or Inſtruments, nor any other untrue ſubtil Mean or Sleigh the from henceforth uſed upon any Fuſtian within this Realm, but only by the Broad Shears, (5) upon Forfeiture of xx. s. to be levied for every Default of every ſuch Perſon or Perſons hereafter offending and uſing any ſuch deceivable Inſtruments or Sleights, as is aforeſaid; the one Half of the Forfeitures to be to the King our Sovereign Lord, and the other Half to him or them that will ſue for the ſame Forfeitures by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of the King's Courts of Record, where the ſame may be determined after the Courſe of the Common Law; (6) and that the Defendant in ſuch Behalf in no wiſe be admitted to wage his Law, nor that any Protection or Eſſoin be in the ſame allowable. (7) And over this, be it ordained by the ſaid Authority, that the Mayor and Wardens of Shearmen of the City of London for the time being have Authority to enter and ſearch the Workmanſhip of all Manner Perſons occupying the Broad Shear, as well Fuſtians as Cloth; and the Execution of this preſent Act to be as well of Denizens, as of Foreigners and Strangers.

Unlawful Devices practiſed upon Fuſtians.

A Remedy to avoid them.

The Lord Mayor and Shearmen of London may enter and ſearch the Occupiers of Fuſtians and Cloth.

The Lord Mayor, or his Deputy, &c. may make Search. 39 El. c. 13.

CAP. VI.

Merchants Adventurers.

TO the diſcreet Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, ſheweth unto your diſcreet Wiſdoms the Merchant Adventurers inhabiting and dwelling in divers Parts of this Realm of England out of the City of London, That where they have their free Paſſage, Reſort, Courſe, and Recourſe with their Goods, Wares, and Merchandiſes into divers Coaſts and Parts beyond the Sea, as well into Spain, Portugal, Britaign, Ireland, Normandy, France, Seville, Venice, Danſke, Eaſtland, Friſeland, and other divers and many Places, Regions, and Countreys, being in League and Amity with the King our Sovereign Lord, there to buy and ſell, and make their Exchanges with their ſaid Goods, Wares, and Merchandiſes, according to the Law and Cuſtom uſed in every of the ſaid Regions and Places, and there every Perſon freely to uſe themſelves to his moſt Advantage, without Exaction, Fine, Impoſition, or Contribution to be had or taken of them, or of any of them, to, for, or by any Engliſh Perſon or Perſons; (2) and in ſemblable wiſe they before this Time have had, uſed, and of right owen to have and uſe their free Paſſage, Reſort, and Recourſe into the Coaſts of Flanders, Holland, Zealand, Brabant, and other Places thereto nigh adjoining, under the Obeyſance of the Archduke of Burgoign, in which Places the univerſal Marts be commonly kept and holden four Times in the Year, (3) to which Marts all Engliſhmen, and divers other Nations, in Time paſt have uſed to reſort, there to ſell and utter the Commodities of their Countries, and freely to buy again ſuch Things as ſeemed them moſt neceſſary and expedient for their Profit, and the Weal of the Country and Parts that they be come from; till now of late, that by the Fellowſhip of the Mercers and other Merchants and Adventurers dwelling and being free within the City of London, by Confederacy made among themſelves, of their incharitable and inordinate Covetiſe, for their ſingular Profit and Lucre, contrary to every Engliſhman's Liberty, and to the Liberty of the ſaid Mart there (which is, that every Perſon, of what Nation that he be of, ſhould have their free Liberty there to buy, ſell, and make the Commutations with the Wares, Goods, and Merchandiſes at their Pleaſure) have, contrary to all Law, Reaſon, Charity, Right, and Conſcience, among themſelves, to the Prejudice of all Engliſhmen, made an Ordinance and Conſtitution, that is to ſay, That no Engliſhman reſorting to the ſaid Marts, ſhall neither buy ne ſell any Goods, Wares, or Merchandiſes there, except he firſt compound and make Fine with the ſaid Fellowſhip, Merchants of London, and their ſaid Confederates, at their Pleaſure, upon Pain of Forfeiture to the ſaid Fellowſhip of Merchants of London, and to their Confederates, of ſuch Merchandiſes, Goods, or Wares, ſo by him bought or ſold there; (4) which Fine, Impoſition, and Exaction at the Beginning, when it was firſt taken, was demanded by Colour of a Fraternity of Saint Thomas of Canterbury, at which Time the ſaid Fine was but the Value of half an old Noble Sterling, and ſo by Colour of ſuch feigned Holineſs, it hath been ſuffered to be taken for a few Years paſſed; and after it was increaſed to an C. s. Flemiſh; and now it is ſo, that the ſaid Fellowſhip and Merchants of London take of every Engliſhman or young Merchant being there, at his firſt coming, xx. li. Sterling for a Fine, to ſuffer him to buy and ſell his own proper Goods, Wares, and Merchandiſes that he hath there; (5) by Occaſion whereof, all Merchants not being of the ſaid Fellowſhip and Confederacy, withdraw themſelves from the ſaid Marts, whereby the Woollen Cloth of this Realm, which is one of the great Commodities of the ſame, by making whereof the King's true Subjects be put in Occupation, and the poor People have moſt univerſally their Living, and alſo other divers Commodities of divers and ſeveral Parts of this ſame Realm, is not ſold ne uttered as it hath been in Times paſt; but for lack of Utterance of the ſame in divers Parts where ſuch Cloths be made, they be conveyed to London, where they be ſold far under the Price that they be worth, and that they coſt to the Makers of the ſame, and at ſome Times they be lent to long Days, and the Money thereof at divers Times never paid; (6) and over that, the Commodities and Merchandiſes of thoſe Parts, which the ſaid Fellowſhip, Merchants of London, and other their Confederates bring into this Land, is ſold to your ſaid Complainants, and other the King's true Subjects, at ſo dear and high exceeding Price, that the Buyer of the ſame cannot live thereupon; by Reaſon whereof, all the Cities, Towns, and Boroughs of this Realm in Effect be fallen into great Poverty, Ruin, and Decay, and as now in Manner they be without Hope of Comfort or Relief, and the King's Cuſtoms and Subſidies, and the Navy of the Land greatly decreaſed and miniſhed, and daily they be like more and more to decay, if due Reformation be not had in this Behalf: (7) Be it therefore enacted by the King our Sovereign Lord, by the Advice and Aſſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, That every Engliſhman, being the King's true liege Man, from henceforth have free Paſſage, Reſort, Courſe, and Recourſe into the ſaid Coaſts of Flanders, Holland, Zealand, Brabant, and other Places thereto nigh adjoining, under the Obeyſance of the ſaid Archduke, to the Marts there hereafter to be holden, with his or their Merchandiſes, Goods, and Wares, there to buy and ſell, and make their Exchanges freely at his or their Pleaſure, without Exaction, Fine, Impoſition, Extortion, or Contribution to be had, levied, taken, or perceived of them, or any of them, to, for, or by any Engliſh Perſon or Perſons, to his or their own Uſe, or to the Uſe of the ſaid Fraternity or Fellowſhip, or of any other like, except only x. Mark Sterling; (8) and that no Perſon Engliſh, as is afore rehearſed, hereafter take to his own Uſe, or to the Uſe of the ſaid Fraternity or Fellowſhip there, of any other Engliſh Perſon, of what Eſtate, Degree, or Condition that he be of, ſo alway that he be the King our Sovereign Lord's true liege Man, any Fine, Exaction, Impoſition, or Contribution for his Liberty or Freedom to buy and ſell any Goods, Wares, and Merchandiſes, in or at any of the ſaid Marts, more or above the Sum of Ten Mark Sterling only, upon Pain of Forfeiture to our ſaid Sovereign Lord, for every Time that he doth the contrary of this Act, xx. li. and alſo to forfeit to the Parties grieved in this Behalf Ten Times ſo much as he contrary to this preſent Act taketh of him; (9) and that the Parties ſo grieved ſhall have in this Behalf an Action of Debt for the ſaid Forfeiture of Ten Times, in any of the King's Courts within this Realm, by Writ, Bill, Plaint, or Information; and ſuch Proceſs to be made in the ſame, as is or ought to be made in or upon an Action of Debt at the Common Law; (10) and the Trial thereof to be had in ſuch Shire, City, Town, or Place where the ſaid Action is commenced or ſued; (11) and that the Defendant in any ſuch Action be not admitted to wage his Law, (12) nor none Eſſoin nor Protection be for ſuch Defendant admitted or allowed in that Behalf.

A Petition of certain Merchants Adventurers dwelling out of the City of London.

Every Engliſhman ſhall have free Recourſe to certain foreign Marts, without Exaction to be taken, by any Engliſh Fraternity.

A Fellowſhip of London made an Order, that none ſhould buy or ſell at a Mart without their Conſent.

The firſt Colour of taking the Fine.

The Enormities of the Order made by the Merchants of London.

Merchants may reſort into foreign Countries without Exactions of the Fraternity of Londoners.

No Engliſhman ſhall take of another any Exaction, &c. for his Liberty to buy and ſell.

The Remedy of the Party grieved, to recover the Forfeiture.

CAP. VII.
Of Murder.

WHERE abominable and wilful prepenſed Murders be by the Laws of GOD and of natural Reaſon forbidden, and are to be eſchewed; yet not the leſs, many and divers unreaſonable and deteſtable Perſons, lacking Grace, wilfully commit Murder, to the high Diſpleaſure of GOD, and contrary to all the Laws aboveſaid, (2) and moreover againſt their natural and obliged Duty, wilfully commit prepenſed Murder, in ſlaying their Maſter, or their immediate Sovereign, under whom he or they be, or owe Obedience, in Truſt to eſchew the Peril and Execution of the Law by the Benefit of their Clergy: (3) In Hope whereof, of late one James Grame, late of London, Yeoman, wilfully aſſented and prepenſed the Murder of one Richard Tracy Gentleman, then his Maſter, by him and his prepenſed Aſſent, the Ninth Day of February laſt paſt, at Brentwood in the County of Eſſex, murdered and ſlain, to the right perilous Enſample of other evil diſpoſed: (4) Wherefore, and in avoiding of like Miſchiefs to enſue, by the Aſſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, be it enacted, That the ſaid James Grame, for the Murder of the ſaid Richard Tracy his late Maſter, be attainted of the ſaid Murder as a Felon that hath offended in Petty Treaſon; and that the ſame James, for the ſame Murder, ſhall be drawn, and hanged in ſuch Manner and Form, as by the Law of this Land hath been uſed in ſuch Caſes, as Perſons being no Clerks, doing like Murder, have or ought to be puniſhed, any Privilege of his Clergy, or his Demand of the ſame notwithſtanding. (5) Alſo be it ordained by the ſaid Authority, That if any Lay Perſon hereafter prepenſedly murder their Lord, Maſter, or Sovereign immediate, that they hereafter be not admitted to their Clergy; (6) and after Conviction or Attainder of any ſuch Perſon ſo hereafter offending had after the Courſe of the Law, that the ſame Perſon be put in Execution as though he were no Clerk.

James Grame murdered Richard Tracy his Maſter.

No Lay Perſon which doth purpoſely murder his Maſter, &c. ſhall have his Clergy. 23 H. 8. c. 1. 1 Ed. 6. c. 12.

CAP. VI.

Pewterer's Walking.

TO the King our Sovereign Lord, and to the noble Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, humbly and lamentably shewn and complain unto your most abundant Grace, your humble Subjects the Pewterers and Brasiers of your Cities of London and York, and of all other Places of this your Realm, That whereas many simple and evil disposed Persons of this your Realm of England, using the said Crafts, daily go about this your Realm from Village, from Town, and from House to House, as well in Woods and Forests, and in other Places, to buy Pewter and Brass; (2) and that knowing Thieves and other Pickers that steal as well Pewter and Brass belonging to your Highness, and under your Mark, and to the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, as to other your Subjects of this your Realm, bring such stolen Vessels unto them in such hid Places to sell, and sell it for little or nought, and about they bring it into privy Places, or into Corners of Cities or Towns, and there sell much Part of it to Strangers, which carry it over the Sea by Stealth: (3) Also the said Persons so going about, and divers other using the said Crafts, use to make new Vessels, and mix good Metal and bad together, and make it naught, and sell them for good Stuff, where indeed the Stuff and Metal thereof is not worth the Fourth Part that it is sold for, to the great Hurt, Deceit, and Loss of your Subjects: (4) Also divers Persons using the said Crafts, have deceivable and untrue Beams and Scales, that one of them would stand even with Twelve Pound Weight at one End, against a Quarter of a Pound at the other End, to the singular Advantage of themselves, and to the great Deceit and Loss of your Subjects, Buyers and Sellers with them. (5) For Reformation of the Premisses, it would please your Highness of your most abundant Grace, with the Advice of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by Authority of the same, to enact and establish, That no Person or Persons using the said Crafts of Pewterers and Brasiers, from henceforth shall sell or change any Pewter or Brass, new or old, at any Place or Places within your Realm, but only in open Fairs or Markets, or in their own Dwelling-houses, but if they be desired by the said Buyers of such Ware, upon Pain of Forfeiture to our Sovereign Lord the King for every such Default x. li. (6) Also that by the same Authority it may be enacted and established, That no Person ne

Persons, of what Condition or Degree soever he or they be of, from henceforth within the said Cities of London and York, or without, either cast or work any Pewter Vessel or Brass at any Place or Places within this your Realm, but that it be as good fine Metal as the Pewter and Brass cast and wrought after the perfect Goodness of the same within the City of London, and by the Statutes of the same ought to be, upon Pain of Forfeiture of all such Pewter and Brass so cast and wrought of worse Pewter or Brass than ought to be wrought in the same Cities; that one Half of every such Forfeiture to be to the Use of your Highness, and that other Half to the Use of the Finders thereof. (7) Provided alway, That this Forfeiture in no wise stretch ne extend to Brass or Pewter being in the Possession of any Person other than the Workers of the same, or such as have the same to sell, and being of the Crafts or Mysteries. (8) Also that it may by the same Authority be enacted and established, That no Manner Person or Persons, of what Degree or Condition soever he or they be of, from henceforth make no hollow Wares of Pewter, that is to say, Salts and Pots that are made of Pewter called Ley-Metal, but that it may be after the Assise of Pewter Ley-Metal wrought within the City of London; (9) and that the Makers of such Wares shall mark the same Wares with several Marks of their own, to the Intent that the Makers of such Wares shall avow the same Wares by them (as aforesaid) to be wrought; (10) and that all and every such Wares not sufficiently made and wrought, and not marked in Form aforesaid, found in the Possession of the same Maker or Seller, to be forfeited; (11) and if the same Ware be sold, the said Maker to forfeit the Value of the same Ware so unlawfully wrought and sold; the one Half of the said Wares, or the Moiety of the Value thereof, to be to the Use of your Highness, and the other Half to be to the Use of the Finder or Finders, or Searchers thereof. Also that it may be by the same Authority enacted and established, That if any Person or Persons hereafter using, buying, and selling of Pewter or Brass, that hereafter occupy any deceivable or false Beams or Weights of the said Wares, that every such Person or Persons using or occupying such deceivable and untrue Beams or Weights, to forfeit xx. s. the one Half to the King, and the other Half to the Party that therefore shall sue by Action of Debt; (12) and that in the said Action no Protection nor Essoin shall be allowed; and also the said Party so offending shall forfeit his Beams to him that shall seise it; (13) and if the said Offender or Offenders be not sufficient to pay the said Sum or Sums by them so forfeited, that then it shall be lawful to the Mayors, Bailiffs, or other Head Officers of such Place or Places where any such Offender or Offenders shall be found, to put them in the Stocks, and them so to keep till the next Market-day next adjoining, and in the Market-place to put them in the Pillory all the Market-time. (14) And furthermore, that it be lawful by the said Authority, That the Master and Wardens of the said Craft of Pewterers, within every City and Borough of this Realm where such Wardens are, and, where no such Wardens are, the Head or Governor of the same City or Borough, to appoint certain Persons most expert in the Knowledge of the same, to make search within the said Cities or Boroughs where they dwell. (15) And over this, the Justices of Peace within every Shire, at their General Session holden at Michaelmas, shall assign and appoint Two certain Persons, having Experience therein, to make search in the Premisses in every Part of that Shire, as well within the Franchise as without, saving in Cities or Boroughs where Searchers be appointed by the Heads and Governors of the same; (16) and that of all such unlawful Pewter or Brass as the said Searchers shall find, the one Half to the Use of your Grace, and the other Half to the said Searchers; (17) and that in the Default of the said Masters and Wardens of the said Occupations not searching in Form as is aforesaid, and whereby that any such unlawful Metal is cast or made, or unlawful Weights used, that then it shall be lawful to any Person or Persons having sufficient Cunning and Knowledge in the said Occupations, by Oversight of the Mayors, Bailiffs, and Head Officers of the said Cities and Boroughs, to search all the said Places, and to put the said Authority and Act in Execution in Form aforesaid. (18) Provided alway, That this present Act continue and endure to the next Parliament and no longer.

Of what Goodness Pewter and Brass ought to be.

Of what Assise hollow Ware of Pewter made of Ley-Metal shall be.

The Makers shall set on their Marks.

The Forfeiture for Defaults.

The Penalty for using of false Beams and Weights in selling or buying of Pewter and Brass.

The Punishment of the Offender if he be not able to pay the Money forfeited.

same. (4) And over that, where divers and many Persons, for Treason, Murder, Robberies, and other Felonies, before this Time have been taken, some for Suspection of the same Deeds, and some upon Indictments, and thereupon brought unto the same Gaols and Prisons, and sometime remained in the keeping of the Persons that so arrested them for the said Causes, and by Colour of Negligence, subtilly and craftily, and oftentimes for Favour, Mede, Affection, or Corruption, suffered the said Offenders to escape, as if it had been by Negligence, to the overt and expres Impediment of Justice, and Execution of the King's Laws ordered for the Punishment of such Offenders; (5) and when such Escapes have been found before the Justices having Authority to inquire thereof, and thereupon the Parties convicted, or else yielded themselves to make Fine for the same, small Fines have been used to be set in those Causes, to the little Dread and Fear, and great imboldening of the said Offenders and Misdoers; by Mean whereof great and errant Felons, and hainous Murderers, oftentimes have by Negligence escaped, so that neither they, nor the Keepers of them from whom they escaped, hitherto have not been punished according to their Demerits: (6) Be it therefore enacted, ordained, and established by the said Authority of this present Parliament, That for every negligent Escape hereafter from any Sheriff, having the keeping of any Gaol, or from any Constable of Castle, or other, being Keeper of any Gaols where such Prisoners accustomably have been and shall be kept, of Persons indicted of High Treason, being in their keeping, that no less Fine be set or made for every such Escape, than C. Mark, and more, by the Discretion of the Justices that shall assess such Fines; (7) and for every Person escaping, being in their keeping for Suspection of High Treason, no less Fine to be set ne made than xl. li. (8) and for every Escape of Persons indicted of Murder or Petit Treason, xx. li. at the least, and more, by the Discretion of the Justices that shall assess such Fines; (9) and for every Escape of Persons suspected of Murder or Petit Treason, x. li. or more, by the Discretion of the Justices that shall assess such Fines; (10) and for every Person escaping, being in their Keeping, indicted of Felony, other than Murder or Treason, x. li. and for every Person suspected of Felony, other than Murder or Treason, as is afore said, to forfeit for every such Escape C. s. or more, by the Discretion of the Justices, after the Manner and Quantity of their Offences or Demerits, (11) saving to every Person or Persons, their Heirs, and their Successors, such sufficient and lawful Right and Title to any such Escapes, and Fines for the same, or to be quit of such Escapes, or of any other Escapes, as they have or ought to have at the Time of making this Act; this Act, or any Clause contained in the same in any thing notwithstanding. (12) And if any Person hereafter have any Prisoner in his Keeping, arrested for Suspicion of Felony, Treason, or Murder, and that Person that so is arrested, escape by negligent Keeping before that he be brought to the Gaol, that that Person from whom he so escaped, shall forfeit for every Person that so doth escape, such Fines as shall be set by the Discretion of the Justices that shall have Authority to assess such Fines, as the Case shall require, and the same Forfeiture to go to them that be intitled to have such Forfeiture at the Time of making this Act. (13) And moreover, be it enacted and ordained by the said Authority, That all Offices of Constables of Castles, Fortresses, or other Places, and all other Offices within this Realm of England or Wales, not requiring actual Exercise in any of the same Offices by them to whom such Grant or Office is made or granted, or by their Deputy or Deputies, granted by the King our Sovereign Lord that now is, to any Person or Persons for Term of Life or Lives, and the Letters Patents of the same, shall be from the Feast of Pasche next coming utterly repealed, annulled, void, and of no Force ne Effect in the Law. (14) And this Act, as concerning the Penalties aforesaid, and every of them, to endure to the next Parliament, and no longer. (15) Provided alway, That neither the Sheriff of the County of Surrey for the time being, nor any other Sheriff, have any Rule, Custody, or Governance of the Gaols of the King's Bench and Marshalsea, or of either of them, by Reason or by Authority of the said Act; but that Sir Thomas Brandon Knight, and Sir John Digby Knight, and either of them, have and enjoy the Custody and Keeping of the same Gaols, according unto their several Grants to them made, this Act notwithstanding. (16) Provided alway, That the said Act of Resumption, or any Articles therein contained, extend not, ne be in any wise hurtful or prejudicial to Edward Courtney Earl of Devon, for the avoiding and repealing of any Letters Patents, or Grant to him made by the King our Sovereign Lord, of and for the Constableship of the Castle of Restermell, otherwise called Restormin, in the County of Cornwall, but that such Letters Patents or Grants of the same Office, be of as great Force, Strength, and Effect, and to the said Earl as available, as they should or might have been, if the said Act of Resumption had never been had ne made. (17) Provided alway, That this Act of Resumption, or any other Act made or to be made in this present Parliament, extend not, ne in any wise be hurtful or prejudicial unto any Manner of Grant made by the King our Sovereign Lord by his Letters Patents to John Morgan, of or for the Parkership of the Park of Carlion with the Profits of the same within the Lordship of Uske in South Wales; but that the said Letters Patents, and every Thing in them contained, be from henceforth good and effectual to the said John, according to the Tenor and Purport of the same, the foresaid Act or Acts in any wise notwithstanding.

Several Penalties for the negligent Escape of several Sorts of Offenders. Exp.

A Saving of other Mens Rights for Escapes and Fines for the same.

The Penalty for negligent Escapes before the Prisoner be brought to the Gaol. Exp.

Letters Patents of Offices not requiring actual Exercise shall be void.

The Continuance of this Act concerning Penalties.

The Sheriff of Surrey shall not have the keeping of the King's Bench and Marshalsey.

Edward Courtney Earl of Devonshire's Patent except.

John Morgan's Patent except.

II. Provided always, That this Act of Resumption, nor any other Act or Acts of Resumption, or repealing or avoiding of any our Letters Patents in this present Parliament made or to be made, extend not, nor be prejudicial to our trusty and well-beloved Servant Henry Wyatt, late Clerk of our Jewels, as of, to, and for our Letters Patents to him, and to Thomas Fitzwilliam, late deceased, by us made and granted the iiij. Day of April, in the v. Riot.

WHereas in the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter the Tueſday the Morrow next after All Souls, the Thirteenth Year of the Reign of King HENRY the Fourth, among other Things it was enacted, ordained, and eſtabliſhed, That if any Riot, Aſſembly, or Rout of People againſt the Law, were made in any Part of the Realm, that the Juſtices of the Peace, Three or Two of them at the leaſt, and the Sheriff or Under-ſheriff of the County where ſuch Riot, Aſſembly, or Rout ſhould be done, after the ſame Statute, ſhould come with the Power of the Shire (if Need ſhould be) to arreſt them, and them ſhould arreſt; (2) and the ſame Juſtices and Sheriff, or Under-ſheriff, ſhould have Power to record that that they ſhould find ſo done in their Preſence againſt the Law, (3) and that by the Record of the ſame Juſtices and Sheriff, or Under-ſheriff, the ſame Treſpaſſers and Miſdoers ſhould be convicted in Manner and Form as it is contained in the Statute of Forcible Entries; with divers and many other Articles touching and concerning the Premiſſes, as in the ſame Statute made the ſaid xiij. Year more plainly at large it appeareth, (4) which Statute is thought good and neceſſary: Wherefore by the Advice and Aſſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, Be it therefore ordained, eſtabliſhed, and enacted, That the ſaid Act made in the ſaid xiij. Year of King HENRY the Fourth, concerning Riots, Aſſemblies, and Routs of People, and all and every Article and Articles compriſed in the ſame, and alſo all other Statutes before this Time made concerning the Puniſhment of Rioters, at the Time of the making of this Act being in Force, from henceforth ſtand in their Force, and be duly put in Execution after the Tenors and Purports of the ſame. (5) And foraſmuch as in the ſaid Statute made in the ſaid xiij. Year, it is not expreſſed of what Sufficiency the Jurors impanelled ſhould be, or what Iſſues they ſhould loſe, if they appear not, nor no Mention therein made of any Puniſhment of the Maintainers and Embracers of the Jurors that ſo ſhall be impanelled, ſhould have for their Miſdemeanors, if any be: (6) It is therefore furthermore enacted by the ſaid Authority in this preſent Parliament, That if any Riot, Rout, or unlawful Aſſembly, be committed and done at any Time after the Firſt Day of May next coming, within this Realm of England, that the Sheriff having a Precept directed to him, ſhall return xxiv. Perſons dwelling within the Shire where ſuch Riot, Rout, or unlawful Aſſembly ſhall be ſo committed and done, whereof every of them ſhall have Lands and Tenements within the ſame Shire to the yearly Value of xx. s. of Charter Land or Freehold, or xxvi. s. viii. d. of Copyhold, or of both, over and above all Charges, to inquire of the ſaid Riot, Rout, or unlawful Aſſembly. (7) And he ſhall return upon Shearing Worſted.

A Confirmation of Part of the Statute of 11 H. 7. c. 11. and a Repeal of the Reſidue.

PRayen the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, That whereas the City of Norwich is an ancient City, and in the ſame City without Time of Mind among other Crafts hath been uſed a certain Craft called Shearmans Craft, and the Artificers of the ſame have alway uſed by the ſame Time to ſhear as well Worſteds, Stamins, Fuſtians, as all other Woollen Cloth; and all Apprentices of the ſame Craft have been taken and bound to Shearmans Craft only, and by reaſon thereof they have had and enjoyed their Liberties and Freedom in their Occupation by the Name of the Shearmans Craft generally, and none otherwiſe; (2) and there have every Year uſed within the ſaid City to be choſen and ſworn Two Wardens of the ſame Craft, and all Defaults by the ſaid Wardens, in their Craft found, to be preſented before the Mayor of the ſaid City for the time being, and the Offenders in that Behalf to be puniſhed according to the Cuſtom of the ſame City; till now of late Times divers Perſons for their own ſingular Profit, contrary to the common Weal of the ſaid City, feigning to have a Craft of Worſted Shearing, ſeparate from the ſaid Craft of Shearmans Craft, ſurmitted a Bill into the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter the Fourteenth Day of October, the Eleventh Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord the King that now is; by Force of which pretended Bill it was in the ſaid Parliament enacted and ordained, That from thenceforth no Man ſhould take upon him to ſhear Worſteds within the ſaid City, but if he had been Apprentice to the ſaid Occupation of Worſted-ſhearing by the Space of Seven Years, or ſuch other as the Maſters of the ſaid Occupation within the ſaid City for the time being, approving their Cunning, with the Advice of the Mayor for the time being in the ſaid City, will admit. (3) And furthermore in the End of the ſame Act it was provided, That the ſaid Occupation of Worſted-ſhearing ſhall not make, nor do to be made, any Ordinance concerning the ſaid Occupation among themſelves, but ſuch as the Mayor of the ſaid City for the time being with his Brethren Aldermen ſhall think neceſſary and profitable for the Weal of the King's Subjects, as more plainly in the ſaid Act amongſt other Things doth appear. (4) It is ſo, that ſith the making of the ſaid Act, by Colour of the ſame, the Worſted Shear-men within the ſaid City within themſelves, without the Advice or Conſent of the Mayor of the ſaid City, have choſen Wardens of Worſted-ſhearing, and ſeparated the ſame pretended Craft from the foreſaid Craft, called Shearmans Craft, contrary to the Liberties and good Cuſtoms of the ſaid City in time paſſed uſed and approved: (5) And over that, the ſaid pretended Wardens, with their Company to them confedered, divers and many times aſſembled and made Ordinances among themſelves, contrary to the common Weal of the ſaid City, without any Advice of the Mayor of the ſaid City, intending to bring the Shearing of Worſteds into few Mens Hands, and to inhance the Price of Shearing of Worſteds at their Pleaſure, inſomuch that they will not admit to Shearing of Worſteds but certain Perſons, where many other within the ſaid City be as perfect, and have as great Cunning in the ſaid Shearing of Worſteds, as they that the ſaid pretended Wardens do daily ſuffer to ſhear, have; and will not admit any Man to the Shearing of Worſteds, though he have ſufficient Cunning therein, without he will compound with them, and make great and importable Fines; by Force whereof divers and many of the Shearmen, lately Inhabitants of the ſaid City, be departed out of the ſame City into the Country, and ſo divers and many Houſes within the ſaid City now be unoccupied and decayed, and daily more are like to be, to the great Deſolation of the ſaid City, and alſo to the impoveriſhing of the Merchants Buyers of the ſaid Worſted within the ſaid City, whereby the great Weal and Proſperity of the ſaid City ſtandeth, and the Inhabitants of the ſame ſupported. (6) In Conſideration of all which Premiſſes, it may pleaſe the King our Sovereign Lord, of his moſt abundant Grace, and for the great Zeal his Grace hath to the Univerſal Weal of his Subjects in this his Realm, by the Advice and Aſſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and of the Commons, in this Parliament aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, to ordain, eſtabliſh, and enact, That the foreſaid Act made the ſaid Fourteenth Day of October, the Eleventh Year aforeſaid, in every thing touching and concerning the ſaid Worſted-ſhearing, or the ſaid pretended Craft of Worſted-ſhearing

CAP. XVIII.

Severn.

TO the King our Sovereign Lord, prayen the Commons in this present Parliament assembled, That where Time out of Mind, Merchants, Victuallers, and all other your liege People of this your Realm, at their Pleasure have had and used free Course and Passage through and upon your River and Water of Severn, within this your Realm, with Ships, Trows, Boats, and all other their Vessels, to carry and convey their Merchandises, Victuals, and other Goods, from Town to Town, and from Place to Place, without Interruption, Trouble, Vexation, Let, or Disturbance, and without any thing therefore paying or giving, until late Time that divers Merchants and others of this your Realm of England were by divers and certain misruled Persons, inhabited in the Forest of Dean, and other Places to the said River adjoining, wrongfully letted, vexed, and interrupted; (2) whereupon for the sure and peaceable Passage and Course upon the same Water and River of all the King's liege People to be had and continued, divers Acts and Laws were made and provided, and in especial one in the Ninth Year of the Reign of the most blessed, and of famous in Memory, your Uncle King HENRY the Sixth, by the which Act it was established, ordained, and provided, That all your liege People, and every of them, should have their common and free Passage upon your said River and Water with their Trows, Boats, and other Vessels, from Bristol, Gloucester, Worcester, and other Places, without Let, Interruption, or Denier; (3) and if any of your liege People or Subjects were of their said Course and Passage letted or disturbed, that they should have Actions of Trespass against the Offenders in that Behalf; (4) and the Premisses notwithstanding, divers Persons late and now, being your Officers of and in your City of Worcester, and Town of Gloucester, and other Places adjoining to your said River and Water, will not suffer any Boat, Trow, or other Vessel, to pass through and upon your said River and Water, without divers Impositions by them thereupon set, and by them levied, gathered, and reared upon the Merchants and Owners of the said Goods and Merchandises, by the said River and Water passing, in manifest Contempt of your said Laws, and Breach of the laudable Custom aforetime remembered. (5) Please it therefore your Highness, the Premisses considered, by the Advice and Assent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by Authority of the same, to ordain, establish, and enact, That whatsoever Person or Persons, of what Estate, Degree, or Condition he or they be of, that hereafter take any Imposition of any of the King's liege People, for Trow, Boat, or any other Vessel, for any Goods or Merchandises carried or conveyed in and upon the said River and Water of Severn, or let, vex, or interrupt any Boats, Trows, or other Vessels so passing by the said River and Water, for any such Imposition or otherwise against your Laws, that every such Person or Persons, so doing and offending, shall forfeit to the King our Sovereign Lord for every such Offence xx. l. (6) And for every such Sum or Sums so forfeit, the Party grieved, and all other Persons that will sue for the same Forfeiture, shall have and sue an Action popular of Debt, as well to and for the Use of our Sovereign Lord the King, as to the Use of him that shall so sue for it in his own Name; and that our Sovereign Lord the King have Two Parts of the said Sum so forfeited, and the Party that so shall sue for the same, have the Third Part thereof: (7) And the Party Defendant in every such Action shall not be received to wage his Law, and also be outed of all Delatories in the same Action, as Protections, Essoin, and other. (8) And if it fortune the Parties in any such Action to defend or plead to any Issue, for any Offences done or committed contrary to the Premisses, triable in the City of Worcester, or the Liberties of the same, then the same Issue to be tried by Twelve Men within the County of Worcester, not dwelling nor having any Lands within the same City, ne the Suburbs of the same. (9) And if the Party aforesaid in any such Action defend and plead to an Issue, for any such Offence done or committed contrary to the Premisses, triable in the Shire of the Town of Gloucester, or in the County of Gloucester, the same Issue to be tried by Twelve Men of or in the County of Gloucester, thereto adjoining, not having any Lands, ne dwelling within the same Shire of the Town of Gloucester. (10) Provided alway, That this Act, nor any thing in the same contained or specified, in any wise extend not, nor be prejudicial or hurtful, to any Person or Persons having any Lands or Weads adjoining to the said Stream or Water of Severn, to take of every Person or Persons going upon his or their said Lands or Weads, and haling or drawing any such Trow, Boat, or Vessel, reasonable Recompence and Satisfaction for such Hurts and Offences, as he or they having such Lands or Weads adjoining to the said Stream or Water, shall sustain by reason of any such going or drawing of any such Trow, Boat, or Vessel. (11) Provided alway, That if any Person or Persons Spiritual or Temporal, or any Body Corporate, come before the Lords of the King's Honourable Council in the Star-chamber at Westminster, at any Time hereafter before the Feast of the Ascension of our Lord, that shall be in the Year of our Lord God. M. D. and v. and there make any sufficient Proof and lawful Title of their own Offer, or by other Weans, before the same Feast, to have any Manner of Duty and Imposition of and for any Manner Boat, Trow, or other Vessel aforesaid, or for any Merchandises or Goods in any of the same carried and conveyed in and upon the said River and Water of Severn, and the same Proof and Title by the said Council admitted, and decreed before the same Feast to be good and available to the Party or Parties that sue for the same; that then from thenceforth after such Proof and Title shewed, and so by the said Council admitted, and by them before the same Feast decreed to be good, those Persons having such lawful Title may and shall have, from the Time of that Decree made, all Manner such Duties of every of the King's liege People so carrying or conveying any Boat, Trow, or other Vessel, in and upon the said Water of Severn, according to their Title and Right so proved and decreed, after the Manner and Form of the said Title and Decree; this present Act, or any thing therein contained in any wise notwithstanding. 23 H. 8. c. 12.

The Effect of the Statute of 9 H. 6. c. 5. provided for free Passage upon the River of Severn.

The Forfeiture of those that interrupt any with their Boats passing upon the River of Severn.

Where and by whom Issues tried and triable in any of the said Actions shall be tried.

The Owners of Lands shall be satisfied for the Hurts which they receive.

A Duty or Imposition may be allowed and decreed in the Star-chamber.

THE King our Sovereign Lord HENRY the Eighth after the Conqueſt, by the Grace of God King of England and of France, and Lord of Ireland, at his Parliament holden at Weſtminſter the One and twentieth Day of January, in the Firſt Year of his moſt noble Reign, after the Prorogation, to the Honour of God and of holy Church, and for the Common Weal and Profit of this Realm, by the Aſſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, hath done to be ordained, made and enacted, certain Statutes and Ordinances, in Manner and Form following.

CAP. I.

A Repeal of an Act made Anno 8 H. 6. c. 2. prohibiting the King's Subjects to repair into Denmark and Iſeland, ſaving to the Town of Northbarm. EX.

CAP. II.

The King nor any other ſhall take Advantage of the Penalties limited by the Statute of 1 R. 3. c. 8. touching the making of ſeveral Sorts of Cloths before the next Parliament. Exp. 27 H. 8. c. 12.

CAP. III.

All Acquittances made by John Heron, General Receiver of the King's Revenues, ſhall be a Diſcharge againſt the King; and John Heron ſhall ſtand chargeable to others having Intereſt in Receipts.

CAP. IV.

All Actions, &c. for the King upon any penal Statute ſhall be taken within Three Years after the Offence committed, and for any other Perſon within One Year. To endure to the next Parliament. Exp. 18 El. c. 5; 31 El. c. 5.

CAP. V.

The Act made, that no Man enter Goods, but in the Owner's Name, in the Cuſtomers Books.

WHEREAS at a Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, in the Third Year of the Reign of King HENRY the Seventh, it was ordained and eſtabliſhed by the Authority of the ſame, That no Manner of Merchant, Denizen or Stranger, ſhould take upon him to enter, or cauſe to be entred in the Books of any Cuſtomer of any Port within this Realm, any Manner of Merchandiſes coming into this his ſaid Realm, or going out of the ſame, in any other Merchant's Name, ſaving only the Name of the Merchant owning the ſame, upon Pain of Forfeiture of all ſuch Goods and Merchandiſes ſo entred; (2) and every of the ſaid Merchants, which ſo ſhall take upon him to cauſe ſuch untrue Entry to be made, to have Impriſonment, and to make Fine thereof at the King's Pleaſure: (3) It is now by our Sovereign Lord the King, and his Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, well conſidering, that the Intent and Cauſe of the making of the ſaid Statute was only, foraſmuch as by the ſubtil dealing of ſome Engliſhmen, colourably entring in their own Names the Goods of Merchants Strangers, the King's Highneſs was deceived in his Cuſtoms, and that the ſaid Statute was made for none other Cauſe; yet foraſmuch as the Words of the ſaid Statute were general, it was extended as well unto the Goods of an Engliſhman entred in the Name of one other Engliſhman, as to the Goods of a Stranger entred in the Name of an Engliſhman, to the great Hurt, Loſs, and Damage of many and divers of the King's Subjects, and contrary to the very Intent and Meaning of the ſaid Statute.

3 Bulſtr. 22. The Intent and Cauſe of the making of the Statute of 3 H. 7. c. 7.

II. It is therefore ordained, eſtabliſhed, and enacted by the Authority of this preſent Parliament, That the Act afore rehearſed, made the ſaid Third Year, and all Things contained in the ſame, be from henceforth repealed, annulled, utterly void, and of none Effect.

A Repeal of the ſaid Statute.

III. And furthermore, be it enacted by our Sovereign Lord the King, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, That it ſhall be lawful from henceforth, that every Engliſhman, and all other the King's Subjects, may in every Port or Haven within this Realm of England, Ireland, and Wales, and the Marches of the ſame, and in the Town of Berwick, where it ſhall happen any Merchandiſe to arrive, or to be charged and carried out, to cuſtom in his Name all Manner of Goods and Merchandiſe of another Engliſhman, or the King's Subjects.

One Engliſhman may cuſtom Goods in another Engliſhman's Name.

One Merchant Stranger may custom Goods in another's Name. 1 Roll, 143, 146.

IV. And in like Form, every Merchant Stranger to custom in his Name any Goods or Merchandise of any other Merchant Stranger, so that the said Merchant Stranger that customs the Goods of another Merchant Stranger, and the very Owner or Proprietary of the Goods so customed, be charged with like Custom, Subsidy, and other Things, so that the King's Grace be not defrauded of his Right.

The Penalty for customing of Goods, whereby the King loseth his Custom. The Penalty enlarged by 2 & 3 Ed. 6. c. 22.

V. And if any Merchant Stranger or Denizen, or any other the King's Subject, custom any Goods or Merchandises of another Stranger or Denizen, or of any other the King's Subject, whereby the King's Grace should lose his Custom, Subsidy, or other his Right or Duty, that then the said Merchant Stranger or Denizen, or any other the King's Subject that so taketh upon him or them, to forfeit to our said Sovereign Lord the King the Goods or Merchandises so customed; and over that, to forfeit to the Party or Parties in this Behalf grieved, as much Money as the Goods or Merchandises of the Merchant Stranger, Denizen, or other the King's Subjects (so cautelously customed) amounted unto.

No Wines free of Prisage, &c. to be customed.

VI. And that no Citizen of London, or other the King's Subjects, inhabiting in the Cinque-Ports, or any other being free of Prisage or Butlarage of Wines, by Grant, Custom or otherwise, custom no Wines of any Person or Persons not being free of any Prisage or Butlarage.

VII. And if any Person, free of the said Prisage or Butlarage, so do, that then the said Person or Persons (that so do) forfeit to our said Sovereign Lord the double Value of the Prisage of the said Wines so customed.

VIII. And further, That it be lawful to any Person or Persons grieved contrary to this Act, to have an Action of Debt against every Person or Persons that so custom the Goods or Merchandises in his Name, and not in the Owner's Name, of the Sum or the Value of the said Merchandises so customed and forfeited; in which Action none Essoin nor Protection shall lie, nor the Defendant to wage his Law.

1 El. c. 11.

CAP. VI.

A Repeal of a Statute made Anno 11 H. 7. c. 3. giving Authority to Justices of Assise and Justices of Peace in their Sessions to hear and determine all Offences and Contempts committed against any Statute in Force, saving Treason, Murder, or Felony.

CAP. VII.

For Coroners.

A Rehearsal of 3 H. 7. c. 1. touching the Fees of Coroners.

WHereas by a Statute made at Westminster the Third Year of King HENRY the Seventh, it was enacted, That a Coroner shall have for his Fee, upon every Inquisition taken upon the View of the Body slain and murdered, Thirteen Shillings, Four Pence, of the Goods and Chattles of him that is the Slayer or Murderer; (2) where by the Common Law a Coroner had not, or ought not to have any Thing for their Office doing, as by the same Statute more plainly doth appear: (3) Sith which Statute so made, the Coroners have used, that if any Person hath happened to be slain by Misadventure, and not by no Man's Hand, that they will not inquire upon the View of the Body so by Misadventure slain, except they have for their Labour Thirteen Shillings, Four Pence, which is contrary to the Common Law, and also to the Statute afore rehearsed; whereby great Inconvenience doth daily grow to the King's Subjects, forasmuch as oftentimes the Person that is so by Misadventure slain lieth long above the Ground unburied, to the great Noyance of the King's liege People: (4) Wherefore the King our Sovereign Lord, by the Assents of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by Authority of the same, ordaineth, That upon a Request made to a Coroner to come and inquire upon the View of any Person slain, drowned, or otherwise dead by Misadventure, the said Coroner diligently shall do his Office, upon the View of the Body of every such Person or Persons, without taking any Thing therefore, (5) upon Pain to every Coroner that will not endeavour himself to do his Office, as afore is said, or that he taketh any Thing for doing of his Office upon any Person dead by Misadventure, for every Time Forty Shillings.

No Fee due to a Coroner where any Person is slain by Misadventure. 3 Ed. 1. c. 10. 28 Ed. 3. c. 6.

Justices, &c. may inquire of and determine the Faults of Coroners.

II. And that the Justices of Assises, and Justices of Peace within the County where any such Default of the Coroners be, have Authority and Power to inquire thereof, and determine the same, as well by Examination as by Presentment.

CAP. VIII.

The Act of Escheators and Commissioners.

The Cause of making this Act.

FOrasmuch as divers of the King's Subjects lately have been sore hurt, troubled, and some disherited by Escheators and Commissioners, causing untrue Offices to be found, and sometime returning into the Courts of Record Offices and Inquisitions that were never found, and sometime changing the Matter of the Offices that were truly found, to the great Hurt, Trouble, and Disherison of the King's true Subjects, that like before Time hath not been seen in this Realm: (2) Wherefore be it ordained, established, and enacted in this present Parliament, and by Authority of the same, That if any Escheator or Commissioner hereafter return or put into any of the King's Courts any Inquisitions or Offices concerning Lands, Tenements, or other Hereditaments, not found nor presented by the Oaths of Twelve Men, and indented, and by them sealed, that then the same Escheator or Commissioner forfeit for every such Office or Inquisition so returned, and put into any of the said Courts, an C. li. to the Party or Parties grieved by any such Inquisition or Office: (3) And that from henceforth no Escheator, ne no Man sit by Virtue of any Commission, to inquire of Lands, Tenements, or other Hereditaments, except he, or other to his Use, have Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, of the yearly Value of xl. Marks, above all Charges and Reprises, upon Pain of xx. li. (4) And that it shall be lawful for all Persons that be not sufficient of Freehold in Possession or Use at the Time of any such Commission to them delivered, to refuse to sit and inquire by Virtue of the same Commission.

No Office shall be returned into any of the King's Courts, but which is found by a Jury. What Land an Escheator or Commissioner must have.

II. And that they, upon Process made against them out of the King's Exchequer by Virtue of the same Commissions, to be discharged upon their Oaths for their said Insufficiency, without Fine or Fee.

III. And

III. And that every Eſcheator and Commiſſioner ſhall ſit in convenient and open Places, according to the Statutes heretofore made: (2) And that the ſaid Eſcheators and Commiſſioners ſhall ſuffer every Perſon to give Evidence openly in their Preſence, to ſuch Inqueſt as ſhall be taken before any of them, upon Pain of xl. li.

The Eſcheator ſhall ſit in an open Place, and ſuffer every Perſon to give Evidence. 34 Ed. 3. c. 13. 36 Ed. 3. c. 13. 23 H. 6. c. 17.

IV. And that no Sheriff, nor other Perſon, which ſhall or ought to return Writs or Precepts, return before Eſcheators, or ſuch Commiſſioners, any Perſon or Perſons to inquire of any Lands or Tenements, except every of the ſame Jury ſo returned, or other to their Uſe, have Lands or Tenements of the yearly Value of xl. s. within the ſame Shire where the ſame Inquiry ſhall be made, without Fraud or Colluſion, above all Charges and Reprizes, upon Pain of Forfeiture for every Perſon ſo returned C. s. (2) And that the Jury that ſhall be ſworn before any Eſcheator, or ſuch Commiſſioner, to enquire of Lands, Tenements, or other Hereditaments, ſhall receive the Counterpane of the Office or Inquiſition that by them ſhall be preſented, indented, and ſealed by the Eſcheator, or by ſuch Commiſſioner, and the ſame deliver and ſuffer to reſt in the Poſſeſſion of the firſt Perſon that ſhall be ſworn in the ſaid Jury, with him to remain, to the Intent that the ſaid Commiſſioner or Eſcheator may not change nor imbeſil the ſaid Offices or Inquiſitions; (3) and this to be done upon Pain of every of the ſaid Perſons that ſhall be ſworn, xx. s. (4) And that every Eſcheator and Commiſſioner, (after a Jury or Inqueſt before any of them ſworn, be ready to give their Verdict or Preſentment, and offer to preſent the ſame) that the ſaid Eſcheator or Commiſſioners, or Part of them, ſhall receive the ſame Verdict without further Delay, upon Pain of C. li. (5) and deliver the Counterpane of the Indenture to the Jury, in Form above rehearſed, upon like Pain. (6) And that if the Clerk of the Petit Bag of the King's Chancery for the time being, or his Deputy or Deputies, or any other Officer there, having Authority to receive any ſuch Office or Inquiſition, to whoſe Hands any ſuch Office or Inquiſition ſhall come, which ought to be returned into the ſaid Chancery, will not receive the ſame Office or Inquiſition, and put it on the Files to remain of Record, within Three Days after it be received or offered to him to be received, he to forfeit for every ſuch Default xl. li. (7) And the Commiſſioners or Eſcheator before whom the ſame Office or Inquiſition is found, and (as is aforeſaid) offered to be delivered into the Chancery, to be diſcharged of the Penalty of xl. li. limited by Statute for non-returning of the ſame Office or Inquiſition within the Month; (8) and that the like Law and Penalty be to charge the Officer or Officers of the King's Exchequer for the time being, which ought to receive Inquiſitions or Offices returnable into the ſame Exchequer, for refuſing ſo to receive them; (9) and that the Commiſſioners or Eſcheator, before whom the ſaid Inquiſitions or Offices be found, be diſcharged of the Penalty of the Statute for non-returning of the ſame Inquiſitions or Offices, ſo that then the ſaid Eſcheator or Commiſſioners, at any Time after the Month of any ſuch Offices before them or any of them taken, within another Month then next enſuing, return the ſaid Office into the Chancery or Exchequer, as the Cauſe ſhall require; (10) and that the ſaid Clerk of the Petit Bag for the time being certify, or cauſe to be certified, the Tranſcript of every ſuch Office or Inquiſition, taken before any Commiſſioners or Eſcheator, to the King's Exchequer the next Term following the Receipt thereof, upon Pain of Forfeiture for every ſuch Default C. s. (11) And that no Man be compelled, after the Feaſt of All Saints next coming, to occupy nor exerciſe the Office of an Eſcheator by any one Patent over One whole Year; (12) and that he that is once Eſcheator, ſhall not be made Eſcheator again within Three Years after the foreſaid whole Year ended. (13) And if any Eſcheator after the Feaſt of All Saints be made Eſcheator, or exerciſe his Office by Reaſon of One Patent over the Time of One whole Year ended, or be made Eſcheator within Three Years after, as is afore ſaid, that then after the ſaid whole Year in Form aforeſaid ended, his Patent ſo made to be void and of none Effect; (14) and that the Party or Parties ſo grieved, ſhall have his or their Recovery of every the ſaid Forfeitures of one C. li. by Action of Debt, (15) in which Action the Defendant ſhall not wage his Law, nor be by Protection nor Eſſoin, &c. (16) And the Reſidue of the other Forfeitures expreſſed in this preſent Act, the King ſhall have the one Moiety thereof, and the Party that will ſue therefore by Action of Debt the other Moiety; and the Defendant ſhall have no other Delay, but as is aforeſaid.

The Jury muſt receive the Counterpane of an Office found, and leave it with the firſt Men.

An Eſcheator muſt receive an Office found by the Jury.

An Officer of the Chancery muſt receive an Inquiſition found offered unto him, and put it on the Files. Dyer, f. 170. 8 H. 6. c. 16. 18 H. 6. c. 7.

Officers of the Exchequer muſt receive Offices found and tendered unto them.

A Tranſcript of an Office ſhall be certified into the Exchequer.

None ſhall be Eſcheator above a Year.

The Penalties of the Offenders, and who ſhall have the Benefit of them, and by what Means.

V. Provided alway, That this Act concerning Eſcheators for exerciſing of their Office over an whole Year together, and Letters Patents or Grants made or to be made by any Eſcheator for Term of Life, or for Years, or otherwiſe, extend not, ne be prejudicial to any Eſcheator that now is, and that hereafter ſhall be made and ordained in any City or Town Corporate, or in the Duchies of Lancaſter, Cornwall, and the Counties Palatines of Lancaſter, Cheſter, Durham, or Ely, or to any other County Palatine within the Realm of England, Wales, or the Marches of the ſame; or to any Eſcheator made, or hereafter to be made, by any Perſon or Perſons Spiritual or Temporal, having Authority by Reaſon of any Franchiſes, Liberties, Privileges, Preſcriptions, or Grant, to depute or make any ſuch Eſcheator in the ſame.

Who may be Eſcheators above one Year, and by what Means.

VI. Provided alſo, That this Act, as to any Penalty in the ſame concerning the Sufficiency of Eſcheators and Jurors aforeſaid, extend not, nor be prejudicial to any Eſcheator in City or Towns Corporate, ne to any other Eſcheator made, or hereafter to be made, by any Perſon or Perſons having Privilege to make Eſcheators for Inquiſitions of Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, (2) ne to any Sheriff or Bailiff, for returning in any Panel any Perſon or Perſons before any of the ſaid Eſcheators, of leſs Value than is contained in the ſaid Act; the Eſcheator of the County Palatine of Lancaſter and Cheſter in this Proviſo only foreprized and excepted.

In what Places the foreſaid Sufficiency of Freehold in Eſcheators or Jurors is not neceſſary.

VII. Provided alſo, That this Act extend not, nor be prejudicial to any Juſtices of the Peace, for any Thing done concerning the Commiſſion of the Peace.

Juſt. of Peace ſhall not be prejudiced by this Act.

VIII. Provided alſo, That nothing penal contained in this preſent Act take Effect before the Feaſt of Eaſter next coming; and this Act to endure to the next Parliament.

Confirmed and made perpetual by 3 H. 8. c. 2.

CAP. IX.

The Lord Chancellor or Lord Keeper may appoint Two, Three, or Four Perſons to receive Toll or Cuſtom, and to imploy the ſame upon the Repair of the Bridge of Stanes in the County of Middleſex, and to yield Accompt thereof. P R.

CAP. X.

An Act to enlarge a Statute for the Traverſe of Lands ſeiſed into the King's Hands before Eſcheators.

A Rehearſal of the Statute of 8 H. 6. c. 16. touching letting to ferm Lands ſeiſed into the King's Hands upon an Inqueſt of Office.

WHEREAS by a Statute made the Eighth Year of the Reign of King HENRY the Sixth, it is ordained, among other Things, That no Lands and Tenements ſeiſed into the King's Hands upon Inqueſts taken afore the Eſcheator or Commiſſioners, ſhall in no wiſe be let or granted to Ferm by the Chancellor of England, or any other Officer of the King's, whatſoever he be, till the ſame Inqueſts and Verdicts be returned plainly into the Chancery, or into the Exchequer; (2) but that all ſuch Lands and Tenements ſhall abide wholly and continually in the King's Hands, until the ſame Inqueſts and Verdicts be returned, (3) but it be ſo, That he or they that be grieved by the ſame Inqueſts, or put out of their Lands and Tenements, come into the Chancery, and offer to traverſe the ſame Inqueſts, and offer to take the ſame Lands and Tenements to Ferm; (4) and if they do ſo, then the ſame Lands and Tenements be committed unto them, if they ſhew good Evidence proving their Traverſe to be true, and find Surety after the Form of the ſaid Statute, as in the ſame Statute more at large appeareth.

II. And notwithſtanding the ſaid Statute, divers Eſcheators and Commiſſioners, which have taken ſuch Inqueſts after the Death of the King's Subjects, of their Covin, to the Intent to put them that had Cauſe of Traverſe to the Verdicts of the ſaid Inqueſts from the Ferm of the Premiſſes, would in the Time of Vacation put into the Chancery or into the Exchequer, their ſaid Office by them taken, becauſe the Month ſhould paſs before the Beginning of the Term next enſuing, by reaſon whereof they that ſhould of Right have the Ferm upon their Traverſe according to the true Intent of the ſaid Statute, were put from the ſame Ferms contrary to Right and good Conſcience.

Lands ſeiſed into the King's Hands upon an Inqueſt of Office, ſhall be let to ferm to him that tendereth a Traverſe to the ſame within three Months.

III. For Remedy whereof be it ordained, enacted, and eſtabliſhed by Authority of this preſent Parliament, That from henceforth, after ſuch Office found afore any Eſcheator or Commiſſioner, and put into Chancery or the Exchequer, if any Perſon or Perſons which will tender a Traverſe to the ſaid Office, and deſireth to have the Lands contained in the ſame Office to Ferm, and findeth Surety, and ſheweth Evidence to the Chancellor of England for the time being, according to the Statute afore rehearſed, come into the Chancery within Three Months next after the ſame Office ſo put into the Chancery or Exchequer, that he be then by the ſaid Chancellor thereto admitted; (2) and that then all other Patents or Grants hereafter to be made thereof within the ſaid Three Months ended, be void and of none Effect; the ſaid Statute made the Eighth Year of the Reign of King HENRY the Sixth, or any other Statute made to the contrary notwithſtanding.

36 Ed. 3. c. 13. 8 H. 6. c. 16. 18 H. 6. c. 6, 7.

CAP. XI.

EXP. 23 H. 8. c. 3. The Statute made Anno 11 H. 7. c. 24. which giveth Attaint in certain Caſes againſt the Party and Petit Jury, continued until the next Parliament.

CAP. XII.

EXP. Untrue Inquiſitions found in the Reign of King Henry the Seventh, by the Procurement of Richard Empſon and Edmund Dudley, intitling the King to Tenures in Capite, may be traverſed by the Parties, though they have ſued Liveries, and their Livery ſhall be no Concluſion.

CAP. XIII.

EXP. The Statutes of 17 Ed. 4. c. 1. & 4 H. 7. c. 23. inhibiting the Tranſporting of Money, Plate, or Jewels (ſaving for the Penalty of Felony) ſhall be continued unto the next Parliament.

CAP. XIV.

Rep. 1 Jac. 1. c. 25. A Repeal of all former Statutes made againſt Exceſs of Apparel; and what kind of Apparel Men of all Degrees and Callings are allowed, and what prohibited to wear.

CAP. XV.

PR. All Aſſurances made to Richard Empſon and Edmund Dudley, attainted of High Treaſon, of Land to the Uſe of others, ſhall be void, and their joint Feoffees ſhall ſtand ſeiſed of the Whole. But this Statute ſhall not extend to the Lands of Robert Ratcliff Lord Fitzwater.

CAP. V.

An Act for Payment of Wages to Soldiers. The Peril enſuing of a Captain's lacking his prefixed Number of Soldiers. Penalty on a Captain not having his full Number of Soldiers, or detaining any Part of their Pay. It is Felony for a Soldier to depart from his Captain without Licence. Juſtices of the Peace may inquire of, hear, and determine theſe Offences. The Captain ſhall be diſcharged, if his Soldiers die, or depart from him. This Act doth not extend to the Houſhold Servants of a Captain. Only relates to the Reign of Henry 8. 23 H. 6. c. 19. 5 El. c. 5. 2&3 Ed. 6. c. 2. 4&5 Ph. & M. c. 3. 7 H. 7. c. 1.

CAP. VI.

The ſeveral Duties of a Breaker, Kember, Carder, Spinner, Weaver, Fuller, Clothier, and Aulneger, concerning true Making, Drawing, and Sealing of Woollen Cloths. To endure to the next Parliament. EXP. 5&6 Ed. 6. c 6. 39 El. c. 20. 43 El. c. 10.

CAP. VII.

An Act for perfect Working of Cloths before they ſhall be carried out of the Realm.

A Reſtraint of the tranſporting of Woollen Cloth before it be fulled, rowed, ſhorn, &c. 7 Ed. 4. c. 3.

WHERE at the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter the Ninth Day of November, the Third Year of the Reign of our late Sovereign Lord, King HENRY the Seventh (whoſe Soul GOD pardon) it was ſhewed by Shearmen, Fullers, and other Artificers, that ſhould live and obtain their needy Suſtentation by mean of Drapery made and draped within this Realm, as well throughout the ſame Realm, as within the City of London, (2) That whereas in a Statute made the Seventh Year of the Reign of King EDWARD the Fourth, amongſt other it was contained, That no Perſon (Denizen nor Stranger) ſhould carry, or do to be carried to any Parts beyond the Sea, any Woollen Yarn nor Cloth unfulled, but the Woollen Yarn to be made in this Realm ſhould be woven in the ſame; (3) and alſo all Cloth within the ſame made, ſhould be fulled and fully wrought within the ſame, before that any of the ſame ſhould be had or carried out of this Realm, upon Pain of Forfeiture of the very Value of ſuch Yarn not woven, and Cloth not fulled, had or carried out of this Realm, (4) the one Half of the ſame Forfeiture to be levied to the Uſe of the King, and the other Half of that to him or them that ſhould eſpy or make Proof of any ſuch Yarn not woven, or Cloth not fulled, carried to any Place beyond the Sea. (5) And foraſmuch as in the ſaid Statute of King EDWARD there is no expreſs Mention made, that the ſaid Cloths ſhould be rowed and ſhorn before that they be carried and conveyed out of this Realm, whereby the ſaid poor Commons of the Crafts aforeſaid might be ſet in Labour and Occupation; therefore the ſaid Cloths then were, and yet been in great Number and Plenty carried and conveyed out of this Realm unrowed and unſhorn into the Parts beyond the Seas, as well by Denizens as by Strangers, whereby outlandiſh Nations with the ſame Drapery been ſet to Labour and Occupation, to their great inriching, and the poor Commons of the Crafts aforeſaid through all this Realm, which of natural Reaſon (as the King's true liege Men) ſhould have and obtain their needy Suſtentation and Living by Means of the ſame Drapery, for lack of ſuch Occupation daily fall in great Number into Idleneſs and Poverty, to their uttermoſt Deſtruction, if it ſhould then any longer continue: (6) Whereupon our ſaid Sovereign Lord King HENRY the Seventh, by the Advice of his Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and at the Prayers of the Commons, in his ſaid Parliament aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, ordained, eſtabliſhed, and enacted, That no Stranger nor Denizen ſhould carry, or make to be carried out of this Realm any Woollen Cloths, but that they before be barbed, rowed, and ſhorn within the ſame Realm for the Relief and Setting awork of the ſaid poor Commons of the Crafts aforeſaid, upon Pain of the Forfeiture limited in the ſaid Statute of King EDWARD, made upon Cloth carried out of this Realm not fulled, to be divided in Manner and Form as in the ſame Statutes contained; (7) ſo that Cloths called Veſſes, Rays, Sailing Cloths, and all other Cloths commonly ſold at xl. s. or under, be not compriſed in the ſaid Act made the ſaid Third Year of the Reign of our ſaid late Sovereign Lord King HENRY the Seventh, as by the ſame Acts more plainly appeareth; (8) and for lack of due Execution of the ſaid Acts, little Effect or Profit hath followed or grown of the ſame to the ſaid poor Craftſmen, being natural Subjects, which for lack of Work and Occupation daily fall into Idleneſs and Poverty.

The Inconveniencies enſuing by tranſporting of Cloth unrowed and unſhorn.

White Woollen Cloth, &c. may be tranſported unſhorn, &c. by 5 H. 8. c. 3. & 23 H. 8. c. 13.

3 H. 7. c. 11.

The Act concerning Juries in London.

11 H. 7. c. 21. Qu. if in Force?

WHere at a Parliament holden at Westminster the Eleventh Year of the Reign of King HENRY the Seventh, for the good and due Administration and Expedition of Justice, it was ordained, and among other Things enacted, That every Person hereafter to be impanelled or summoned to appear in any Jury or Inquest in any Court within the City of London, before any Judges of the same City, making Default, at the first Summons should lose and forfeit xij. d. and at the second Default ij. s. and so at every such Default after that, the Issues and Penalties to be doubled; (2) and also such Issues lost in the Mayor's Court should be forfeited, levied, and perceived to the Use and Behoof of the Mayor and the Commonalty of the said City; (3) and that all such Issues lost in the Sheriffs Court or Courts should be forfeited, levied, and perceived to the Use of the Sheriffs of the same City for the time being, toward their Fee-farm, as by the same Act more plainly doth appear: (4) In the which Act it is not expressed how or by what Means the aforesaid Issues, so lost and forfeited for Non-appearance of the Persons so impanelled and summoned, should be levied; the lack whereof is the Cause that such Persons, as have been impanelled and summoned, as well for the King, as between Party and Party (being substantial and indifferent) have made many Times Default, and would not appear; and so it remaineth in like Mischief as it was before the making of the foresaid Act, to the great Let of Justice, and the Delay as well in the King's Causes, as in other Causes between Parties: (5) Wherefore for the good Execution of the said Statute, and perfect Remedy in this Behalf to be had:

A Remedy for the Mayor and Sheriffs of London to recover Issues forfeited by Jurors. 11 H. 7. c. 21.

II. Be it established, ordained, and enacted by the King our Sovereign Lord, by the Assent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and of the Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That for all such Issues in Form aforesaid hereafter to be lost or forfeited in the Mayor's Court, it shall be lawful to the said Mayor, and to his Successors, to distrain, and the same Distress to retain, till he or they be satisfied of the said Issues. (2) And in like Manner, that it shall be lawful to the foresaid Sheriffs, and their Successors, to distrain for such Issues lost in their Court or Courts, and the said Distress to retain, till they be satisfied of the said Issues.

III. Item, Forasmuch as after Issues joined in Actions and Suits commenced, taken, or depending in the King's Courts before himself in his Bench, and before his Justices of the Common Bench, and also in his Exchequer, at the King's Suit, or at the Suit of Parties, triable in the said City of London, as well the King as the Parties have suffered great Delay, many Times for Default of Appearance of the Jurors impanelled to try the said Issues, and many Times for lack of Jurors not having Lands and Tenements of the yearly Value of xl. s.

The Ability of the Jurors of London impanelled to try an Issue in any of the Courts at Westminster.

IV. Be it ordained and enacted by the said Authority of this present Parliament, That the Sheriffs of London for the time being have full Authority and Power to return Impanels or Arrays of all Actions and Suits now depending, or that shall depend in any of the said Courts, or Exchequer, Persons being Citizens, having Goods to the Value of an C. Mark, or above, to try the Issue joined or to be joined in every such Action or Suit; (2) and that the Person so returned (having Goods to the Value of C. Mark, or above) shall be sworn and do in all such Juries in like wise in every Thing, as other Persons should do, having Lands and Tenements of the yearly Value of xl s. over all Charges.

What Issues shall be returned upon the Jurors in London. 5 H. 8. c. 5.

V. And over that, be it ordained by the said Authority, That the Sheriffs of the said City for the time being, shall return upon the First Distress in every such Action or Suit, upon every of the Jurors impanelled to try the Issues thereof, xx. d. and upon the Second Distress, upon every of the same Jurors, xl. d. and upon every Distress after that, upon every of the same Jurors, the Double, till a full Jury in every such Action and Suit shall appear, and be sworn to try the Issues joined in the same: (2) And that the Sheriffs that shall make any any Return upon ſuch Diſtreſs, contrary to the Form aforeſaid, ſhall forfeit for every ſuch Default x. li. the one half thereof to be to the King, and the other half to the Party that will ſue therefore: (3) And that the Defendant in any ſuch Action be not admitted to wage his Law, nor Protection therein for him allowed. (4) This Act to endure only to the next Parliament, and this Act to take Effect after the laſt Day of December, the Fourth Year of the Reign of King HENRY the Eighth. Explained 5 H. 8. c. 5.

CAP. VII.

An Act made for Pewterers, and true Weights and Beams.

TO the King our Sovereign Lord, and the honourable the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled: Foraſmuch as a certain Act was made and eſtabliſhed in the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter the Nineteenth Year of the Reign of the late moſt famous King your Father, HENRY the Seventh (whom God pardon) concerning Pewterers and Braſiers hawking and walking about the Countries, and alſo concerning falſe Beams, Scales, and Weights, with a Proviſion for caſting of fine Metal, and of perfect Goodneſs; which Act was made to endure to the next Parliament, the Tenor whereof hereafter enſueth:

The Tenor of the Statute of 19 H. 7. c. 6. concerning Pewterers.

II. That where many ſimple and evil-diſpoſed Perſons of this your Realm of England (uſing the ſaid Crafts) daily go about this your Realm from Village, from Town, and from Houſe to Houſe, as well in Woods and Forreſts, as other Places, to buy Pewter and Braſs, (2) and that knowing Thieves, and other Pickers, that ſteal as well Pewter and Braſs belonging to your Highneſs, and under your Mark, and to the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, as to other your Subjects of this your Realm, bring ſuch ſtolen Veſſels unto them in ſuch hid Places to ſell, and ſell it for little or nought, and about they bring it to privy Places, or into Corners of Cities or Towns, and there ſell much Part of it to Strangers, the which carry it over the Sea by Stealth; (3) alſo the ſaid Perſons (ſo going about) and divers other uſing the ſaid Crafts, uſe to make new Veſſels, and to mix good Metal and bad together, and make it nought, and ſell it for good Stuff, where indeed the Stuff and Metal thereof is not worth the Fourth Part that it is ſold for, to the great Hurt, Deceit, and Loſs of your Subjects; alſo divers Perſons uſing the ſaid Crafts, have deceivable and untrue Beams and Scales, that One of them will ſtand even with Twelve Pounds Weight at the one End, againſt a Quarter of a Pound at the other End, to the ſingular Advantage of themſelves, and to the great Deceit and Loſs of your Subjects, Buyers and Sellers with them: (4) For Reformation of the Premiſſes, it would pleaſe your Highneſs of your moſt abundant Grace, with the Advice of your Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, to enact and eſtabliſh, That no Perſon or Perſons, uſing the ſaid Crafts of Pewterers and Braſiers, from henceforth ſhall ſell or change any Pewter or Braſs, new or old, at any Place or Places within this your Realm, but only in open Fairs or Markets, or in their own Dwelling-houſes, but if they be deſired by the ſaid Buyers of ſuch Wares, upon Pain of Forfeiture to our Sovereign Lord the King for every ſuch Default x. li.

In what Places only Pewter and Braſs ſhall be ſold or changed. By 25 H. 8. c. 9. ſ. 6. the Informer ſhall have a Moiety.

III. Alſo by the ſame Authority it may be enacted and eſtabliſhed, That no Perſon nor Perſons, of what Condition or Degree ſoever he or they be, from henceforth within the Cities of London and York, or without, either caſt or work any Pewter Veſſels or Braſs, at any Place or Places within this your Realm, but that it be as good fine Metal, as is the Pewter and Braſs caſt and wrought after the perfect Goodneſs of the ſame within the City of London, and by the Statutes of the ſame ought to be, upon Pain of Forfeiture of all ſuch Pewter and Braſs, ſo caſt and wrought of worſe Pewter or Braſs than ought to be wrought in the ſame Cities; the one Half of every ſuch Forfeiture to be to the Uſe of your Highneſs, and the other Half to the Uſe of the Finders thereof.

Of what Goodneſs Pewter and Braſs ought to be.

IV. Provided alway, That this Forfeiture in no wiſe ſtretch, ne extend to Braſs or Pewter, being in the Poſſeſſion of any Perſon, other than the Workers of the ſame, or ſuch as have the ſame to ſell, and being of the Craft or Myſtery. (2) Alſo that it may by the ſame Authority be enacted and eſtabliſhed, That no Manner of Perſon or Perſons, of what Degree or Condition ſoever he or they be, from henceforth make no hollow Wares of Pewter, that is to ſay, Salts and Pots that is made of Pewter called Ley-Metal, but that it may be after the Aſſiſe of Pewter Ley-Metal wrought within the City of London; (3) and that the Makers of ſuch Wares ſhall mark the ſame with ſeveral Marks of their own, to the Intent that the Makers of ſuch Wares ſhall avow the ſame Wares by them (as is aboveſaid) to be wrought; (4) and that all and every ſuch Wares, not ſufficiently made and wrought, and not marked in Form aboveſaid, found in the Poſſeſſion of the ſame Maker or Seller, to be forfeited; and if the ſame Ware be ſold, the ſaid Maker to forfeit the Value of the ſame ſo unlawfully wrought and ſold; the one Half of the ſaid Wares, or the Value thereof, to be to the Uſe of your Highneſs, and the other Half to be to the Uſe of the Finder or Searchers of the ſame.

Hollow Wares made of Pewter Ley-Metal.

The Makers of Pewter Veſſels ſhall mark the ſame.

V. Alſo that it may by the ſame Authority be enacted and eſtabliſhed, That if any Perſon or Perſons hereafter uſing, buying, and ſelling of Pewter and Braſs, that hereafter occupy any deceivable or falſe Beams or Weights of the ſame Wares, that every ſuch Perſon or Perſons uſing or occupying ſuch deceivable and untrue Beams or Weights, to forfeit xx. s. the one Half to the King, and the other Half to the Party that therefore ſhall ſue by Action of Debt; (2) and that in the ſaid Action no Protection nor Eſſoin ſhall be allowed; and alſo the ſaid Party ſo offending, ſhall forfeit his Beam to him that ſhall ſeiſe it; (3) and if the ſaid

The Penalty for uſing falſe Beams and Weights about Pewter or Braſs.

Offender or Offenders be not ſufficient to pay the ſaid Sum or Sums by them ſo forfeited, that then it ſhall be lawful to the Mayors, Bailiffs, or other Head Officers of ſuch Place or Places where any ſuch Offenders ſhall be found, to put them in the Stocks, and them ſo keep till the next Market-day next adjoining, and in the Market-place to put them on the Pillory all the Market-time.

Searchers of Pewter and Braſs ſhall be appointed.

VI. And furthermore, that it be lawful by the ſaid Authority, That the Maſter and Wardens of the ſaid Craft of Pewterers, within every City and Borough of this Realm, where ſuch Wardens are, and, where no ſuch Wardens are, the Head Officers or Governors of the ſame City or Borough, to appoint certain Perſons moſt expert in Knowledge of the ſame, to make ſearch within the ſaid Cities or Boroughs where they dwell. (2) And over this, the Juſtices of Peace within every Shire, at their General Seſſion holden at Michaelmas, ſhall aſſign and appoint Two certain Perſons, having Experience therein, to make ſearch in the Premiſſes in every Part of that Shire, as well within the Franchiſes as without, ſaving in Cities or Boroughs where Searchers be appointed by the Heads or Governors of the ſame; (3) and that all ſuch unlawful Pewter or Braſs as the ſaid Searchers ſhall find, the one Half ſhall be to the Uſe of your Grace, and the other Half to the ſaid Searchers; (4) and that in the Default of the ſaid Maſters and Wardens of the ſaid Occupations not ſearching in Form as is aforeſaid, and whereby that any ſuch unlawful Metals is caſt or made, or unlawful Weights uſed, that then it ſhall be lawful to any Perſon or Perſons having ſufficient Cunning and Knowledge in the ſaid Occupations, by Overſight of the Mayors, Bailiffs, or Head Officers of the ſaid Cities, Boroughs, and Towns, to ſearch all the ſaid Places, and to put the ſaid Authority and Act in Execution in Form aforeſaid. (5) Pleaſeth it therefore your Grace and Wiſdoms, inſomuch as the ſaid Act is thought good and profitable, that it be ordained, enacted, and eſtabliſhed by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the ſaid Act may endure for ever.

The Statute of 19 H. 7. c. 6. confirmed and made perpetual.

VII. And over that be it enacted by the ſaid Authority, That if any untrue or deceivable Metal, or Workmanſhip, of Tin or Pewter, be founden either in Platters, Chargers, Diſhes, Saucers, Pottingers, Trenchers, Baſons, Flaggons, Bottles, Pots, Saltſellers, Goblets, Spoons, Cruets, or Candleſticks, or any other ſuch Wares of Tin or Pewter, whereſoever it be caſt, made, or wrought within this Realm or without, and brought to be ſold within the ſame Realm; than then it ſhall be lawful to the Mayor of the City of London, and the Maſter and Wardens of the Craft of Pewterers (of the ſaid City for the time being) and their Deputies, to have ſearch of the ſame within the City of London, and the Suburbs of the ſame; (2) and that in all other Cities, Boroughs, and Towns, where any Wardens be or ſhall be, the Mayors, Bailiffs, or Head Officers and Wardens to have like Authority; (3) and where no Wardens be, then the Head Officers or Governors of the ſame Cities, Boroughs, and Towns, to appoint certain Perſons moſt expert and cunning in Knowledge of the ſame, to make ſearch within the ſaid Cities, Boroughs, and Towns where they dwell; (4) and if any ſuch new Wares wrought of Tin and Pewter, as is aforeſaid, be found defective, and being in the Poſſeſſion of the Seller, that then the ſame Perſon or Perſons that putteth any ſuch new Wares of Pewter to ſale, ſhall forfeit the ſame Wares, the one Half to the Uſe of our Sovereign Lord the King, and the other Half to the Searchers or Finders of the ſame.

Searchers of Tin or Pewter Veſſels ſhall be appointed.

This Act ſhall not be prejudicial to the King's Grants of Liberties. 25 H. 8. c. 9. Made perpetual 33 H. 8. c. 4. l. 6.

VIII. Provided alway, That this Act concerning the Forfeiture be not prejudicial nor hurtful to any Perſon or Perſons having Grant of our Sovereign Lord the King, or of any of his noble Progenitors, by his Letters Patents of ſuch Forfeiture, but that they and every of them ſhall have and enjoy the ſame according to their former Grants and Liberties.

CAP. VIII.

An Act concerning the making of certain woollen Cloths in the County of Devon.

A Rehearſal of the Statute of 5 H. 8. c. 2. touching the making of White Straits of Devonſhire.

WHereas at the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter the Twenty third Day of January, after the laſt Prorogation thereof, in the Fifth Year of the King's moſt Noble Reign, the Commons and Inhabitants (Clothmakers and Buyers of the ſame) within the County of Devonſhire, prayed and deſired, That where divers and many Cloths, called White Straits, be and have been continually made within the ſaid County, to the great Profit of the King's Subjects there, the which Cloths were wont to be well and ſufficiently made, and to bear their Breadth, Yard broad and half Quarter raw, and xv. Yards of Length; (2) and that no Man in Times paſt hath uſed to make them, but that the Maker thereof hath ſet his ſpecial Mark upon every of the ſaid Cloths ſo by him or them made, whereby every Man may know their own Cloths from other Mens, by reaſon of their ſaid ſeveral Marks; (3) ſo at the ſaid Parliament it was ſhewed by the Inhabitants (Clothmakers and Buyers of the ſame) in the County aforeſaid, that now-a-days the ſaid Cloths be not ſufficiently made, ne bear their Length and Breadth according as they ſhould do, ne marked with every Man's own Mark, whereof great Inconvenience doth daily enſue and increaſe, to the impoveriſhing and hurting as well of the King's Subjects, Buyers and Sellers of the ſame, as Merchants Strangers. (4) Wherefore the Premiſſes conſidered, it was therefore enacted by the King our Sovereign Lord, by the Aſſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in the ſame Parliament then aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from the Feaſt of Pentecoſt next after the making of the ſaid Act, no Perſon ſhould make any ſuch Cloths, called White Straits, to ſell, without that it or they be, when they be raw, ready to be toked, of the Breadth of a Yard and half a Quarter, and of Length xv. Yards; (5) and that no Perſon make any ſuch Cloths, but if he ſet his ſpecial Mark upon every of the ſaid Cloths ſo by him or them made, (6) and that no Perſon uſe no Mark on his Cloths, ſuch as any other Perſon doth and hath uſed before him, upon Pain of Forfeiture of every of the ſaid Cloths, the one half thereof to be to the King, and the other half thereof to him that ſo ſeiſeth the ſaid Cloths ſo made or marked contrary to the Form and Effect afore expreſſed. (7) And this Act to endure unto the Firſt Day of this preſent Parliament. (8) And foraſmuch as the ſaid Act is thought to be very neceſſary and behoveable, be it therefore ordained, eſtabliſhed, and enacted by the King our Sovereign Lord, and the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, That the ſaid Act concerning making of Cloths, called White Straits, and every Thing therein contained, ſtand and be in his full Strength, Virtue, and Effect. (9) And over that, it is ordained by the ſaid Authority, That no Perſon or Perſons from the Feaſt of Saint John Baptiſt next coming ſhall make any ſuch Cloths, called White Straits, ne any Cloths of that making of Ruſſet Colour, called Ruſſet Straits, without that they and every of them (being raw) be of the Breadth and Length before rehearſed, and to be marked in Manner and Form before expreſſed, and ſo being raw, to weigh xiv. Pound by true Weight at leaſt, upon Pain of Forfeiture of every of the ſaid Cloths made, and being leſs in Length or elſe in Breadth, or marked contrary to the Form and Effect before rehearſed, or elſe being of Weight contrary to the Form before expreſſed; (10) the one Half of the ſaid Forfeiture to be to the King, and the other Half to him that ſo ſeiſeth the ſaid Cloths ſo made, and being of Weight contrary to the Form and Effect aforeſaid. (11) And this Act to endure for ever. 7 Ed. 6. c. 9. 27 El. c. 18.

CAP. IX.

An Act to avoid Deceits in making of Woollen Cloths.

FOR the deceitful draping and making of Woollen Cloths, made and draped within this Realm, and alſo for meaſuring in the Sale of the ſame, our Sovereign Lord the King, by the Advice of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and of the Commons, in in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, hath ordained, eſtabliſhed, and enacted divers Ordinances and Statutes for the true making and draping of ſuch Woollen Cloths, and for meaſuring in Sale the true Content of the ſame in Manner and Form following: (2) Firſt, That the Wooll which ſhall be delivered for or by the Clothier to any Perſon or Perſons for breaking, kembing, carding, or ſpinning of the ſame, the Delivery thereof therefore ſhall be by even, juſt, and true Poiſe and Weight of Haverdepois, ſealed by Authority, not exceeding in Weight after the Rate of Twelve Pounds ſeimed Wooll, above one Quarter of a Pound for the Waſte of the ſame Wooll, and in none other Manner. The Weight of Wooll deliver-ed to break, kemb, card, or ſpin.

(3) And that the Breaker or Kember to deliver again to the ſame Clothier the ſame Wooll ſo broken and kembed, and the Carder and Spinner to deliver again to the ſaid Clothier Yarn of the ſame Wooll, by the ſame even, juſt, and true Poiſe and Weight (the Waſte thereof excepted) without any Part thereof concealing, or any more Oil, Water, or other Thing put thereunto deceivably, (4) upon the Pain to forfeit to the Lord of the Leet within the Precinct whereof ſuch Default is done, for every ſuch Default xij d. upon due Proof of ſuch Deceit afore, and by the Diſcretion of the Mayor, Bailiff, or other Head Officer of the City, Borough, or Town where the Deceit ſhall appear, the ſame Mayor, Bailiff, or Head Officer calling to him ſuch Perſons as ſhall ſeem to him convenient for the Proof of ſuch Deceit. The Weight of Wooll and Yarn re-delivered to the Clothier.

II. Item, That the Weaver, which ſhall have the Weaving of any Woollen Yarn to be webbed into Cloth, ſhall weave, work, and put into the Web for Cloth to be made thereof, as much, and all the ſame Yarn, as the Clothier, or any Perſon for him, ſhall deliver to the ſame Weaver, with his uſed Mark put to the ſame, without changing, or any Parcel thereof leaving out of the ſame Web, or that to reſtore to the ſame Clothier the Surplus of the ſame Yarn, if any ſhall be left not put into the ſame Web, and without any more Oil, Breene, Moiſture, Duſt, Sand, or other Thing deceivably putting or caſting to the ſame Web, upon Pain to forfeit for every Default Three Shillings and Four Pence. A Weaver ſhall put all the Yarn into the Web, or reſtore it.

III. Item, That no Manner Perſon buy any coloured Wooll, or coloured Woollen Yarn, of any Carder, Spinner, or Weaver, but only in open Market, upon Pain of Forfeiture of ſuch Wooll and Yarn ſo bought. Coloured Wooll to be bought in open Market only.

IV. Item, That the Walker and Fuller ſhall truly walk, full, thick, and work every Web of Woollen Yarn which he ſhall have to walk, full, thick, or work, without any Flocks, or any other Manner Deceit to be uſed on the ſame, and ſhall not row nor work any Cloth or Web with any Cards, on the right Side, nor on the wrong Side, upon Pain to forfeit for every ſuch Default Six Shillings Eight Pence. The Walker and Fuller's Duty.

V. Item, That the Clothier, nor other Perſon whatſoever, ſhall not put any Cloth to Sale, which when it ſhall be full wet ſhall ſhrink more than One Yard in all the Length, and One Quarter of a Yard in the Breadth, for the more Part thereof; (2) and Cloths called Narrows or Straits after the Rate, upon Pain to forfeit for every Cloth otherwiſe put to Sale vj. s. viij. d. and beſide that, to deduct of his Price for the ſame, to be rebated to the Buyer thereof, as much after the Rate as the ſame Cloth ſo otherwiſe put to Sale, being full wet, ſhall be ſhrunk more than One Yard of that it was in Length at the Time of the ſame Sale, and as it ſhall (being wet) want of the Breadth of One Yard and Three Quarters of a Yard. Shrinking of Cloth. Veſſes not above the Value of 40 s. &c. ſhall not be forfeited, 14 & 15 H. 8. c. 11. ſ. 5.

VI. Item, That the Buyer of Woollen Cloths, Denizen or Alien, after the Buying thereof, ſhall not draw, nor cauſe to be drawn in Length, nor ſtrain, nor do to be ſtrained in Breadth the ſame Cloths, or any of them, by Teintour or Wrinch, or by any other Mean, upon Pain of Forfeiture for every of the ſame Cloths ſo to be drawn or ſtrained C. s. No Straining of Cloth by Tenter or Wrinch. 5 & 6 Ed. 6. c. 6. 39 El. c. 20.

VII. Provided alway, That if ſuch Buyer of Woollen Cloths, for Proof, cauſe the ſame to be wet, he may draw and ſtrain them for evening of them only, ſo that he exceed not One Yard in Length more than it ſhall be when it ſhall be full wet.

VIII. Item, That no Manner Perſon work, or put upon any Woollen Cloths, any Flocks, or other deceivable Thing, upon Pain to forfeit for any Cloth ſo wrought deceivably with Flocks, or other deceivable Thing, xx s. No Flocks ſhall be put in Cloth.

IX. Item, That no Manner Perſon buy or ſell any Woollen Cloths by other Meaſure, more or leſs, than after the true Content thereof to be meten and meaſured by the Yard, adding to every Yard One Inch of the Rule, upon Pain to forfeit for every Cloth to the contrary meaſured, C. s. (2) the One Moiety of all the ſaid Forfeitures to be to our Sovereign Lord the King; and to every Perſon which ſhall ſue by Writ, Bill, or other Plaint of Debt in that Behalf againſt the Perſon doing to the contrary of any of the ſaid Ordinances, the other Moiety; and that the Defendant in any Plea, upon any ſuch Action, be not admitted to wage his Law, nor any Protection nor Eſſoin for any ſuch Defendant be allowed in the ſame. The Meaſure of Cloth by Yard and Inch. 3 & 4 Ed. 6. c. 2.

X. Provided alway, That this Act extend not to Woollen Cloths called Kendals, nor Cloths called Carpenel-whites, commonly made for Lining for Hoſen, nor to any Cloths called Toſtokes, made in the County of Devon, (2) nor to any Woollen Cloths made in the County of Cornwall, nor for any Cottons or plain Lining, or Frieſe made or to be made in Wales, Lancaſhire, and Cheſhire, or any of them. Certain Cloths to which this Act does not extend.

CAP. X.

An Act for Commiſſion of Sewers.

Commiſſions of Sewers may be granted according to the Statutes, 6 H. 6. c. 5. & 4 H. 7. c. 1

WHERE in the Parliament of the right noble Prince HENRY the Sixth, late King of England, holden at Weſtminſter, the Firſt Year of his Reign, One good Statute was made and ordained, That for Ten Years then next following, ſeveral Commiſſions of Sewers ſhould be made to divers Perſons, by the Chancellor of England for the time being to be named, in divers Parties of this Realm, where Need were, after the Form and Tenor of a Commiſſion in the ſaid Act ſpecified; which Act and other Acts for the Authority of ſuch Commiſſioners, and Executions of the ſame, have ſince been made and ordained and continued, as been more plainly rehearſed in the Parliament holden in the Fourth Year of the Reign of King HENRY, late King of England, the Seventh; and in the ſame Parliament the ſaid Fourth Year it was (among other) enacted and eſtabliſhed, That for Fifteen Years then following, ſeveral Commiſſions of Sewers ſhould be made to divers Perſons, by the Chancellor of England for the time being to be named, in all Parties of this Realm, and of the Marches of Caleis, Guines, and Hammes, where Need ſhall be, made according to the ſaid Commiſſion contained in the ſaid Sixth Year of King HENRY the Sixth; and that all ſuch Commiſſioners ſhould have full Power, to make, ordain, and execute Ordinances, and all other Things do according to the Purport of the ſame Commiſſion, which Fifteen Years compriſed in the ſaid Act aforeſaid, been now determined; pleaſeth it therefore the King our Sovereign Lord, with the Aſſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, to ordain, eſtabliſh, and enact, That the ſaid Acts, and all other Acts, and Authorities heretofore made concerning Commiſſioners of Sewers, and their Commiſſions and Authority, not being before this Time repealed, abide, and ſtand from henceforth good and effectual to endure for ever: And alſo that the Chancellor of England for the time being, ſhall have from henceforth full Power and Authority for ever, to grant Commiſſioners of Sewers into every Part of this Realm, and the ſaid Marches, where Need is or ſhall be, to certain Perſons by the ſaid Chancellor for the time being to be named, according to the Form and Effect of the ſaid Commiſſion and Act expreſſed in the ſaid Parliament holden the ſaid Sixth Year of the Reign of King HENRY the Sixth: And over that be it ordained, enacted, and eſtabliſhed by the ſaid Authority, That all ſuch Commiſſioners have, and ſhall have full Power and Authority to put their Commiſſion in due Execution, and to make and execute Statutes and Ordinances, and all other Things to do after the Effect and Purport of their Commiſſion; and that all Commiſſions of Sewers granted or made ſince the ſaid Twenty Years determined, and the Acts, Ordinances, and all Executions, and other Things by the Commiſſioners of the ſame, concerning the ſaid Commiſſions, or any Two of the ſame Commiſſioners, and every Thing in the ſame compriſed, be and ſhall be, effectual and of like Strength, as if the ſaid Commiſſion had been made or granted within the ſaid Five and twenty Years, immediately after the ſaid Parliament holden the ſaid Fourth Year of the Reign of King HENRY the Seventh.

II. And alſo be it enacted by the ſaid Authority, That the Chancellor of England for the time being, ſhall make no Commiſſion to any Perſon or Perſons for the Execution of this Act, except he have Lands and Tenements of Eſtate of Freehold, to the yearly Value of Twenty Pounds at the leaſt, or elſe be Juſtice of Quorum learned, within any of the Shires where he ſhall be made Commiſſioner.

III. And if any ſuch Commiſſion be directed to any Perſon or Perſons, not having Lands and Tenements to the yearly Value of Twenty Pounds, or not being one of the Juſtices of Quorum learned as aforeſaid, That every ſuch Commiſſion, and all Preſentments and Accuſations, had and preſented before any ſuch Commiſſioners, and alſo all and every Fines ſet by the ſaid Commiſſioner or Commiſſioners, to be utterly void and of none Effect. This Act to endure but for Ten Years, and from the End of the ſame Ten Years, unto the next Parliament.

This Act ſeems to be revived by 23 H. 8. c. 5.

CAP. XI.

EXP. The Statute of 1 R. 3. c. 11. touching bringing in of Bow-ſtaves, ſhall be extended to Strangers only, and not to the King's Subjects.

An Act concerning Avowries for Rents and Services.

WHEREAS divers as well Noblemen as other the King's Subjects, have ſuffered Recoveries againſt them of divers their Manors, Lordſhips, Lands, and Tenements, for the Performance of their Wills, or for the Surety of their Wives Jointures, or for the Jointure of their Sons and Heirs apparent, and their Wives, or of any other Perſon or Perſons, according to their Covenants and Agreements, (2) and thoſe Perſons that ſo have recovered the ſaid Manors by the Courſe of the Common Law, had no Remedy, nor may have, to compel the Fermors, Freeholders, and Tenants, which held of the ſame Manors by Rents, Services, or Cuſtoms, to atturn to them; (3) nor could by the Order of the Law attain to the ſaid Rents, Services, or Cuſtoms (if they were denied) by Diſtreſs or Action, without they could once attain to the Poſſeſſion of the ſame Rents, Services, and Cuſtoms, by paying or doing the ſaid Rents, Services, or Cuſtoms, by the ſame Freeholders, Fermors, and Tenants; (4) which to do, divers and many of them have oftentimes refuſed, and yet do, to the great Offence and Charge of their Conſcience, not only to the Diſheritance How Rents and Services may be recovered by Avowry.

Recoverers have no Remedy by the Common Law to recover their Rents or Presentations. Dyer, 31. Bro. Meine, 24. Vaughan, 48.

of the ſaid Recoverers, but alſo in breaking of the laſt Wills of them againſt whom ſuch Recovery is had, and alſo to the Diſheritance of the ſaid Huſband and Wife, or other, to whoſe Uſe the ſame Recovery was ſo had. (5) Alſo if there were any Advowſon appendant to any of the ſaid Manors, the ſame Advowſon had fallen void, and a Stranger had preſented, the ſaid Recoverers, nor they to whoſe Uſe the ſame Recoveries were had, had no Remedy for the ſame Diſturbance, and ſometime thereby they have been diſinherited.

The Recoverer may diſtrain for the Rents and Services of the Tenant, Fermor, &c. and ſhall have a Quare impedit.

II. Be it therefore enacted by this preſent Parliament, and by Authority of the ſame, That the Recoverers in all ſuch Recoveries, their Heirs and Aſſigns, may from henceforth diſtrain for the foreſaid Rents, Services, and Cuſtoms, ſo being due and unpaid, and make Avowry, or juſtify the ſame, as thoſe Perſons, againſt whom the ſaid Recovery is, ſhould have done if the ſaid Recovery had not been had; (2) and alſo have like Remedy for the recovering of the ſaid Rents, Services, and Cuſtoms by Avowry; (3) and alſo a Quare impedit for the ſaid Advowſon, if any Diſturbance be made: as thoſe Perſons, againſt whom the ſaid Recoveries were had, might or ſhould have had by the Courſe of the Common Law afore the ſaid Recovery, if any ſuch Rents, Services, or Cuſtoms had been denied them, or any ſuch Diſturbance had been had in their Times.

The Avowant in Replegiari ſhall recover his Damages and Coſts of Suit. 2 Cro. 520. 19 H. 8. c. 11. Bro. Damages, 8. 2 Roll, 140. 21 H. 8. c. 19.

III. And alſo that every Avowant, and every other Perſon or Perſons that make Avowry, Coniſance, or Knowledge, or juſtify, as Baily to any other Perſon or Perſons in any Replegiari, or Second Deliverance for any Rent, Cuſtom, or Service, if their Avowry, Coniſance, or Juſtification be found for them, or the Plaintiffs in the ſaid Actions otherwiſe barred, ſhall recover their Damages and Coſts that they have ſuſtained, as the Plaintiff ſhould have done, if they had recovered in the ſaid Replevins.

Rep. 5 El. c. 4. Certain Labourers working in London may take ſuch Wages as they did take before the Statute of 6 H. 8. c. 3.

CAP. VI.

Rep. 24 H. 8. c. 13. & 1 Jac. 1. c. 25. A Repeal of the Statute made Anno 6 H. 8. c. 1. and of all other Statutes made for Apparel before it. What Kind of Apparel Temporal Men of all Degrees and Eſtates are allowed, and what prohibited, to wear, and upon what Penalties, and who ſhall have the Forfeiture, and by what Means they ſhall be recovered.

Statutes made at Weſtminſter, Anno 14 & 15 HEN. VIII. and Anno Dom. 1522-3.

THE King our Sovereign Lord HENRY the Eighth after the Conqueſt, by the Grace of God King of England, and of France, and Lord of Ireland, at his Parliament holden at London the Fifteenth Day of April, in the Fourteenth Year of his moſt noble Reign, and from thence adjourned to Weſtminſter the laſt Day of July, the Fifteenth Year of his ſaid Reign, and there holden, to the Honour of God and holy Church, and for the Weal and Profit of this his Realm, by the Aſſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, hath done to be ordained, made, and enacted certain Statutes and Ordinances, in Manner and Form following.

CAP. I.

EXP. No Perſon ſhall ſell to a Merchant Stranger any broad White Woollen Cloth made in England, unleſs he cannot ſell it to ſome Engliſh Merchant within Eight Days after he brought it to Blackwell-hall, except the Sale be in Fairs, Ports, or Creeks.

CAP. II.

What Apprentices ſtrange Artificers ſhall take, &c.

No Stranger ſhall take an Apprentice, but one which was born under the King's Obeiſance. Made perpetual by 21 H. 8. c. 16. ſ. 8. and explained by 22 H. 8. c. 13.

BE it enacted by the King our Sovereign Lord, and the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, That no Manner of Stranger, born out of the King's Obeiſance, be he Denizen or not Denizen, uſing any Manner of Handicraft within this Realm, ſhall take from henceforth any Apprentice, except the ſame Apprentice be born under the King's Obeiſance, (2) upon Pain to forfeit for every Apprentice that he ſhall take contrary to this Act, x. li. the one half thereof to be to our Sovereign Lord the King, the other Half to him or them that ſhall ſue for it, be it by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, Information, or otherwiſe; (3) in which Suit the Defendant ſhall not be admitted to wage his Law, ne any Eſſoin, Licence, or Protection to be allowed.

No Alien ſhall keep above Two Journeymen, except they be born under the King's Obeiſance. 5 El. c. 4.

II. Be it alſo enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, and under like Pain to be forfeited and recovered as is afore ſaid, That no Stranger, being Alien born, and uſing any Manner of Handicraft within this Realm, from the Feaſt of All Saints next enſuing, ſhall in any Manner of wiſe, uſe, take, retain, or keep in his or their Services, any Manner of Journeyman or Covenant-Servant, above the Number of Two at one Time, except the ſame Journeyman or Covenant Servant be born under the King's Obeiſance.

All Strangers dwelling within Two Miles of London, ſhall be under the Reformation of the Wardens of Handicrafts within the City.

III. And over this, be it enacted by Authority aforeſaid, That all Manner of Perſons, being Aliens born, uſing any Manner of Handicraft, be they Denizens or not Denizens, and inhabiting within the City of London, or Suburbs of the ſame, within the Town of Weſtminſter, the Pariſh of St. Martin's in the Fields, the Pariſh of Our Lady of the Strand, St. Clement of Danes without Temple-Bar, St. Giles in the Fields, St. Andrew's in Holbourn, the Town and Borough of Southwark, Shoreditch, White-Chapel Pariſh, St. John-ſtreet, the Pariſh of Clerkenwell, St. Botolph's Pariſh without Aldgate, St. Katharine's, Bermondſey-ſtreet, or within Two Miles Compaſs of the ſaid City of London, or the Pariſhes aforeſaid, ſhall be under the Search and Reformation of the Wardens and Fellowſhips of Handicrafts within the ſaid City of London, with One ſubſtantial Stranger, being an Houſholder of the ſame Craft, by the ſame Wardens to be choſen, that is to ſay, every ſuch Stranger occupying any Myſtery or Handicraft, as is afore said, shall be under the Search and Reformation of the Wardens, and One substantial Stranger, being an Housholder, of that Craft that they shall so occupy.

IV. And that the Wardens of the said City of every such Handicraft, with One Stranger or Housholder (as is afore said) of the same Craft, have full Power and Authority, by this present Act, to limit and appoint to every Stranger of the Mystery and Handicraft that they be of, inhabiting within the said City, Suburbs, Places, or Precinct above remembered, a proper Mark, without taking any Thing therefore, by the which their Wares, Vessels, and Workmanships that they make may be known. The Wardens, &c. shall assign a proper Mark for Strangers Wares.

V. And that the Wardens of every such Handicraft and Mystery aforesaid, calling to them One Stranger of the Mystery and Occupation that they be of, being an Housholder, shall have full Power and Authority to search, view, and reform, as well within the said City of London, as in all other Places and Limits before said, all Manner of Wares of Workmanships made by any Manner of such Handicraftmen, being Aliens born, as is afore said. Reformation of Strangers Wares and Workmanship.

VI. And that no Stranger born out of the King's Obeisance, using any of the Mysteries or Occupations of Smiths, Joiners, or Coopers, shall make any Manner of Wares or Vessels concerning the same Mysteries or Occupations, except that they and every of them put such Marks to every of the same Wares and Vessels, before they shall be put to Sale or Use, as the Wardens of their Occupations, Crafts, or Mysteries shall limit and appoint, without taking any Thing therefore, (2) upon Pain of Forfeiture of the double Value of the same Wares and Vessels; the one Half of which Forfeiture to be to the King our Sovereign Lord, the other Half to the Party that first will sue for the same by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in which the Defendant shall not wage his Law, nor any Essoin shall be cast, or Protection allowed. Smiths, Joiners, Coopers, which be Strangers, must mark their Wares.

VII. CAP. III.

Touching Worſted-Weavers of Yarmouth and Linn.

Confirmed 26 Hen. 8. c. 16.

BECAUSE it is diſcreetly conſidered in this preſent Parliament, that the true making and draping of Worſteds, Sayes, and Stamins, is one of the moſt profitable Occupations of this Realm, and that the ſame Worſteds, Sayes, and Stamins, truly and ſubſtantially made and wrought, been right acceptable, and commodious Merchandiſes, as well in this Realm of England, as in other foreign Regions and Countries; (2) for Eſtabliſhment and good Order whereof, divers good and laudable Statutes, Acts, and Ordinances heretofore have been made and enacted; and namely, in a Parliament holden at Weſtminſter the Third Day of June, in the Seventh Year of the Reign of the late King of famous Memory, EDWARD the 7 Ed. 4. c. 1. Fourth; (3) ſithen which Parliament the making of the ſaid Worſteds, Sayes, and Stamins, hath much increaſed and been multiplied in the City of Norwich, and in divers Towns and Places in the County of Norfolk; (4) and becauſe the Towns of Great Yarmouth, and Linn, in the ſaid County, been Towns corporated, and the Inhabitants of the ſame Towns now daily practiſe and uſe the making and draping of the ſaid Cloths of Worſteds, Sayes, and Stamins, more buſily and diligently than they have done in Times paſt, to whom it is painful and coſtly to tranſport and convey their ſaid Cloths to the ſaid City of Norwich, or to Places within the ſaid County of Norfolk which been far diſtant from either of the ſaid Towns, to be ſearched and ſealed by the Wardens of the Worſted-Weavers of the ſame City of Norwich, or County, according to the ſaid Act of Parliament made the ſaid Seventh Year of King EDWARD the Fourth: (5) It is therefore ordained, eſtabliſhed, and enacted by the King our Sovereign Lord, and by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, That the Craftſmen called Worſted-Weavers inhabited in the ſaid Town of Great Yarmouth, ſhall have Power and Authority by this preſent Act, from henceforth to elect, and chooſe yearly for ever, in the Monday next after the Feaſt of Pentecoſt, One honeſt Man of the ſame Myſtery and Occupation, being an Houſholder within the ſaid Town of Great Yarmouth, and having of his proper Goods and Chattels to the Value of Ten Pounds at the leaſt, or Lands and Tenements to his own Uſe of Eſtate of Freehold, at leaſt to the clear yearly Value of xx. s. to be Warden of the ſame Craft and Myſtery for the Year next enſuing, (6) which Man ſo elected and choſen, ſhall perſonally appear before the Mayor of the ſaid City of Norwich for the time being, the Monday next after the Feaſt of Corpus Chriſti then next enſuing, then and there to be ſworn and charged by like Oath, concerning the true and ſubſtantial making of the ſaid Cloths within the ſaid Town of Great Yarmouth, as the Four Wardens of the ſaid City of Norwich, by virtue of the ſaid Act of Parliament made in the ſaid Seventh Year of King Edward the Fourth, been charged and ſworn for the ſame City of Norwich; (7) and if the ſaid Mayor happen to be abſent the ſaid Monday after Corpus Chriſti, or elſe then refuſeth to receive or take the ſaid Oath; then the ſaid Warden ſo elect, within Four Days next after the ſame Monday, ſhall come before the Bailiffs of the ſaid Town of Great Yarmouth for the time being, or before One of them, the other being abſent, and then and there receive a corporal Oath for the true exerciſing of the ſame Office of Wardenſhip, after the Tenor of the Oath accuſtomably uſed to be given to the ſaid Wardens of the ſaid City of Norwich.

Norfol. to be used in good Congruities of Latin, and Form of the Laws of this Realm; (7) in which Actions, or any of them, none Essoin, Protection, or Wager of the Law shall be suffered or allowed. (8) And that the particular Bodies, or Goods of any of the said Wardens or Inhabitants being condemned in any of the said Actions, shall and may be put in Execution, after such Manner and Form as is used in Actions of Debt by Course of the Common Law of this Realm.

A Warden of Norwich or Norfolk shall come to Linn when there is no Warden there.

By what Names the Parties grieved shall bring their Actions.

The Warden's Allowance by the Day for his Charges in coming to Linn.

The particular Bodies or Goods of the Wardens or Inhabitants put in Execution.

VII. And moreover, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Cloths of Worsteds, Sayes, and Stamins, made or to be made within any of the said Towns of Linne, and Great Yarmouth, or Suburbs of the same, or any of them, and marked with such Marks as shall be limited to the Makers by the said Wardens of the said Town, in Manner and Form abovesaid, and weaved, and sealed by any of the Wardens of the said Town of Linne, and Yarmouth, in Form above remembered, by Force and Virtue of this present Act, may be lawfully put to Sale by the Owners and Makers of the same, without any other marking or sealing upon the said Cloths, or upon any of them to be had or made by any other Wardens, dwelling or abiding without the said Towns, and without any Arrest, Seisure, or Forfeiture to be had or made of or upon any of the said Cloths, for Lack of any other Seals or Marks; any Thing contained in the said former Act made in the said Seventh Year of King Edward the Fourth to the contrary notwithstanding.

Cloths to be marked by the Wardens of Linn and Yarmouth.

VIII. And over this, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Craftsman of the said Mystery and Occupation of Worsted-Making, dwelling within any of the said Towns of Linne and Great Yarmouth, and Suburbs of the same, at their own Free-wills and Liberties from henceforth for ever, may have and take Apprentice or Apprentices (being Male) of the Age of Fourteen Years and upward, and being the King's natural Subjects, for the Term of Seven Years, and not under, so that none of them exceed the Number of Two at once, to learn, use, and exercise the said Craft within either of the said Towns of Linne and Great Yarmouth, or Suburbs of the same, albeit the Father of the same Apprentices or Apprentice may not expend in Lands and Tenements to the yearly Value of xx. s. any Act or Ordinance to the contrary made or to be made notwithstanding.

What Apprentices Worsted-Weavers in Linn and Great Yarmouth may take. 26 H. 8. c. 16. 5 El. c. 4.

IX. Provided alway, That this present Act, nor any Thing therein contained, be not in any wise hurtful or prejudicial to the Mayor of Norwich, or to his Successors, or to the Wardens of the said City and County, or to their Successors, in any Point, Article, Power, or Authority, other than for weaving, searching, and sealing of Worsteds, Sayes, and Stamins, made or to be made only within the said Towns of Linne and Yarmouth, or Suburbs of the the ſame, or to any of them; and for limiting of Marks to the Makers of Worſted, Sayes, and Stamins, only inhabited in either of the ſaid Towns or Suburbs thereof, and taking of Apprentices in Form above remembered; (2) but that the ſaid Mayor of the ſaid City of Norwich, and Wardens of the ſaid City and County, and every of them, may have and uſe all other Points, Articles, Powers, and Authorities contained and ſpecified in the above remembered Act, made in the ſaid Seventh Year of King Edward the Fourth, as well for the Search, Sealing, Correction, and Reformation of the ſaid Wardens newly to be elect by Virtue of this preſent Act, and every of them, according and after ſuch Form as they may do or uſe, any of the ſaid Wardens of the ſaid City or County by Force of the ſaid Act made in the ſaid Seventh Year of King Edward the Fourth, as all and every other Inquiries, Corrections, Searches, Seiſings, and Reformations to be had, for the true making of Worſteds, Sayes, and Stamins, in and upon any Perſon or Perſons, as well within the ſaid Towns of Linne and Yarmouth, as without, without Trouble, Let, or Vexation of any of the Inhabitants of the ſaid Towns, in as large and ample wiſe as they might have done before the making of this preſent Act; any Thing contained in the ſame preſent Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

7 Ed. 4. c. 1.

None in Linn or Yarmouth ſhall ſhear, calander, or dye, but in Norwich.

X. And alſo provided, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Craftſmen of Worſted-Weavers inhabited, or hereafter to be inhabited, within either of the ſaid Towns of Linne and Yarmouth, or Suburbs of the ſame, and the Merchants, or any other Perſon or Perſons which ſhall happen to buy of the ſame Craftſmen, or of any of them, or of any other Perſon, any of the ſaid Cloths of Worſteds, Stamins, or Sayes, made or to be made within either of the ſaid Towns of Linne and Yarmouth, and ſealed by the ſaid Wardens of the ſame Towns to be elect and ſworn as is aforeſaid, and any of them, ſhall not ſhear, dye, or put in Colour, or calander any Worſteds, Stamins, or Sayes, made or to be made within either of the ſaid Towns of Linne, and Yarmouth, or Suburbs of the ſame, in any other Place or Places, but only within the ſaid City of Norwich, or Suburbs of the ſame, upon Pain of Forfeiture of every Piece of Worſteds, Sayes, or Stamins, to be made within any of the ſaid Towns of Linne, and Yarmouth, or Suburbs of the ſame, or the Value thereof, ſhorn, dyed, coloured, or calandred by any of the ſaid Craftſmen, Buyers, or Merchants, in any other Place or Places than in the ſaid City of Norwich, or Suburbs of the ſame; the one Half thereof to be to the King our Sovereign Lord, and the other Half thereof to ſuch Perſon or Perſons as ſhall ſeiſe the ſame, (2) ſo that the ſaid Worſteds brought to the ſaid City of Norwich to be ſhorn, dyed, coloured, and calandred, without Covin or Craft of any of the ſaid Inhabitants and Merchants, may be ſhorn, dyed, coloured, and calandred at and by as convenient Price or Prices, and in as ready wiſe, as the ſaid Inhabitants of either of the ſaid Towns of Linne and Yarmouth, and Merchants Buyers of the ſaid Worſteds, or other of the ſaid City and County hath had in Times paſt, or hereafter ſhall have.

No Worſteds ſhall be carried beyond the Sea before they be ſhorn, &c.

XI. And alſo that the ſame Inhabitants and Merchants, and every of them, ſo bringing their ſaid Worſteds to the ſame City for to be ſhorn, dyed, coloured, and calandred, be reaſonably and lawfully intreated, according to the ſaid Act made in the ſaid Seventh Year of King Edward the Fourth, and the Ordinances made and affirmed, or hereafter to be made and affirmed, for the ſaid Myſtery, without Let or Diſturbance, contrary to the ſame Act or Ordinances in that Behalf.

By 6 Annæ. c. 9. any White Woollen Cloth may be exported. 21 H. 8 c. 21. Made perpetual by 26 H. 8. c. 16.

XII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Perſon or Perſons any Time after convey or tranſport into any of the Parts beyond the Sea, any Manner of Cloths of Worſteds, before the ſame Cloths be ſhorn, dyed, coloured, and calandred, upon Pain of forfeiting the Value thereof; the one Half to the King our Sovereign Lord, and the other Half thereof to the Party that will ſue therefore by Action or Plaint of Debt in any of the King's Courts; (2) in which Action or Suit no Protection or Eſſoin ſhall be allowed, nor the Offender admitted to wage his Law. (3) This Act to endure to the next Parliament.

CAP. IV.

What Cuſtoms and Impoſitions Engliſhmen ſworn to Foreign Princes ſhall pay.

PRayen the Commons in this preſent Parliament, That where many and divers Perſons, being the King's Subjects naturally born within this his Realm, have withdrawn themſelves out of the ſame Realm, and tranſported themſelves, with their Wives, Children, and Goods, into Holland, Zealand, Brabant, Flanders, and into other Countries of Foreign Princes, and there be ſworn to the Obeiſance of the Princes and Lords of the Countries where they be now inhabited, making there great Buildings, and be Contributaries to all Manner of Charges, as the Subjects of thoſe Countries be; and thus they maintain, as much as in them is, the Cities, Boroughs, and Towns of thoſe Countries, and many more of the King's Subjects intend to do the ſame, if Remedy therein be not provided: (2) Which Subjects born in England, notwithſtanding that they thus eſtrange themſelves from the King's Obeiſance, yet they occupy here in all the Ports, Havens, and Creeks, Cities, Boroughs, and Towns of England, as freely, and as free in Cuſtom and Subſidy, as the King's Subjects do occupy, and not only for themſelves, but alſo colourably for other Strangers, their Friends and Partners, and alſo make themſelves quit and exempt from all Charges within this Realm, in Prejudice and Decay of the Cities, Towns, and Boroughs of England; (3) and as for beyond the Sea, they will obey to none Authority granted to the Engliſh Nation by the King's Highneſs and his noble Progenitors under the Great Seal of England, and by Authority of Parliament, but they give themſelves over to the Protection and Defence of thoſe outward Princes, to whom they be ſworn Subjects; and by theſe Manner of Perſons much Coin is conveyed out of the Land:

An Engliſhman ſworn ſubject to a foreign Prince, ſhall pay ſuch Impoſitions as Aliens do.

II. Wherefore be it ordained and enacted by the King our Sovereign Lord, and the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That all and every ſuch Subjects born in England, and ſworn to be Subjects to foreign Princes and Lords of outward Parts, from henceforth (as long as they ſhall ſo abide, and be as Subjects to foreign Princes and Lords) that from henceforth ſo long they and every of them ſhall pay ſuch Cuſtoms, Subſidies, Tolls, and other Impoſitions within this Realm of England, as other Strangers of thoſe Parts where the ſaid Engliſhmen make their Inhabitations, pay or uſe to pay within this ſaid Realm: (2) And that the Knowledge

Knowledge of all and every ſuch Perſon or Perſons Inhabitants, and ſworn in Manner and Form as is before rehearſed within the Archduke's Countries, that is to ſay, Holland, Zealand, Brabant, and Flanders only, ſhall be had by Certificate thereof made by the Governor of the Merchant Adventurers and the Aſſiſtants there for the time being; (3) and alſo for all other Realms and Countries of foreign Princes, to be certified by the King's moſt noble Embaſſadors, being at ſuch time there, as they ſhall happen to be in the ſaid Countries upon the King's Affairs, ſhall likewiſe certify, as is aforeſaid, under their Seal, into the Chancery of our Sovereign Lord the King; (4) and thereupon out of the ſaid Chancery Writs to be made, and directed unto the Cuſtomers, Comptrollers, or other Officers of the King's Cuſtom in every Port, Haven, or Creek within this ſaid Realm, to perceive, levy, and take all Manner of ſuch Cuſtoms, Subſidies, Tolls, and other Impoſitions, as is before ſpecified, of all ſuch Goods and Merchandiſes as ſhall belong unto any ſuch Perſon or Perſons inhabited and ſworn in Manner and Form above written, as well inward as outward.

III. Provided alway, That if hereafter it ſhall happen any ſuch Perſon or Perſons to return into the Realm, and here to tarry and inhabit, that then he or they ſhall be reſtored to all ſuch Liberties and Freedoms in paying of Cuſtoms or Subſidies, and other Charges, as all other Engliſhmen do uſe to pay, and to have a Writ out of the Chancery for the ſame, this Act, or any Thing therein made, to the contrary notwithſtanding. An Engliſhman returning, and dwelling again in the Realm.

(19) And foraſmuch that the making of the ſaid Corporation is meritorious, and very good for the Common Wealth of this your Realm, it is therefore expedient and neceſſary to provide, That no Perſon of the ſaid Politick Body and Commonalty aforeſaid, be ſuffered to exerciſe and practiſe Phyſick, but only thoſe Perſons that be profound, ſad, and diſcreet, groundly learned, and deeply ſtudied in Phyſick.

The foregoing Letters Patents confirmed, and further enlarged.

II. CAP. VI.

Altering of Highways in the Weld of Kent.

IN humble wiſe beſeecheth your Highneſs, your true and faithful Subject, George Guldeford Eſquire for your Body, That where there is, and of Time whereof Mind of Man is not to the contrary, hath been an old common Way, or Street for Carriages, and all other Paſſages and Buſineſs for you and your Progenitors, and your and their People, in the Hundred of Cranebrook, in the Weld of your County of Kent, leading and extending between and among the Lands of the Manor of Hempſted, of the ſaid George, in the ſaid Hundred of Cranebrook, from the Bridge called Hempſted Bridge, dividing the ſaid Hundred of Cranebrook, and the Hundred of Rolvinden, in the ſaid Weld of your ſaid County, to a Croſs called Totenden Croſs, ſtanding nigh to a great Oak, named Hempſted Oak, which is in Length upon an Hundred fourſcore and ten Perches; which common Way ſo uſed is in divers Places thereof right deep, and noyous for the Paſſage of your People, and alſo is not ſo directly leading between the ſaid Bridge and Croſs, neither ſo commodious modious for your People, as another Way of like Breadth in other Places within and over the Lands of the ſaid Manor might be made.

Guldeford may lay out a new Way in the Manor of Hempſted, and then keep in ſeveral the old.

II. In Conſideration whereof, it may pleaſe your Highneſs, of your bleſſed Diſpoſition, with the Aſſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, to enact and ordain, That it ſhall be lawful to your ſaid Beſeecher, his Heirs, and Aſſigns, Owners of the ſaid Manor of Hempſted, at his and their proper Coſts and Charges, at any Time before the Twenty ſixth Day of May, which ſhall be in the Year of our Lord God M.D.XXVII. by the Overſight and Aſſent of Two Juſtices of Peace of the ſaid County of Kent, and Twelve other diſcreet Men, Inhabitants within the ſaid Hundreds of Cranebrook and Rolvinden, to aſſign, limit, and lay out, over and through the Lands of the ſaid Manor, one other Way for Carriages and Paſſages of your Grace, and of your People, and of your and their Heirs and Succeſſors, of as great Largeneſs in Breadth, or larger than the ſaid old Way now being is, and as commodious for the ſaid Carriages and Paſſages, as the ſame Way now being is, or better, extending and leading directly between the ſaid Bridge and Croſs, ſo that your Grace, and your People, by the ſaid new Way ſo to be aſſigned and laid out, ſhall have the more eaſy Carriage and Paſſage than is, or of late Time hath been, by the ſaid old Way; (2) and that after the ſaid new Way ſo laid out and aſſigned, the ſaid Carriages, Paſſages, and other Buſineſs there, may be as liberally, commonly, and freely from thenceforth there uſed and had for ever, and every other Thing there exerciſed and kept, as before this Time hath been had, uſed, exerciſed, and kept in the ſaid old Way, without Let or Interruption of the ſaid George, his Heirs, or Aſſigns, or any other Perſon, which hereafter ſhall have, hold, or poſſeſs the ſaid Manor; (3) and that immediately after that the ſaid new Way (as is aforeſaid) to be aſſigned and limited, ſhall be (as is aboveſaid) laid out, and fully made, it ſhall be lawful to your ſaid Beſeecher, his Heirs, and Aſſigns, Owners of the ſaid Manor, to incloſe the ſaid old Way, and every Part thereof, and that from henceforth to hold in Severalty to them, and to their Heirs and Aſſigns, to their own Uſe and Profit for ever, as Parcel of the ſaid Manor, without any common Way or Paſſage there from thenceforth to be had or claimed, any Preſcription or Uſe to the contrary heretofore had notwithſtanding.

Any Perſon may lay out a more commodious Way in the Weld of Kent, by the Aſſent of Two Juſtices of the Peace, and xij. diſcreet Men of that Hundred, and keep ſeveral the old.

III. And in Conſideration that many other common Ways in the ſaid Weld of Kent, be ſo deep and noyous, by Wearing, and Courſe of Water, and other Occaſions, that People cannot have their Carriages or Paſſages by Horſes upon or by the ſame, but to their great Pains, Peril, and Jeopardy: it may be by the ſaid Authority enacted and eſtabliſhed, That if any other Perſon or Perſons, any Time hereafter, in any Place within the ſaid Weld of your ſaid County, of his good Mind and Diſpoſition, without any Value of Good by him or them to be received for the ſame, will for the common Weal of your People, aſſign and lay out a more commodious Way, in and over the Lands thereunto adjoining, whereof the Perſon or other to his Uſe ſhall be ſeiſed of Fee in Eſtate of Inheritance, that the ſame new Way ſo to be aſſigned and laid out, by Overſight and Aſſent of Two Juſtices of Peace of the ſaid County, and Twelve other diſcreet Men, inhabiting within the Hundred where any ſuch new Way ſhall be limited and laid out, or inhabiting within the ſame Hundred and other Hundreds to that Hundred next adjoining, ſhall be from thenceforth holden, occupied, and uſed in like Manner as the old Way there now is, or before hath been.

The Juſtices and xij. Men ſhall make Certificate of the new Way into the Chancery.

IV. And that alſo the ſame Perſon or Perſons ſo diſpoſed, willing and accompliſhing the ſame, ſhall and may, for the ſaid new Way ſo aſſigned and uſed, retain, and hold in Way of Recompence for the ſame new Way ſo to be given, the Soil and Ground of the old Way in Severalty, as is aboveſaid, to him or them, and to their Heirs for ever, in like Manner as is aboveſaid of the ſaid new Way to be aſſigned at Hempſted; (2) and that the ſaid Two Juſtices of Peace, and Twelve other diſcreet Perſons, by whoſe Overſight and Aſſent the ſaid new Way at Hempſted, or any other Way, by virtue of this Act ſhall be hereafter aſſigned, limited, and laid out, ſhall within Three Months next after the Aſſignment, Limitation, and laying out of the ſame, make Certificate into the King's moſt honourable Court of Chancery under their Seals, of the Length and Breadth of the ſame new Way or Street, and of other Things adjoining or concerning the ſame, as by their Diſcretions ſhall be thought moſt expedient or requiſite for the Common Wealth of that County to be certified; (3) and that Certificate to be made from time to time, as oft as any ſuch new Way or Street ſhall be aſſigned, limited, and laid out in Form above written.

They which have any Way through the old Way, may uſe it.

V. Provided alway, That if any Perſon or Perſons, or Body Politick, have, or ought to have, or hereafter ſhall have any Church-way, or other whatſoever Way or Paſſage, over or through any Manner Lands adjoining to any of the ſaid old Ways or Streets, which ſhall be taken and uſed by Force of this Act, as ſeveral Soil, and Freehold, in Recompence for any new Way to be made and laid out in Form aforeſaid, or have, or ought to have, or hereafter ſhall have any Lands or Tenements adjoining to the ſaid old Way; that they, and every of them, their Heirs, and Succeſſors, ſhall and may have and uſe their ſaid Way, or Ways, out of, and into the ſaid new Way, over and through the Land of the ſaid old Way or Street, into or over the ſaid Land or Tenement adjoining to the ſame, and ſo to paſs and repaſs, as ſhall appertain, over the ſame old Way, at ſuch convenient Place or Places thereof, as therefore ſhall be limited and aſſigned by the ſaid Two Juſtices of Peace, and other Twelve Men, and by them to be certified into the Chancery, among other Things by them to be certified in Form aforeſaid, any thing in this Act above written notwithſtanding.

Any Perſon that hath Lands to the yearly Value of C. l. may ſhoot in Croſs-bows and Hand-guns notwithſtanding the Statute of 6 H. 8. c. 13. All former Placards granted by the King for ſhooting in either of them ſhall be void.

CAP. VIII.

The Marriage of the Six Clerks allowed, &c.

IN moſt humble wiſe beſeechen your Highneſs, your true and faithful Subjects, and daily Servants, the Six Clerks of your High Court of Chancery, That whereas of old Time accuſtomed hath been uſed in the ſaid Court, that all Manner of Clerks and Miniſters of the ſame Court, writing to the Great Seal, ſhould be unmarried (except only the Clerk of the Crown) ſo that as well the Curſitors, and other Clerks, as the Six Clerks of the ſaid Chancery, were by the ſame Cuſtom reſtrained from Marriage, whereby all thoſe that contrary to the ſame did marry, were no longer ſuffered to write in the ſaid Chancery, not only to their great Hinderance, loſing thereby the Benefit of their long Study, and tedious Labours and Pains in Youth taken in the ſaid Court, but alſo to the great Decay of the true Courſe of the ſaid Court.

By old Cuſtom no Clerk of the Chancery might marry, but only the Clerk of the Crown.

II. And foraſmuch as now the ſaid Cuſtom taketh no Place nor Uſage, but only in the Office of the ſaid Six Clerks, but that it is permitted and ſuffered for Maintenance of the ſaid Courſe, that as well the ſaid Curſitors, as the other Clerks aforeſaid, may and do take Wives, and marry at their Liberty, after the Laws of holy Church, and of long Time have ſo done, without Interruption or Let of any Perſon: (2) It may therefore pleaſe your Highneſs of your moſt abundant Grace, with the Aſſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, in Conſideration of the Premiſſes, and alſo for that the ſaid Cuſtom is not grounded upon any Law, to ordain, enact, and eſtabliſh, That John Trevethen, Richard Welles, Oliver Leader, John Croke, William Jeſſon, and John Lemſey, now being in the Office of the Six Clerks of the Chancery, and every of them, and all other which in Time to come ſhall be in the ſame Office, and every of them, may and do take Wives and marry at their Liberty, after the Laws of holy Church; (3) and that they, and every of them ſo married, may have, hold, and enjoy their ſaid Office of Six Clerks, in as ample, large, and like Manner, as they did or ſhould do before the ſaid Eſpouſals, or as if they had never been married, the ſaid Cuſtom, or any other Cuſtom or Ordinance heretofore had or made to the contrary notwithſtanding.

The Six Clerks of the Chancery may marry, and enjoy their Offices.

III. Provided alway, That by any Thing in this Act contained, the Maſter of the Rolls for the time being be not prejudiced either in the giving and Diſpoſition of the ſaid Offices from time to time, as hath been heretofore accuſtomed, the Forfeiture of that Office by reaſon of Marriage only except. And that the ſaid Officers which now be, and hereafter ſhall be, do give ſuch Attendance unto the ſaid Maſter of the Rolls for the time being, as heretofore in the ſaid Offices hath been accuſtomed.

CAP. X.

The Penalty for unlawful hunting the Hare.

FOraſmuch as our Sovereign Lord the King, and other Noblemen of this Realm of England, before this Time have uſed and exerciſed the Game of Hunting of the Hare for their Diſport and Pleaſure, which Game is now decayed, and almoſt utterly deſtroyed, for that divers Perſons in divers Parts of this Realm, by reaſon of the tracing in Snow, have killed and deſtroyed, and daily do kill and deſtroy the ſame Hares, by x, xij, or xvi, upon one Day, to the Diſpleaſure of our ſaid Sovereign Lord the King, and other Noblemen of this his Realm. (2) Wherefore be it enacted by our ſaid Sovereign Lord, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and by the Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, That no Perſon or Perſons, of what Eſtate, Degree, or Condition they be, from henceforth trace, deſtroy, and kill any Hare in the Snow with any Dog, Bitch, Bow, nor otherwiſe. (3) And that the Juſtices of Peace within every Shire, at every Seſſions of the Peace, and Stewards of Leets, ſhall have full Authority and Power to enquire of ſuch Offenders; (4) and after ſuch Inquiſitions found, the ſaid Juſtices of the Peace and Stewards of Leets, for every Hare ſo killed, ſhall ceſs upon every ſuch Offender vi. s. viij. d. to be forfeited to our ſaid Sovereign Lord, that ſhall be ſo founden by the Juſtices of Peace in their Seſſions, (5) and the Forfeiture found in every Leet to be to the Lord of the Leet.

Juſtices of Peace and Stewards in Leets may inquire of and puniſh the Offenders. 1 Jac. 1. c. 27.

CAP. XI.

Cloths made in Suffolk, called Veſſes or Set Cloths, ſhall not be forfeited for lack of Length or Breadth, being wet.

6 H. 8. c. 9.

HUmbly ſhewn unto your Highneſs, your true Subjects and Clothiers of your County of Suffolk, That where in the Sixth Year of your moſt noble Reign, it was and is enacted amongſt other Things concerning making of Cloth, That any Perſon or Perſons ſhall not put any Cloth to ſale, which, when it is full wet, ſhall ſhrink more than One Yard in Length, and One Quarter of a Yard in Breadth for the more Part thereof; (2) and Cloths called Narrows or Streits after the Rate; upon Pain to forfeit for every Cloth otherwiſe put to ſale, vi. s. viij. d. and to deduct of his Price for the ſame, to be rebated to the Buyer thereof as much after the Rate, as the ſame Cloth ſo otherwiſe put to ſale, (being full wet) ſhall be ſhrunk more than One Yard of that it was in Length at the Time of the ſame Sale, and as it ſhall (being wet) lack of the Breadth of One Yard and Three Quarters of a Yard. (3) And in the ſame Act was and is a Proviſo made after the Form following.

II. Provided alway, That this Act extend not to Woollen Cloths called Kendals, nor Cloths called Carpenel Whites, commonly made for lining of Hoſen, nor to any Cloths called Toſtocks, made in the County of Devonſhire, nor to any Woollen Cloths made in the County of Cornwall, nor for any Cottons or plain Lining, or Friſe made or to be made in Wales, Lancaſhire, and Cheſhire, or any of them.

III. So it is, moſt gracious Sovereign Lord, that Veſſes, otherwiſe called Set Cloths, of divers Colours, be made in your ſaid County of Suffolk, which be made to be worn in far Countries, and not in England, and be of ſmall Prices, not above xl. s. a Cloth, that do not hold the Length nor Breadth when they be wet, which the Buyers do know well when they buy them, ſo that therein is no Deceit; which Cloths in the Third Year of the Reign of your moſt noble Father King HENRY the Seventh were provided for, ſo that they might lawfully be ſold without any Penalty or Forfeiture, though they lacked in Length or Breadth when they were full wet, and ſo they have uſed to do Time out of Mind.

3 H. 7. c. 11.

IV. And in the Proviſo made in the ſaid Act of the Sixth Year of your moſt noble Reign, they were forgotten and not provided for, which ſhould be to the utter impoveriſhing of the Clothiers of your ſaid County, and of all other that be wrought by reaſon of Cloth-making within the ſaid County of Suffolk, if no Remedy ſhould be therefore provided.

V. Wherefore your humble Subjects humbly beſeech your Highneſs, That it be enacted by all the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and all the Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, with your Royal Aſſent to the ſame, That all Cloths called Veſſes, otherwiſe called Set Cloths, what Colour ſoever they be of, not being above the Value of xl. s. a Cloth, ſhall not be forfeited, for that they lack in Length or Breadth, when they be full wet, after the Sale of them afore this Time made, or hereafter to be made; (2) the ſaid Act made in the Sixth Year of your moſt noble Reign, or any other Act heretofore made to the contrary notwithſtanding.

The Statute of 6 H. 8. c. 9. ſhall not extend to Veſſes or Set Cloths.

The Sale of Lands by Part of the Executors lawful.

WHERE divers ſundry Perſons before this Time, having other Perſons ſeiſed to their Uſe of and in Lands and other Hereditaments to and for the Declaration of their Wills, have by their laſt Wills and Teſtaments willed and declared ſuch their ſaid Lands, Tenements, or other Hereditaments to be ſold by their Executors, as well to and for the Payments of their Debts, Performance of their Legacies, neceſſary and convenient finding of their Wives, virtuous bringing up and Advancement of their Children to Marriage, as alſo for other charitable Deeds to be done and executed by their Executors for the Health of their Souls. (2) And notwithſtanding ſuch Truſt and Confidence ſo by them put in their ſaid Executors, it hath oftentimes been ſeen, where ſuch laſt Wills and Teſtaments of ſuch Lands, Tenements, and other Hereditaments have been declared, and in the ſame divers Executors named and made, that after the Deceaſe of ſuch Teſtators ſome of the ſame Executors, willing to accompliſh the Truſt and Confidence that they were put in by the ſaid Teſtator, have accepted and taken upon them the Charge of the ſaid Teſtament, and have been ready to fulfil and perform all Things contained in the ſame; and the Reſidue of the ſame Executors, uncharitably contrary to the Truſt that they were put in, have refuſed to intermeddle in any wiſe with the Execution of the ſaid Will and Teſtament, or with the Sale of ſuch Lands ſo willed to be ſold by the Teſtator. (3) And foraſmuch as a Bargain and Sale of ſuch Lands, Tenements, or other Hereditaments ſo willed by any Perſon to be ſold by his Executors after his Deceaſe, after the Opinion of divers Perſons, can in no wiſe be good or effectual in the Law, unleſs the ſame Bargain and Sale be made by the whole Number of the Executors named to and for the ſame; (4) by reaſon whereof, as well the Debts of ſuch Teſtators have reſted unpaid and unſatisfied, to the great Danger and Peril of the Souls of ſuch Teſtators, and to the great Hindrance, and many Times to the utter undoing of their Creditors: (5) As alſo the Legacies and Bequeſts made by the Teſtator to his Wife, Children, and for other charitable Deeds to be done for the Wealth of the Soul of the ſame Teſtator that made the ſame Teſtament, have have been also unperformed, as well to the extream Misery of the Wife and Children of the said Testator, as also to the Let of Performance of other charitable Deeds for the Wealth of the Soul of the said Testator, to the Displeasure of Almighty God. (6) For Remedy whereof, be it enacted, ordained, and established by the Authority of this present Parliament, That where Part of the Executors named in any such Testament of any such Person so making or declaring any such Will of any Lands, Tenements, or other Hereditaments to be sold by his Executors, after the Death of any such Testator, do refuse to take upon him or them the Administration and Charge of the same Testament and last Will wherein they be so named to be Executors, and the Residue of the same Executors do accept and take upon them the Cure and Charge of the same Testament and last Will; that then all Bargains and Sales of such Lands, Tenements, or other Hereditaments, so willed to be sold by the Executors of any such Testator, as well heretofore made, as hereafter to be made by him or them only of the said Executors that so doth accept, or that heretofore hath accepted and taken upon him or them any such Cure or Charge of Administration of any such Will or Testament, shall be as good and as effectual in the Law, as if all the Residue of the same Executors named in the said Testament, so refusing the Administration of the same Testament, had joined with him or them in the making of the Bargain and Sale of such Lands, Tenements, or other Hereditaments so willed to be sold by the Executors of any such Testator, which heretofore hath made or declared, or that hereafter shall make or declare any such Will, of any such Lands, Tenements, or other Hereditaments after his Decease, to be sold by his Executors.

Wills made before this Statute.

II. Provided alway, That this Act shall not extend to give Power or Authority to any Executor or Executors at any time hereafter to bargain or put to Sale any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, by Virtue and Authority of any Will or Testament heretofore made, otherwise than they might do by the Course of the Common Law afore the making this Act.

What Fees ought to be taken for Probate of Testaments.

31 Ed. 3. stat. 1. c. 4. Latch. 68.

WHERE in the Parliament holden at Westminster, in the Thirty first Year of the Reign of the noble King of famous Memory, EDWARD the Third, upon the Complaint of his People for the outrageous and grievous Fines and Sums of Money taken by the Ministers of Bishops, and of other Ordinaries of Holy Church, for the Probate of Testaments, and for the Acquittances by the said Ordinaries to be made concerning the same, the said noble King in the same Parliament, openly charged and commanded the Archbishop of Canterbury, and the other Bishops for the time being, that Amendment thereof should be had; (2) and if none Amendment were thereof had, it was by the Authority of the same Parliament accorded, that the King should thereof make Inquiry by his Justices, of such Oppression and Extortions; and that the same Justices should hear and determine them as well at the Suit of the King, as of the Party, as of old Time hath been used, as by the same Statute plainly appeareth. (3) And where at the Parliament holden at Westminster, in the Third Year of the Reign of King HENRY the Fifth, it was recited, That the Commons of the Realm had oftentimes complained them in divers Parliaments, for that divers Ordinaries do take for the Probation of Testaments, and other Things thereunto belonging, sometime xl. s. sometime lx. s. and sometimes more, against Right and Justice, where in the Time of King EDWARD the Third, Men were wont to pay for such Causes but ii. s. vi. d. or v. s. at the most, by which unlawful Exactions the Testaments of the Testators might not be executed according to their last Wills; (4) it was then enacted, for the avoiding of such Oppressions, That no Ordinary from thenceforth should take for the Probation of any Testament or Inventory, or for any other Thing to the same belonging, any more than was accustomed and used in the Time of the said noble King EDWARD the Third, (5) upon Pain to yield to the Party so grieved, Three Times as much as the said Ordinaries did so receive; (6) which Act did endure but to the next Parliament following, by reason that the Ordinaries did then promise to reform and amend the said Oppressions and Exactions; (7) and for that the said unlawful Exactions of the said Ordinaries, and their Ministers, be nothing reformed nor amended, but greatly augmented and increased, against Right and Justice, and to the great impoverishing of the King's Subjects:

II. The King our Sovereign Lord, by the Assent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by Authority of the same, hath ordained, established, and enacted, That from the First Day of April, in the Year of our Lord M.D.XXX. that nothing shall be demanded, received, nor taken by any Bishop, Ordinary, Archdeacon, Chancellor, Commissary, Official, or any other Manner of Person or Persons, whatsoever they be, which now have, or which at any Time hereafter shall have Authority or Power to take or receive Probation, Insinuation, or Approbation of Testament or Testaments, by himself, or themselves, nor by his or their Registers, Scribes, Praisers, Summoners, Apparators, or by any other of their Ministers, for the Probation, Insinuation, and Approbation of any Testament or Testaments, or for writing, sealing, praising, registering, Fines, making of Inventories, and of giving of Acquittances, or for any other Manner of Cause concerning the same, where the Goods of the Testator of the said Testament, or Person so dying, do not amount clearly over and above the Value of C s. Sterling, (2) except only to the Scribe to have for writing of the Probate of the Testament of him deceased, whose Goods shall not be above the same clear Value of C s. vi. d. (3) and for the Commission of Administration of the Goods of any Man deceasing intestate, not being above like Value of C. s. clear vi. d. (4) and that nevertheless, the Bishop, Ordinary, or other Person or Persons having Power or Authority to take or receive the Probation or Approbation of Testaments, refuse not to approve any such Testament, being lawfully tendered or offered to them to be proved or approved, whereof the Goods of the Testator, or Person so dying, amount not above the Value of C. s. Sterling, so that the said Testament be exhibited to him or them in writing, with Wax thereunto affixed ready to be sealed, and that the same Testament be lawfully proved before the same Ordinary (before the sealing) to be true, whole, and the last Testament of the same Testator, in such Form as hath been commonly accustomed in that Behalf.

CAP. VI.

Where Mortuaries ought to be paid, for what Persons, and how much; and in what Case none is due.

13 Co. 9. The Causes of limiting in Certainty what shall be paid for Mortuaries.

FOrasmuch as Question, Ambiguity, and Doubt is chanced and risen upon the Order, Manner, and Form of demanding, receiving, and claiming of Mortuaries, otherwise called Corse Presents, as well for the Greatness and Value of the same, which, as hath lately been taken, is thought over-excessive to the poor People and other Persons of this Realm, (2) as also for that such Mortuaries or Corse Presents have been demanded and levied, for such as at the Time of their Death have had no Property in any Goods or Chattles, and many Times for travelling and wayfaring Men, in the Places where they have fortuned to die; (3) to the Intent that all Doubt, Contention, and Incertainty herein may be removed, and as well the Generality of the King's People therein remedied, as also of the Parsons Vicars, Parish Priests, Curates, and other having Interest in such Mortuaries and Corse Presents indifferently provided for:

II. Be it therefore enacted, ordained, and established by the King our Sovereign Lord, and the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, of this Parliament assembled, and by Authority of the same, That from the First Day of April, in the Year of our Lord God M.D.XXX. no Parson, Vicar, Curate, nor Parish Priest, ne any other Spiritual Person, nor their Farmors, Bailiffs, nor Lessees, shall take, receive, or demand of any Person or Persons within this Realm, for any Person or Persons dying within the same, any Manner Mortuary or Corse Present, ne any Sum or Sums of Money, ne any other Thing for the same, more than is hereafter mentioned; (2) ne also shall convent or call any Person or Persons before any Judge Spiritual, for the Recovery of any such Mortuaries or Corse Presents, or any other Thing for the same, more than is hereafter mentioned, (3) upon Pain to forfeit for every Time so demanding, receiving, taking, or conventing, or calling any such Person or Persons before any Spiritual Judge, so much in Value as they shall take above the Sum limited by this Act, and over that, xl. s. to the Party grieved contrary to this Act; (4) for the which Forfeiture the Party so grieved contrary to this Act, shall have an Action of Debt, by Writ, Bill, Plaint, or Information in any of the King's Courts, wherein no Wager of Law, Essoin, nor Protection shall be allowed.

The Penalty of him that conventeth any Person to pay for a Mortuary more than is due.

No Mortuary where the Goods be under x. Marks. Cro. Car. 237. No Mortuary but where Mortuaries have been. But one Mortuary for one Person.

III. First it is ordained, established, and enacted, That no Manner of Mortuary shall be taken or demanded of any Person whatsoever he be, which at the Time of his Death hath in moveable Goods under the Value of x. Marks. (2) Also that no Mortuary shall be given, asked, or demanded from henceforth of any Manner Person, but only in such Place where heretofore Mortuaries have been used to be paid and given, and in those Places none otherwise but after the Rate and Form hereafter mentioned. (3) Ne that any Person pay Mortuaries in more Places than One, that is to say, in the Places of their most Dwelling and Habitation, and there but One Mortuary. (4) Nor no Parson, Vicar, Curate, Parish Priest, or other, shall for any Person dying or dead, and being at the Time of his Death of the Value in moveable Goods of x. Marks, or more, clearly above his Debts paid, and under the Sum of xxx. li. take for a Mortuary above iii. iv. d. in the whole. (5) And for a Person dying or dead, being at the Time of his Death of the Value of xxx. li. or above clearly, above his Debts paid, in moveable Goods, and under the Value of xl. li. there shall no more be taken or demanded for a Mortuary than vi. s. viii. d. in the whole. (6) And for any Person dying or dead, having at the Time of his Death of the Value in moveable Goods of xl. li. or above, to any Sum whatsoever it be, clearly above his Debts paid, there shall be no more taken, paid, or demanded for a Mortuary than x. s. in the whole.

The Duty of the Parson, &c. for all Mortuaries.

IV. Provided alway, That for no Woman being Covert Baron, nor Child, ne for any Person not keeping House, any Manner Mortuary be paid, ne that any Parson, Vicar, Curate, Parish Priest or other, ask, demand, or take for any such Woman, Child, or for any Person not keeping House, dying or dead, any Manner Thing or Money, by Way of Mortuary; (2) ne also for any wayfaring Man, or other, that dwelleth not, ne maketh Residence in the Place where they shall happen to die, but that the Mortuary of such wayfaring Persons be answerable in Places where Mortuaries be accustomed to be paid, and in Manner and Form, and after the Rate before mentioned, and none otherwise, in the Place or Places where such wayfaring Persons at the Time of their Death had their most Habitation, House, and Dwelling-places, and no where else.

A Woman Covert, a Child, or Person keeping no House, shall pay no Mortuary.

A wayfaring Man, or that maketh no Residence where he dieth.

V. Provided alway, That it shall be lawful to all Manner Parsons, Vicars, Curates, Parish Priests, and other Spiritual Persons, to take and receive any Manner Sum of Money, or other Thing, which by any Person dying shall fortune to be disposed, given, or bequeathed unto them, or any of them, or to the high Altar of the Church, this Act, or any Thing therein mentioned notwithstanding.

A Legacy bequeathed to a Parson, &c. or to the Altar.

VI. And be it also enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Mortuaries nor Corse Presents, ne any Sum or Sums of Money, or other Thing, for any Mortuary or Corse Present, shall be demanded, taken, received, or had in the Parts of Wales, nor in the Marches of the same, nor in the Towns of Calais or Berwick, nor in the Marches of the same, but only in such Parts and Places of Wales, Marches, and Towns aforesaid, where Mortuaries have been accustomed to be taken and paid; (2) and in those Parts and Places no Mortuaries nor Corse Presents, ne any other Thing for Mortuary or Corse Present from henceforth shall be demanded, taken, received, or had, but only after the Form, Order, and Manner above specified in this present Act, and none otherwise, ne of any other Person or Persons than is limited by this present Act, upon the Pain above contained in this present Act.

No Mortuaries in Wales, Calais, or Berwick.

VII. Provided also, That it shall be lawful to the Bishops of Bangor, Landaff, St. David's, and St. Asaph, and likewise to the Archdeacon of Chester, to take such Mortuaries of the Priests within their Dioceses and Jurisdictions, as heretofore have been accustomed. (2) Provided also, That in such Places where Mortuaries have been accustomed to be taken of less Value than is aforesaid, that no Person shall be compelled to pay in any such Place any other Mortuary, or more for any Mortuary than hath been accustomed, ne that any Mortuary in such Place shall be demanded, taken, received, or had of any Person or Persons exempt by this Act, nor in any wise contrary to this Act, upon the Pain afore limited.

Mortuaries to be taken by the Bishops of Bangor, St. David, St. Asaph, &c. In Part repealed by 12 Annæ, stat. 2. c. 6. Places where Mortuaries have been of less Value.

CAP. VII.

Servants imbezelling their Masters Goods to the Value of Forty Shillings, or above, shall be punished as Felons.

WHere before this Time divers, as well Noblemen, as other the King's Subjects, have upon Confidence and Trust delivered unto their Servants their Caskets, and other Jewels, Money, Goods, and Chattles, safely to be kept to the Use of their said Masters or Mistresses, and after such Delivery the said Servants have withdrawn themselves, and gone away from their said Masters or Mistresses, with the said Caskets, Jewels, Money, Goods, and Chattles, or Part thereof, to the Intent to steal the same, and defraud their said Masters or Mistresses thereof, and sometime being with their said Masters or Mistresses, have converted the said Jewels, Money, and other Chattles, or Part thereof, to their own Use, which Misbehaviour so done was doubtful in the Common Law, whether it were Felony or not; and by Reason thereof the foresaid Servants have been in great Boldness to commit such or like Offences: (2) Be it therefore enacted, ordained, and established by the King our Sovereign Lord, by the Assent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by Authority of the same, That all and singular such Servants, to whom any such Caskets, Jewels, Money, Goods, or Chattles, by his or their said Masters or Mistresses, shall from henceforth so be delivered to keep, that if any such Servant or Servants withdraw him or them from their said Masters and Mistresses, and go away with the said Caskets, Jewels, Money, Goods, or other Chattles, or any Part thereof, to the Intent to steal the same, and defraud his or their said Masters or Mistresses thereof, contrary to the Trust and Confidence to him or them put by his or their said Masters or Mistresses, or else being in the Service of his said Master or Mistress, without Assent or Commandment of his Masters or Mistresses, he imbezil the same Caskets, Jewels, Money, Goods, or Chattles, or any Part thereof, or otherwise convert the same to his own Use, with like Purpose to steal it, that if the said Caskets, Jewels, Money, Goods, or Chattles, that any such Servant shall so go away with, or which he shall imbezil with Purpose to steal it, as is aforesaid, be of the Value of xl. s. or above, that then the same false, fraudulent, and untrue Act or Demeanour, from henceforth shall be deemed and adjudged Felony; and he or they so offending, to be punished, as other Felons be punished for Felonies committed, by the Course of the Common Law.

IX. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons having One Benefice with Cure of Soul, being of the yearly Value of viii. Pound or above, accept and take any other with Cure of Soul, and be instituted and inducted in Possession of the same, that then and immediately after such Possession had thereof, the first Benefice shall be adjudged in the Law to be void.

X. And that it shall be lawful to every Patron, having the Advowson thereof, to present another, and the Presentee to have the Benefit of the same, in such like Manner and Form as though the Incumbent had died or resigned, any Licence, Union, or other Dispensation to the contrary hereof obtained notwithstanding. And that every such Licence, Union, or Dispensation had, or hereafter to be obtained contrary to this present Act, of what Name or Names, Quality or Qualities, soever they be, shall be utterly void, and of none Effect.

Any Dispensation contrary to this Statute shall be void. Dyer, 352. Savil, 136. 25 H. 8. c. 21. Repealed by 1 & 2 Ph. & M. c. 8. f. 4. Dyer, 347.

XI. And if any Person or Persons at any Time after the First Day of April, in the Year of Our Lord God M. D. and xxx. contrary to this present Act, procure and obtain at the Court of Rome, or elsewhere, any Licence or Licences, Union, Toleration, or Dispensation, to receive and take any mo Benefices with Cure than is above limited, or else at any Time after the said Day put in Execution any such Licence, Toleration, or Dispensation, before that obtained contrary to this Act, that then every such Person or Persons, so after the said Day suing for himself, or receiving and taking such Benefice by Force of such Licence or Licences, Union, Toleration, or Dispensation, that is to say, the same Person or Persons only, and none other, shall for every such Default incur the Danger, Pain, and Penalty of xx. li. Sterling, and also lose the whole Profits of every such Benefice or Benefices as he receiveth or taketh by Force of any such Licence or Licences, Union, Toleration, or Dispensation; (2) the One Half of which Forfeiture to be to the King our Sovereign Lord, and the other half thereof to him that will sue for the same by original Writ, Bill, Plaint of Debt, or Information in any of the King's Courts; (3) in which Action and Suit no Wager of Law, Essoin, or Protection for the Defendant, shall be admitted or allowed.

They may keep their Benefices, which were thereof possessed Ann. 1530. except they have above four.

XII. Provided always, That this Act concerning the not keeping of mo Benefices with Cure of Souls than One, extend, ne be prejudicial to any Person or Persons, which at any Time before the said First Day of April, in the Year of our Lord God M. D. and xxx. shall be really intitled or possessed of any such Benefices with Cure of Soul, as concerning or touching any of the same Benefices, whereof they shall then be already really intitled or possessed before the said Day, to or under the Number of Four, and not above; (2) and if any such spiritual Person or Persons so being intitled or possessed of mo Benefices with Cure of Soul than Four, do not by the said First Day of April clearly, and without yearly Pension, resign, or otherwise give up all and every such Benefice and Benefices as he shall be so intitled and possessed of, above the said Number, that then it shall be lawful for every Patron, having the Advowson of any such Benefice, over the Number aforesaid, to present another, and the Presentee to have the Benefit of the same, in like Manner and Form as though it had been void by Death, or Resignation of the Incumbent, any Licence, Union, or other Dispensation to the contrary hereof obtained notwithstanding; (3) and this Clause of Presentation to be taken and understood in and of such Benefices with Cure of Soul, as were given to any such spiritual Person, after the said Number of Four Benefices with Cure furnished and fulfilled.

XIII. Provided also, That all spiritual Men now being, or which hereafter shall be of the King's Council, may purchase Licence or Dispensation, and take, receive, and keep Three Parsonages, or Benefices, with Cure of Soul; (2) and that all other being the King's Chaplains, and not sworn of his Council, the Chaplains of the Queen, Prince, or Princess, or of any of the King's Children, Brethren, Sisters, Uncles, or Aunts, may semblably purchase Licence, or Dispensation, and retain and keep Two Parsonages and Benefices with Cure of Soul.

Who may purchase Licences, and have more Benefices with Cure of Souls than One. 13 Co. 5.

XIV. And

XIV. And in like wise, that every Archbishop and Duke may have Six Chaplains, whereof every One shall and may purchase Licence or Dispensation, and take, receive, and keep Two Parsonages or Benefices with Cure of Soul.

XV. And that every Marquis, and Earl, may have Five Chaplains, whereof every One may purchase Licence or Dispensation, and take, receive, and keep Two Parsonages or Benefices with Cure of Soul.

XVI. And that every Viscount, and other Bishop, may have Four Chaplains, whereof every One may purchase Licence, and receive, have, and keep Two Parsonages or Benefices with Cure of Soul, as is aforesaid.

XVII. And that the Chancellor of England for the time being, and every Baron, and Knight of the Garter, may have Three Chaplains, whereof every One shall now purchase Licence or Dispensation, and receive, have, and keep Two Parsonages or Benefices with Cure of Soul. 4 Co. 90, 119.

XVIII. And that every Duchess, Marchioness, Countess, and Baroness, being Widows, may have Two Chaplains, whereof every One of them may purchase Licence or Dispensation, to receive, have, and keep Two Benefices with Cure of Soul. Co. pl. 203, 513. Cro. El. 723.

XIX. And that the Treasurer, and Comptroller of the King's House, the King's Secretary, and Dean of his Chapel, the King's Amner, and the Master of the Rolls, may have every of them Two Chaplains; (2) and the Chief Justice of the King's Bench One Chaplain; (3) and the Warden of the Five Ports for the time being, One Chaplain; whereof every One may purchase Licence, and receive, have, and keep Two Parsonages or Benefices with Cure of Soul. 4 Co. 73, 89, 117.

XX. And that the Brethren and Sons of all Temporal Lords, which are born in Wedlock, may every of them purchase Licence or Dispensation, and receive, have, and keep as many Parsonages or Benefices with Cure, as the Chaplains of a Duke, or an Archbishop. 1 Anders. 290.

XXI. And likewise the Brethren and Sons born in Wedlock of every Knight, may every of them purchase Licence or Dispensation, and receive, take, and keep Two Parsonages or Benefices with Cure of Soul.

XXII. Provided always, That the said Chaplains so purchasing, taking, receiving, and keeping Benefices with Cure of Soul, as is aforesaid, shall be bound to have and exhibit, where need shall be, Letters under the Sign and Seal of the King, or other their Lord and Master, testifying whose Chaplains they be, and else not to enjoy any such Plurality of Benefices by being such Chaplain, any Thing in this Act notwithstanding. The Chaplains shall shew the Letters of their Lords or Masters.

XXIII. Be it also provided, That all Doctors, and Batchelors of Divinity, Doctors of Law, and Batchelors of the Law Canon, and every of them, which shall be admitted to any of the said Degrees by any of the Universities of this Realm, and not by Grace only, may purchase Licence, and take, have, and keep Two Parsonages or Benefices with Cure of Soul; (2) so that always the said Liberty, by any of the Provisions aforesaid given to any of the said Counsellors, Chaplains, and other Persons before specified, to purchase Licence or Dispensation, and take, receive, and keep more Benefices than One, after the Manner and Form aforesaid, be taken and understood to extend in Number to no mo Benefices with Cure of Soul, than is above limited, accounting in the same, and as Parcel thereof, such Benefices with Cure of Soul, as any the said Persons shall have in real Title, or in their Possession, at the said First Day of April, in the Year of our Lord M. D. and xxx. Doctors and Batchelors of Divinity and Law may by Dispensation have Two Benefices with Cure. No Dispensation can licence any to have above Two Benefices.

XXIV. Provided also, That every Archbishop, because he must occupy Eight Chaplains at Consecrations of Bishops, and every Bishop, because he must occupy Six Chaplains at giving of Orders, and Consecration of Churches, may every of them have Two Chaplains over and above the Number above limited unto them, whereof every One may purchase Licence and Dispensation, and take, receive, and keep as many Parsonages and Benefices with Cure of Soul, as is before assigned to such Chaplains. Every Archbishop may have Eight Chaplains, and every Bishop Four.

XXV. Provided also, and be it enacted by Authority aforesaid, That no Person or Persons, to whom any Number of Chaplains, or any Chaplain, by any of the Provisions aforesaid is limited, shall in any wise, by Colour of any of the same Provisions, advance any spiritual Person or Persons, above the Number to them appointed, to receive or keep any mo Benefices with Cure of Soul, than is above limited by this Act, any Thing specified in the said Provisions notwithstanding; (2) and if they do, then every such spiritual Person and Persons, so advanced above the said Number, to incur the Pain and Penalty contained in this Act. Advancement to more Benefices than be appointed by this Act. Savil, 79, 101. Co. pl. f. 515. Moor, 561. pl. 763.

XXVI. Be it also further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That as well every spiritual Person now being promoted to any Archdeaconry, Deanry, or Dignity in any Monastery, or Cathedral Church, or other Church, Conventual or Collegiate, or being beneficed with any Parsonage or Vicarage, as all and every spiritual Person and Persons, which hereafter shall be promoted to any of the said Dignities or Benefices, with any Parsonage or Vicarage, from the Feast of St. Michael the Archangel next coming, shall be personally resident, and abiding in, at, and upon his said Dignity, Prebend, or Benefice, or at One of them at the least; (2) and in case that any such spiritual Person at any Time after the said Feast, keep not Residence at One of his said Dignities, Prebends, or Benefices, as is aforesaid, but absent himself wilfully by the Space of One Month together, or by the Space of Two Months, to be accounted at several Times in any One Year, and make his Residence and Abiding in any other Places by such Time, that then he shall forfeit for every such Default x. li. Sterling; the One Half thereof to the King our Sovereign Lord, and the other Half of the same to the Party that will sue for the same in any of the King's Courts by original Writ of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information; in which Action and Suit the Defendant shall not wage his Law, nor have any Essoin or Protection allowed. XXVIII. Provided alway, That this Act of Non-residence shall not in any wise extend, ne be prejudicial to any such Spiritual Person as shall chance to be in the King's Service beyond the Sea, nor to any Person or Persons going to any Pilgrimage or holy Place beyond the Sea, during the Time that they shall so be in the King's Service, or in their Pilgrimages going and returning Home; (2) nor to any Scholar or Scholars being conversant and abiding for Study, without Fraud or Covin, at any University within this Realm, or without; (3) nor to any of the Chaplains of the King's or Queen's, daily or quarterly attending and abiding in the King's or Queen's most honourable Households; (4) nor to any of the Chaplains of the Prince or Princess, or any of the King's or Queen's Children, Brethren, or Sisters, attending daily in their honourable Households, during so long as they shall attend in any of their said Households; (5) nor to any Chaplain of any Archbishop or Bishop, or of any Spiritual or Temporal Lords of the Parliament, daily attending, abiding, and remaining in any of their honourable Households; (6) nor to any Chaplain of any Duchess, Marquess, Countess, Viscountess, or Baroness, attending daily, and abiding in any of their honourable Households; (7) nor to any Chaplain of the Lord Chancellor or Treasurer of England, the King's Chamberlain, or Steward of his Household for the time being, the Treasurer and Comptroller of the King's most honourable Household for the time being, attending daily in any of their honourable Households; (8) nor to any Chaplain of any of the Knights of the honourable Order of the Garter, or of the Chief Justice of the King's Bench, Warden of the Ports, or also of the Master of the Rolls; nor to any Chaplain of the King's Secretary, and Dean of the Chapel, Almner for the time being, daily attending and dwelling in any their Households, during the Time that any such Chaplain or Chaplains shall abide and dwell, without Fraud or Covin, in any of the said honourable Households; (2) nor to the Master of the Rolls, or Dean of the Arches, nor to any Chancellor or Commissary of any Archbishop or Bishop; nor to as many of the Twelve Masters of the Chancery, and Twelve Advocates of the Arches, as be or hereafter shall be Spiritual Men, during so long Time as they shall occupy their said Rooms and Offices; (10) nor to any such Spiritual Persons as shall happen by Injunction of the Lord Chancellor, or the King's Council, to be bound to any daily Appearance and Attendance to answer to the Law, during the Time of such Injunction.

See 25 H. 8. c. 16. as to the Chaplains of Judges, or of the Attorney or Solicitor General; and 28 H. 8. c. 13. s. 2. as to Students in either University; and 33 H. 8. c. 28. as to Chaplains of the Officers of the Duchy of Lancaster, &c.

The King's Licence of Non-residence.

XXIX. Provided also, That it shall be lawful to every Spiritual Person or Persons, being Chaplains to the King our Sovereign Lord, to whom it shall please his Highness to give any Benefices or Promotions Spiritual, to what Number soever it be, to accept and take the same, without incurring the Danger, Penalty, and Forfeiture in this Statute comprised; (2) and that also it shall be lawful to the King's Highness, to give Licence to every of his own Chaplains for Non-residence upon their Benefices, any Thing in this present Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

No Spiritual Person beneficed with Cure shall take in Ferm any Parsonage or Vicarage.

XXX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Spiritual Person, Secular or Regular, beneficed with Cure, as is afore rehearsed, from the Feast of St. Michael the Archangel next coming, by Authority of any Manner Licence, Dispensation, or otherwise, shall take any particular Stipend or Salary to sing for any Soul, nor have nor occupy by himself, or by any other to his Use, any Parsonage or Vicarage in Ferm, of the Lease or Grant of any Person or Persons, nor take any Profit or Rent out of any such Ferm, (2) upon Pain to forfeit xl. s. for every such Week that he, or any to his Use, shall occupy or have any such Stipend or Ferm contrary to this present Act, and upon Pain to lose Ten Times the Value of such Profit or Rent as he shall take out of any such Ferm after the said Feast; (3) the one Half of such Forfeitures to be to the King our Sovereign Lord, and the other Moiety to him that will sue for the same by Original Writ, Bill, Plaint of Debt, or by Information in any of the King's Courts, in which Suit and Action no Wager of Law shall be admitted for the Defendant, nor any Essoin or Protection allowed.

XXXI. Provided alway, That no Deanry, Archdeaconry, Chancellorship, Treasurership, Chantership, or Prebend in any Cathedral or Collegiate Church, nor Parsonage that hath a Vicar indued, nor any Benefice perpetually appropriate, be taken or comprehended under the Name of Benefice having Cure of Soul in any Article afore specified.

No Spiritual Person shall keep a Tan-house or Brew-house.

XXXII. Provided also, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Spiritual Person or Persons, Regular or Secular, of what Estate, Degree, or Condition soever he or they be, from the First Day of April next coming, have, use, or keep by him or themselves, or by any Person or Persons to his or their Use or Commodity, any Manner of Tan-house or Tan-houses, to be used or occupied to his or their own Use, Commodity, or Behoof; (2) nor from the said First Day of April next coming, shall have, use, or keep any Manner of Brew-house or Brew-houses, to any other Use, Intent, or Behoof, than only to be spent and occupied in his or their own Houses, (3) upon Pain to forfeit for every Month so using and occupying any of the said Mysteries or Occupations, x. li. (4) The one Moiety thereof to the King our Sovereign Lord, and the other Moiety to him that will sue for the same by Original Writ, Bill, Plaint of Debt, or Information in any of the King's Courts, in which Action and Suit no Wager of Law shall be admitted for the Defendant, ne any Essoin or Protection allowed.

The Chaplains of a Duchess, &c. which have taken Husbands.

XXXIII. Provided always, That every Duchess, Marquess, Countess, Baroness, Widows, which have taken, or that hereafter shall take any Husbands under the Degree of a Baron, may take such Number of Chaplains, as is above limited to them being Widows; and that every such Chaplain may purchase Licence to have and take such Number of Benefices with Cure of Soul, and have like Liberty of Non-residence, in Manner and Form as they might have done, if their said Ladies and Mistresses had kept themselves Widows; any Thing in this present Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Spiritual Persons may keep sufficient of their own Land to maintain their Houses.

XXXIV. Provided always, That every Spiritual Person or Persons having Lands, Tenements, or other Possessions in the Right of their Houses, above the yearly Value of Eight hundred Marks, may keep and retain in their Occupation and Manurance, as much of their said Lands and Tenements, and other Possessions, as shall be necessary and sufficient for Pasturage of their Cattle, and for Tillage of Corn, to be employed and spent for the only Maintenance, Sustentation, and keeping of his or their Houshold and Hospitalities without Fraud or Covin, any Thing in this present Act to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

A Spiritual Person may take a Dwelling-house with an Orchard or Garden for his Dwelling. Go'dsb. 169. pl. 100. 3 Cro. 590.

XXXV. Provided alway, That it may be lawful to every Spiritual Person or Persons to take in Ferm any Messes, Mansions, or Dwelling-houses, having but only Orchards or Gardens, in any City, Borough, and Town, for their own Habitation or Dwelling, any Thing in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding; (2) so that no Person Spiritual, other than be above provided for, for their Non-residence, have any Liberty of Non-residence by Colour of this Proviso. Enforced by 25 H. 1. c. 21. which is revived by 1 Eliz. c. 1.

CAP. XIV.

Of what Length and Breadth every whole Piece and half Piece of Dowlas and Lockeram, brought into this Realm, shall be.

Rep. 28 H. 8. c. 4.

CAP. XV.

Fermors shall enjoy their Leases against Recoveries by feigned Titles, &c.

WHere afore this Time divers Persons have made Leases of their Manors, Lands, Tenements, and other Hereditaments, sometime by their Indentures, and sometime without Writings, to other Persons for Term of Years, taking of them great Fines for the Incomes of the same Leases; and after the same Leasors, their Heirs, or Assigns, have caused and suffered Recoveries to be had against them in the Court of our Sovereign Lord the King, and in other Lords Courts, upon feigned and untrue Titles, by Craft or Covin to put the same Termers from their said Terms; (2) and after such Recoveries had, the same Recoverees, by Reason of such Recoveries and Judgements, have entered into the same Manors, Lands, Tenements, and other Hereditaments so to Ferm letten, and thereof have expulsed the said Fermers, contrary to their said Leases, Covenants, and Agreements; (3) and because it was doubted to some Persons, whether the said Termers might falsify such Recoveries, or not:

13 Co. 6. 1 Roll, 443.

3 Bulst. 245, 248.

II. Be it therefore enacted by the King our Sovereign Lord, by the Assent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all such Termers shall and may falsify for his Term only such Recoveries, as well heretofore had, as hereafter to be had, in such wise and Form as a Tenant of a Freehold shall and may do by the Course of the Common Law, where such Tenant of Freehold was neither privy nor Party to the same Recovery.

11 Co. 33. 2 Leon. 65. Tenant for Term of Years may falsify a feigned Recovery had against him in the Reversion.

III. And that the same Termers, their Executors, and Assigns, notwithstanding such Recoveries so had, shall retain, hold, and enjoy their said Terms, according to their said Leases against all such Recoverees, their Heirs, and Assigns, as they should or might have done against the said Lessors, if such Recovery had not been had ne suffered; and that the said Recoverers, their Heirs, and Assigns, after such Recovery so had, (2) shall have like Remedy against the said Termers, their Executors, or Assigns, by Avowry or Action of Debt, for the Rents and Services reserved upon the same Leases, being due after the same Recoveries; (3) and also like Actions against them for Waste done, after the same Recoveries so had; in like Manner and Form, as the said Leasors should or might have had, if the same Recoveries had never been had.

6 Ed. 1. stat. 1. c. 11.

The Remedy of the Recoverers against Tenant for Years for Rent or Waste.

IV. And also be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Manner of Statute of the Staple, Statute Merchant, nor Execution by Elegit, be hereafter avoided, or in any wise made frustrate, by Means of any such feigned Recovery; (2) but that all Persons having any Lands, Tenements, or other Hereditaments in Execution, or being intitled to have Execution of any Manors, Lands, or Tenements by any such Means, shall have by Force of this Statute like Remedy to avoid and falsify the same Recoveries, as before is ordained and provided for the Lease for Term of Years.

No Statute or Execution by Elegit shall be avoided by a feigned Recovery.

Co. Lit. 104. b.

CAP. XVI.

Touching Artificers Strangers, what they may do as concerning retaining Apprentices, Journeymen, &c.

PRayen the Commons in this present Parliament assembled, That where in the xv. Day of February, in the xx. Year of the Reign of our now most gracious Sovereign Lord the King, HENRY the Eighth, by our said Sovereign Lord the King his most honourable Council in his Star-Chamber at Westminster, for the Common Wealth of his natural Subjects born within this his Realm, by great and deliberate Advice it was deemed, adjudged, and decreed, That no Stranger Artificer, born out of our said Sovereign Lord his Obeisance, inhabiting within any City, Borough, or any other Place within this his Realm of England, from henceforth should keep in his or their House or Houses any Manner of Strangers Servants born out of his Obeisance, but only Two Servants Strangers, and no more at one Time.

No Stranger Artificer inhabiting within any City or other Place, shall keep in his House but two Strangers born. Rep. 5 El. c. 4. Hutt. 132.

II. And also all and singular Strangers that then were, or after the making of the said Decree should be made Denizens, that at the Time or after the making thereof would inhabit within the City of London, Suburbs, or within Two Miles Compass of the same, and keep or would keep Houses, or occupy their Craft, should be Contributories to and with our said Sovereign Lord his Subject Artificers within the said City of London, paying, bearing, and sustaining such Charges as hereafter shall be expressed, that is to say, that all other Strangers, Artificers, Denizens or no Denizens, of every Handicraft or Mystery, inhabiting as well within the City of London, as in any other City, Town, Borough, or Village within this his Realm, should pay, bear, and sustain all such and like Charges, as our said Sovereign Lord his Subjects of like Craft and Mystery do always use to pay.

Aliens Housekeepers shall bear such Charges as the King's Subjects do.

III. And if any of them refused, or denied the same, or any Part thereof, then he or they so denying, or refusing so to do, should not any longer occupy any Handicraft, upon the Pains, Damages, and Perils specified, as well in the Acts or Statutes made in the xiv. and xv. Years of the Reign of our now Sovereign Lord, as in One Statute made in the First Year of the Reign of King RICHARD the Third.

14 & 15 H. 8. c. 2. 1 K. 3. c. 9. s. 11.

IV. And that the same Strangers, Denizens or no Denizens, Housholders, which would remain and abide within our said Sovereign Lord his Realm, should upon lawful Warning to them given, by the Masters and Wardens of divers and sundry Mysteries, mentioned and specified in the said Decree, within the said Cities and Towns, present themselves in the Common-hall or Meeting-Place of the said Crafts, and there to receive, and take their Oath, and be sworn upon the holy Evangelists, before the Master and Wardens of their said Craft, to be faithful and true to the King our Sovereign Lord, and his Heirs, Kings of England, and to be obedient to him and them, and his and their Laws.

Aliens shall be sworn to be true to the King, to obey him and his Laws.

V. Also that no Stranger Artificer, or Handicraftsman, born out of our said Sovereign Lord his Obeisance, not being Denizen, which was not a Housholder the Fifteenth Day of February aforesaid, should not set up, ne keep any House, Shop or Shops, or Chamber, wherein they should exercise or occupy any Handicraft or Mystery within this our said Sovereign Lord his Realm, upon Pain to incur and run into such Penalties as be contained in the Statutes before this Time made and enacted, as is aforesaid.

Aliens shall not assemble in Conventicles, but in their Halls. 1 R. 3. c. 9.

VI. And that none of the said Strangers Artificers, or Handicraftsmen, born out of our said Sovereign Lord his Obeisance, as well Denizens as no Denizens, should assemble in any Company, Fellowship, Congregation, or Conventicle, but only in the Common-hall of their Crafts, with our said Sovereign Lord his Subjects which be of the Companies of their said Craft or Crafts, at such Time as they should be commanded and warned by the said Masters and Wardens of their said Craft or Crafts, and at none other Place and Time, or in any other Manner, upon the Pain afore expressed: As by the said Decree shewed and exemplified, and hereunto annexed, under our said Sovereign Lord the King his Great Seal, more plainly, and at large, it may and doth appear.

The foresaid Decree made by the Lords in the Star-Chamber confirmed.

VII. That for the Common Wealth aforesaid, it may be enacted by the King our Sovereign Lord, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Order and Decree, had, given, and made by our said Sovereign Lord the King his most honourable Council, and all and every Thing therein contained, specified, and declared, be holden and observed firm and stable, and duly to be put in Execution in every Point and Article, in Manner and Form as is above rehearsed, according to the Purport, Effect, and true Meaning of the same.

The Statute made 14 & 15 H. 8. c. 2. touching Strangers Artificers taking of Apprentices made perpetual.

VIII. Be it furthermore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Act made in the Parliament begun at London the Fifteenth Day of April, in the Fourteenth Year of the Reign of our said Sovereign Lord the King that now is, and from London adjourned to Westminster the last Day of July, in the Fifteenth Year of the Reign of our said Sovereign Lord, concerning Strangers Artificers, for the taking of Apprentices, Journeymen, and Covenant Servants, and every Article and Provision contained in the same Act, shall be from henceforth put in due Execution, according to the true Intent, Meaning, and Purport of the same, as well within the City of London, as in all other Cities, Boroughs, and Towns Corporate within this Realm, and the same to endure perpetually, any Thing contained in the said Act or Decree to the contrary notwithstanding.

No Alien dwelling in Oxford, Cambridge, or Great St. Martins shall have above x. Persons Aliens in his House. 32 H. 8. c. 16.

IX. Provided always, That no Artificer, Alien or Stranger, born out of the King's Obeisance, being a Housholder, or inhabiting within any of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge, or within the Sanctuary of St. Martin le Grand, within the City of London, shall from henceforth have or retain in their Service Journeymen or Apprentices, being Aliens or Strangers born, above the Number of Ten Persons at one Time, upon Pain of the Penalty contained in the said Act, made in the said Fourteenth and Fifteenth Year of our said Sovereign Lord; the Provisions contained or specified in the same Act notwithstanding.

The Decree made in the Star-Chamber for Artificers Strangers, by the King's most Honourable Council, the Twentieth Day of February, in Twentieth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord King HENRY the Eighth.

11.7. c. 9, 10. 12. 1.11.7 c. 9, 10

XI. WHERE of late our true and faithful Subjects, Artificers, and Handicraftsmen, born under our Obeisance, inhabiting within our City of London, and the Suburbs of the same, exhibited unto us a lamentable Bill of Complaint, containing, That notwithstanding many good and necessary Statutes and Acts of Parliament have been published, ordained, and made, and especially one in the First Year of King RICHARD the Third, and the other being made in the First Year of the Reign of our dearest Father of noble Memory, HENRY the Seventh, late King of this our Realm, and in the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Year of our Reign, concerning the Strangers Artificers and Handicraftsmen, born out of our Obeisance, using and exercising Handicrafts within this our Realm of England, as well for the restraining of the excessive Number and unreasonable Behaviour of the same Strangers Artificers born out of our Obeisance, which continual Resort and Repair into this our said Realm daily increased, to the great Detriment of our own natural Subjects, Artificers of the same Handicrafts and Mysteries, and of other sundry Inconveniences, by Occasion that divers of the said Subjects, for lack of Occupation, fall into Idleness, as also for the Reformation of sundry Deceits and Falshoods practised by the said Strangers Artificers in their said Handicrafts, to the great Damage and Loss of us, and of all our said natural Subjects: (2) The said Strangers Artificers nothing pondering or dreading the said Statutes, ne the Penalties in the same contained and expressed, cease not contemptuously, as well to abuse the said Statutes, as most Part intirely to infringe and break the same, and to accumulate from time to time more Offences and Enormities, as well against our Prerogative, as to the Detriment of the Common Wealth of this our Realm, and our loving Subjects of the same; (3) for when any Search shall be made in every Handicraft within any City, Town, or Borough corporate within our said Realm, by our Subjects the said Wardens, and others ordained by the said last Act of Handicraftsmen within any City, Town, or Borough Corporate, and one Housholder Stranger born out of our Obeisance, inhabiting within our said City, Town, or Borough Corporate, using any Handicraft, be he Denizen or not Denizen; the said Stranger being a Housholder, as before is said, being lawfully warned and required thereunto unto, according to the ſaid Act, either will refuſe to do his Duty therein, or elſe he will give ſecret Warning thereof to his Brethren of the ſaid Crafts, whereby they have not only conveyed and hid all their unlawful, untrue, ſubtil, and deceitful Wares, which they untruly, ſubtilly, unſubſtantially, and deceitfully have made, and daily make, and utter to our Subjects at exceſſive and unreaſonable Prices, to the great Detriment and Damages of our ſaid Subjects; but alſo their Servants and Apprentices they have hid from the Knowledge of the ſaid Wardens, when any ſuch Search hath happened to be made, and ſo they defraud the ſame good and honourable Statute and Act; ſo that thereof no lawful Puniſhment could, can, might, or may enſue, according to the Tenor, Purport, and Effect of the ſaid Statute; (4) but they contemn, deſpiſe, and ſet at nought the ſame, whereby, and by the other unlawful Means aforeſaid, and others, as ſubtilly ſending and conveying over the Sea, Bacon, Cheeſe, Powdered Beef, Mutton, and other Commodities within this our Realm, not only within, and out of the ſaid Cities, Towns, and Boroughs Corporate, but alſo within, and out of other Places throughout our Realm, by them the ſaid Strangers practiſed and executed, whereby they daily increaſe in great Riches, and in great Multitude in Numbers of Strangers Handicraftſmen born out of our Obeiſance; (5) and when they have gathered much Riches and Money, they againſt our Laws convey the ſame Money over the Sea; and then they alſo go over the Sea into their Countries, and there purchaſe them Lands and Tenements with Part thereof, and with the Reſidue of the ſame they live thereby, and ſometime they convert Part thereof to the Uſe of our Enemies in thoſe Parts; (6) and ſo as well our poor Subjects Cordwainers, and alſo our Subjects Handicraftſmen, born within our Obeiſance, by the Means aforeſaid, be ſore impoveriſhed, miniſhed, and almoſt utterly decayed and deſtroyed, and many of them, for lack of Occupation in the ſaid Handicrafts, be conſtrained to live in Idleneſs, by Occaſion whereof they do continually fall to Theft, Murder, and other great Offences, and conſequently in great Numbers be put to Death by our Laws, as we be informed; (7) and alſo the great Scarcity of Grain and Victual at this preſent Time throughout this our Realm, to be the more enforced and cauſed, by Reaſon of the great Multitude, and continual Recourſe of the ſaid Strangers Handicraftſmen, which conſume a great Portion of Corn and Victual, grown and bred within this our Realm; (8) the Premiſſes conſidered, to the Intent to be thereof more perfectly and truly inſtructed, for the Charitable Zeal that we have to the Common Weal of our Realm, and our ſaid Subjects of the ſame, and for the Quietneſs of the ſaid Strangers, we have aſſigned, and given in Commandment to our Lords, and others of our Council, indifferently to examine the Premiſſes, and as well to hear the ſaid Complainants as the ſaid Defendants, and their Allegations and Sayings of, in, and to the Premiſſes, and to every Part thereof, and the ſame by them heard, examined, and by good deliberate Advice underſtood, to ordain, adjudge, and decree the ſame, after their Wiſdoms and Learning; whereupon as well the ſaid Bill of Complaint, the Anſwer of the ſaid Defendants thereunto made, the Replication of the ſaid Complainants to the ſaid Anſwer alſo made, and all other Allegations and Sayings of both the ſaid Parties, by mature and deliberate Advice, by our ſaid Council ripely examined, heard, and underſtood:

The manifold and ſeveral Wrongs which Strangers do to this whole Realm, and to many Members thereof.

XII. It is ordained, adjudged, and decreed, the x. Day February, in this preſent Term of St. Hillary, in the xx. Year of our Reign, in our Star-Chamber, by the moſt Reverend Father in God Thomas Lord Cardinal Legate de latere of the Apoſtolick See, Archbiſhop of York, Primate and Chancellor of England, and by our Nobles and others of our ſaid Council, and by the mutual Aſſents of the Complainants and Defendants then there being, in Manner and Form following; that is to ſay, That according to the Act of Parliament made the ſaid xiv. and xv. Year of our Reign, That no Stranger Artificer born out of our Obeiſance, inhabiting within any City, Town, or Borough, or any other Place within this our Realm of England, from thenceforth ſhall keep in his or their Houſe or Houſes, any Manner of Servants Strangers born out of our Obeiſance, but only Two Strangers Servants, and no more at One Time; (2) and that as many of the Strangers Artificers now inhabiting within any City, Town, or Borough Corporate, or in any other Place within our Realm, that will be Apprentices or Servants to or with any of our Subjects Artificers born within our Obeiſance, exerciſing new or old Stuff, inhabiting within our Realm, ſhall be ſuffered ſo to abide and dwell with them without Interruption, as long as they will ſo continue and abide with them, and can agree together.

The Decree made by the Lords of the King's Council in the Star-Chamber, touching Strangers Artificers.

A Stranger Artificer ſhall keep in his Houſe but Two Strangers born.

XIII. And furthermore it is decreed, That it ſhall be lawful to all and every of the ſaid Strangers Artificers, now being Houſholders within our ſaid Realm, to take as many of our Subjects born within our Obeiſance to be their Servants and Apprentices, in the Craft that they do exerciſe, as they can lawfully get; and that all the Strangers Artificers, now being Houſholders within our ſaid City of London, Suburbs, Pariſhes, or compaſs thereof expreſſed in the ſaid Statutes, or within Two Miles Compaſs of the ſaid Pariſhes;

Strangers Artificers may take Engliſhmen to be their Apprentices. 5 El. c. 4.

XIV. And alſo all and ſingular Strangers that now be, or hereafter ſhall be made Denizens, that do or hereafter will inhabit within our ſaid City of London, Suburbs, or Pariſhes aforeſaid, or within Two Miles Compaſs of the ſame, and keep Houſes, and occupy their Craft; ſhall be contributory to and with our Subjects Artificers within our City of London, paying, bearing, and ſuſtaining ſuch Charges as hereafter ſhall be expreſſed; that is to ſay, as well every of the ſaid Strangers, being of the Craft and Myſtery of Cordwainers, Houſholders, or Denizens that now be, or hereafter ſhall be made Denizens, and ſhall inhabit within our ſaid City, Suburbs, Pariſhes, or Two Miles Compaſs of the ſame, ſhall quarterly pay to the ſaid Maſter, Wardens, and Commonalty of the ſaid Craft of Cordwainers within our ſaid City of London for the time being, vi. d. (2) And every Servant Stranger of the ſaid Occupation of the ſaid Cordwainers within the ſaid City, Suburbs, and Precinct, not being Denizen, ſhall quarterly pay to the ſaid Maſters, Wardens, and Commonalty, iij. d. (3) And that all other Strangers Artificers and Denizens of every Handicraft and Myſtery, inhabiting as well within our ſaid City of London, as in any other City or Town within this our Realm, ſhall pay, bear, and ſuſtain all ſuch and like Charges as our Subjects of like Craft and Myſtery born out of our Obeiſance, inhabiting within the City, Borough, or Town of their Habitation, at this Time do now bear and ſuſtain.

What Charges Strangers ſhall be contributory unto with the Engliſh Artificers.

XV. And alſo all Strangers Artificers, and Denizens, exerciſing the Craft and Myſtery of Cordwainers, dwelling out of our ſaid City of London, in any other City or Town within this our Realm, ſhall pay, bear, and ſuſtain, Scot, Taxes, Tallages, Subſidies, Preſts, and all other reaſonable Exactions from time to time, according as the ſaid Maſters, Wardens, and Companies of the ſaid Crafts for the time being, ſhall be bounden to pay, bear, and ſuſtain, when any Subſidy, Tax, Tallage, or Preſt, or other reaſonable Charges ſhall by the Mayor and Aldermen of our ſaid City of London, and the Mayors and Aldermen of our ſaid other Cities, and Towns, or by the Common-Council of the ſaid City, Cities, and Towns, of and for any Charges or Payments of Money, to be paid by the Companies of the ſaid Crafts, Citizens of any City, for any Payment to be made unto the King's Highneſs, or his Heirs, or elſe to be paid for any Cauſe concerning the Common Wealth of any our ſaid Cities or Towns, or Common Wealth of the ſaid Artificers, the ſaid Strangers ſhall pay all the ſame that they ſhall be aſſeſſed or taxed to pay, as Contributories with the ſaid Companies, being our Subjects, as our ſaid Subjects ſhall be aſſeſſed, and taxed to pay; (2) and if any of them deny or refuſe the ſame, or any Part thereof, then he or they denying and refuſing ſo to do, ſhall not only loſe the Benefit of this Decree, but alſo ſhall not any longer occupy any Handicraft, upon the Pains, Dangers, and Perils ſpecified in the above remembered Acts and Statutes.

Penalty of a Stranger refuſing to be contributory to lawful Charges with his Company.

Strangers Artificers ſhall go with the Wardens of the ſame Company to make Search.

XVI. And that as well all and every of the ſaid Houſholders, Strangers aforeſaid, as all other Strangers Artificers, made or to be made Denizens, that ſhall be Houſholders, and inhabit and occupy any Craft within our ſaid City, Suburbs, or Two Miles Compaſs of the ſame, as long as they ſhall remain and abide within the ſaid City, Suburbs, and Two Miles Compaſs of the ſame, being reaſonably required and warned by the Wardens and other Perſons, Governors in any City, Town, or Borough Corporate of the ſaid Crafts, within any of our ſaid Cities or Towns Corporate, or by any of them for the time being, or by their lawful Deputies or Deputy, ſhall go with the ſaid Wardens or other Governors, there as no Wardens be, to make Search according to the above remembred Acts of Parliament made in the xiv. and xv. Year of our Reign; (2) which if they refuſe to do, and that proved before the Chancellor of England, or before the Mayor of London, and other Cities, before the chief Perſons of the ſaid Cities or Towns for the time being, that then the ſame Houſholders or Houſholder ſo offending, denying, or refuſing the ſame, ſhall no longer the ſame his Occupation exerciſe or uſe within this our Realm, upon Pain, Peril, and Danger expreſſed in the afore remembred Acts and Statutes.

The Oath of all Strangers to be true to the King, and obedient to his Laws, and to make Searches, &c.

XVII. And that the ſame Strangers Artificers, Denizens or not Denizens, Houſholders, which will remain and abide within our ſaid Realm, ſhall, upon lawful Notice to them given by the Maſter and Wardens of their Craft, or One of them, perſonally preſent themſelves in the Common Hall or Meeting-place of their ſaid Crafts within our ſaid Cities and Towns, there as they be inhabiting, and then or there every of them to receive and take their Oaths, and be ſworn upon the Holy Evangeliſt, before the ſaid Maſter and Wardens of their ſaid Craft and Myſtery within our ſaid Cities and Towns Corporate, to be faithful and true to us and to our Heirs Kings of England, and to be obedient to us and them, and to our and their Laws, and to all Acts, Ordinances, and Decrees made and confirmed by us and our Council, or by our Council, and duly and truly at all Times, when they ſhall be appointed by the Wardens of their Fellowſhip, Craft, or Myſtery for the time being, or their Deputies, to make Search with them according to the Purport, Tenor, or Effect of an Eſtatute and Act of Parliament made in the xiv. and xv. Year of our Reign, and have Warning and Monition thereof by the ſaid Wardens, or any of them, or any other their ſufficient Deputy or Deputies in that Behalf to them given and made, and that they ſhall be ready to go with the ſaid Wardens to make the ſame Search, and that they ſhall not give Notice to any Stranger of the ſaid Search, until they with the ſaid Wardens come together to make the ſaid Search, and that they ſhall well, indifferently, and truly behave them in the ſame, ſetting all Affection, Favour, Malice, and Dread of any Creature, and all Fraud and Deceit apart, So help them God and all Saints, and by the Holy Evangeliſt. (2) And their Oath ſo received in Form aforeſaid, the ſaid Strangers ſhall pay for their Admiſſion according as our ſaid Subjects have always uſed to pay.

No Strangers, but Denizens, ſhall keep Houſe or Shop.

XVIII. It is alſo further decreed, That no Stranger Artificer or Handicraftſman born out of our Obeiſance, not being Denizen, which at the Day of the making of this Decree is not a Houſholder within this our Realm, or keepeth any Shop or Shops within the ſaid City and Suburbs, or any other City, Town, or Borough within this our Realm, ſhall from that Day forward ſet up or keep any Houſe, or Shop, or Chamber within our City of London, Suburbs, or Pariſhes before rehearſed, or within any other City, Town, or Borough, or Village within this our Realm, wherein he ſhall exerciſe and practiſe any Handicraft or Myſtery, upon Pain to incur and run in ſuch Penalties as be contained in the Statutes before this Time made and enacted.

Strangers ſhall not aſſemble, but in the common Halls of their Myſteries.

(2) And that none of the ſaid Strangers Artificers or Handicraftſmen, born out of our Obeiſance, as well Denizens as other, ſhall aſſemble in any Company, Fellowſhip, Congregation, or Conventicle, but only in the Common Hall of their Crafts, with our Subjects which be of the Company of their ſaid Craft or Crafts, at ſuch Time as they ſhall be commanded and warned by the Maſter and Wardens of the ſaid Craft or Crafts, and at none other Place or Time, or in any other Manner, upon Pain afore expreſſed.

XIX. Provided alway, That this Decree, and every Part thereof concerning the Craft and Myſtery of Cordwainers, ſhall extend as well to them that work old Stuff, as new, within our City of London, the Suburbs of the ſame, or in any other City, Town, Borough, or Village within this Realm of England.

XX. Provided alſo, That notwithſtanding any Words compriſed in this Decree, the Strangers Artificers, Denizens or not Denizens, inhabiting in the Univerſities of Oxford and Cambridge, and within the Sanctuary of Saint Martins le Grand within the City of London, ſhall enjoy all the Benefits and Advantages reſerved unto them by reaſon of any Proviſion made by Act of Parliament expreſſed in the Statute made in the xiv. and xv. Year of our Reign; ſo that the ſaid Strangers, Denizens or not Denizens, inhabiting within the ſaid Sanctuary of Saint Martins le Grand, be conformable to ſuch Direction and Order as ſhall be taken by the Reverend Father in God Cuthbert Biſhop of London, Sir Richard Brook Knight, Chief Baron of our Exchequer, Sir John More Knight, One of the Juſtices of our Bench, Sir John Dauncy, and Sir John Aleine Knights, to whom we have of late directed our Letters Patents, and by the ſame given them Power and Authority, and commanding them, and every of them, to cauſe the Houſe of every Stranger and Denizen, Artificer, inhabiting and dwelling within the ſaid Sanctuary, to be ſearched and viewed, how many Servants he or they keep born out of our Obeiſance, and they being all viewed and ſeen, then to appoint to every of the ſaid Strangers Houſholders, inhabiting within the ſaid Sanctuary, by them in Form aforeſaid ſo tried, to be within the Bounds and Limits of the ſaid Sanctuary, ſuch Number of Servants Strangers born out of our Obeiſance, as they by their Diſcretions ſhall think convenient and ſufficient, and not to be any Detriment unto our Subjects Inhabitants within our ſaid City.

A Commiſſion granted to certain Perſons to aſſign how many Servants a Stranger ſhall keep within Great St. Martins.

Avowries ſhall be made by the Lord upon the Land, without naming his Tenant.

WHERE as well the Noblemen of this Realm, as divers other Perſons, by Fines, Recoveries, Grants, and ſecret Feoffments, and Leaſes made by their Tenants to Perſons unknown, of the Lands and Tenements holden of them, have been put from the Knowledge of their Tenants, upon whom they ſhould by Order of the Law make their Avowries for their Rents, Cuſtoms, and Services, to their great Loſſes and Hindrances: The Reaſon and Cauſe of making this Statute. March, 166. Stiles, 4. Moor, 870.

II. Be it therefore enacted, eſtabliſhed, and ordained by Authority of this preſent Parliament, That whereſoever any Manner Lands, Tenements, and other Hereditaments be holden of any Manner Perſon or Perſons, by Rents, Cuſtoms, or Services, that if the Lord, of whom any ſuch manner Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments be ſo holden, diſtrain upon the ſame Manors, Lands, or Tenements, for any ſuch Rents, Cuſtoms, or Services, and Replevin thereof be ſued, that the Lord of whom the ſame Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments be ſo holden, may avow, or his Bailiff or Servant make Coniſance, or juſtify, for taking of the ſaid Diſtreſſes upon the ſame Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments ſo holden, as in Lands or Tenements within his Fee or Seignior, (2) alledging in the ſaid Avowry, Coniſance, and Juſtification, the ſame Manors, Lands, and Tenements to be holden of him, without naming of any Perſon certain to be Tenant of the ſame, and without making any Avowry, Juſtification, or Coniſance upon any Perſon certain; (3) and likewiſe the Lord, Baily, or Servant to make Avowry, Juſtification, or Coniſance in like Manner and Form upon every Writ ſued of ſecond Deliverance. 1 Leon. 301. III. And alſo be it enacted by the ſaid Authority, That every Avowant, and every other Perſon or Perſons that make any ſuch Avowry, Juſtification, or Coniſance, as Baily or Servant to any Perſon or Perſons in any Replegiare, or ſecond Deliverance, for Rents, Cuſtoms, Services, or for Damage feſant, or other Rent or Rents, upon any Diſtreſs taken in any Lands or Tenements, if the ſame Avowry, Coniſance, or Juſtification be found for them, or the Plaintiffs in the ſame be nonſuit, or otherwiſe barred, that then they ſhall recover their Damages and Coſts againſt the ſaid Plaintiffs, as the ſame Plaintiffs ſhould have done or had, if they had recovered in the Replegiare, or ſecond Deliverance found againſt the ſaid Defendants. The Avowant ſhall recover Damages and Coſts of Suit. Dyer, 141. Bro. Damages, 16. 2 Roll, 37, 140, 212. March, 28. 1 Salk. 95. 2 Cr. 520.

IV. And be it alſo ordained, That the ſaid Plaintiffs and Defendants in the ſaid Writs of Replegiare, or Writs of ſecond Deliverance, and in every of them, ſhall have like Pleas, and like Aid-Prayers in all ſuch Avowries, Coniſances, and Juſtifications (Pleas of Diſclaimer only except) as they might have had before the making of this Act, and as though the ſaid Avowry, Coniſance, or Juſtification had been made after the due Order of the Common Law. Like Pleas and Aid-prayers as at the Common Law.

V. And it is further enacted by the ſaid Authority, That all ſuch Perſons as by the Order of the Common Law may lawfully join to the Plaintiffs or Defendants in the ſaid Writs of Replegiare, or ſecond Deliverance, as well without Proceſs as by Proceſs, ſhall from henceforth join unto the ſaid Plaintiffs or Defendants, as well without Proceſs as by Proceſs, and to have like Pleas, and like Advantages in all Things (Diſclaimer only except) as they might have done by the Order of the Common Law before the making of this Act. For Bridges and High-ways.

A Remedy to repair decayed Bridges in Highways, and by whom. 13 Co. 33. Poph. 192. 2 Inſt. 700. Juſtices of Peace may award Proceſs againſt them who ought to repair Bridges. This Act is enforced by 1 An. ſtat. 1. c. 18. ſo far as not altered by that Statute.

BE it enacted by the King our Sovereign Lord, and the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, That the Juſtices of Peace in every Shire of this Realm, Franchiſe, City, or Borough, or Four of them at the leaſt, whereof One to be of the Quorum, ſhall have Power and Authority to inquire, hear, and determine in the King's General Seſſions of Peace, of all Manner of Annoyances of Bridges broken in the High-ways, to the Damage of the King's liege People, and to make ſuch Proceſs and Pains upon every Preſentment afore them for the Reformation of the ſame, againſt ſuch as owen to be charged for the making or amending of ſuch Bridges, as the King's Juſtices of his Bench uſe commonly to do, or as it ſhall ſeem by their Diſcretions to be neceſſary and convenient for the ſpeedy Amendment of ſuch Bridges.

II. And where in many Parts of this Realm it cannot be known and proved what Hundred, Riding, Wapentake, City, Borough, Town, or Pariſh, nor what Perſon certain, or Body Politick, ought of Right to make ſuch Bridges decayed, by Reaſon whereof ſuch decayed Bridges, for lack of Knowledge of ſuch as owen to make them, for the moſt Part lie long without any Amendment, to the great Annoyance of the King's Subjects.

III. For the Remedy thereof, be it enacted by Authority aforeſaid, That in every ſuch Caſe the ſaid Bridges, if they be without City, or Town Corporate, ſhall be made by the Inhabitants of the Shire or Riding within the which the ſaid Bridge decayed ſhall happen to be; (2) and if it be within any City or Town Corporate, then by the Inhabitants of every ſuch City or Town Corporate wherein ſuch Bridges ſhall happen to be; (3) and if Part of any ſuch Bridges ſo decayed happen to be in One Shire, Riding, City, or Town Corporate, and the other Part thereof in another Shire, Riding, City, or Town Corporate, or if Part be within the Limits of any City, or Town Corporate, and Part without, or Part within one Riding, and Part within another; that then in every ſuch Caſe, the Inhabitants of the Shires, Ridings, Cities or Towns Corporate ſhall be charged, and chargeable to amend, make, and repair ſuch Part and Portion of ſuch Bridges ſo decayed as ſhall lie and be within the Limits of the Shire, Riding, City, or Town Corporate, wherein they be inhabited at the Time of the ſame Decays.

IV. And be it further enacted, That in every ſuch Caſe where it cannot be known and proved, what Perſons, Lands, Tenements, and Bodies Politick owen to make and repair ſuch Bridges, that for ſpeedy Reformation and amending of ſuch Bridges, the Juſtices of Peace within the Shires or Ridings wherein ſuch decayed Bridges been out of Cities and Towns Corporate, and if it be within Cities or Towns Corporate, then the Juſtices of Peace within every ſuch City or Town Corporate, or Four of the ſaid Juſtices at the leaſt, whereof One to be of the Quorum, ſhall have Power and Authority within the Limits of their ſeveral Commiſſions and Authorities, to call before them the Conſtables of every Town and Pariſh, being within the Shire, Riding, City, or Town Corporate, as well within Liberty as without, wherein ſuch Bridges, or any Parcel thereof ſhall happen to be, or elſe Two of the moſt honeſt Inhabitants within every ſuch Town or Pariſh in the ſaid Shire, Riding, City or Town Corporate, by the Diſcretion of the ſaid Juſtices of Peace, or Four of them at the leaſt, whereof One to be of the Quorum; (2) and at and upon the Appearances of ſuch Conſta- bles or Inhabitants the said Justices of Peace, or Four of them, whereof One to be of the Quorum, with the Assent of the said Constables or Inhabitants, shall have Power and Authority to tax and set every Inhabitant in any such City, Town, or Parish within the Limits of their Commissions and Authorities, to such reasonable Aid and Sum of Money, as they shall think by their Discretions convenient and sufficient for the repairing, re-edifying, and Amendment of such Bridges; (3) and after such Taxation made, the said Justices shall cause the Names and Sums of every particular Person so by them taxed, to be written in a Roll indented: (4) And shall also have Power and Authority to make Two Collectors of every Hundred, for Collection of all such Sums of Money by them set and taxed; which Collectors, receiving the one Part of the said Roll indented under the Seals of the said Justices, shall have Power and Authority to collect and receive all the particular Sums of Money therein contained, and to distrain every such Inhabitant as shall be taxed and refuse Payment thereof, in his Lands, Goods, and Chattles, and to sell such Distress, and of the Sale thereof retain and perceive all the Money taxed, and the Residue (if the Distress be better) to deliver to the Owner thereof; (5) and that the same Justices, or Four of them, within the Limits of their Commissions and Authorities, shall also have Power and Authority to name and appoint Two Surveyors, which shall see every such decayed Bridge repaired and amended from time to time, as often as Need shall require, to whose Hands the said Collectors shall pay the said Sums of Money taxed, and by them received; (6) and that the Collectors and Surveyors, and every of them, and their Executors and Administrators, and the Executors and Administrators of them, and every of them, from time to time, shall make a true Declaration and Accompt to the Justices of Peace of the Shire, Riding, City, or Town Corporate, wherein they shall be appointed Collectors or Surveyors, or to Four of the same Justices, whereof One to be of the Quorum, of the Receipts, Payments, and Expences of the said Sums of Money: (7) And if they or any of them refuse that to do, that then the same Justices of Peace, or Four of them, from time to time, by their Discretions, shall have Power and Authority to make Process against the said Collectors and Surveyors, and every of them, their Executors and Administrators, and the Executors and Administrators of every of them, by Attachments under their Seals, returnable at the General Sessions of Peace, (8) and if they appear, then to compel them to account as is afore said; or else if they or any of them refuse that to do, then to commit such of them as shall refuse, to Ward, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize, till the said Declaration and Accompt be truly made.

By 1 Ann. stat. 1. c. 18. Sessions of the Peace may tax the several Townships, &c.

Two Collectors of every Hundred.

The Justices shall appoint two who shall repair the Bridge.

The Collectors and Surveyors shall accompt to the Justices.

V. And where any Bridge or Bridges lien in One Shire or Riding, and such Persons Inhabitants, Bodies Politick, Lands, or Tenements, which owen to be charged to the making and amending of such Bridges, lien and abiden in another Shire or Riding, or where such Bridges been within any City or Town Corporate, and the Persons Inhabitants, Bodies Politick, Lands, or Tenements, that owen to make or repair any such Bridges, lien and been out of the said Cities and Towns Corporate; be it enacted, That in every such Case the Justices of Peace of the Shire, City, or Town Corporate, within the which such decayed Bridges, or any Part thereof shall happen to be, shall have Power to enquire, hear, and determine all such Annoyances, being within the Limits of their Commissions or Authorities; (2) and if the Annoyance be presented, then to make Process into every Shire within this Realm, against such as owen to make or amend any such Bridges so presented before them to be decayed, to the Annoyance and Let of the Passage of the King's Subjects, and to do further in every Behalf in every such Case, as they might do by Authority of this Act, in case that the Persons or Bodies Politick, Lands, or Tenements, which owen to be charged to the amending or making of such Bridges, or any Part thereof, were in the same Shire, Riding, City, or Town Corporate, where such Annoyance shall happen to be. (3) And that all Sheriffs, and Bailiffs of Liberties and Franchises, shall truly serve and execute such Process, as shall come to their Hands from the said Justices of Peace afore whom any Presentment shall be had for any such Annoyance, according to the Tenour and Effect of the said Process to them directed, without Favour, Affection, or Corruption, upon Pain to make such Fine, as shall be set upon them or any of them by the Discretion of the said Justices.

The Justices may make Process into every Shire against Offenders.

Sheriffs, &c. shall serve Process upon the Offenders.

VI. Provided alway, That this Act, or any Thing therein contained, be not prejudicial to the Liberties of the Five Ports, or Members of the same. And for Reformation of Annoyances of Bridges within the said Ports and Members,

The Five Ports excepted.

VII. Be it enacted by Authority of this present Parliament, That the Warden, Mayors, and Bailiffs elected, and Jurates of the same Ports, and every of them, have Power and Authority to inquire, hear, and determine all Manner of common Annoyances of Bridges within the same Ports and Members, and to make such Process, Pains, Taxations, and all other Things within the same Ports and Members, as the Justices of Peace may do in other Shires or Places out of the same Ports, by Virtue and Authority of this present Act in every Behalf.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Justices of Peace, or Four of them, shall have full Power and Authority to allow such reasonable Costs and Charges to the said Surveyors and Collectors, as by their Discretions shall be thought convenient.

Allowance made to the Surveyors and Collectors.

IX. Forasmuch that albeit Bridges decayed were amended and repaired according to the Tenor of this Act, yet nevertheless, if speedy Remedy for the Amendment of the Ways next adjoining to every of the Ends of such Bridges should not be had and made, the King's Subjects should take little or none Avail or Commodity in many Parts of this Realm by the making of the Bridges: (2) In Consideration whereof, be it enacted by the King our Sovereign Lord, and the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by Authority of the same, That such Part and Portion of the Highways in every Part of this Realm, as well within Franchise as without, as lie next adjoining to the Ends of any Bridges within this Realm, distant from any of the said Ends by the Space of Three hundred Foot, be made, repaired, and amended as often as Need shall require; (3) and that the Justices of the Peace in every Shire of this Realm, Franchise, City, or Borough, or Four of them at the least, whereof One to be of the Quorum, within the Limits of their Commissions and Authorities, shall have Power and Authority to inquire, hear, and determine in the King's General Sessions of Peace,

Peace, all Manner of Annoyances of and in ſuch Highways, ſo being and lying next adjoining to any Ends of Bridges within this Realm, diſtant from any One of the Ends of ſuch Bridges Three hundred Foot, and to do in every Thing and Things concerning the making, repairing, and amending of ſuch Highways, and every of them, in as large and ample Manner, as they might and may do, to and for the making, repairing, and amending of Bridges, by Virtue and Authority of this preſent Act.

An Act concerning outlandiſh People, calling themſelves Egyptians.

Enforced by 1 & 2 Ph. & M. c. 4: 4 & 5 El. c. 20.

FOraſmuch as before this Time divers and many outlandiſh People calling themſelves Egyptians, uſing no Craft nor Feat of Merchandiſe, have come into this Realm, and gone from Shire to Shire, and Place to Place in great Company, and uſed great, ſubtil, and crafty Means to deceive the People, bearing them in Hand, that they by Palmeſtry could tell Mens and Womens Fortunes, and ſo many Times by Craft and Subtilty have deceived the People of their Money, and alſo have committed many heinous Felonies and Robberies, to the great Hurt and Deceit of the People that they have come among:

II. Be it therefore by the King our Sovereign Lord, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, ordained, eſtabliſhed, and enacted, That from henceforth no ſuch Perſon be ſuffered to come within this the King's Realm; and if they do, then they and every of them ſo doing, ſhall forfeit to the King our Sovereign Lord all their Goods and Chattles, and then to be commanded to avoid the Realm within Fifteen Days next after the Commandment, upon Pain of Impriſonment; and it ſhall be lawful to every Sheriff, Juſtice of Peace, and Eſcheator, to ſeize to the Uſe of our Sovereign Lord, his Heirs and Succeſſors, all ſuch Goods as they or any of them ſhall have, and thereof to make Account to our ſaid Sovereign Lord in his Exchequer; and if it ſhall happen any ſuch Stranger hereafter to commit within this Realm any Murder, Robbery, or any other Felony, and thereof be indicted, and arraigned, and to plead not guilty, or any other Plea triable by the Country, that then the Inqueſt that ſhall paſs between the King and any ſuch Party, ſhall be altogether of Engliſhmen, albeit that the Party ſo indicted pray Medietatem linguæ, according to the Statute of Anno 8 HENRICI 6. or any other Statute thereof made.

III. Provided alway, That the Egyptians now being in this Realm, have Monition to depart within Sixteen Days after Proclamation of this Statute among them ſhall be made, upon Pain of Impriſonment, and Forfeiture of their Goods and Chattles; and if they then ſo depart, that then they ſhall not forfeit their Goods nor any Part thereof, this preſent Statute notwithſtanding.

IV. Provided alway, That every ſuch Perſon or Perſons, which can prove by Two credible Perſons, before the ſame Party that ſeizeth ſuch Money, Goods, or Chattles, of the ſame Egyptians, that any Part of the ſame Goods, Money, or Chattles, were craftily or feloniouſly taken or ſtolen from him, ſhall be incontinent reſtored unto the ſame Goods, Money, or Chattles, whereof he maketh ſuch Proof before the ſame Party, that ſo ſeizeth the ſame Money, Goods, or Chattles, upon Pain to forfeit to the ſame Party, that maketh ſuch Proof, the double Value of the ſame by Action of Debt, Bill, or otherwiſe, in any of the King's Courts to be ſued, upon which Action and Suit he ſhall not be admitted to wage his Law, nor any Protection or Eſſoin to be allowed; any Thing in this Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

V. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Juſtice of Peace, Sheriff, or Eſcheator, which by Authority of this Act, have Power to take or ſeize any Goods or Chattles of any Egyptians, at any Time hereafter do ſeize, or take the Goods or Chattles of any ſuch Egyptians, that then every ſuch Juſtice, Sheriff, or Eſcheator, doing the ſame, ſhall have, keep, and retain to his own Uſe, the Moiety of all ſuch Goods ſo by him ſeized; and of the other Moiety ſo by him taken or ſeized, ſhall make anſwer and account to the King in his Exchequer, according to the Tenour of this preſent Act; any Thing in the ſame Act contained to the contrary hereof notwithſtanding: And that upon any Account hereafter to be made for the ſaid other Moiety of the ſame Goods, the Accountant ſhall pay no Manner of Fees or other Charges, for his Account or Diſcharge to be had in the King's Exchequer, nor elſewhere.

CAP. XI.

The Juſtices of Peace in every County, dividing themſelves into ſeveral Limits, ſhall give Licence under their Seals to ſuch poor, aged, and impotent Perſons to beg within a certain Precinct, as they ſhall think to have moſt Need: And if any do beg without ſuch Licence, or without his Precinct, he ſhall be whipped, or elſe be ſet in the Stocks Three Days and Three Nights, with Bread and Water only. And a Vagabond taken begging ſhall be whipped, and then ſworn to return to the Place where he was born, or laſt dwelt by the Space of Three Years, and there to put himſelf to Labour.

CAP. XIII.

For Bakers, Brewers, Surgeons, and Scriveners, not to be accounted Handicrafts.

1 R. 3. c. 9. 14 & 15 H. 8. c. 2. 21 H. 8. c. 16.

WHere divers Statutes penal heretofore have been made againſt Strangers Artificers for exerciſing of Handicrafts within this Realm, and for keeping of Houſes, Apprentices, and Servants Eſtrangers, as by the ſaid ſeveral Statutes more plainly is rehearſed; ſithen the making whereof, Beer Brewers, and Bakers, which been common Victuallers, and alſo Surgeons, and Scriveners, being Strangers, inhabited and dwelling within this Realm, have been put to Trouble, and great Vexation, by Occaſion of Informations brought againſt them upon the ſaid Statutes, ſuppoſing that Strangers uſing Baking, Brewing, Surgery, or Writing, ſhould be Handicraftſmen; upon the which Information great Doubts and Ambiguities have riſen, whether Strangers uſing any of the ſaid Myſteries or Sciences, ſhould be underſtood ſuch Handicraftſmen as were intended by any of the ſaid Statutes; (2) For plain Declaration whereof be it enacted by the King our Sovereign Lord, and the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame,

What Perſons ſhall not be accounted Handicraftſmen.

That no Perſon or Perſons Strangers, being a common Baker, Brewer, Surgeon, or Scrivener, ſhall be interpreted or expounded Handicraftſmen, in, for, or by Reaſon of uſing any of the ſaid Myſteries or Sciences of Baking, Brewing, Surgery, or Writing; (3) and that all Informations, Suits, Actions, and Proceſs had, taken, or hereafter to be taken upon any of the ſaid Statutes, againſt any ſuch Stranger or Strangers, being Bakers, Brewers, Surgeons, or Scriveners, ſhall be by Authority of this preſent Act void and of none Effect.

CAP. XIV.

For Abjurations and Sanctuaries.

In what Manner Perſons committing Petit Treaſon ſhall abjure.

THE King our Sovereign Lord conſidering that many of his Subjects heretofore, for their Offences and Merits, have been put to Execution of Death by the Laws of this Realm, and many other committing like Offences, for Tuition of their Lives have fled, and reſorted to Churches, and other hallowed Places within this Realm, and there being, have abjured the Realm before the King's Coroners of the ſame; (2) divers of which Men (ſo abjuring) have been known to be very expert Mariners, and many other have been ſeen to be very able and apt Men for the Wars, and for Defence of this Realm, ſo that by the one mean and the other, the Strength and Power of this Realm is greatly miniſhed; (3) and divers of the ſaid Perſons which heretofore have abjured this Realm, being by Reaſon of their Abjurations in outward Realms and Countries, have not only procured many Mer of the ſame to the Exerciſe and Practiſe of Archery, and have inſtructed them in the Feat and Knowledge thereof, to the great Increaſe and Fortifications of the ſame outward Realms, and Countries, but alſo the ſame abjured Perſons have diſcloſed their Knowledges of the Commodities and Secrets of this Realm, to no little Damage and Prejudice of the ſame.

By how many Means Abjurations of Offenders out of this Realm hath been prejudicial to the Realm.

The Oath of him which abjureth. Every abjured Perſon ſhall be conveyed to the Sanctuary that he doth chooſe. Rep. 1 Jac. 1. c. 25. & 21 Jac. 1. c. 28. If a Sanctuary Perſon do commit any Felony, he loſeth the Privilege of Sanctuary. In what Caſe an Offender may be taken out of Sanctuary, and committed to the Gaol. In what Caſe one may have the Privilege of Sanctuary Twice.

Trial of foreign Pleas.

V. And over this, for more ſpeedy Trials of Murders and Felonies, be it enacted by Authority aforeſaid, That all Manner of foreign Pleas triable by the Country, hereafter to be pleaded by any Perſon or Perſons arraigned upon any Indictment for any Petit Treaſon, Murder, or Felony, ſhall be forthwith tried before the ſame Juſtices afore whom ſuch Perſons ſhall be arraigned, and by the ſame Jurors of the ſame County that ſhall try the Petit Treaſon, Murther, or Felony whereof he ſhall be ſo arraigned, without any farther Reſpite or Delay, in whatſoever County or Counties, Place or Places of this Realm, the Matter of the ſame Pleas be ſuppoſed or alledged.

No Perſon arraigned may challenge above xx.

VI. And that no Perſon arraigned for any Petit Treaſon, Murder, or Felony, be from henceforth admitted to any peremptory Challenge above the Number of xx. (2) This Act to endure to the End of the next Parliament. Continued by 28 H. 8. c. 1. and by 32 H. 8. c. 3. made perpetual. But ſo much of this Statute as concerneth abjured Perſons and Sanctuaries, or ordering or governing of Perſons abjured and in Sanctuary, is repealed by 1 Jac. 1. c. 25. & 21 Jac. 1. c. 28.

CAP. XV.

EXP. The King's general Pardon to his Spiritual Subjects, of all Offences committed againſt the Statutes of Proviſors, Proviſions, and Premunire, and all other Penalties, Forfeitures, Pains, except Treaſon, Murder, Robbery, &c.

CAP. XVI.

EXP. The King's Pardon to his Temporal Subjects, of all Offences committed againſt the Statute of Proviſors, Proviſions, and Premunire.

Statutes made at Weſtminſter, Anno 23 HEN. VIII. and Anno Dom. 1531.

THE King our Sovereign Lord HENRY the Eighth, by the Grace of God King of England, and of France, Defender of the Faith, and Lord of Ireland, at the Seſſion of his High Court of Parliament, after divers Prorogations holden at Weſtminſter the Fifteenth Day of January, in the xxiij. Year of his noble Reign, to the Honour of Almighty God and holy Church, and for the Common Weal and Profit of this his Realm, by the Aſſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, hath ordained, eſtabliſhed, and enacted certain good Statutes, Laws, and Ordinances, in Manner and Form following.

CAP. I.

An Act concerning Convicts in Petit Treaſon, Murder, &c.

WHere at a Parliament holden at Weſtminſter in the Third Year of King EDWARD the Firſt, the ſame King moved the Prelates of the Realm, and them enjoined upon their Faith that they owed to him, that in no wiſe they ſhould deliver thoſe Clerks which were indicted for Felony, without due Purgation, ſo that the ſaid King ſhould have no Need to put other Remedy in that Behalf; (2) and that notwithſtanding after that Monition, divers and many Clerks convict were accuſtomably delivered, and ſuffered to make their Purgations, to the great Courage of Evil-doers:

3 E. 1. c. 2. Clergy not allowed to any Perſon under a Subdeacon.

II. By Occaſion whereof afterward, at another Parliament holden at Weſtminſter in the Fourth Year of King HENRY the Fourth, upon the Complaint of the Commons, the ſame King HENRY the Fourth then adverti ſed the Prelates of the Realm of the Premiſſes, intending then to have provided Remedy by Authority of the ſaid Parliament, as appertained to his Prerogative Royal, for the Conſervation of the Peace of the Crown; (2) at which Time the Archbiſhop of Canterbury, for himſelf and all other Biſhops of his Province, then openly promiſed to the ſame King HENRY the Fourth, That if any Perſon from thenceforth were convict of any Treaſon which touched not the King nor his Royal Majeſty, and ſuch as were notoriouſly known and reputed for Thieves, and for ſuch Cauſe delivered to any Ordinary as a Clerk convict, that the Ordinary, to whom ſuch Perſon or Perſons were delivered, ſhould ſafely keep them after the Effect of a Conſtitution Provincial, to be made by the ſaid Archbiſhop and Biſhops after the Effect of the Letters of Simon, then afore that Time Archbiſhop of Canterbury, bearing Date the xij. Calends of March, the Year of our Lord God M.CCC.L. (3) And that no ſuch Traitor nor Felon ſhould make his Purgation againſt the ſaid Conſtitution; (4) which Conſtitution the ſaid Archbiſhop then promiſed to deliver to the ſame King before his next Parliament, to the Intent that if it ſhould ſeem to the ſame King, that the ſame Conſtitution were not ſufficient Remedy for the Premiſſes, that then the ſaid King might provide ſuch Remedy as ſhould appertain in that Behalf. (5) Sithen which Time, the ſame Conſtitution was never notified ne ſhewed by the Prelates of this Realm, but continually ſithen that Time manifeſt Thieves and Murderers, indicted and found guilty of their Miſdeeds by good and ſubſtantial Inqueſts, and upon plain and provable Evidence before the King's Juſtices, and afterwards by the Uſages of the common Laws of the Land delivered to the Ordinaries as Clerks convict, be ſpeedily and haſtily delivered and ſet at large by the Miniſters of the ſaid Ordinaries, for Corruption and Lucre; (6) or elſe becauſe the Ordinaries, enclaiming ſuch Offenders by the Liberties of the Church, will in no wiſe take the Charges in ſafe keeping of them, but little regarding the Trial and Conviction of the ſaid Offenders by the due and plain Courſe of the common Laws of the Land, do ſuffer them to make their Purgations by ſuch as nothing know of their Miſdeeds; (7) and by ſuch Fraud adnul and make void all the good and provable Trial that is uſed againſt ſuch Offender by the King's Laws, to the great Slander of ſuch as purſue ſuch Miſdoers, and to the pernicious Example, Increaſe, and Courage of ſuch Offenders, if the King's Highneſs, by his Authority Royal, put not ſpeedy Remedy in the Premiſſes, as appertaineth:

4 H. 4. c. 3.

The Promiſe of the Clergy to the King for the ſafe keeping of notorious Offenders convict without Purgation.

The Ordinary's Abuſe in ſuffering notorious Felons to make Purgation.

III. Be it therefore enacted by the King our Sovereign Lord, and the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, That no Perſon nor Perſons, which hereafter ſhall happen to be found guilty after the Laws of this Land, for any Manner of Petit Treaſon, or for any wilful Murder of Malice prepenſed, or for robbing of any Churches, Chapels, or other holy Places, or for robbing of any Perſon or Perſons in their Dwelling Houſes, or Dwelling Place, the Owner or Dweller in the ſame Houſe, his Wife, his Children or Servants then being within, and put in Fear and Dread by the ſame, or for robbing of any Perſon or Perſons in or near about the Highways, or for wilful burning of any Dwelling Houſes, or Barns wherein any Grain of Corns ſhall happen to be, nor any Perſon or Perſons being found guilty of any Abetment, Procurement, Helping, Maintaining, or Counſelling, of or to any ſuch Petit Treaſons, Murders, or Felonies, ſhall from henceforth be admitted to the Benefit of his or their Clergy, but utterly be excluded thereof, and ſuffer Death in ſuch Manner and Form, as they ſhould have done for any the Cauſes or Offences aboveſaid, if they were no Clerks; ſuch as be within holy Orders, that is to ſay, of the Orders of Sub-deacon, or above, only except.

Co. pl. f. 352. Clergy taken from ſeveral Perſons which do commit divers Offences. Extended to Countries where the Robbery, &c. was not committed. 3 Inſt. 64, 67, 115. 1 Ed. 6. c. 12. Kelyng, 67, 68, 69. Dyer, f. 224. 11 Co. 29. Extended to Robberies in Booths or Tents, &c. by 5 & 6 Ed. 6. c. 9. 1 Bulſtr. 112. None within holy Orders, convict of Murder, &c. ſhall make Purgation, unleſs he become bound with Sureties for his good Abearing.

IV. And be it further enacted by Authority aforeſaid, That every ſuch Perſon and Perſons within ſuch Orders of Sub-deacon, or above, which at any Time hereafter be found guilty of any Petit Treaſon, or of any Murder of Malice prepenſed, or of any of the Felonies above rehearſed, or of any Acceſſary to Petit Treaſon, wilful Murder, or to any other the Felonies above ſpecified, and admitted to his or their Clergy, and delivered to the Ordinary for the ſame, ſhall not in any wiſe from henceforth be ſuffered to any Purgation, nor be ſet at Liberty, but remain and abide in perpetual Priſon, under the keeping of the Ordinary, to whom he ſhall be committed, and his Succeſſors, without any Manner of Purgation during the natural Life of every ſuch Convict, (2) except only ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſo being within ſuch holy Orders, and convict of or for any of the Offences aforeſaid, and delivered to the Ordinary for the ſame, do find Two ſufficient Sureties by Recognizance before Two of the King's Juſtices of his Peace, within the ſame Shire wherein the Petit Treaſon, Murder, or Felony, whereof he was convicted, was committed and done, whereof One of them to be of the Quorum, that ſuch Convict ſhall be of good abearing againſt the King our Sovereign Lord, his Laws and Subjects, every such Convict to be bound in the Sum of xl. li. and every his Sureties in xx. li. (3) and that no Surety be taken, unless such as may dispend in Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments yearly, above all Charges, of Estate of Inheritance or Charterhold, xxvi. s. viii. d. or else be worth xx. li. in moveable Substance at the Time of the taking of such Recognisance; (4) and that Two Justices of Peace, whereof One to be of the Quorum, by Authority aforesaid, have Power and Authority to take such Recognisance; (5) and that the said Justices, afore whom any such Recognisance shall be taken, shall certify the same into the King's Bench, within Four Months next after the taking thereof, upon Pain to lose and forfeit C. s. for every Default thereof.

Of what Estate the Sureties shall be.

He that is attaint of Felony shall not make his Purgation

V. Provided alway, That this Act extend not to give any Benefit to any such Person or Persons, which, after their Confession, or Judgement given against them, of or for Felony, or Murder, or after they be outlawed for any such Cause, be admitted to their Clergy, and delivered to the Ordinary for the same, but that they and every of them shall remain in the Custody of the Ordinaries without making Purgation, upon such Peril, and in such Manner and Form, as it was used by the Common Law before the making of this present Act; this Act or any Thing therein contained notwithstanding.

An Ordinary may degrade a convict Person, and send him to the King's Bench.

VI. Provided always, and it is further enacted, That every Ordinary, to whose Custody any such Convict for any of the Offences above rehearsed shall be committed, may at his Liberty disgrade every such Convict after the Laws of the Church, if he see cause so to do, and send the Convict so disgraded, in sure and safe keeping, into the King's Bench, with a Certificate under his Seal, testifying the said disgrading, (2) upon which the Justices of the King's Bench, having afore them the Record upon which the said Person so disgraded was first convict, shall give such like Judgement of Death upon the same Record, against every such Person so convict, and disgraded, as the Justices afore whom he was convict might have done, if the said Person so disgraded at the Time of his Conviction afore them had been no Clerk, his Admission to his Clergy, and committing to the Ordinary, ne any other Thing, Use or Custom to the contrary hereof notwithstanding; (3) and that every such Judgement shall be executed accordingly; (4) and that every Ordinary so sending any such Convict disgraded into the King's Bench, shall be discharged against the King our Sovereign Lord, his Heirs, and Successors, of or for any further Custody or keeping of the same Convict; (5) this Act to continue unto the last Day of the next Parliament.

CAP. III.

An Act against Perjury and untrue Verdicts.

11 H. 7. c. 24. 3 Inst. 164.

THE King our Sovereign Lord of his most goodly and gracious Disposition, calling to his Remembrance how that Perjury in this Land is in manifold Causes by unreasonable Means detestably used, to the Disheritance, and great Damage of many and great Numbers of his Subjects well-disposed, and to the most high Displeasure of Almighty God, the good Statutes against all Officers having Return of Writs and their Deputies, making Panels partially for Rewards to them given, against unlawful Maintainers, Embracers, and Jurors, and against Jurors untruly giving their Verdict notwithstanding; for Reformation whereof, and forasmuch as the late noble King HENRY the Seventh provided Remedy for the same by a Statute made in the Eleventh Year of his Reign, which Statute is now expired:

Attaint where the Thing in Demand extendeth to xl. l. and concerneth not Man's Life. Dyer, f. 81. Co. Lit 294. Cro. El. 350. Moor, 17. The Process in Attaint. Jurors in Attaint must be worth Twenty Marks a Year. 15 H. 6. c. 5. See 27 H. 8. c. 5. f. 3 for Jurors in Attaint; and 4 & 5 W. & M. c. 24. for Jurors in other Actions. Distress, when to be awarded. The Grand Jury awarded by Default. Pleas of the Petit Jury in Attaint. Rast. pl. f. 92. Kel. 55. Dyer, 173. 14 H. 7. c. 5. Pleas of the Defendant in Attaint.

II. Be it therefore now enacted by the King our Sovereign Lord, and the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by Authority of the same, That upon every untrue Verdict hereafter given betwixt Party and Party, in any Suit, Plaint, or Demand, before any Justices, or Judges of Record where the Thing in Demand, and Verdict thereupon given, extendeth to the Value of xl. li. and concerneth not the Jeopardy of Man's Life, the Party grieved by the same Verdict shall have a Writ of Attaint against every Person hereafter so giving an untrue Verdict, and every of them, and against the Party which shall have Judgement upon the same Verdict; (2) and that in the same Attaint there shall be awarded against the Petit Jury, the Party, and the Grand Jury, Summons, Resomons, and Distress infinite, which Grand Jury shall be of like Number as the Grand Jury is now in Attaint, and every of them that shall pass in the same, shall have Lands and Tenements to the Value of Twenty Marks by the Year of Freehold, out of the ancient Demean; (3) and upon the Distress, which shall be delivered of Record upon the same, open Proclamation to be made in the Court there; (4) the Distress shall be awarded more than Fifteen Days afore the Return of the said Distress, and every such Distress shall be made upon the Land of every of the said Grand Jury, as in other Distresses is and hath been used; (5) and if the said Party Defendant, or the Petit Jurors, or any of them, appear not upon the Distress, then the Grand Jury to be taken against them and every of them that shall so make Default; (6) and if any of the said Petit Jury appear, then the Party Complainant in that Behalf shall assign the false Serement of the first Verdict untruly given, whereunto they of the Petit Jury shall have no Answer, if they be the same Persons, and the Writ, Process, Return, and Assignment good and lawful, except that the Demandant or Plaintiff in the same Attaint hath afore been nonsuit, or discontinued his Suit of Attaint taken for the same, or hath for the same Verdict, in a Writ of Attaint, had Judgement against the said Petit Jury, but only that they made true Serement, which Issue shall be tried by Twenty four of the said Grand Jury; (7) and the Party shall plead that they gave true Verdict, or any other Matter which shall be a sufficient Bar of the said Attaint; (8) and that

Plea

Plea notwithstanding, the Grand Jury to be taken without Delay, to enquire whether the first Jury gave true Verdict or no.

III. And if they find that the said Petit Jury gave an untrue Verdict, then every of the said Petit Jury to forfeit xx. li. whereof the One Half shall be to the King our Sovereign Lord, and the other Half to the Party that sueth. Forfeiture of the Petit Jury attainted.

IV. And over that, That every of the said Petit Jury shall severally make Fine and Ransom, by the Discretion of the Justices before whom the said false Serement shall be found, after their several Offences, Defaults, and Sufficiency of every of the said Petity Jury; (2) and after that, those of the said Petit Jury so attainted shall never after be in any Credence, nor their Oath accepted in any Court; (3) and if such Plea as the Party pleadeth, which is a Bar of the said Attaint, be found, or deemed against him that so pleadeth, then the Party that so sueth, shall have Judgement to be restored to that he lost, with his reasonable Costs and Damages. Dyer, 256. If the Plea of the Party Defendant be found against him. Rast. pla. f. 86.

V. Forseen alway, That any Utlare in Action or Cause personal, or Excommengement pleaded or alledged in the Party Plaintiff or Demandant, shall be taken but as a void Plea, and to that he shall not be put to answer; (2) and that in all the aforesaid Process such Day shall be given as in a Writ of Dower, and none Essoin or Protection to lie, nor to be allowed in the same; (3) and if the said Grand Jury appear not upon the first Distress had against them, so that the Jury for their Default do remain, he that maketh Default shall forfeit to the King xx. s. and upon the second Distress xl. s. and after making Default, for every such Default v. li. and like Penalties and Forfeitures to be against them, and every of them, that shall be named in the Tales, as is before expressed against every of the said Grand Jury aforesaid; (4) and that for and by the Death of the Party, or any of the said Petit Jury, the said Attaint shall not abate, nor be deferred against the Remnant, as long as Two of the said Petit Jury be alive. Outlawry or Excommunication no Plea against the Plaintiff in Attaint. Forfeiture of the Grand Jury making Default of Appearance. How long the Attaint is maintainable.

VI. And if hereafter any false Verdict be given in any Action, Suit, or Demand afore any Justice or Judge of Record, of any Thing personal, as Debt, Trespass, and other like, which shall be under the Value of xl. li. that then the Party grieved shall have Attaint, with such Process and Pleas as is afore rehearsed, and Delays to be taken away, as is afore remembred; (2) except that in this Case of Attaint, every Person of the Grand Jury that may dispend v. Marks by the Year of Freehold out of ancient Demean, or is worth an hundred Marks of Goods and Chattles, shall be able to pass in the same Attaint. (3) And if the Petit Jury be attainted, that then they shall in this Case of Attaint every of them to forfeit v. li. whereof One Half shall be to the King, and the other Half to the Party, after the Form afore rehearsed, and over that to make Fine and Ransom by the Discretion of the Justices, as is aforesaid. Attaint of a Thing under the Value of xl. li. Dyer, 120. 1 Leon. 279.

VII. And if there be not Persons of such Sufficiency within the Shire or Place where any of the said Attaints shall be taken, as may pass into the same, be it ordained by the Authority aforesaid, That then One Tales shall be awarded into the Shire next adjoining, by the Discretion of the Justices afore whom the same Attaints shall be taken, which shall be warned to appear upon like Pains as aforesaid, and enabled to pass in the said Attaints, as if they were dwelling in the Shire where the same Attaint shall be taken. (2) And that the same Laws, Action, and Remedy ordained by this present Act, be kept for and to all them that shall be grieved by such untrue Verdicts of any Inheritance in Descent, Reversion, Remainder, or of any Freehold in Reversion or Remainder. (3) And if the Party in Attaint given by this Act be nonsuit, or the same discontinue, that then the same Party so nonsuit, or so discontinuing the said Attaint, make Fine and Ransom by the Discretion of the Justices afore whom the said Attaint shall be taken and depending. Tales in another County if there be not sufficient Freeholders in the same County. An Attaint for him in Reversion or Remainder. Nonsuit in Attaint.

VIII. And that all Attaints hereafter to be taken, shall be taken afore the King in his Bench, or afore the Justices of the Common Place, and none in other Courts; (2) and that Nisi prius shall be granted by Discretion of the Justices upon the Distress; (3) and every of the said Petit Jury may appear, and answer by Attorney in the said Attaint; (4) and that the Moiety of the said Forfeiture of the Petit Jury shall be levied to the Use of our Sovereign Lord the King by Capias ad satisfaciendum, or Fieri fac' or Elegit, or by Action of Debt against every Person of the Petit Jury so forfeiting, and against his Executors and Administrators, having then sufficient Goods of their said Testator not administred, and the other Moiety shall by like Process be levied to the Use of the Party that sueth any Attaint given by this Act against every of the said Petit Jury and his Executors or Administrators, having then Sufficiency of Goods, as is aforesaid, not administred; (5) and the Judgement of Restitution to the Party grieved suing this Act, and Execution thereof to be had, and like Judgement for the Party Defendant, or Tenant, to be discharged of Restitution, as afore this present Act in case of a grand Attaint hath been used; (6) and if there be divers Plaintiffs or Demandants in Attaint, that the Nonsuit or Release of any of them shall not be in any wise hurtful or prejudicial to the Residue, but that they and every of them in such Cases may be summoned and severed, like as it is used when there be divers Demandants in Actions real. Attaints must be sued in the King's Bench or Common Place. Dyer, 202. Moor, 17. pl. 60. Dyer, 235. Nisi prius in Attaint. Attorney in Attaint. Judgement and Execution in Attaint. The Nonsuit or Release of one Plaintiff shall not prejudice his Companions.

IX. Be it also ordained and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in every Writ of Attaint hereafter to be taken by or upon this Act, the which shall be such as other Writs of Attaint be, and after the Teste of the same Writ shall be written these Words in Latin: Per statutum continuatum usque annum vicesimum tertium domini Henr' octavi, Dei gratia Angliæ & Franciæ Regis, fidei defens' & domini Hiberniæ.

X. And it is also enacted, That this Act shall take Effect for Verdicts hereafter to be given, and to continue to the last Day of the next Parliament. Continued 33 H. 8. c. 17. & 37 H. 8. c. 23.

XI. Provided alway, That this Act be not prejudicial to a Statute made in the Eleventh Year of the late King of famous Memory, HENRY the Seventh, for Punishment of Perjury in untrue Verdicts given in Plaints sued in the Courts of the City of London, but that it shall be at the Liberty of all Persons, for and upon any untrue Verdict given in any Courts of the same City, to sue their Attaint upon this Estatute, or else upon the said Estatute made in the said Eleventh Year, at their own Pleasures and Wills. Any Person may sue an Attaint upon this Statute, or upon the Act of 11 H. 7. c. 21. Rast. pl f. 84. Dyer, f. 201. 37 H. 8. c. 5. Made perpetual by 13 El. c. 25.

CAP. IV.

An Act concerning new making of Barrels, Kilderkins, and other Vessels.

WHERE the Ale-brewers and Beer-brewers of this Realm of England have used, and daily do use, for their own singular Lucre, Profit, and Gain, to make in their own Houses their Barrels, Kilderkins, and Firkins, of much less Quantity, Content, Rate, and Assize than they ought to be, to the great Hurt, Prejudice, and Damage of the King's liege People, and contrary to divers Acts, Statutes, ancient Laws and Customs heretofore made, had, and used, and to the Destruction of the poor Craft or Mystery of Coopers: (2) For Reformation whereof, be it enacted by the King our Sovereign Lord, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by Authority of the same, That no Beer-brewer nor Ale-brewer, that shall brew to Sale Beer or Ale, shall from henceforth occupy by himself, nor by any other to his Use, in his House, nor elsewhere, the Mystery or Craft of Coopers, nor make any Barrels, Kilderkins, Firkins, or other Vessels, by himself, nor by his or their own Servants, whereby they shall put their Beer or Ale to Sale; (3) but that all such Barrels, Kilderkins, and other Vessels of Wood, wherewith they shall put their Beer or Ale to Sale, shall from henceforth be made and marked according as hereafter shall be expressed, by the common Artificers of Coopers, exercised and practised in the said Occupation, upon Pain to forfeit and pay for every such Barrel, Kilderkin, Firkin, or other Vessel hereafter to be made contrary to the Tenor of this Act, Three Shillings Four Pence.

No Brewer of Ale or Beer to sell shall use the Mystery of a Cooper, nor make any Barrels, &c.

II. And be it also enacted, That every Artificer of the Craft or Mystery of Coopers, that will exercise or practise to make any of the said Vessels for Beer or Ale to be put to Sale, shall make the same Vessels, and every of them, of good and seasonable Wood, and put his proper Mark upon every of them; (2) and that every Barrel for Beer shall contain xxxvi. Gallons, every Kilderkin for Beer xviij. Gallons, and every Firkin for Beer ix. Gallons, of the King's Standard Gallon; (3) and that every Barrel for Ale shall contain xxxij. Gallons, every Kilderkin for Ale xvi. Gallons, and every Firkin for Ale viij. Gallons, of the King's Standard Gallon; so that they shall be of good and just Measure, or else above, and not under. (4) And that no Cooper shall make any other Vessel for Beer or Ale, to be sold within this Realm, of any greater or lesser Number of Gallons than is aforesaid, unless he shall cause to be marked upon every such Vessel that he shall so make of greater or lesser Number of Gallons, the true and certain Number of as many Gallons as every such other Vessel shall contain, to the Intent that every Person may know the Content thereof.

Vessels for Ale and Beer shall be made of seasonable Wood, and marked.
The Contents of Barrels, Kilderkins, &c.

III. And that no such Artificer of Coopers shall inhance the Prices of any such Barrels, Kilderkins, Firkins, or other Vessels, in the Sale of them to any Ale-brewer or Beer-brewer, or other Person, but keep the Rates of such Prices as hereafter ensueth, and not above, upon Pain to forfeit for every Barrel, Kilderkin, and Firkin defective, or inhanced in Price, in any Point contrary to this Act, iij. s. 4. d. that is to say, for every Beer-barrel ix. d. for every Beer-kilderkin v. d. and for every Beer-firkin iij. d. and the Ale-barrel xvi. d. and the Ale-kilderkin ix. d. and the Ale-firkin v. d.

Prices of Barrels, Kilderkins, and Firkins.
Rep. 8. El. c. 9. and farther Provisions relating thereto.

IV. And be it further enacted by the said Authority, That no Beer-brewer nor Ale-brewer, at any Time after the Feast of Lammas now next coming, shall put their Beer or Ale to Sale to any Person or Persons to be spent and occupied within this Realm, in any other Barrels, Kilderkins, Firkins, or other Vessels of Wood, other than shall be made and marked by an Artificer of Coopers aforesaid, whereof every Barrel for Beer shall contain and hold xxxvi. Gallons, every half-barrel or Kilderkin xviij. Gallons, and every Firkin ix. Gallons; and every Barrel for Ale shall contain xxxij. Gallons, every Kilderkin xvi. Gallons, and every Firkin viij. Gallons of full and just Measure, or above, and not under that Measure.

Vessels of Ale or Beer to be marked by a Cooper.

V. And that every Beer-brewer and Ale-brewer shall not take over and above for every such Barrel, Kilderkin, or Firkin of Ale and Beer, but after such Prices and Rates as shall be thought convenient and sufficient by the Discretions of the Justices of Peace within every Shire where such Beer-brewer and Ale-brewer shall dwell, without any City, Borough, or Town Corporate, where no Head-Officers, as Mayors, Bailiffs, Sheriffs, and other Head-Officers, have none Authority or Rule; (2) and every City, Borough, and Town, where there be Mayors, Sheriffs, or other Head-Officers, the same Rates and Prices to be named and tessed by them and every of them by their Discretions. (3) And that the said Ale-brewers or Beer-brewers at any Time hereafter shall not sell their Beer nor Ale at any higher Rates or Prices than shall be to them assigned after the Form above rehearsed, upon Pain to lose and forfeit for every Barrel so put to Sale contrary to this Statute, vi. s. for every half-barrel or Kilderkin, iij. s. iv. d. and for every Firkin, ij. s. (4) and for every Vessel containing greater Number of Gallons, x. s. and for every other Vessel containing lesser Number of Gallons, xij. d. The One half of all the which Penalties and Forfeitures to be to the King our Sovereign Lord, and the other half to him that will sue for the same by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information in any of the King's Courts; in which Action and Suit the Defendant shall not wage his Law, nor any Essoin, Protection, or Privilege to be admitted.

VI. Be it also further enacted by the said Authority, That all Manner of Sopemakers within this Realm of England, which shall put to Sale any Sope by Barrel, half-barrel, Firkin, or other Vessel, shall, from Lammas now next coming, make or cause to be made their Barrels, half-barrels, Firkins, and other Vessels, according to the Rates, Contents, Weights, and Assizes of old Time used and accustomed; that is to say, every empty Barrel to hold and contain xxxij. Gallons, or above, and to be in Weight xxvj. Pounds, and not above, of full and just Measure; and every half-barrel empty to be in Weight xiij. Pound, and not above, and to hold and contain xvj. Gallons, or above; and every Firkin empty to weigh vj. Pounds and an half, and not above, and to hold and contain viij. Gallons, or above, upon Pain of Forfeiture for every such Barrel, half-barrel, Firkin, or other Vessel hereafter to be made, had, or used contrary to this Act, iij. s. iv. d.

Sopemakers.
The Content and Weight of Sope Vessels.

VII. And also be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Wardens of the Occupation or Mystery of Coopers within the City of London, from henceforth at all Times hereafter, when they they shall think convenient and expedient, taking with them an Officer of the Mayor's, shall have full Power and Authority, by virtue of this Act, to search, view, and gauge all Manner of such Barrels, Kilderkins, Firkins, and other Vessels to be made or occupied for Ale, Beer, or Sope, to be put to Sale within the City of London, and Suburbs of the same, and within Two Miles Compass without the same Suburbs, to view and see that the same Barrels, Kilderkins, Firkins, and other Vessels, as well within Liberties as without, be made and marked well and sufficiently, and bear and contain their true Contents, Rates, and Measures, according to the Effect of this Statute; (2) and also to mark every such Barrel, Kilderkin, Firkin, and other Vessel by them so viewed and gauged, bearing and containing their true Contents, with the Sign and Token of Saint Anthony's Cross. (3) The same Wardens to have for the Search and Gauging of every such Barrel, Kilderkin, Firkin, and other Vessel by them so searched, viewed, gauged, and marked, One Farthing, and not above, of the Owners or Makers of the said Vessels; and shall and may have Authority, by virtue of this Act, to retain every such Vessel as they shall so gauge, search, and mark, until such Time as they shall be satisfied thereof; (4) and in case they shall find any of the said Vessels defective, not bearing their true Contents, that then by Authority of this Act they may seize, take, and retain every such Vessel, and cause the same to be marked or amended according to the true Content, or else cause the same to be burned.

Wardens of Coopers shall search in London.

VIII. And also the Party, Owner of such Vessel, to lose and forfeit for every such Vessel not being of the full Contents after the Rate above expressed, xij. d. to be recovered and imployed as is aforesaid.

IX. And be it further enacted by the said Authority, That in all other Cities, Boroughs, and Towns, wherein no such Wardens of Coopers be, that the Mayors, Sheriffs, Bailiffs, Constables, or other Head-Officers in such Cities, Boroughs, and Towns, shall have Power and Authority to search, view, and gauge all such Barrels, Kilderkins, Firkins, and other Vessels to be made hereafter in any such City, Borough, or Town, and to have and take all such Advantage thereby, and in like Manner and Form, as the Wardens of Coopers within the City of London, or other Persons by this Act should or may have or take on every Behalf.

Search of Coopers in other Cities, Boroughs, or Towns.

X. Provided always, That every Beer-brewer may keep in his House One or Two Servants of the Mystery or Craft of Coopers, to hoop and amend his Barrels, Kilderkins, Firkins, and other Vessels, wherein they shall put their Beer to Sale from time to time; this Act or any Thing therein contained to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

A Beer-brewer may keep a Cooper to hoop and amend his Barrels.

XI. And be it further enacted by the said Authority, That if any Person, at any Time after the said Feast of Lammas next coming, do minish, or cause to be minished, any Manner of Barrel, Kilderkin, or Firkin, to the Deceit of any of the King's Subjects, by reason of taking out the Head of any such Vessel, or taking out of any Staff out or from any such Vessel, that then every such Vessel to be burnt, and the Offender to forfeit for every such Offence iij. s. iv. d. the One Moiety thereof to be to the King our Sovereign Lord, and the other Moiety thereof to him or them of the King's Subjects that will sue for the same, to be recovered in Manner and Form above rehearsed; (2) and the Party so offending to be further punished by the Discretion of the Head-Officer or Officers before whom such Default shall be presented.

The Penalty for Vessels diminished.

XII. It is enacted by the Authority of this present Parliament, That notwithstanding any Thing contained in this Act of Brewers and Coopers, whereunto this Schedule is annexed, it shall be lawful for every Ale-brewer, mentioned in the same Act, to have and retain in his Service One Person of the Mystery or Craft of Coopers, to exercise in his Service the Craft of a Cooper only in binding, hooping, and pinning his Master's Ale-Vessels recited by the said Act, and in none otherwise to use or exercise any Making of Vessels concerning the Craft or Mystery of a Cooper, whiles that he is in the Service of any Ale-brewer.

An Ale-brewer may keep a Cooper.

XIII. Also it is enacted, That every Cooper, which hereafter shall make any Ale-Vessel specified in the said Act, shall, from the Feast of Pentecost next coming, make every such Vessel according to the Assise specified in the Treatise called Compositio mensurarum; that is to say, every Barrel for Ale shall contain xxxij. Gallons of the said Assise, or above, of the which viij. Gallons make the common Bushel to be used in this Realm of England; every Kilderkin for Ale xvj. Gallons of the said Assise, or above, and every Firkin viij. Gallons of Assise, or above, (2) upon Pain of Forfeiture of iij. s. iv. d. for every of the same Vessels by him untruly made contrary to this Act; the One Half of the same Forfeiture to be to the King, and the other to him that will sue for the same by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, Writ, or otherwise; in which Action no Essoin, Protection, or Wager of Law shall be allowed.

XIV. And be it also enacted, That every Cooper mark his Vessel with his own Mark, upon Pain of iij. s. iv. d. to be levied and recovered after like Manner and Form as is aforesaid; (2) and that no Manner of Person, in the Search-making for the true Gauging of any such Vessels, shall put out the Ale of any such Vessel, whereby the same Ale shall be the worse. (3) And that it shall be lawful to every Ale-brewer to bring, carry, and cause to be brought and carried, their Ale to the Households of our Sovereign Lord the King, the Queen, the Princes, and to every Archbishop's, Bishop's, Duke's, Marquess's, Earl's, Baron's, or other honourable Mens Houses, in Tuns, Buts, Pipes, Hogsheads, or other Vessels of greater or larger Quantity than is expressed in this present Act, as before time hath been used in that Behalf. (4) And also it shall be lawful to the said Ale-brewers to bring, carry, or cause to be brought, conveyed, or carried, their Ale to every Man's House in Barrels, Kilderkins, and Firkins, bearing and holding their true Contents according to the Purport and Effect of this present Act, any Thing contained in the same Act to the contrary hereof notwithstanding.

CAP. V.

The Bill of Sewers with a new Proviso, &c.

OUR Sovereign Lord the King, like a virtuous and most gracious Prince, nothing earthly so highly weighing, as the advancing of the common Profit, Wealth, and Commodity of this his Realm, considering the daily great Damages and Losses which have happened in many and divers Parts of this his said Realm, as well by the reason of the outrageous Flowing, Surges, and Course of the Sea in and upon Marsh-Grounds,

How far the Commission of Sewers shall extend. Latch. 170, 171. 4 Inst. 275.

Grounds, and other low Places heretofore through politick Wiſdom won and made profitable for the great Common Wealth of this Realm, as alſo by Occaſion of Land-waters, and other outrageous Springs, in and upon Meadows, Paſtures, and other low Grounds adjoining to Rivers, Floods, and other Water-courſes; (2) and over that, by and through Mills, Mill-dams, Wears, Fiſhgarths, Kedels, Gores, Gotes, Flood-gates, Locks, and other Impediments in and upon the ſame Rivers and other Water-courſes, to the ineſtimable Damages of the Common Wealth of this Realm, which daily is likely more and more to increaſe, unleſs ſpeedy Redreſs and Remedy be in this Behalf ſhortly provided: (3) Wherein albeit that divers and many Proviſions have been before this Time made and ordained, yet none of them are ſufficient Remedy for Reformation of the Premiſſes, hath therefore by deliberate Advice and Aſſent of his Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and alſo his loving Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, ordained, eſtabliſhed, and enacted, That Commiſſions of Sewers, and other the Premiſſes, ſhall be directed in all Parts within this Realm from time to time, where and when Need ſhall require, according to the Manner, Form, Tenor, and Effect hereafter enſuing, to ſuch ſubſtantial and indifferent Perſons as ſhall be named by the Lord Chancellor and Lord Treaſurer of England, and the Two Chief Juſtices for the time being, or by Three of them, whereof the Lord Chancellor to be One.

The Form of the Commiſſion of Sewers.

II. HENRY the Eighth, &c. Know ye, That foraſmuch as the Walls, Ditches, Banks, Gutters, Sewers, Gotes, Calcies, Bridges, Streams, and other Defences, by the Coaſts of the Sea, and mariſh Ground, lying and being within the Limits of A.B. or C. in the County or Counties of or in the Borders or Confines of the ſame, by Rage of the Sea, flowing and reflowing, and by Mean of the Trenches of freſh Waters deſcending, and having Courſe by divers Ways to the Sea, be ſo dirupt, lacerate, and broken; (2) and alſo the common Paſſages for Ships, Balangers, and Boats, in the Rivers, Streams, and other Floods, within the Limits of A. B. or C. in the County or Counties of or in the Borders or Confines of the ſame, by Mean of ſetting up, erecting, and making of Streams, Mills, Bridges, Ponds, Fiſh-garths, Mill-dams, Locks, Hebbing-wears, Hecks, and Flood-gates, or other like Lets, Impediments, or Annoyances, be letted and interrupted, ſo that great and ineſtimable Damage, for Default of Reparation of the ſaid Walls, Ditches, Banks, Fences, Sewers, Gotes, Gutters, Calcies, Bridges, and Streams; (3) and alſo by Mean of ſetting up, erecting, making, and enlarging of the ſaid Fiſh-garths, Mill-dams, Locks, Hebbing-wears, Hecks, Flood-gates, and other like Annoyances, in Times paſt hath happened, and yet is to be feared, that far greater Hurt, Loſs, and Damage is like to enſue, unleſs that ſpeedy Remedy be provided in that Behalf.

The Form of the Oath.

VI. And it is alſo enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every Statute, Act, and Ordinance heretofore made concerning the Premiſſes, or any of them, as well in the Time of our Sovereign Lord the King that now is, as in the Time of any of his Progenitors Kings of this Realm of England, not being contrary to this preſent Act, nor heretofore repealed, from henceforth ſhall ſtand and be good and effectual for ever, and to be put in due Execution according to the true Meaning and Purport of the ſame.

A Confirmation of other Statutes.

VII. And over that be it enacted, That the Commiſſioners hereafter to be named in any of the ſaid Commiſſions, according to the Purport and Effect of the ſame Commiſſions, have full Power and Authority to make, conſtitute, and ordain Laws, Ordinances, and Decrees, and further to do all and every Thing mentioned in the ſaid Commiſſion, according to the Purport, Effect, Words, and true Meaning of the ſame; (2) and the ſame Laws and Ordinances ſo made, to reform, repeal, and amend, and make new, from time to time, as the Caſes neceſſary ſhall require in that Behalf.

The Authority of the Commiſſioners.

1 Mar. ſeſſ. 3. c. 11. 13 Eliz. c 9.

VIII. Provided alway, and it is enacted, That if any Perſon or Perſons, being aſſeſſed or tared to any Lot or Charge for any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, within the Limits of any Commiſſion hereafter to be directed, do not pay the ſaid Lot and Charge according to the Ordinance and Aſſignment of the Commiſſioners, having Power of the Execution of the ſaid Commiſſion, by Reaſon whereof it ſhall happen, the ſaid Commiſſioners having Power of the Execution of ſuch Commiſſion, for lack of Payment of ſuch Lot and Charge, to decree and ordain the ſame Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments from the Owner or Owners thereof, and their Heirs, and the Heirs of every of them, to any Perſon or Perſons for Term of Years, Term of Life, in Fee-ſimple or in Tail, for Payment of the ſame Lot and Charge, that then every ſuch Decree and Ordinance ſo by them made and ingroſſed in Parchment, and certified under their Seals into the King's Court of Chancery, with the King's Royal Aſſent had to the ſame, ſhall bind all and every Perſon and Perſons, that at the making of the ſame Decree had any Intereſt in ſuch Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, in Uſe, Poſſeſſion, Reverſion, or Remainder, their Heirs and Feoffees, and every of them, and not to be in any wiſe reformed, unleſs it be by Authority of Parliament hereafter to be ſummoned and holden within this Realm.

The Ordinances of Commiſſioners upon thoſe which refuſe.

Extended to Copyhold Lands 7 Ann. c. 10.

IX. And alſo it is provided by Authority aforeſaid, That the ſame Laws, Ordinances, and Decrees to be made and ordained by the ſaid Commiſſioners, or Six of them, by Authority of the ſaid Commiſſion, ſhall bind as well the Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments of the King our Sovereign Lord, as all and every other Perſon and Perſons, and their Heirs, for ſuch their Intereſt as they ſhall fortune to have, or may have, in any Lands, Tenements, or

The Commiſſioners Decree ſhall bind the King's and Mens Lands. 3 Ed. 6. c. 8.

Hereditaments, or other caſual Profit, Advantage, or Commodity whatſoever they be, whereunto the ſaid Laws, Ordinances, and Decrees ſhall in any wiſe extend, according to the true Purport, Meaning, and Intent of the ſame Laws.

No Man may ſit being unſworn.

X. And it is furthermore by the Authority aforeſaid, eſtabliſhed and enacted, That if any Manner of Perſon or Perſons, of what Eſtate or Degree ſoever he or they be of, that from henceforth do take upon him or them to ſit by Virtue of any of the ſaid Commiſſions, not being before ſworn in Form as is aforeſaid, and according to the Tenor of the Oath before ſpecified, or if any Perſon ſo named and ſworn do ſit as is aforeſaid, not having Lands and Tenements, or other Hereditaments in Fee-ſimple, Fee-tail, or for Term of Life, to the clear yearly Value of xl. Marks above all Charges to his own Uſe, except he be reſiant and free of any City, Borough, or Town Corporate, and have moveable Subſtance of the clear Value of One Hundred Pounds, or elſe be learned in the Laws of this Realm in and concerning the ſame, that is to ſay, admitted in One of the Four principal Inns of Court for an Utter Barriſter, ſhall forfeit xl. l. for every Time that he ſhall attempt ſo to do; (2) the One Half thereof to be to our Sovereign Lord the King, and the other Half thereof to the Uſe of him or them that will ſue therefore by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information in any of the King's Courts; in which Action or Suit no Wager of Law ſhall be admitted, nor any Eſſoin or Protection ſhall be allowed.

What Land each Commiſſioner ſhall have. 13 El. c. 9 25 H. 8. c. 10.

XI. And if any Action of Treſpaſs, or other Suit, ſhall happen to be attempted againſt any Perſon or Perſons for taking any Diſtreſs, or any other Act doing, by Authority of the ſaid Commiſſion, or by Authority of any Laws or Ordinances made by Virtue of the ſaid Commiſſion, the Defendant or Defendants in any ſuch Action ſhall and may make Avowry, Conuſance, or Juſtification for the taking of the ſame Diſtreſs, or other Act doing touching the Premiſſes, or of any of them, alledging in ſuch Avowry, Conuſance, or Juſtification, that the ſaid Diſtreſs, Treſpaſs, or other Act whereof the Plaintiff complaineth, was done by the Authority of the Commiſſion of Sewers for Lot or Tax aſſeſſed by the ſaid Commiſſion, or for ſuch other Act or Cauſe as the ſaid Defendant did by Authority of the ſame Commiſſion, and according to the Tenor, Purport, and Effect of this preſent Act made the Three and twentieth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord King HENRY the Eighth, without any expreſſing or rehearſal of any other Matter or Circumſtance contained in this preſent Act, or any Commiſſion, Laws, Statutes, or Ordinances thereupon to be made; (2) whereupon the Plaintiff ſhall be admitted to reply, that the Defendant did take the ſaid Diſtreſs, or did any other Act or Treſpaſs ſuppoſed in his Declaration of his own Wrong, without any ſuch Cauſe alledged by the ſaid Defendant; whereupon the Iſſue in every ſuch Action ſhall be joined, to be tried by Verdict of Twelve Men, and not otherwiſe, as is accuſtomed in other perſonal Actions: (3) And upon the Trial of that Iſſue the whole Matter to be given on both Parties in Evidence according to the very Truth of the ſame.

Avowry, or Juſtification of a Diſtreſs taken by reaſon of the Commiſſion of Sewers. Co. pl. f. 293.

Where the Defendant ſhall repay Damages with his Coſts of Suit.

XII. And after ſuch Iſſue tried for the Defendant, or Nonſuit of the Plaintiff after Appearance, the ſame Defendant to recover Treble Damages by reaſon of his wrongful Vexation in that Behalf, with his Coſts alſo in that Part ſuſtained, and that to be aſſeſſed by the ſame Jury, or Writ to inquire of Damages, as the Cauſe ſhall require.

The Wages and Fees of Commiſſioners, Clerks, Collectors, &c.

XIII. And it is alſo enacted, That every of the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall have and perceive Four Shillings for every Day that they ſhall take Pain in the Execution of this Commiſſion of Sewers, and One Clerk, by them to be aſſigned, Two Shillings for every Day, of the Rates, Tares, Lots, and Wains that ſhall be aſſeſſed or loſt by the Authority of the ſaid Commiſſion, and to be levied and paid by their Diſcretions. (2) And that the ſaid Commiſſioners, or Six of them, ſhall have Power and Authority to limit and aſſign of the ſame Rates, Tares, Lots, and Wains, by their Diſcretions, ſuch reaſonable Sums of Money to the ſaid Clerk, for writing of Books and Proceſs concerning the Premiſſes, and to the Collectors, Expenditors, and ſuch other as ſhall take Pain in the due Execution of the ſaid Commiſſion, as by the Diſcretions of the ſaid Commiſſioners, or Six of them, ſhall be thought reaſonable.

Commiſſions within the Liberty of the Duchy.

XIV. Provided alway, That whenſoever, and as often as ſuch Commiſſion, as is afore limited, ſhall be made and directed to any Perſon or Perſons, for the Reformation and Amendment of or in any of the Premiſſes ſpecified in the ſaid Commiſſion, within the Fees, Liberties, or Poſſeſſions of the Duchy of Lancaſter, that then ſuch Commiſſioners, as ſhall execute any ſuch Commiſſion, ſhall be always named and appointed by the Diſcretion of the Lord Chancellor and Lord Treaſurer of England, and the ſaid Two Chief Juſtices of either Bench, and the Chancellor of the ſaid Duchy for the time being, or Three of them, whereof the ſaid Lord Chancellor and the Chancellor of the Duchy to be Two; (2) and that in every ſuch Caſe Two Commiſſions ſhall be awarded and made according to the Tenor of the Commiſſion above expreſſed, One thereof under the Great Seal of England, and the other under the Seal of the ſame Duchy, as beforetime hath been accuſtomed, any Thing afore rehearſed in this Act to the contrary hereof notwithſtanding.

The Charge of the Commiſſions.

XV. And it is further enacted, That the ſaid Commiſſions from time to time, as the Caſe ſhall require, ſhall be had and obtained without any Money, or other Charge to be paid for the Seals, or writing of the ſame, unleſs it be to the King, Two Shillings Six Pence for the Seal of every Commiſſion, as hath been accuſtomed, and for the writing and inrolling of any One Commiſſion, Five Shillings, and not above.

A Commiſſion of Sewers ſhall endure Three Years. Altered by 13 El. c. 9. ſ. 1.

XVI. And it is further enacted, That every Commiſſion to be made by Authority of this Act ſhall endure and continue for the Term of Three Years next after the Teſte of the Commiſſion; (2) nevertheleſs, after any Commiſſion made and delivered out of the King's Court of Chancery, the King's Highneſs ſhall always at his Pleaſure, by his Writ of Superſedeas out of his ſaid Court of Chancery, at any Time diſcharge as well every ſuch Commiſſion, as every Commiſſioner that ſhall be made or named by Authority of this Act; (3) after which Diſcharge, the ſaid Commiſſioner ſhall have no Power or Authority to proceed in the Execution of their Commiſſion, nor in any Thing, by Authority of this Act.

A Commiſſion or Commiſſioner diſcharged by Superſedeas.

How long the Commiſſioners Decree ſhall endure.

XVII. Provided always, That ſuch Laws, Acts, Decrees, and Ordinances as ſhall happen to be made by the ſaid Commiſſioners according to the Tenor of their Commiſſion, or by Authority of this Act, ſhall ſtand good and effectual, and be put in due Execution ſo long Time as their Commission endureth, and no longer; except the said Laws and Ordinances be made and ingrossed in Parchment, and certified under the Seals of the said Commissioners into the King's Court of Chancery, and then the King's Royal Assent be had to the same, any Thing contained in this present Act to the contrary hereof notwithstanding. March. 196. Altered by 13 El. c 9. s. 1.

XVIII. Provided also, That whensoever, and as often as such Commission as is afore limited shall be made and directed to any Person or Persons for the Reformation and Amendment of or in any of the Premisses specified in the said Commission, within the Fees, Liberties, and Possessions of the Principality of Wales, the County Palatine of Chester, or within the Fees, Liberties, and Possessions of any other Place where there is Liberty and Jurisdiction of County Palatine, That in every such Case Two Commissions shall be awarded and made according to the Tenor of the Commission above expressed, One thereof under the Great Seal of England, and the other under the usual Seal of the County Palatine, in Manner and Form as is above provided for the Duchy of Lancaster; any Thing afore rehearsed in this present Act to the contrary notwithstanding. Commissions into a County Palatine.

XIX. And it is provided, and also enacted, That the Royal Assent limited to be had unto the Laws and Ordinances to be made by the said Commissioners, as is aboveSaid, shall be certified into the said Court of Chancery under the King's Privy Seal; (2) and that there shall not any Sum of Money be paid for the same Privy Seal; but for the writing of the same Certificate under the said Privy Seal shall be paid to the Writer thereof ii. s. and not above, nor no other nor greater Sum for any Thing touching or concerning the same Certificate under the same Privy Seal. The King's Royal Assent shall be certified into the Chancery. Altered by 13 El. c. 9. s. 1.

XX. Provided alway, That the Chancellors, and such other as shall have the Custody of the Seals of the said Principality of Wales, or the County Palatine of Chester, or within the Fees, Liberties, and Possessions of any other Place where there is Liberty and Jurisdiction of County Palatine, upon reasonable Request, and upon the Sight of the Commission under the King's Great Seal of his Chancery, shall without Delay make out another Commission under the Seal of the said County Palatine, according to the Tenor of the King's Commission to them shewed under his Great Seal; (2) and to those Commissioners as shall be named by the Lord Chancellor, Lord Treasurer, and the Two Chief Justices, or by Three of them, whereof the Lord Chancellor to be One, except it be within the Fees, and Liberties of the Duchy of Lancaster, within which Fees and Liberties the Commissioners shall be named, and Commissions made, as is afore ordained by this Act; any Thing contained in the said Act, or in any Proviso thereunto added and annexed, to the contrary thereof notwithstanding. (3) This Act to endure for Twenty Years. Commissions in Wales and Counties Palatine. Regist. f. 127. Made perpetual by 3 & 4 Ed 6. c. 8. and explained by 3 Jac. 1. c. 14.

CAP. VI.

For Obligations to be taken by Two Chief Justices, the Mayor of the Staple, and the Recorder of London.

FOrasmuch as the Mayors of the Staple in divers Places of this Realm, where any Staple is kept, in the Presence of the Constables of the same Staple before this Time have and might lawfully take Recognisance or Knowledge for Debts, only concerning and touching the Merchandise of the same Staple, betwixt Merchant and Merchant of the same Staple, according to divers laudable Statutes and Provisions before this Time had, ordained, and made; (2) which Mayors and Constables, many and sundry Times since the making of the same Statute, have taken divers Recognisances and Knowledges of divers of the King's Subjects for Debts, surmising the same Knowledge or Recognisance to be made for Surety of Payment of Sums of Money for such Wares as were or have been bought in the same Staple; where of troth the same Recognisance did not in any wise touch or concern the Merchandise of the same, ne also the Parties, that is to say, the Cognisor, ne the Cognisee, that did Knowledge and take the same Recognisances, were Merchants of the same Staple; (3) which Recognisances and Knowledges, taken in Form aforesaid, are not only clear contrary to the true Meaning and Intent of the same former Estatutes, but also thereby divers great and sundry Inconveniencies, Damages, and Deceits do daily arise and grow to divers of the Subjects of our Sovereign Lord the King, by reason of the misusing of the same; and for as much as the King's Highness, of his most high Wisdom, perceiveth the Misusing and Execution of the same to be contrary to the Form of the said former Statutes, therefore his Pleasure is, that some true, lawful, and reasonable Bond, for Surety of Payment of the Debts of his Subjects, shall be made and devised by true and just Means, which in itself may and shall purport Right and Equity, and also consonant to Reason. Before whom Recognizances of Debt shall be made, and the Form, &c. Statutes of the Staple were devised only for Merchandises of the Staple, between Merchant and Merchant.

II. In Consideration whereof, by the Assent of the King's Highness, his Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and his Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, it is enacted, ordained, and established, That from the First Day of April next coming, the Chief Justice of the King's Bench, and the Chief Justice of the Common Pleas, which now be, or at any Time hereafter shall be, and every of them by himself, and in their Absence out of the Term, the Mayor of the Staple of Westminster, and the Recorder of the City of London, for the time being, jointly together, by his or their Discretions, shall have full Power and Authority to take Recognizances or Knowledges of every of the King's Subjects for the Payment of Debts, according to such Form as hereafter ensueth: Who may take Recognizance in the Nature of a Statute Staple. Co. pl. f. 12. 1 Mod. 185. Co. Lit. 289. b. Hob. 195.

(2) Noverint universi per præsent' me A. B. & C. D. armig' teneri & firmiter obligari Johanni at Style in C. li. sterling' solvend' eidem Johanni aut suo cert' attorn' hoc scriptum ostend' hæred' vel execut' suis in tal' fest' &c. prox' futur' post dat' præsentium; & si defecero vel defecerimus in solutione debit' prædict' volo & concedo; vel sic, volumus & concedimus, quod tunc currat super me, hæred' & executores meos, vel super nos & quemlibet nostrum, hæred' & execut' nostros pœna in statuto stapulæ de debit' pro merchandisis in eadem emptis recuperand' ordinat' & provis' dat' tal' die anno regni regis, &c. The Form of the Recognizance.

III. And that every Obligation that shall be made as is aforesaid, and knowledged before any of the said Chief Justices, or the said Mayor and Recorder, according to this Act, shall be sealed with the Seal of the Party or Parties that shall recognize or knowledge the same, and also with such Seal as the King's Highness shall ordain and appoint for the same, and with the Seal of one of such of the said Justices, or with the Seals of the said Mayor and Recorder, and with his or their Name or Names subscribed, that so shall take the same Recognizance or Knowledge; (2) and that every of the said Two Justices, and the said Mayor and Recorder, By what Seals the same Obligation shall be sealed. Vaughan, 102.

shall have the Custody of one such Seal, by the King's Highness to be appointed, with One like Print, Scripture, and Fashion, which shall severally remain with them to the Intent above rehearsed.

The Clerk of the Recognizances shall inroll them, and shall dwell in London. Hob. 222. By 8 G. 1. c. 25. there shall be Three Rolls, &c.

IV. And further be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That such an honest and discreet Person as shall be assigned by the King's Highness, or the sufficient Deputy or Deputies of the same Persons so to be assigned, shall make and write all such Obligations as shall be acknowledged and recognized by Authority of this Act, and shall cause the same Obligations recognized, and acknowledged in Form as is aforesaid, to be inrolled in Two several Rolls indented, whereof One shall remain with such of the said Justices, or with the said Mayor and Recorder, that so shall take the same Recognizance in Form aforesaid, and the other Roll with the Writer thereof, appointed for the same; (2) and that the said Person, by the King's Highness to be appointed for making, writing, and inrolling such Obligations, or his sufficient Deputy or Deputies, shall be dwelling or abiding in the said City of London, upon Pain to forfeit for every Time that he and his Deputy shall be absent by the Space of Two Days, Ten Pounds.

Certificate of the Recognizance in the Chancery.

V. And further it is enacted by Authority aforesaid, That the said Person so to be assigned by the King's Highness to write, make, and inroll such Obligations, or his sufficient Deputy or Deputies, at the Request of the Creditors, their Executors or Administrators, shall certify such Obligations as shall be taken and recognized by Authority of this Act, into the King's Court of Chancery, under the Seal of the said Person so to be appointed for writing, making, and inrolling such Obligations.

2 Inst. 290. a.

VI. And that every Person and Persons to whom any such Obligation shall be made, knowledged, and inrolled (as is aforesaid) their Executors and Administrators, and the Executors and Administrators of every of them, for Default of Payment of the Debts contained in such Obligations, shall have in every Point, Degree, and Condition, against the said Recognizor and Recognizors, and every of them, their Heirs, Executors, and Administrators, and the Heirs, Executors, and Administrators of every of them, like Process, Execution, Commodity, and Advantage in every Behalf, as hath been used and accustomed before this Time to be had, done, or made, of and upon any Obligation of the Statute of the Staple, and under such Manner and Form, as is for the same Statute of the Staple provided, (2) paying for such Process, and Execution to be had, such like Fees as is accustomed for Process and Execution to be had upon Obligations of the same Statute of the Staple, and not above.

Execution upon a Recognizance acknowledged according to this Statute.

Where the Recognizor shall be relieved by Audita Querela. Bro. Dur. 19.

VII. And that every such Person and Persons that shall be bounden, or otherwise grieved by virtue of any Obligation to be made by Authority of this Act, shall have their like Remedy by Audita Querela, and all other Remedies in the Law, that they might have had in case they had been bounden by Obligation of the Statute of the Staple.

The King shall have 1 ob. in the Pound upon Execution sued. Altered by 8 G. 1. c. 25. s. 3.

VIII. And that every such Person and Persons that shall have Process for Execution to be had by reason of any such Obligation to be made and knowledged according to this Act, shall pay to the King's Highness, his Heirs, or Successors, at the Time of ensealing of the Process for Execution to be had, One Half-peny for every Pound that shall be contained in the Obligation, whereof Execution shall be required, and not above.

The Remedy for Tenant by Recognizance being disseised.

IX. And that every such Person and Persons that shall happen to have any Execution of any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, by reason of any such Obligations to be made and knowledged (as is aforesaid) their Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, and the Executors, Administrators, and Assigns of every of them, if they, or any of them, being put out or disseised, shall have like Remedy in every Point and Condition, as Persons having Execution in and upon any Statute of the Staple, after Execution to them had, may or might have, by virtue of the said Writing Obligatory of the Statute of the Staple, and Execution of the same.

The Justices Clerk's Fee upon every Recognizance.

X. And further be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every of the said Justices, and the said Mayor and Recorder, before whom any such Obligations shall be recognized, shall take for every Knowledge of every One such Recognizance iii. s. iv. d. and not above; (2) and the Clerk that shall write, make, and inroll the same Obligations, iii. s. iv. d. (3) and for the Certificate of every One such Obligation xx. d. (4) and if any of the said Justices, Mayor, Recorder, or Clerk, take of any of the King's Subjects above the Sum or Sums to them limited by this Estatute, that then the said Justices, Mayor, Recorder, or Clerk, that so shall take contrary to the Form aforesaid, shall forfeit for every Time so offending xl. li.

In what Cases Recognizances of Statute Staple may be taken by the Mayor and Constables of the Staple, and in what not.

XI. And further it is enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from the said First Day of April, no Mayor or Constable of the Staple, for the Payment of any Sum or Sums of Money, take any Knowledge or Recognizance of the said Statute of the Staple, of any of the King's Subjects, upon Pain to forfeit for every Time so offending, xl. li. the One Moiety of all and singular the said Penalties to be to the King's Highness, and the other Moiety to the Party that will sue for the same; (2) for the Recovery whereof, the Party that will pursue shall have his Remedy by Information, Action of Debt, Bill, or Plaint in any of the King's Courts, in which no Essoin, Protection, nor Wager of Law shall be admitted. (3) Provided alway, That this Act, nor any Thing therein contained, be in any wise prejudicial or hurtful to any Mayor and Constables of the Staple for any Bond or Writing of the Statute of the Staple to be taken or received between Merchants being free of the same Staple, for Merchandise of the same Staple between them lawfully bought and sold.

Recognizances taken before the Statute 11 Ed. 1. Acton Burnell. 13 Ed. 1. stat. 1. c. 45. 27 Ed. 3. stat. 2. c. 9. 27 El. c. 4. s. 7.

XII. Provided also, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Recognizances before this Time taken before the Mayor and Constables of any of the said Staples, whereof the Sums now be not paid, nor otherwise contented, lawfully avoided, and discharged by the Law, shall be as good and effectual as though they had been verily made for Merchandise of the same Staple, and between Merchant and Merchant of the same Staple, and as they should have been, if this Act had never been had ne made.

The Bill for the Havens in the Weſt Parts.

How certain Havens in Cornwall and Devonſhire may be amended. 27 H. 8. c. 23.

PIteouſly ſheweth, and complaineth unto the King our Sovereign Lord, and to the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, the Inhabitants of the Towns and Ports of Plimouth, Dartmouth, and Teignmouth, in the County of Devonſhire, Falmouth, and Foway, in the County of Cornwall, That where the ſaid Ports have been in Time paſt the principal and moſt commodious Havens and Ports within this Realm for the Road, Surety, and Preſervation of Ships reſorting from all Places of the World, as well in Peril of Storms as otherwiſe. (2) For where before this Time all Manner of Ships being under the Portage of Eight hundred Tuns, reſorting unto any of the ſaid Ports or Havens, might at the low Water eaſily enter into the ſame, and there lie in Surety, what Wind or Tempeſt ſoever did blow, by reaſon whereof not only a great Multitude of Ships, as well of this Realm, as of other Regions and Countries, before this Time have been preſerved and ſaved, but alſo in Time of War the ſaid Havens and Ports have been the greateſt Fortification and Defence of that Part of this Realm, and the ſpecial Preſervation of the great Part of the Navy of the ſame: (3) Which ſaid Ports and Havens been at this preſent Time in Manner utterly decayed and deſtroyed by mean of certain Tin-works, called Stream-works, uſed by certain Perſons within the ſaid Counties; which Perſons more regarding their own private Lucre, than the Commonwealth and Surety of this Realm, have, by working of the ſaid Stream-works, digging, ſearching, and waſhing of the ſame near unto the freſh Rivers, Waters, and low Places, deſcending and coming out of the Lands towards and into the ſaid Ports and Havens to the Sea, conveyed by the Force of the ſaid freſh Rivers a marvellous great Quantity of Sand, Gravel, Stone, Robel, Earth, Slime, and Filth into the ſaid Ports and Havens, and have ſo filled and choaked the ſame, that where before this Time a Ship of the Portage of Eight hundred Tun, as is aforeſaid, might have eaſily entred at a low Water into the ſame, now a Ship of a Hundred can ſcantly enter at the Half Flood, to the Decay and utter Deſtruction of the ſaid Havens and Ports, and alſo to the Ruin and utter Undoing of all the good Towns within the ſaid Counties of Devonſhire and Cornwall, if Remedy be not in that caſe ſpeedily provided: (4) For Reformation whereof, be it enacted by the King our Sovereign Lord, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, That no Perſon or Perſons hereafter ſhall labour or work, or cauſe to be laboured or wrought, in any Manner of Tin-works, called Stream-works, within the ſaid Counties of Devonſhire and Cornwall, nigh to any of the ſaid freſh Waters, Rivers, or low Places, deſcending or having Courſe unto the ſaid Havens or Ports, or any of them, nor ſhall labour, dig, or waſh any Tin in any of the ſaid Tin-works called Stream-works, unleſs the ſaid Digger, Owner, or Waſher ſhall make, or cauſe to be made, ſufficient Hatches and Ties in the End of their Buddles and Cords, and therein put and lay, or cauſe to be put and laid, all the Sand, Stones, Gravel, and Robel digged about the inſearching, finding, and waſhing of the ſaid Tin, there to be wholly and ſurely kept by the ſaid Hatches and Ties, out and from the ſaid freſh Rivers and Water-courſes, or any of them, ſo that the ſaid Sand, Stones, Gravel, and Robel, ne any Part thereof, be for lack of ſuch Hatches or Ties conveyed into the ſaid Ports and Havens, or any of them, (5) upon Pain to forfeit for every Time that any Owner or Tinner ſhall dig or waſh, or cauſe to be digged or waſhed, any Tin contrary to the Form aforeſaid, x. li. the One Half thereof to be to the Uſe of our Sovereign Lord the King, and the other Half thereof to be to any of the Inhabitants of the ſaid Ports, Towns, or Havens, that will ſue for the ſame in any of the King's Courts by Original Writ, Bill, Plaint, Information, or otherwiſe, wherein the Defendant ſhall not be admitted to wage his Law, ne any Protection or Eſſoin ſhall be allowable.

This Act ſhall not be prejudicial to the Officers or Liberties of the Stannaries.

III. Provided alway, That this Act, or any Thing therein contained, be not in any wiſe prejudicial or hurtful to any of the Officers of the Stannary, ne to any of their lawful Liberties, Privileges, Uſages, Laws, or Cuſtoms, ſaving only in the Caſes and Proviſions contained and limited within this preſent Act, which ſhall alway be put in Execution according to the Tenor of this Act; any Uſage, Cuſtom, Privilege, Ordinance, or Liberty to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

IV. And it is enacted, That this Act ſhall begin to take Effect from the Feaſt of St. Michael the Archangel next coming, and not before.

CAP. IX.

An Act that no Perſon ſhall be cited out of the Dioceſs where he or ſhe dwelleth, except in certain Caſes.

Hob. 17, 178, 186.

WHere great Number of the King's Subjects, as well Men, Wives, Servants, as other the King's Subjects, dwelling in divers Dioceſes of this Realm of England, and of Wales, heretofore have been at many Times called by Citations, and other Proceſſes compulſary, to appear in the Arches Audience, and other high Courts of the Archbiſhops of this Realm, far from, and out of the Dioceſe where ſuch Men, Wives, Servants, and other the King's Subjects been inhabitant and dwelling, (2) and many Times to anſwer to ſurmiſed and feigned Cauſes, and Suits of Defamation, withholding of Tithes, and ſuch other like Cauſes and Matters, which have been ſued more for Malice, and for Vexation, than for any juſt Cauſe of Suit.

II. And where Certificate hath been made by the Summoner, Apparator, or any ſuch light literate Perſon, that the Party againſt whom any ſuch Citation hath been awarded, hath been cited or ſummoned, and thereupon the ſame Party, ſo certified to be cited or ſummoned, hath not appeared according to the Certificate, the ſame Party therefore hath been excommunicated, or at the leaſt ſuſpended from all Divine Service; (2) and thereupon, before that he or ſhe could be abſolved, hath been compelled, not only to pay the Fees of the Court whereunto he or ſhe was ſo called by Citation, or other Proceſs, amounting to the Sum of ii. s. or xx. d. at the leaſt; but alſo to pay to the Summoner, Apparator, or other light literate Perſon, by whom he or ſhe was ſo certified to be ſummoned, for every Mile being diſtant from the Place where he or ſhe then dwelled, unto the ſame Court whereunto he or ſhe was ſo cited or ſummoned to appear, ii. d. to the great Charge and Impoveriſhment of the King's Subjects, and to the great Occaſion of Miſbehaviour and miſliving of Wives, Women, and Servants, and to the great Impairment and Diminution of their good Names and Honeſties: (3) Be it therefore enacted by the King our Sovereign Lord, with the Aſſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, That no Manner Perſon ſhall be from henceforth cited or ſummoned, or otherwiſe called to appear by himſelf, or herſelf, or by any Procurator, before any Ordinary, Archdeacon, Commiſſary, Official, or any other Judge Spiritual, out of the Dioceſe, or peculiar Juriſdiction where the Perſon which ſhall be cited, ſummoned, or otherwiſe (as is aforeſaid) called, ſhall be inhabiting and dwelling, at the Time of awarding, or going forth of the ſame Citation or Summons; (4) except that it ſhall be for, in, or upon any of the Caſes or Cauſes hereafter written; that is to ſay, for any Spiritual Offence, or Cauſe committed or done, or omitted, [a] forſlewed, or neglected to be done, contrary to Right or Duty, by the Biſhop, Archdeacon, Commiſſary, Official, or other Perſons having Spiritual Juriſdiction, or being a Spiritual Judge, or by any other Perſon or Perſons within the Dioceſe, or other Juriſdiction, whereunto he or ſhe ſhall be cited, or otherwiſe lawfully called to appear and anſwer.

VII. Provided always, That this Act be not in any wiſe hurtful or prejudicial to the Archbiſhop of York, nor to his Succeſſors, of, for, or concerning Probate of Teſtaments within his Province and Juriſdiction, by Reaſon of any Prerogative; any thing in this Act to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

CAP. X.

An Act for Feoffments and Aſſurances of Lands and Tenements made to the Uſe of any Pariſh Church, Chapel, or ſuch like.

Feoffments and Aſſurances of Lands, Tenements, &c. to Churches, Commonalties, &c. found prejudicial to the King and his Subjects.

WHere by Reaſon of Feoffments, Fines, Recoveries, and other Eſtates, and Aſſurances, made of Truſts, of Manors, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, to the Uſe of Pariſh Churches, Chapels, Church-Wardens, Guilds, Fraternities, Comminalties, Companies, or Brotherheads erected and made of Devotion, or by common Aſſent of the People without any Corporation, and alſo by Reaſon of Feoffments, Fines, Recoveries, Wills, and other Acts made to any Uſes aforeſaid, or to the Uſes and Intents to have Obites perpetual, or a continual Service of a Prieſt for ever, or for Threeſcore, or Fourſcore Years, founden of the Iſſues and Profits of the Manors, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, whereof ſuch Feoffments, Fines, Recoveries, Wills, and other Acts been made, or that the Feoffees, Coniſees, Recoverers, or other Perſons, and their Heirs thereof ſeiſed, ſhall take, levy, receive, and perceive, or cauſe or ſuffer to be taken, levied, and perceived the Iſſues, Revenues, and Profits thereof, and the ſame to diſpoſe, pay, convert, or otherwiſe imploy or ſuffer, or cauſe to be diſpoſed, paid, converted, or imployed to any ſuch Uſes, Intents, or Purpoſes, as been above ſpecified, or to any other like Uſes and Intents; there groweth and iſſueth to the King our Sovereign Lord, and to other Lords and Subjects of the Realm, the ſame like Loſſes and Inconveniencies, and is as much prejudicial to them, as doth, and is, in Caſe where Lands be aliened into Mortmain:

Aſſurances of Lands to Churches, Chapels, &c. ſhall be void. Cro. El. 288. 11 Co. 71.

II. Be it therefore enacted by the King our Sovereign Lord, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, That all and every ſuch Uſes, Intents, and Purpoſes, of what Name, Nature, or Quality they ſhall be called, that ſhall be deviſed, covenanted, made, declared, or in any wiſe ordained, after the Firſt Day of March, in the Three and twentieth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord King HENRY the Eighth, by any Feoffee, Recoverer, or Coniſee, or by any other Perſon or Perſons to whoſe Uſe any ſuch Feoffee, Recoverer, or Coniſee ſhall be ſeiſed, of any Manors, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or of the Iſſues, Revenues, and Profits of them, or any of them, ſhall be utterly void, and of no Strength, Virtue, nor Effect in the Law.

Proviſo for Aſſurances of Lands to Churches, &c. for xx. Years.

III. Provided alway, That it ſhall be lawful to every Perſon, being ſeiſed of any Manors, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, to his own proper Uſe, or having Feoffees, Recoverers, or Coniſees to his Uſe, to make, ordain, or deviſe, or cauſe to be made, ordained, or deviſed, any of the Uſes, Intents, or Purpoſes above ſpecified, in ſuch Manner as they might have done before the making of this Act, and as if this Act had never been had ne made; (2) ſo that no ſuch Uſes, Intents, or Purpoſes to be ſo made, ordained, or deviſed after the ſaid Firſt Day of March, be not in any wiſe made, ordained, deviſed, or appointed, to endure, continue, or abide by any Craft, Colour, Terms, Sentences, Clauſes, Words, or other Means, above the Term of Twenty Years next after the firſt making and beginning of any ſuch Uſes, Intents, or Purpoſes.

Collateral Aſſurances in defrauding of the Statute ſhall be void.

IV. And it is further enacted, That if any Perſon or Perſons, in Defraud of this Statute, bind or ordain any their Heirs or Succeſſors, or any other Perſon or Perſons, that they ſhall ſuffer ſuch Uſes, Intents, and Purpoſes to endure and continue, contrary to this Act, upon Pains or Penalties of Loſſes of any other Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or of any other Thing or Things; or do attempt or deviſe by any Colour, Craft, or Means, any Thing or Things, to make any ſuch Uſes, Intents, or Purpoſes to be declared, contrary to the true Meaning of this Act, to continue or abide for any longer Time or Seaſon than is above limited for the ſame; that then every ſuch Pain, Penalty, Craft, Colour, and every other Thing and Things, of what Kind, Nature, or Quality ſoever it be that ſhall be ſo made, ordained, or deviſed in Defraud of this Act, ſhall be utterly void in the Law to all Intents; and that this Statute ſhall be always interpreted and expounded, as beneficially as may be, to the Deſtruction and utter avoiding of ſuch Uſes, Intents, and Purpoſes therein above remembred, and of all other like Uſes and Intents, otherwiſe than only after ſuch Manner as is afore by this preſent Act provided.

V. Pro-

Customs of Cities and Towns to devise Lands saved.

V. Provided alway, That in such Cities, and Towns Corporate, where by their ancient Customs they have good and lawful Authorities to devise into Mortmain the Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, within the same Cities or Towns Corporate, that this Act shall not be in any wise prejudicial or hurtful to any such Custom.

Proviso for the Devises of the Executors of Jannis and Terry of the City of Norwich.

VI. Provided alway, That this Act, ne any Thing therein contained, shall extend, or be in any wise prejudicial, to hinder or impair any such Ordinances, Devices, or Declarations of Uses, as shall hereafter be made and declared in Writing, by the Executors of the Testaments and last Wills of Robert Jannis and John Terry, late Aldermen of the City of Norwich, now deceased, or by the Executors or the Survivor of the Executors of either of them, of any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, not amounting in the whole above the clear yearly Value of Forty Pounds, to be imployed and converted to and for the Discharge of Tolls and Customs within the said City, and at the Gates of the same, for the Discharge of the poor People within the same City, of Tares and Tallages hereafter to be assessed and levied, and for the cleansing of the Streets of the same City, or for any of the said good Purposes, according to the true Intents and Meanings of the said last Wills and Testaments, and either of them; so that the same Ordinances, Devices, and Declarations be had, made, and certified in writing into the King's Court of Chancery, within Two Years next ensuing the Feast of Easter next coming.

CAP. XI.

An Act for Clerks convict breaking Prison.

WHERE divers Persons being convict of Murder or Felony, having the Privilege of their Clergy, and delivered to the Ordinaries, afterwards willfully break the Prisons of the Ordinaries, and escape their Ways, doing and committing great, horrible, and detestable Offences; and as hitherto for such wilful breaking of Prisons of Ordinaries by Clerks convict, hath not been provided any great Penalty, whereby they should stand in dread of doing the same: (2) Be it therefore enacted by Authority of this present Parliament, That if any Clerk convict, being in Prison of any Ordinary, wilfully break the said Prison, and escape his Way out of the same, that then every such breaking of Prison and Escape, shall be from henceforth deemed and adjudged Felony, and the Offender therein shall have and suffer such Pain of Death and Penalty, and Loss of his Lands and Goods, as for other Felonies is accustomed by the Laws of this Realm, and shall not in any wise be admitted to have the Privilege or Benefit of his Clergy, nor enjoy any Sanctuary for the same.

It is Felony for a Clerk convict, being in the Ordinary's Prison, to break the same. Rep. 1 Ed. 6. c. 12.

They which be in holy Orders, shall be delivered to the Ordinary. Altered 28 H. 8. c. 1.

II. Provided alway, That if any such Offender be within holy Orders, that is to say, of the Orders of Subdeacon, Deacon, or Priesthood, that then after he is convict of the Premisses, he shall be delivered to the Ordinary, there to remain without any Purgation.

The Ordinary may disgrade a Clerk convict, and send him to the King's Bench. 23 H. 8. c. 1.

III. And it is enacted, That it shall be at the Liberty of the Ordinary, to disgrade any such Offender after he is found guilty, and delivered to him as a Clerk convict, and send him before the King in his Bench, with Letters witnessing the said disgrading, (2) and thereupon the Justices of the King's Bench, having the Record of his Conviction, shall have Power and Authority to give Judgement against every such Offender, being convicted and disgraded, that he shall suffer Death, like as they might do in case the same Offender had been a Lay-man, and arraigned, and found guilty afore them of the said Offence, the delivering of such Offender afore to the Ordinary notwithstanding.

CAP. XII.

An Act for the Exaction of Tolls by the Severn Side.

WHERE the King's Subjects, passing upon the River and Water of Severn, have used Time out of Mind, to have and use a certain Path of One Foot and a Half Broad on every Side of the said River, for drawing up by Lines or Ropes, their Trows, Barges, Boats, and other Vessels passing or re-passing on the said River of Severn, with Wine, or any other Merchandise, without any Imposition, Tax, or Toll to be demanded of them that should carry Wine in any of the said Vessels, for the said passing and drawing in the said Paths accustomed, till now of late certain covetous Persons have perturbed and interrupted many of the King's Subjects, haling and drawing up their Vessels in the said Paths, taking of them Fines, and Draughts, and Bottles of Wine, and yet daily use to take, to the Disturbance and Loss to many of the King's Subjects:

The Penalty for hindring Passengers upon the Banks of the River of Severn, or for demanding of Toll.

II. Be it therefore enacted by the King our Sovereign Lord, and the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, That no Person or Persons interrupt by any Obstacle, Let, or otherwise, any Person or Persons passing or re-passing, over and upon every of the said Paths accustomed, nor also ask, take, or demand any Toll, called a Draught, or Bottle of Wine, or any other Tax or Imposition of any of the King's Subjects there going in the said Paths accustomed, upon every Side of the River of Severn, there haling or drawing their Boats, Trows, or Vessels, (2) upon Pain to forfeit for every Time that he or they so shall interrupt any of the King's Subjects, or ask or take any such Imposition, by what Name soever it be called, Forty Shillings; the One Half thereof to be to the King our Sovereign Lord, and the other Half to the Party grieved, that will sue for the same by Bill, Plaint, Information, or otherwise, in the which Suit no Essoin, Wager of Law, nor Protection shall be allowed.

9 H. 6. c. 5. 19 H. 7. c. 18.

CAP. XIII.

An Act for Trial of Murders in Cities and Towns.

FOrasmuch as Trials in Murders and Felonies in Cities, Boroughs, and Towns Corporate within this Realm, having Authority to proceed in the Deliverance of such Offenders, been oftentimes deferred and delayed, by reason of Challenge of such Offenders, for lack of Sufficiency of Freehold, to the great Hindrance of Justice: (2) It may therefore be enacted by Authority of this present Parliament, That every Person and Persons, being the King's natural Subject born, which either by the Name

Name of a Citizen, or of a Freeman, or any other Name, doth enjoy and uſe the Liberties and Privileges of any City, Borough, or Town Corporate, where he dwelleth and maketh his Abode, being worth in moveable Goods and Subſtance to the clear Value of Forty Pounds, be from henceforth admitted in Trial of Murders and Felonies in every Seſſions and Gaol-delivery, to be kept and holden in and for the Liberty of ſuch Cities, Boroughs, and Towns Corporate, albeit they have no Freehold; any Act, Statute, Uſe, Cuſtom, or Ordinance to the contrary hereof notwithſtanding.

Trial of Felons in Corporate Towns ſhall be by Men worth xl. li. in Goods.

II. Provided alway, That this Act do not extend, in any Manner of wiſe, to any Knight or Eſquire, dwelling, abiding, or reſorting in or to any ſuch City, Town, or Borough Corporate, any thing in the ſame Act mentioned or declared to the contrary hereof notwithſtanding.

CAP. XIV.

Proceſs of Outlawry to lie in Actions, on 5 RICH. 2. and in Covenant and Annuity.

FOraſmuch as there is great Delay in Actions of Treſpaſs brought upon the Statute of RICHARD the Second, made in the Fifth Year of his Reign, againſt them that make Entries into any Lands or Tenements where their Entry is not given by the Law, and alſo in Actions of Annuity, and Actions of Covenant, becauſe there lieth no Proceſs of Outlawry in ſuch Nature of Actions: (2) For Reformation whereof, it may pleaſe the King's Highneſs, by the Advice of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, to ordain and enact, That like Proceſs be had hereafter in every Action from henceforth to be brought upon the ſaid Statute of Anno quinto, as is in a common Action of Treſpaſs at the Common Law, (3) and that alſo like Proceſs be had in every Writ of Annuity and Covenant hereafter to be ſued, as is in an Action of Debt.

Like Proceſs to be had in every Writ of Annuity and Covenant, as in an Action of Debt.

CAP. XVIII.

For pulling down of Piles and Fiſhgarths in the Rivers Ouſe and Humber.

PR. THE Mayor, Sheriffs, and Commonalty of the City of York, and other the King's true Subjects inhabiting and dwelling nigh unto the River of Ouſe, and the Water of Humber, and all other Occupiers of the ſame River and Water, lamentably complaining, ſhewn unto our Sovereign Lord the King, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, That where the ſaid City, being one of the moſt ancient Cities of this Realm, hath been much relieved, maintained, and ſupported by the ſaid River of Ouſe, and Water of Humber, which be the common and direct Paſſage and Way from Hull unto York aforeſaid, by reaſon that many Ships, Keyls, Cogs, and Boats, and other Veſſels have heretofore had their frank Paſſages, without Let, Impediment, or Interruption, in and upon the ſaid River and Water of Ouſe, and Humber, from divers Parts of this Realm unto the ſaid City, whereby the ſaid City hath hitherto moſt chiefly been advanced; (2) and now of late certain Perſons, ſtudying only for their own private Lucre, not regarding the Common Weal, but daily imagining the utter Deſtruction, Ruin, and Decay of the ſaid City, and the Countries adjoining upon the ſaid River of Ouſe, and Water of Humber, and Occupiers thereof, have, and daily do keep, preſerve, and maintain certain Engines for taking of Fiſh in the ſaid River and Water of Ouſe, and Humber, commonly called Fiſhgarths, and ſet in the ſaid River and Water, in ſuch Places of the ſame where Ships ſhould have their liberal and direct Paſſage, in the midſt of the Streams of the ſaid River of Ouſe, and Water of Humber, Stakes, Piles, and other Things, in and upon the common Paſſage for Ships, Keyls, Cogs, Boats, and other Veſſels, at divers and many Places in the ſaid River of Ouſe, and Water of Humber; by reaſon whereof, not only the ſaid Ships, Keyls, Cogs, Boats, and other Veſſels are daily in Jeopardy, and Men, Children, Goods, and Merchandiſes in the ſame, of late have been, and daily be like more to increaſe to be drowned, ſlain, and deſtroyed, but alſo the Brood and Fry of Fiſh in the ſaid River, and Water of Ouſe, and Humber, be commonly thereby deſtroyed and putrified, to the utter Impoveriſhment and Deſtruction of the ſaid City, unleſs ſpeedy Remedy be in this Behalf ſhortly provided:

The Inconveniencies enſuing the ſetting of Fiſhgarths, Stakes, Piles, &c. in Ouſe and Humber.

A Commiſſion ſhall be directed to viij. Perſons to cauſe ſuch Fiſhgarths, Piles, &c. ſet in the Rivers Ouſe and Humber to be pulled down. Two Piles for Water-Marks ſhall be ſet up in the River. The Lord Chancellor may upon Requeſt grant the like Commiſſion at all Times. No Fiſhgarth or other Engine ſhall be ſet up in Ouſe or Humber. With what Nets Men ſhall fiſh. The Forfeiture of the Offenders, and who ſhall have it.
